

MEHLHORN BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD AT EL PASO

FOUR ROUNDS NEGOTIATED IN 17 UNDER

El Paso, Texas (P)—"Wild Bill" Mehlhorn playing phenomenal golf broke the world's record in the El Paso $2,000 open when Sunday he shot a score of 17 under par for a total of 271 in the four rounds on the difficult 18 hole country club course.

Although "Wild Bill's" magic club established a world's tournament record, he won only a $500 prize. But the easterner's small award made little difference to him for he probably wouldn't take a million dollars for the score he hung up here.

Here's how Bill did it: Saturday the New Yorker turned in a score of 137 in the first 36 holes and his 36 holes Sunday with a 134 made the 271 total, or 17 under par. Par for the four rounds, or 72 holes, is 288.

On the last nine holes Sunday afternoon old man par received a bad drubbing when "Wild Bill" made at 31, five strokes under par. He accomplished this feat by making one eagle with a long putt, four birdies and shooting two holes in par.

Bobby Cruickshank, after making a wonderful start on his first five holes of the second round, when he made four birdies and parred one it looked like he would be the easterner's closest rival, but he fell below on the green on his last nine holes. Espinosa also started the last 18 trailing Mehlhorn by one stroke.

Bobby Cruickshank came in second with a 277; Tony Mareno and Al Espinosa were tied for third place with a 278; Harry Cooper, fourth with 280 and Al Watrous with 282.

'IN OLD ARIZONA' FILMED IN DESERT

The difficulties attendant upon manufacturing talkies motion pictures out of doors have been fairly well conquered by the Fox Corporation, which is casting upon Bligh's Capitol screen a thoroughly entertaining production. "In Old Arizona" is the first motion picture drama of feature length with its attendant sounds synchronously recorded, this production is unique in cinema annals.

While most of the movie directors stayed in Hollywood waiting for the completion of sound-proof stages for the manufacture of the talking pictures, Raoul Walsh took a troupe of Fox actors and Movietone equipment to desert country in one of the southwestern states where the only traffic noise was made by coyotes demanding gangway of rattlesnakes. There he found a heaven for directors of audible motion picture. The silence of the desert was golden.

Coast League President To Be Named Soon; Lane Desires Judge Mc Credie

By JAMES SHEEHY Hollywood, Calif. (UP)—Bill Lane was up before the chickens in Hollywood early Monday searching the Roosevelt hotel in hopes of locating a fifth vote that will make Judge W. W. McCredie of Portland president of the Pacific coast league.

The old hard rock miner of Utah, host to the league directors in meeting here, knocked at the door of Lew Moreing. He heard a faint response or grunt which he interpreted to mean that the Sacramento owner might swing over and break the deadlock that has existed between McCredie and Bill McCarthy since the Portland meeting last November.

But as the directors gathered, Lane could see Harry A. Williams, incumbent in the office. Williams is better than even money bet to continue in the $10,000 per annum job, even if for but one year. Jim Woods, manager of the Billmore hotel might be persuaded to accept and Al Baum of San Francisco loomed as an outside contender unless Moreing swings over with Portland, Seattle, Hollywood and Oakland to put the genial Judge McCredie in office.

The matter of adopting a schedule agreeable to all was to be considered. The serious-visaged Bill Klepper of Seattle has an idea that Seattle and Portland clubs should remain away from the northern cities until late in April when the weather is in accord with baseball.

However, after a two-day storm he may have decided that southern California rains—even though less frequent—were just as wet as the Washington and Oregon variety.

It appeared that the split season, tried out last season, would be voted soon when the directors went in to a luncheon. Portland, Seattle, Oakland, San Francisco and Missions are said to be set against it.

The usual grill room gossip over trades in the air, but the magnates are on guard lest in a moment of inebriation some rival owner slip them a left-handed catcher late of the Phillies.

THREE FAR WESTERN AMATEUR BOXING CHAMPIONS

Portland, bantamweight; Francis Burke, San Francisco Olympic Club, welterweight, and Clarence Doyle, San Francisco Olympic Club, heavyweight.

SPENCER WILL DECIDE ENOCH BAGSHAW CASE

Seattle, (P)—Whether Enoch Bagshaw is to remain as head football coach of the University of Washington was still a question Monday, with the student board of control insisting that he be ousted and the faculty athletic committee, as strongly determined that he remain. With the two bodies to whom coaches are responsible, deadlocked, it was up to President M. Lyle Spencer to decide whether Bagshaw will finish the three remaining years of his contract. Dr. Spencer has said that he will be guided entirely by the legal phases of the dispute.

Confronted with a compromise proposal of the faculty committee to add a backfield coach to the staff and keep the "little giant" at the head, the student board turned to a lawyer for legal advice in the event Dr. Spencer denies their pleas. A special committee worked Sunday formulating a bill of particulars reciting students' grievances against Bagshaw. This is to be presented to Dr. Spencer by a special committee consisting of the nine student members of the board of control as soon as he grants them an interview.

