

LOCALS

When William H. Pierce, Portland, put on too much speed with his automobile Saturday evening he got himself into quite a lot of trouble. He was overhauled by a traffic officer and a quantity of liquor found in his possession. He was subsequently released after putting up $100 bail money.

Blanket Sale! $3.95. Miller's 18'

Frank Tichenor, ex-representative from Curry county, called at the statehouse Monday morning to visit old friends. Tichenor was enroute to his home at Port Orford.

Dad's delicious Popcorn. The Ace 18'

Officers arrested two motorists Saturday night for having more than three persons in the driver's seat. They were R. C. Irvine, of Independence and R. P. Kerr, Marion hotel, Salem.

Special announcement Page 12. 18'

After the three day recess the house of representatives was opened Monday morning with prayer by Rev. W. C. Kantner, one of the best known clergymen in the Willamette valley. For a number of years Kantner was pastor of the First Congregational church of Salem, and he has held pastorates in Albany, Corvallis, Philomath and Portland.

Boxing match, Fraternal Temple tonight. Free dancing after match. 18'

Five speeders were overhauled by traffic officers over the week end. They include Harold Atkinson, 386 Rural avenue; E. M. Rogers, Everett, Wash.; Melvin Clemen, Route 4, Salem; John Gold Jr., 961 North Capitol street and R. S. Cutlip, Marshfield. Cutlip was fined $7.50.

Boxing match Fraternal Temple tonight. Free dancing after match. 18'

Bruce Dennis, former senator from Union county and a member of the Carkin property tax relief commission, was a visitor about the statehouse Monday, stopping off enroute to Portland. Bruce is now located in Klamath Falls as publisher of the Evening Herald and the Klamath News.

Free Oregon City Motor Robe with every Oregon City 2-trousers suit, topcoat or overcoat. Emmons', 428 State Street. 18'

Albert Krenesting, 369 Rural avenue, was arrested Saturday evening for making a reverse turn with his automobile at an intersection where this sort of driving is forbidden.

Blanket Sale! $3.95. Miller's 18'

George Brandenburg, secretary and general manager of the Oregon Motor association, made his first appearance in the legislative halls Monday morning, but denied that he was down for any other purpose than to get acquainted.

Special announcement Page 12. 18'

Salem alumni and former students of the University of Oregon are sponsoring a get-together dinner at the Grey Bell Thursday evening to meet Arnold Benson, Hall, president of the university, Earl Carl Brown Barker, vice-president. Earl Nelson is in charge of the arrangements.

Dr. S. Ralph Dippel, practice limited to extraction of teeth, dental X-ray, auricular treatment. First National Bank Bldg. 18'

Failure to stop at a through street caused the arrest Sunday evening of Lawson G. Bradley, Bligh hotel.

For Rent: Large house $30. Furnace, close in, just south of new state building on 12th street. Vacant. Becke & Hendricks, 189 High street.

The biennial dinner given by Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital, to the newspaper men covering the legislative session will be held Tuesday evening. It is announced by Elbert Bede, reading clerk of the house, editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, special legislative correspondent for the Eugene Register and sergeant-at-arms for the press dinner.

Want used furniture. Phone 511. *

William A. Schuyler, driver of a bus between Malheur and Portland, arrested recently on a non-support charge was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Small Monday morning. The case was continued until Thursday, while Schuyler was released on underwriting bail.

Atwater Kent All-Electric Radios at Wick Brothers.

The largest crowd of boys ever assembled at the Y. M. C. A. spent the afternoon Saturday at the association, according to officials of the "Y." It is estimated that over 400 youngsters were on the two gym floors, in the pool and in the lobby. The cold weather is believed responsible for the large crowd, the warmth of the association rooms being much more comfortable than the freezing weather outside.

Blanket Sale! $3.95. Miller's 18'

The Young Men's division dinner of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the association Tuesday evening at 6:15. John Carkin, former speaker of the house of representatives, originally scheduled to speak has found that he will not be able to fill the engagement. Another speaker will be chosen later.

Men's quality suits at bargain prices. Fuller's up-stairs store at 125 North Liberty street.

