

RAINBOW GIRL ASSEMBLY HAS INSTALLATION

Woodburn—Public installation of the officers of Evergreen Assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow, held in Masonic temple Tuesday night was witnessed by a large number of Masons and members of the Eastern Star and a group of visitors from Chadwick assembly No. 3 of Salem.

Miss Jessie Sims, the retiring worthy advisor acted as installing officer and was assisted by Miss Fenna Temple as chaplain, Miss Julia Bell Austin as marshal and Miss Rose Richards as musician. The officers installed were Miss Pauline Livesey, worthy advisor; Miss Juanita Hicks, associate advisor; Miss Opal Hodge, Charley; Miss Jane Yergen, Faith; Miss Jessie Sims, recorder, installed by Miss Pauline Livesey; Miss Margaret Mochel, treasurer; Miss Emma Doris Havemann, chaplain; Miss Julia Bell Austin, drill leader. The seven colors of the Rainbow were represented by Miss Bernita Thompson, installed as red; Miss Katherine Epp, orange; Miss Gwendolyn Strike, yellow; Miss Edna Pendleton, green; Miss Vivien Nelson, indigo; and Miss Dorothy Minaker, violet. Miss Pearl Zuisdorf was installed as inner observer and Miss Treasa Bates as outer observer. Miss Peary Sadler, who fills the office of Hope and Miss Dorothy Austin, blue, were unable to be present and will be installed later. Members of the advisory board installed were Mrs. Elma T. Havemann, Mrs. Martha Relling, Mrs. Maude Mochel, Mrs. Minnie Richards, Dr. Thomas Sims and Howard M. Sayre. Mrs. Mabel Settlemyer, Mrs. C. J. Epp and E. E. Settlemyer will be installed later.

Following the installation light refreshments were served to members of the Rainbow, their guests from Salem and the advisory board.

THREE CLASS PLAYS OFFERED SATURDAY

Monmouth—Three plays by the classes of the high school will be given Thursday night in the high school gymnasium. The plays are under the direction of Miss Clark of the Monmouth high school. The cast of the senior class play, "Pa's New Housekeeper," is: Pa Jackson, Herschel Band; Jimmie Jackson, Irwin Gough; Jack Brown, Norman Roth; Katie Jackson, Helen Yester; Mollie Holbrook, Grace Wilson.

The junior class play, "Marrying Off Father," will be presented with the following cast: Sue Robbins, Prudence Haller; Alda Sayles, Nadine Mason; Christopher Robbins, Clyde Davis; Floyd Robbins, Melvin Miller; Hilary Robbins, Eldon Riddell.

The cast of the sophomore class play, "An Easy Mark," is: Richard Chambers, Harold Santee; Jack Knowlton, Gordon Ebert; Harry Renssler, Veri White; Mike Doherty, Glenn Halladay; Elmer deBooth, Jack Clark; Miss Dorothy Somers, Juanita Nelson; Mrs. Vera Somers, Doris Gates.

OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Roberts—James Whelpton was host Saturday afternoon, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. G. S. Higgins, to a group of his friends, the occasion being his eight birthday. Those present were Dorothy and Ray Rice, Bernie, Louie, Donald and Dorothy Salchenberg, June and Leroy Edwards, Naomi Crowder, Gladys Pasley, Marion and Gerald Shorey, Pauline Higgins and Charles Whelpton.

ST. PAUL

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Marie Niederberger at the Brentano home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sprup and small sons, James and Richard, spent the week-end with Mr. Sprup's parents in Portland.

John and Helen Rasmussen, accompanied by Mrs. Hagenson, motored to Portland Sunday to spend the day.

The new sewing machine which was purchased for the St. Paul's high school has arrived.

Mrs. Raymond Jones of Redmond was visiting recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. Theresa Merton.

Steve Merton made a business trip to Ontario Saturday.

The Knights of Columbus will give an old-time and modern dance Wednesday evening in the St. Paul's hall. The music will be furnished by the Kinns brothers.