GOLFERS ELECT AT SILVERTON

Silverton—At the regular annual business meeting of the members of the Silverton Golf club held Saturday evening in Bill's Practice room over the Wooden Mills store, the following board of directors was elected for the coming year: M. C. Woodard, Charles A. Reynolds, Dr. A. D. Woodmansee, Dr. R. Klein-sorge, R. A. Cowden, C. E. Ross and George Steelhammer. This board will meet in the future and elect officers.

The matter of the club's finances was discussed at length inasmuch as the club is $7700.00 in debt at the present time. There are now 80 members. A committee that had previously been appointed to make plans for finances, suggested that the membership stock be raised from $125.00 to $225 per share, to be payable either in a lump sum or in a series of notes maturing annually.

Another idea is to increase the monthly dues. The board of directors will dig deep into these two suggested ideas and offer what they consider the better proposition at the next meeting, for the members either to accept or to reject.

There was also some discussion as to making material improvements on their nine-hole course, which they stated it took $300 per month to operate.

Income of the federal railways of Finland have nearly doubled in the past 15 years.

Bunion Makers Start Training For 1929 Trek

New York (P)—C. C. Pyle set out in his hand crusher Monday to chart the course for the "bunion derby" of 1929, which is to proceed from New York City to Los Angeles, starting March 31.

Despite the financial losses of the 1928 venture, the promoter bubbled over with his never-failing optimism as he announced that he had secured training quarters for his athletes at Rockaway Park, Long Island, where training for the long trek will start March 11.

Pyle said he expected 250 entries, despite the fact that he has raised the entrance fee from $25 to $300. He is offering $60,000 in prizes, and says he has entries already from runners and walkers of many European and South American countries as well as 39 from Canada.

SHARKEY WILL TUNE UP WITH K O CHRISTNER

New York, (P)—The fate of the proposed heavyweight elimination bout between Jack Sharkey of Boston and Young Stribling of Georgia rests in no small measure upon the ham-like right hand of K. O. Christner, a reformed rubber peddler from Akron, Ohio.

On Friday night, Christner meets Sharkey in what is known as a "tune-up" bout for the loquacious Lithuanian. While the flistic experts do not concede such a possibility, the Akron heavyweight is in a position to create considerable discord in the tune-up process by dealing Sharkey an emphatic slap upon the whiskers.

Such a slap, when dealt by the former tire-pit worker, has been known to flatten heavyweights of Sharkey's latitude and longitude—Knute Hansen among others. The blow with which Christner backed Hansen to the canvas out in Ohio was felt in New York, where several financiers had pooled their market profits to back the Dane as the coming heavyweight champion.

It is safe to say that a similar blow to Sharkey's chin would be heard in the most remote regions of Florida. Christner can deliver a knockout punch under the proper circumstances. Whether such circumstances will exist at Madison Square Garden Friday night remains to be seen.

In the event that he upsets the best laid plans for the $500,000 venture by disposing of one of its two proposed principals, the former rubber peddler will be offered the position of alternate against Young Stribling, who apparently does not care whom he fights.

Christner already is signed to meet the Georgian in the event of a victory over Sharkey, but this little matter is being kept a secret by the boys in Madison Square Garden who wish to spring it with appropriate ballyhoo about Wednesday morning.

NORMAL SCHOOL BEATS COLUMBIA

The Normal team made the first four points of the game, and were in the lead at the end of the half by 12 to 7. Ayres of the Normal played very good floor work at forward. ## INDIANS HOPE FOR BEST; ARE NOT TOO GOOD

Cleveland, (P)—The Cleveland Indians will enter the 1929 campaign noncommittal on their prospects but hoping for the best from one of the most thoroughly overhauled lineups in the American league.

"We hope we have a better club than last year," was the only comment forthcoming from Billy Evans, general manager of the tribe, and he admitted that the Redskins could fare much better this season and still not be much of an improvement over last year's seventh place outfit.

Outside of the moundmen, only the veteran Charley Jamieson in left field, Carl Lind at second base and Luke Sewell behind the bat will be found in their customary positions as the tribe now stacks up on paper.

The seemingly eternal hunt for a successor to Tris Speaker has resulted in the purchase of Dick Per-ter from Baltimore and Earl Averhill from San Francisco, both slugging outfielders who cost $45,000 each.

Ollie Tucker of New Orleans, Charley Dorman from Tyler, Texas, and John Gill, from Decatur may help.

Line will be back at second, but an otherwise revamped infield will find Sewell shifted from short to third, Johnny Hodapp moved from third to first; and Tavenner, obtained with Pitcher Kenneth Holloway from Detroit for George Ulile, is slated for short.

The catching department will remain the same—Luke Sewell, Myatt and Autry.

Hudlin, Miller, Miljus, Grant, Shute and Underhill are holdover hurlers available to Manager Roger Peckinpaugh.