The regular weekly Red Cross classes held by the Marion County Health demonstration will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, with a special meeting on Wednesday. The second division Thursday. Both classes are held in the home economics room of the high school building between 3 and 5. Martha Harrison is the instructor of the second division and Miss Elizabeth Freeman of the first.

Special announcement Page 12. 18'

Dr. E. L. Russell, director of medical service of the Marion County Health demonstration, with Miss Ruby Braitzka assisting will conduct an examination of children at the North and Central Howell schools Tuesday.

For Rent: Large 5 room flat with furnace $22.50. Close in at 654 Ferry. Vacant. Adults. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High Street. 18'

W. P. Norma, of Woodburn, was in the city Monday conferring with Mrs. Mary Fulkerson, county school superintendent.

A living love letter. Your photograph in a Hart-O-Graf, Gurnell & Robb Studio. 18'

Desertion at Glenwood Springs, Colo. In August, 1928, it charged against Benjamin M. Holz by Marie Holz. They were married in Glenwood Springs, April 1926, and have one son who is now self-supporting.

See Vick Brothers for Atwater Kent Radios.

Upon order of Judge L. H. McMahon, the case of Anna L. Larson vs. Equitable Life Assurance society has been dismissed without prejudice with each party of the action to pay their own costs.

Blanket Sale! $3.95. Miller's 18'

Notice of appeal to the state supreme court has been filed in the case of Wesley Versteeg vs. L. M. Ramage and Floyd Anderson. The jury in the circuit court awarded Versteeg judgment of $1350 on November 23, 1928.

Thomas Bros. Mellow Moon Wed. 20

Sophia Meyer is named executrix and August Meyer, W. W. McKinney, and W. A. Smithers, appraisers, in an order signed by County Judge J. C. Seligmund. The estate has a probable value of $15,000.

Free Indian Blankets with every Oregon City 2-trousers suit, topcoat or overcoat. Emmons', 428 State Street. 18'

The estate of Benjamin F. Boughty is appraised at $14,744 by H. T. Small, M. O. Gunderson and C. A. Reynolds.

Special announcement Page 12. 18'

Peter N. Jacobson left an estate valued at $9000 according to the report of the appraisers, Ed R. Adams, A. O. Broten and Olga Alrick.

Heavy part wool plaid blankets in this final clearance at $3.95. Blue, orchid, rose, Nile green, etc. Our regular $4.50, $5, $5.50 blankets including these fine Beacon qualities. Miller's. 18'

Special announcement Page 12. 18'

Marriage licenses have been issued to Adam Reznicek, Jr. and Myrtle Robson, both of Gervais, Route 1; Charles Edwards Haney and Vera Margaret Zettie, both of Portland and Benjamin A. Jessup and Marguerite Heister, both of Portland.

Thomas Bros. Mellow Moon Wed. 20

"How Swimming Grew Up," a water pageant which was staged by a group of girls New Year's day under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and which was declared to be one of the best things of its kind ever held here will be repeated Wednesday evening in the Y. M. C. A. pool. The pageant will start at 7:30 and the doors to the pool will close as soon as the available standing room has been taken. The pageant is being repeated in order that several hundred persons who were not able to gain admission to the pool room New Year's day may have a chance to see the performance.

Blanket Sale! $3.95. Miller's 18'

A verdict for the defendants was returned in circuit court Saturday in the case of Hartford Accident Commission against Lisette Timme. Katie B. Marsters was foreman of the jury.

Monday morning the case of Gas-kill vs. Cree, action for money, was slated to be heard before Judge Kelly, and the case of Freyre St. Benedict's abbey set for the afternoon.

The case of Mary E. Vernon against R. N. Stanfield has been dismissed in circuit court on stipulation.

An order has been entered in circuit court dismissing the case of J. W. Thomas against A. R. Baker.

The county court has accepted the resignation of W. W. Hawkins as constable of the Silverton justices of the peace district. No successor has as yet been named.

W. T. Grier of Kingwood Park has gone to San Francisco, where he was called by the death of his mother, who died Sunday morning. This is the second death in his family during the past month. Mrs. Grier's mother, Mrs. Packard, having died during the holidays after a long illness in her home at Portland.