TEACHERS TO LUNCH
Silverton.—The teachers of the Eugene Field building will have a pot luck lunch at that building at noon Thursday. This is a semi-annual event with the teachers of this building, they having such a dinner at every mid-year and at the close of every year.

OREGON theatre
Today
TOM MOORE
in
"HIS LAST HAUL"

Also MACK KENNETH COMEDY AND
FOX NEWS

Offers Flight Prize

Col. William E. Easterwood of Dallas, Tex., has proposed a transatlantic flight from Reno to Dallas for which he plans to offer a $25,000 prize.

ANNIVERSARY FOR DISTRICT OBSERVED

North Howell—The annual anniversary meeting of the North Howell school district No. 51 was held Friday evening, January 18 at the Grange hall. The district was organized in 1896. After the routine business, the following program was enjoyed: Accordion music by Joe Schindler; introductory remarks by E. G. Weisner; story, "A Night of Terror," by E. B. Fletcher; Mrs. Scott Jones gave a talk on her school work and experience when she was a teacher in this district in 1895. She was Miss Clara Hicks. Talk by LeRoy Eason, telling of the early life of some of the pioneers of this district; reading by Lola Eason; surprise number, concert reading by W. Stevens, E. B. Fletcher, E. Stevens, E. G. Weisner and E. C. Weisner, who were school boys of a few years ago; song, "Old Oakum Buckle," by the same boys. The Dow orchestra and Joe Schindler furnished music for the evening. The lunch and social was much enjoyed by all.

DAIRYING IS TOPIC DAYTON MEETING

Dayton—The first of a course of 12 lessons by the Smith-Hughes vocational instruction was held in the assembly room of the Dayton high school Monday. Thirty persons attended who were addressed by Professors Leth of Newberg and William Cyrus of McMinnville. Instructors, and Prof. Paulson of Salem, who is state manager of the course.

Dairying was the subject for discussion. Different subjects will be used each succeeding evening and music and a literary program and lunch will also be features.

AGRICULTURAL CLASS STARTED AT ELKINS

Elkins.—Prof. Thompson, the Smith-Hughes agricultural teacher of Independence high school, met with the people of Elkins at Elkins school house last week and organized a class consisting of ten lessons on dairying, cattle raising, etc. Those taking advantage of this opportunity: G. B. Jones, Alfred and LeRoy Jones, M. B. Lucas, J. V. Johnson, M. Hubbard, Fred School, Harold Burns, C. O. Allen, Grover Pitzer and Melford Nelson.

The meetings will continue for ten weeks, each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Thompson as instructor.

GOING TO SPOKANE
Stayton—Allan Harrington leaves Friday for Spokane, Wash., where he has a position in a dye factory. The family will remain here for the present.

ST. PAUL
A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Marie Niederberger at the Brentano home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sprup and small sons, James and Richard, spent the week-end with Mr. Sprup's parents in Portland.

John and Helen Rasmussen, accompanied by Mrs. Hagenson, motored to Portland Sunday to spend the day.

The new sewing machine which was purchased for the St. Paul's high school has arrived.

Mrs. Raymond Jones of Redmond was visiting recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. Theresa Merton.

Steve Merton made a business trip to Ontario Saturday.

The Knights of Columbus will give an old-time and modern dance Wednesday evening in the St. Paul's hall. The music will be furnished by the Kinns brothers.

TEACHERS TO LUNCH
Silverton.—The teachers of the Eugene Field building will have a pot luck lunch at that building at noon Thursday. This is a semi-annual event with the teachers of this building, they having such a dinner at every mid-year and at the close of every year.

OREGON theatre
Today
TOM MOORE
in
"HIS LAST HAUL"

Also MACK KENNETH COMEDY AND FOX NEWS

TEACHERS TO LUNCH
Silverton.—The teachers of the Eugene Field building will have a pot luck lunch at that building at noon Thursday. This is a semi-annual event with the teachers of this building, they having such a dinner at every mid-year and at the close of every year.

