

CROWD GREETSS PROGRAM GIVEN LINCOLN CLUB

Lincoln.—With every seat full, the walls lined with persons sitting and standing and the vestibule packed, one of the largest crowds, estimated at 150 persons, were present at a community club program enjoyed the splendid program offered at the schoolhouse Friday night.

The opening number was a song by all, followed by the drama given by young people from the Zena district in which Elaine Worthington, Hilda Crawford, Stanley Nash and Ella Walling played; a vocal solo by Miss Joan Evans, accompanied by her mother; a reading and encore by Lucille Hackett; a group of negro songs including spirituals by the harmony four quartette of Salem, the members of this being Dr. Lynn Barrick, Mr. Leach, Mr. Pearson and John Moritz; dialogues, "Timothy Cloverseed from the Country," with John Walling taking the part of the photographer and Imogene and Rex Alaman the sister and brother exploring the city; a reading by Vernon Merrick; a Russian folk dance and encore in costume by Miss Georgia Mills, accompanied by Mrs. Alvin Madsen at the piano; a humorous reading and encore by Mrs. Ed Forsgard of Lubart; two piano numbers, the last, a musical reading by Marjorie Walling of Zena; a violin solo and two encores by Miss Joan Evans, again accompanied by Mrs. Evans; an extract taken from Mark Twain's "Innocence Abroad," by Ralph Shepard of Zena and insistent demand for an encore brought him back with a side-splitting selection; a dialogue "Family Troubles," given by Rex Alaman and Elka Fisher, and the final number which called for several encores by the harmony four quartette.

In charge of the program were Mrs. George Boyd, Mrs. Jesse Worthington. Following the program a grab bag yielded many surprises, a great deal of fun and a few dollars to the club coffers. Refreshments were served after the program. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Ira Alaman, Mrs. D. N. Hendricks and Robert Hunt.