Judge P. H. D'Arcy has been invited to speak before the Ben Franklin club, composed of commercial printers of the valley, on February 1 in commemoration of the birth of Horace Greeley, which falls on February 3. Judge D'Arcy addressed the club on the life of Benjamin Franklin at its regular meeting Friday. Judge D'Arcy is an old-time printer and an honorary member of the club.

The Methodist Men's council of the First Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting in the church Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Senator A. W. Norblad, president of the state senate is scheduled to give the talk of the evening. Interested persons are invited to attend the meeting.

The Portland Firemen's quartet will be a feature offered at the Salem firemen's annual ball to be given at Crystal Garden January 31. It was announced. After all expenses are paid, 50 per cent of the net proceeds will be donated to the Associated Charities fund. It was announced by Otto Klitt, manager of the hall in which the affair will be staged.

Dr. Estill L. Brunk, director of dental work for the Marion county health demonstration will examine children of the Washington school Tuesday.

Alford Enea, who was caught by Officer Edwards in the act of opening the door of an automobile, which did not belong to him, is being held at the city jail for investigation. A quantity of stuff which officers believe is the property of motorists is being held at the city jail. Persons who have lost accessories from their cars recently are invited to go to the city hall and see if they can identify their property.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST AT AIR MEET

The oldest and youngest aviators met in Miami, Fla. at the American air meet when Charles, Dickinson of Chicago, oldest licensed pilot in the world, and Donald MacIntosh, 4-year-old son of R. U. MacIntosh of California, who has flown more than 30,000 miles, met and "talked things over." Donald is believed to hold the junior record of air hours.

Washington (AP)—Disagreement between Washington and Moscow on the responsibility for Communist propaganda in the United States complicates the problem of recognition of Soviet Russia by the United States and appears to represent one of the major obstacles to disposition of the controversy.

The United States government holds that propaganda directed from Moscow against American institutions must stop before this country can recognize Soviet Russia.

The government of Soviet Russia repiles in substance, disclaiming responsibility for the propaganda.

This divergence of viewpoint results from the fact that Communist propaganda throughout the world is directed by the Third or Communist International which, Moscow contends, acts independently of the Soviet Russian government.

The Oregon-Washington Water Service corporation has taken out a permit for the erection of a $300 building at 301 South Commercial street.

P. W. Kraemer, Mt. Angel, convicted recently on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor and who was fined $200 for the offense, paid the balance due the county Monday and was released from the county jail.

E. E. Bates, second trickoperator at the Southern Pacific depot, who has been ill with influenza for several weeks, has improved sufficiently to be enabled to sit up for a short time daily.

Mrs. L. J. Suter, 17th and D streets, left with a daughter Saturday evening over the Union Pacific lines out of Portland direct for Nelie, Neb., where she was called by the illness of a second daughter.

Mrs. J. W. Antican went to Leelanaw Saturday to spend the week end with her husband, who is employed as a tunnel man for the Southern Pacific company.

J. F. McLaughlin and family are leaving Monday evening for Minneapolis. They will make the journey over the Great Northern railway out of Portland.

A meeting of the committee in charge of preparations for the Christian Endeavor convention which is scheduled to be held here will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening at 7:30. Plans for registration of those expected during the convention will be taken up at the meeting. Persons interested in the Christian Endeavor are invited to attend whether members of the committee or not.

Miss Fern Goulding, director of the nursing service for the Marion county child health demonstration will be at the Mt. Angel normal school Thursday at 1:30 and at the Salem General hospital Friday afternoon.

The first round of play in the Sunday school basketball league will be held Monday night, January 21 at the Y. M. C. A. Fruitland will meet the Jason Lee quintet, while the Presbyterian and Knight Memorial teams will play the second game.

State Senator B. L. Eddy, of Douglas county, will speak at the Kiwanis club luncheon Tuesday noon. He will have a subject of his own selection.

Senator Reynolds of Marion county Monday introduced in the senate a joint memorial to congress asking for tariff protection on American cherries, pointing out chiefly the competition which cherries from the Mediterranean area offers the American product at the present time. The memorial declares that with tariff protection the Pacific coast crop would soon become a $100,000,000 industry.