OREGON theatre
Today
TOM MOORE
in
"HIS LAST HAUL"

Also MACK KENNETH COMEDY AND FOX NEWS

TEACHERS TO LUNCH
Silverton.—The teachers of the Eugene Field building will have a pot luck lunch at that building at noon Thursday. This is a semi-annual event with the teachers of this building, they having such a dinner at every mid-year and at the close of every year.

OREGON theatre
Today
TOM MOORE
in
"HIS LAST HAUL"

Also MACK KENNETH COMEDY AND FOX NEWS

TEACHERS TO LUNCH
Silverton.—The teachers of the Eugene Field building will have a pot luck lunch at that building at noon Thursday. This is a semi-annual event with the teachers of this building, they having such a dinner at every mid-year and at the close of every year.

OREGON theatre
Today
TOM MOORE
in
"HIS LAST HAUL"

Also MACK KENNETH COMEDY AND FOX NEWS

TEACHERS TO LUNCH
Silverton.—The teachers of the Eugene Field building will have a pot luck lunch at that building at noon Thursday. This is a semi-annual event with the teachers of this building, they having such a dinner at every mid-year and at the close of every year.

OREGON theatre
Today
TOM MOORE
in
"HIS LAST HAUL"

TURNER HIGH IS BUSY WITH CONSTITUTION

Turner—Turner high school under the principalship of John M. Watson has been very active since New Year's with school affairs of interest. School representatives are now busy taking magazine subscriptions. They have chosen sides for the coming year to give a "circus" for the winning students. Charlie Standley is manager, and captains of the "reds" are Irma Bacher and Waldo Riches, and the "greens" captains are Mildred Schiffer and James Denyer.

A high school constitution is being worked on by the student body for the interest of all students. Waldo Riches, president of the high school student body has held several special meetings to talk over the plans for the constitution. Other active officers of the student body are vice president, Lillian Feltner, and secretary-treasurer, Mervin Pearson.

The second semester examinations will be given Thursday and Friday, and some of the students are anxious while others are dreading the results.

ALBANY CHURCH HAS OFFICIAL ELECTION

Albany.—Election of elders, deacons and trustees and reports by the various officers of the church organizations featured the annual meeting held Monday night by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church here.

G. H. Crowell, William Fortmiller, and Frank J. Miller were elected to succeed themselves as elders for another three years and O. L. McDowell named to succeed Dr. W. W. Sullivan. D. E. Brunskill and Mrs. C. C. Bryant were re-elected deacons for three years and D. O. Woodworth and F. E. Callister were re-elected trustees for another three years.

Receipts during the year were $3,391.97 with a small cash balance on hand. The Ladies' Aid members submitted a report stating $1,767.89 had been raised by that order. Dr. W. H. Lee acted as moderator of the meeting.

VOLLEYBALL SERIES AT Y. M. THURSDAY

Another district volleyball series will be played Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A., when teams representing four different clubs will come here to compete. The winner of this series will be entered in the state community volleyball championships which will be played at Portland some time during February. Teams to play here Thursday evening will be from Independence, Mt. Angel, Kimball Theological school and the Married Men's Athletic club of Salem.

Mt. Angel has been winning the district championships here recently and are hoped to repeat Thursday evening.

ELKINS

James Tedrow, who has been seriously ill at his home near Elkins, is slightly improved at this time. Their home is under quarantine at present. Dr. Starbuck of Dallas is the attending physician.

Sam Ray, Mr. Goettman, C. O. Allen and Grover Pitzer attended the Power Farming school held at Thomas and Horton's store in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller were all day visitors Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ray.

BROTHERS UNITED; STRANGERS BEFORE

Stayton.—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stowell have returned home from a seven weeks' visit in Seattle, Wash., where they were at the home of a daughter, Nellie, now Mrs. Ralph Sweet, who presented them with a second grandson during their visit. He also met a brother whom he had never seen before, as he left Canada 42 years ago and the brother is now 37. They stopped in Tacoma on the way home to visit Ralph Downey and Carl Downey of Salem. Mrs. Stowell's brothers.

