Visitors Honored At T.S. Roberts'

One of the most delightful affairs given for the pleasure of the wives of legislators and state officers who are visitors in Salem is the musical and informal reception for which Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts were hosts Wednesday evening in their home at 503 North Summer street.

Professor Roberts played several numbers on his studio organ including chiefly the more familiar classics such as Handel's "Largo" and the "Pillgrims Chorus." Among the numbers which particularly delighted the audience were the organ and piano duet, "Fantasia" (Debussy) by Professor Roberts, organist, and Doris Ross, pianist; a trio number, "Meditation" (Mistral) played by Professor Roberts, at the organ, assisted by Iva Claire Love, violinist, and Doris Rees, pianist; Rosmarin (Kreutzer) as a violin solo. The climax of the program came with the concluding number, Kreutzer's "Old Refrain" in which all three musicians took part, assisted by Miss E. Ruth How, lyrical soprano. Miss How also sang several solo numbers.

Following the musical program, the guests were entertained with an informal reception on the lower floor of the Roberts' home. The spacious reception hall, living room, dining room and serving table were beautifully decorated with carnations in shades of rose, combined with daffodils and acacia. Mrs. Harry T. Love assisted Mrs. Roberts throughout the evening.

Presiding at the serving urns during the evening were Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, wife of Governor Patterson, and Mrs. Walter Pierce (Cornelia Marvin), wife of ex-Governor Pierce.

W. U. Glee Club Presents Program

The girls' glee club of Willamette university presented a delightful concert of solos, duets and ensemble numbers Monday evening at the Tuberculosis hospital, east of Salem.

Turner—Earl S. Prather, druggist of Portland, was surprised on Tuesday with a birthday dinner party in his honor. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hutchings of McMinnville, Stanford Frather and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prather.

Woman's Club To Entertain Guests

Women of Salem are much interested in the meeting of the Salem Woman's club Saturday afternoon in the clubhouse on North Cottage street. Guest Day will be observed at this meeting which will be one of the most interesting of the entire club year and each club member is privileged to bring a guest.

The Snipe dramatic club of Salem high school will present a clever play, "Sauce for the Goose," at the program hour. The cast for the play includes: Richard Taylor, Richard Baker; Margaret Taylor, Evelyn Cummings; Robert Taylor, Stanley King; Elizabeth Baker, Helen Larson; Martha Lee, Margaret Wilson; James Ward, Robert Erye; and the maid, Edith Glaskyer. Jean Estridge is wardrobe mistress; Louis Campbell, wardrobe master; Charles Bier, stage manager, and Hazel Johnson, property manager.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist will sing two groups of solos, accompanied by William McGilchrist, Sr., as an additional feature of the program.

Mrs. Homer Goulet is chairman of the tea committee for the afternoon. She will be assisted by Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Alton D. Hurler, Mrs. Walter Page, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. E. A. Pierce, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mrs. B. N. Spear, Mrs. Claude Steuloff, Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. George A. White.

Attractive Affair At Spaulding Home

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding were hosts Sunday afternoon in their home on Court street, complementing Mrs. Spaulding's mother, Mrs. Nora Gard Miller of Portland, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

The charmingly appointed dinner table was centered with a silver bowl of red carnations. Red dinner party silver holders marked covers for the honor guest, Mrs. Miller; and for Mr. and Mrs. Clay C. Miller and their daughter, Barbara, of Oregon City; Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Briggs, Mrs. James Taylor and daughter, Jean; Mrs. C. H. Burr, Miss Lulu Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gard, all of Portland; little Miss Leone Spaulding and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gritton entertained at dinner Saturday evening in their home on Jefferson street, honoring Mrs. V. M. Clark on the occasion of her birthday anniversary.

Covers were placed for the honor guest, Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rae, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kennedy, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Gritton.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Arnold of West Salem were additional guests for the evening which was spent with 500.

"Rosamunde" To Be Presented March 1

"Rosamunde" the Schubert opera in two acts to be presented March 1 by the advanced chorus and orchestra classes of Salem high school promises to be an entertainment of more than usual interest.

The opera includes a wide variety of characters: the dignified King of Cyprus, the unflinching Rosamunde, the adroit Candia with his schemes against the king; Aja, the foster mother of Rosamunde who really holds the key to the story; and the deaf old man who attends the king.

Miss Ola LaMoine Clark is acting as faculty manager for the opera and Victor Wolfe as general manager. Lena Belle Tartar is dramatic and musical coach for the production.

Salem People To Be Honored With Ball

An outstanding event of the week will be the military ball honoring Governor and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Adjutant General and Mrs. George A. White which will take place Friday evening at the McMinnville primary. The affair will be given by the national guard units of Tillamook, Dallas, and McMinnville and about 1900 cards have been issued for the affair. Officers and their wives from all parts of the state as well as from Vancouver, Washington are expected to be in attendance.

Following the ball, Adjutant General and Mrs. White will entertain the officers and their wives stationed in Salem with a buffet supper in their home on Bellevue street.

The Englewood community club will meet Friday afternoon, March 1, at the home of Mrs. Earl Gilbert, 1320 Market street. The meeting was originally planned for February 22.

Janice Dunivan, Mary Holthouse, Frances Chance and Burrell Brown are delegates to the exposition at O. A. C. from the Mill City high school.

Mrs. Henry Lee Hostess For Group

The Salem music teachers were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Henry Lee on Stewart street.

William McGilchrist, Sr., spoke on the "Public school music of Scotland" and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist sang several songs, accompanied by Mr. McGilchrist on the concertina.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Lee, assisted by Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps.

It was decided at the meeting that the Salem music teachers' association would sponsor the program for the opening night of music week, May 6-11. The program will be a benefit for the national MacDowell colony. Plans were also discussed for national good music week which promises to be a greater music week than ever before, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Denton who will be assisted by other committees. Many fine concerts are planned for the week the program for which will be announced later.

Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr. will present Miss Marguerite Blum-berg, pianist, in recital Friday evening at her home, 800 Union street. She has issued about fifty invitations for the evening.

Brooks—Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh were Miss Mabel Low of Brooks and Mrs. Arthur Madsen of Salem. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones and son, Ronald, Jr., of Brooks.

Rinso whiter clothes from washer or tub

THE GRANULATED SOAP

HOW IS IT YOUR WASHER GETS CLOTHES SO MUCH WHITER THAN MINE?

IT ISN'T THE WASHER, ANNE, IT'S THE SOAP I USE

YOU SEE, THIS SOAP IS DIFFERENT! IT'S TWICE AS CLEANSING AS OTHER SOAPS. THE WASHER SALESMAN ADVISED IT

I'VE HEARD ABOUT RINSO BEFORE—I MUST TRY IT

AND "Safe for finest linens," says Mrs. Elizabeth Ross, 1547 Court St.

"I've tried a lot of different soaps in my washer, but nothing comes up to Rinso. It goes lots farther than other soaps. The suds don't die down—they last and last. And when it comes to washing clothes snow-white—nothing equals Rinso. Rinso suds are safe, too, even for the very finest linens. Rinso gets my vote—for laundering, for dishes, and all other cleaning!"

MRS. ELIZABETH ROSS, 1547 Court, St. Salem, Oregon

Millions use Rinso—in washer and tub

Only Rinso can give Rinso to blouses. That's why the makers of 36 leading washers recommend it. Great for tub washing, too; saves mend it. Great for tub washing, too; saves scrubbing, and so saves clothes, saves hand. A compact, granulated soap—cupful for cupful. Rinso goes twice as far as lightweight powdered soaps.