"EXCHANGE" COSTS $20
Memphis, Tenn. (AP)—A friend gave Police Sergeant W. Billings a carton of cigarettes for Christmas. They were the wrong brand, and Sergeant Billings exchanged them. Imagine his embarrassment when the friend informed him there was a $20 bill in the first carton.

A horse on the police
Stevens Point, Wis. (AP)—It's a horse on the police department! Two weeks ago the police took in charge an unattached horse which had been wandering about town. Since then the horse has been eating at the city's expense at a local stable and already the board bill has exceeded the animal's value. Officials are wondering whether to send it to the bone yard, and if they do, what recourse the owner will have if he appears later.

"QUESTION MARK" OFF
Tucson, Ariz. (AP)—The army endurance plane Question Mark took off from Davis Mountain airport at 7:55 a. m. mountain time Monday for Midland, Texas, on the second lap of its return flight from San Diego to Washington, D. C.

Stockholm (AP)—The eagle is nearly as destructive to the Swedish reindeer as the wolf, the bear, or the wolverine. This amazing fact has just been brought out in a report of the Lapp warden in the northern province of Jemtland.

On two occasions in the last year full-grown reindeer have been killed by eagles, he states. At another time a fierce and drawn-out battle was observed being waged between an eagle and a giant reindeer bull, at which, however, the bull managed to escape with his life, although severely wounded.

Lapps in other parts report that eagles are hovering about their herds.

The Swedish eagle is protected by law during the entire year, chiefly, thanks to the efforts of the Swedish naturalist, Bengt Berg.

EVOLUTION IS PUT TO TEST, AUSTIN CLARK

Washington (AP)—Grave doubt is cast on current theories of evolution by Dr. Austin H. Clark, biologist of the United States national museum, who has a theory of his own to replace them.

"On the origin of mankind and animal life in general," Clark gives comfort to the fundamentalists.

"So far as concerns the major group of animals," he said, "the creationists seem to have the better of the argument. There is not the slightest evidence that any of the major groups arose from any other. Each is a special animal-complex, related more or less closely to all the rest, and appearing, therefore, as a special and distinct creation."

Darwin, while held to be wrong in the main, is not entirely discarded. Within plain and animal groups, Dr. Clark allows for the working of the Darwinian theory brought about by natural and artificial selection. While he admits that different breeds of dogs and cats may be caused by the artificial selection of the cat and dog fancier, he would allow for no gradation between dogs and cats.

Dr. Clark explains the giraffe as an example, by declaring that the original pair were freaks born of some other animals, possibly antelopes, and that the food supply was favorable to the preservation of the pair who came into the world for some mysterious reason with long necks.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

He said he believed that man appeared in the world suddenly and declared in somewhat the same fashion as the giraffe, and said that man was constantly throwing off supposed abnormalities, idiots and "supermen" and that one had about as hard a time surviving as the other, because sub-consciously the "superman" by shutting them up in an asylum of convention and restrictions.

LAY TAMMANY HALL CORNERSTONE

John R. Voorhis, venerable grand sachem of Tammany, wielded the trowel at the ceremony attendant upon the laying of cornerstone for new Tammany Hall in New York. Many democratic notables gathered for the ceremony.

INSUFFICIENT FUNDS GIVEN INDIAN SCHOOL

Administration of Indian affairs is inefficient rather than dishonest and much of the criticism directed against the department is from disgruntled or discharged employes, O. H. Lipps, superintendent of the Salem Indian school at Chemawa, told the chamber of commerce Monday noon. The school is operating on half-rations and is now allowed half that allowed for state institutions in many parts of the country, the per capita allowance being $200 a year for all purposes excepting new buildings. The army allows 50 cents a day for rations for soldiers while the Indian school is permitted but 20 cents.

"The American Indian has always appealed to the imagination of the people though the early colonists set out to annihilate him," Lipps said. "He is no longer regarded as a savage or wild animal and many fine traits and characteristics have been discovered. This country is indebted to the Indian for the development of maize or corn and tobacco and the white men have given him more values than have been returned in exchange. The Indian is naturally religious, refined and artistic and it is to his credit that educational methods are applied."