SOLONS GUESTS OF LIONS CLUB

Monmouth—The Monmouth Lions club held its weekly noonday luncheon at the Monmouth hotel Tuesday noon. George W. Dunn, of Ashland, state senator for Jackson county, Lloyd T. Reynolds of Salem, state senator for Marion county, Edward F. Bailey of Junction City, state senator for Lane county, H. J. Elliott of Perrydale, state senator for Lane and Benton counties, and Colon R. Eberhart, of La Grande, senator from Union and Wallawa counties, of the education committee, were the invited guests of the local club at their luncheon.

After the luncheon the visitors paid an unofficial visit to the Oregon Normal school and were just in time to witness the pep rally at the chapel hall, where the students were making preparations for the basketball game to be played Wednesday night with the Southern Oregon Normal school of Ashland. Miss Boyer played two violin solos accompanied at the piano by Miss Margaret Scruggs, on the program for the luncheon.

Beginning next week an attendance contest will be held with the Lions club organizations of Stayton, Salem, Independence, and Monmouth. The contest will end in the earlier part of March, and the winning organization will be awarded with a banquet and entertainment which will be furnished by the three losing groups, the lowest group in percentage will also be allowed to furnish the entertainment for the banquet.

GATES MAN FOUND ILL IN AUTOMOBILE

Mill City.—Frank Gallagher of Gates was found in his car sometime Monday in a precarious condition. Having suffered a stroke not being able to talk, he was unable to tell how long he had been there. He was taken to the Salem General hospital where slight hopes are held for his recovery.

JEFFERSON

William E. Smith of the firm of Smith and Fontaine, who has been spending considerable time in Browley and other points in southern California for the betterment of his health, has returned home much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Reeber and daughter, Civilla, formerly of Jefferson, now residing at Tillamook, spent the week end in Jefferson visiting friends. They are on their way to southern California to spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Cox and family of Eugene were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Buchner.

VISIT IN SILVERTON

Silverton—Julius Westby of Fairdale, N. Dakota, and two grandchildren, Helmer and Thelma, of Bellingham, Wash., are visiting with relatives, the Anton Fosholm, the Feder Westby and the M. E. Strand families here. They will motor to Bellingham some time next week.

ANNUAL DINNER FATHERS, SONS HELD MILL CITY

Mill City.—The fifth annual Father and Son banquet of Mill City Lodge No. 180, A. F. & A. M., was held in the Hammond hall Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock where a very enjoyable two hour entertainment was held. Worshipful Master W. W. Allen was toastmaster for the evening. The speakers of the evening were Rev. Bates of the Church of Christ and Rev. Lee Gray of the Community church.

Rev. Bates gave a very interesting talk on the "Education of the Heart and Soul, within as well of Mind." Rev. Gray touching on the high ideals of the Boy Scouts and the good work they are doing. Afterwards Dr. W. W. Allen spoke on his trip through Europe, of the boys' life through the different countries.

The Mill City concert orchestra rendered several numbers under the leadership of Albert Milsap. There was also several songs which all joined in. The Long Long Trail, Smiles, Smiles, Peggy O'Neil, and the national anthem, after which all adjourned and the regular stated communication was held in the lodge rooms.

OFFICERS OF GUARD GIVEN PROMOTIONS

Albany.—Two members of Battery A, 24th Coast Artillery company received word Tuesday stating that they had successfully passed their examination conducted by Adjutant General George A. White in Salem. Recently Everett E. Terhune was promoted to first lieutenant and Kenneth Bloom, sergeant, becomes second lieutenant. Both appointments became effective Tuesday. The promotions were occasioned by the resignation of former First Lieutenant Buford Morris of Halsey.

MACHINE SHOP FOR AIRPORT IS READY

Silverton.—The machine shop at the local airport was ready Wednesday and is now ready for use. Double doors, sliding have been put on the hangar to make it weather-proof. There is much talk of one or two planes being put here permanently in the very near future.

MYERS CELEBRATES

Sublimity—John Myers celebrated his 78th birthday Sunday. Myers is still very active and works in his shoe repair shop every day. He is a member of the large choir in St. Boniface church.

AUBURN

W. N. Plesius has left for Los Angeles where he will spend the winter. He has three sons located there. Miss Nell Morgan, who is employed by the Ellye Witter Bonding company, has been transferred to Portland.

RETURN TO NEWBURG

Independence.—Clayde Wunder, who has been employed with the Spaulding Logging company in Newburg, has been spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wunder. He returned to his work Tuesday.

BARNUM CRUSHES HAND

Independence.—Lee Barnum, who has been employed by the Cobb-Mitchell company at Valse, had the misfortune to have a hand crushed and came home Tuesday. He is the son of Mrs. W. A. Barnum, principal of the training school.

Non-stop Pilot

Capt. Lewis A. Yancey, who with Oliver C. Le Boutellier, will pilot Mrs. Anne U. Stillman's plane North Star on a proposed non-stop flight from New York to Panama.

AUXILIARY OFFERS DINNER FOR LEGION

Silverton.—The ladies of the auxiliary of the American Legion held their regular meeting at the hall Monday evening. They decided that there would be about 100 to serve at the dinner of the district legion convention which is being held here today. The banquet will be given at 6:30 o'clock.

At this meeting they discussed a membership drive which they will put on after the next meeting. The captains chosen for this drive are Mrs. Clara Baltemore and Mrs. A. P. Solle. The drive will last from four to six weeks at the end of which time the losing team will banquet the winning team.

A dance will be given this evening after the meeting, to be sponsored by both the legion and the auxiliary.

HUNDRED STUDENTS TO ENTER SCHOOLS

Silverton.—All of the pupils in the three buildings are busy taking final tests this week, read to make advance grades next week. A new class of 45 will enter junior high; 40 will enter senior high and about 25 will enter the beginner's class in the first grade.

SUBLIMITY

A number from here attended the stag party at the Ambrose Dozier home Saturday night. Those present were: Frank Raucher, John Susbauer, William Zimmerman, Dan Kintz, Andy Kintz, Joe and Otto Schiffer.

Mrs. E. B. Schott and son, Harold, visited with Pay Wrightman's of Albany, recently.

MRS. SMITH HOME

Independence.—Mrs. H. E. Smith has returned to her home here after a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Robinson in Tillamook. Mrs. Robinson is a teacher in the schools there.

OFFICERS RETAINED

Sublimity.—The Sublimity Fire Relief association held the annual meeting at the C. F. Hall. All officers were re-elected.

MISSING RANCH EMPLOYE FOUND DEAD IN HOUSE

Brooks—Breaking into the house of Theodore Strom, about 65, neighbors found him dead in his home four miles northeast of here Tuesday afternoon.

Strom had been employed on the B. Brown farm for 14 years and had lived in a small house on the place. He was last seen Thursday. Strom has no known relatives and before coming here had lived near Toledo where he has a homestead. Death, according to Lloyd T. Rigdon, county coroner, was due to heart failure and probably occurred Thursday night or Friday.

GRANGE POSTPONED PLAY TO BE GIVEN

North Howell.—The North Howell Grange will not hold their social meeting January 25, but instead "The Dutch Detective," a comedy will be put on by the Knight Memorial church of Salem, the evening of February 1 at the North Howell Grange hall.

EVANS VALLEY CLUB WILL OFFER SOCIAL

Evans Valley—Evans Valley Community club has completed plans for a social to be given at the Evans valley school Friday evening of this week. The program will consist of a number of songs, readings and instrumental numbers, with the main feature a play, "Two of a Kind." Mrs. C. E. Pearce is directing the play. Five characters take part in it.

Following the program a shadow sale will be held. The social is open to everyone who cares to come.

REMODELS FARM HOME

Independence.—Frank Lane of the Highland district is having the house on his farm remodeled and he expects to move his family into it in a few days. He sold the farm he was living on adjoining this one and the purchaser is awaiting to take possession.