Since the Carlisle Indian school was closed by the government in 1918 the Salem Indian school at Chemawa is the oldest institution of its kind in this country, being established at Forest Grove in 1880 and moved to its present site five years later. Reorganization of the school has been under way during the past year, students reduced to prevent overcrowding, new buildings built and old ones renovated, and sanitation stressed. The Chemawa orchestra and a girls' quartet provided music for the luncheon.

COMMUNISTIC EMBERS ALIVE SAYS REPORT

Washington (AP)—Communist activities, which are described by the state department as the principle bar against American recognition of Soviet Russia, had varying influence on the major labor troubles in this country during recent years.

The official book of the British Communists claimed sole responsibility was at Passaic where the strike "which was the result of wage cuts, involved 16,000 textile workers who were totally unorganized, and was led by Communists," the book says.

In the furrier's strike, the Communists do not figure in the report, but it is stated that President Green of the American Federation of Labor was defeated in attempt to obtain control of the strikers and that the strike was won in a "crushing defeat for the A. F. of L. bureaucracy."

The Cloak and Dressmakers' Union of New York, with 50,000 workers, struck in 1926. It is described in the book as the second important union of that industry "to come under Communist and Left Wing leadership."

Communism's most important achievement in the Bituminous coal strike, had to do with providing food.

Mrs. MacDougall Disagrees With Prominent Men

New York (AP)—Mrs. Alice Foote MacDougall disagrees with both Henry Ford who says saving is not necessary to success, and Adolph Lewisohn who says that it is.

"It depends on what you save for and how you look at it," Mrs. Mac Dougall says. "If you save just to save, to see money pile up, it kills your soul. If you save to protect children and their future, that is another matter. But neither men nor women can do both big and little things. They can spend money largely and get large returns, or they can spend in a niggardly fashion, saving small sums until they become large ones, and they'll have niggardly penny-pinching lives."

Mrs. MacDougall is said to be the foremost business woman in America. She is the head of three large corporations, and has experienced almost every grade of poverty and affluence. She entered business at the age of forty to support her three babies.

BUCKNER TO BE BURIED IN BOISE

La Grande, Ore. (AP)—The body of Harold E. Buckner, Varney airmail pilot, who died Thursday night from injuries suffered when his plane crashed in the Blue mountains, 35 miles east of Cove, Ore., will be sent to Boise, Idaho, Tuesday for burial.

Examination Monday of the pilot's body showed that both arms were broken in the crash, that he suffered compound fractures of both legs, his left chest was crushed, and he suffered severe head bruises and other injuries. Physicians said the crushed chest was the cause of death.

Buckner died in an isolated trapper's cabin while Jack Handy, one of the two trappers who found him in the wrecked plane, and Bill Brockman, was trucking over a 15-mile route to the nearest telephone at Horse ranch "ben Burker died. The trip was made through snow six feet deep.

Buckner's body was frozen when the rescue party reached Sunday night.

BACK TO STRIPES AT LOUISIANA PEN

Baton Rouge, La. (AP)—Convicts in Louisiana state prison institutions once more will don the tell-tale striped uniform after having gone without the characteristic prison garment for more than ten years. The restoration of the striped suit was ordered by Governor Huey P. Long who was influenced by the recent killing of Herman Baker during a robbery in New Orleans.

Baker, shot to death while robbing an aged storekeeper, was a "furloughed" convict and had been in liberty several weeks prior to his death. The governor also ordered all "furloughs" discontinued unless ordered by his office.

PLACE SCHOOL SIGNS

Greenwood—W. B. Allen, school director and Davis Allen, installed school signs for the Greenwood school Tuesday afternoon, to guard against speeding past the school house on the Independence road.

MARRIAGE LAW STARTS FIRST HOUSE DEBATE

Five bills were passed, four new bills introduced, three were referred to committees for amendment, the governor's veto on four house bills from the 1927 session was sustained, committee recommendations on 14 bills were adopted and a host of bills were given their second reading, when the house of representatives opened at 11 o'clock Monday morning for its second week of business in the 35th legislative assembly.

Bills passed by the house Monday morning were as follows: H. B. No. 9, amending section 908, Oregon laws and repealing section 90