CAPITOL

Salem Applauds
The First ALL-TALKING OUT-DOOR DRAMA—
"IN OLD ARIZONA"

—Starring—Warner Baxter and Edmund Lowe.
—Added—
Vitaphone Vaudeville Act. Feature starts at 2:30, 4:50, 7:00, 9:15.

MRS. HENKLE GIVEN BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Independence—Honoring Mrs. C. W. Henkle of Dallas on her birthday Sunday a few friends from here went over to Dallas to be her guests for dinner. Those going from here were her sister, Mrs. A. B. Robinson, who made the birthday cake, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, Miss Emma Henkle, Mrs. Sadie Smith, also Mrs. Cynthia Henkle, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Frank Merrick of Tillamook, who came over for the day.

SCHUNK CASE GOES TO JURY

Dallas.—The case of Verd Schunk of Independence against Hawkins and Roberts went to the jury at 6:15 Tuesday afternoon. This is a suit for damages received by Schunk, while riding a motorcycle, when he struck horses owned by Hawkins and Roberts. The horses were being driven towards Independence and were just inside the city limits. It was about 8 o'clock at night and Schunk was supposedly out bound on a call of duty, being a constable. Schunk asks $30,000 damages.

The case was opened up again to the jury Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and the defense presented their case. Rebuttal witnesses were called by the plaintiffs about 3:30 o'clock. Arguments of the attorneys were next heard and followed by instructions to the jury by Judge Walker.

Those on jury duty are: D. J. Butler, C. Lawrence, E. L. Parrish, Warren Allen, Frank Inman, R. W. Hogg, E. Jennings, J. P. Hamilton, J. R. Kuser, John Martin, C. F. Merrick, and Arthur Beaver.

CHURCH BOARD DINES

Independence.—The members of the official board of the M. E. church, and their families and friends attended a covered dish supper in the social hall of the church Monday evening.

Following the supper a business meeting was held, conducted by Dr. Temple of Salem.

HOLLYWOOD

THUR., FRI., SAT.

RAYMOND NAVARRO
—In—
Across to Singapore

ON THE STAGE
Lawrence Stock Company In PEACHES

Tonight Only WILLIAM HAINES
—In—THE SMART SET

Dentist Using
E. R. PARKER SYSTEM

This Man
Dr. Painless Parker

Painless Parker

A friend to Suffering Humanity

THRU his untiring efforts, has reduced "to a system" High-class dentistry . . . Absolutely Painless, at a price within the reach of all mankind.

Painless Parker Dentist using the
E. R. PARKER SYSTEM

STATE & LIBERTY STREETS
SALEM, OREGON

ELSINORE

Today
FANCHON and MARCO'S
"Chicken a la King"
—WITH—
WILL KING—OSCAR TAYLOR
JUNE CLYDE—LEW DUNBAR
—AND—
The Sunkist Beauties

WILL KING . . . funnier than ever . . . dishes up whirlwind comedy . . . spiced with a bevy of glorious beauties
A show worth walking miles to see . . . take our word . .
No greater entertainment value anywhere!

—On the Screen—
GARY COOPER . . . FAY WRAY
—IN—
"THE FIRST KISS"
It's Marvellous . . . See It!

BIG BARGAIN MATINEE
ADULTS 25c CHILDREN 10c
Stage Appearance at 4-5-10 P. M.

—TOMORROW—BIG DOUBLE FEATURE SHOWING

Now!

Exceptional Radio Value
The Famous
ATWATER KENT 40
with Dynamic Speaker in Console complete with Tubes

ONLY $149.

America's most popular radio, combined with a dynamic speaker, all in a handsome cabinet.

This tremendous value made possible only through the buying power of three hundred authorized Atwater Kent dealers.

Limited Quantity

SOLD BY YOUR LOCAL DEALERS
Sherman Clay Co. Square Deal Hardware Co. Vick Bros.
Hamilton Furniture Company