

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Rosalia Keber, Phone 82

Bridge Tea Monday at C. A. Downs'

Outstanding among the social events of the spring season was the charming Oriental bridge tea for which Mrs. Herman K. Stockwell and Mrs. Chester A. Downs were hostesses Monday afternoon at the Downs' home at 2121 South High street.

Oriental poppies were attractively arranged about the living rooms and reception hall with interesting curios which Dr. and Mrs. Downs brought with them on their return from China, lavender, yellow, purple and white iris, combined with other spring blossoms in shades of lavender and rose, decorated the library and dining room and were arranged as a centerpiece for the tea table.

Six tables of bridge were in play throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Wilbur H. Lytle won the prize for high score honors and Mrs. J. L. Woodworth received the second award.

At the tea hour Mrs. David Bennett lilted assisted Mrs. Stockwell and Mrs. Downs in serving.

The guest list for the afternoon included Mrs. T. A. Livezey, Mrs. G. W. Debeck of Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Frita Siade, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Douglas Cohen, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. J. L. Woodworth, Mrs. W. W. Baum, Mrs. Charles Wagner, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Harry Gray, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. E. Ellsworth G. Rickets, Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. E. V. McKeehan, Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Mrs. Oliver B. Huston, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, and the hostesses, Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Stockwell.

Jean Hamble, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bolton Hamble, in an Mrs. Bolton Hamble, in an ed the guests at the door.

Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Stockwell are entertaining with a second delightful affair Tuesday afternoon.

Pringle—Mrs. Charles Wilcox entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday evening complimenting Miss Mamie Hillman, whose wedding will be an event of early June. A number of lovely gifts were presented to Miss Hillman and at the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess. In the group were the honor guest, Miss Hillman; and Mrs. J. Simmons, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. L. Cannoy, Mrs. Robert Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. George G. Adams, Mrs. Charles Grabenhorst, Miss Mildred Simmons Robert Clarke, and the hostess, Mrs. Wilcox.

Unionvale—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crawley have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Irene Crawley, and Arthur Chapman which took place in Portland Saturday, May 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman who were week-end guests at the Crawley home were honored with a surprise party given Saturday evening by thirty friends.

The engagement of Miss Marian Ruth Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Harris, to Alden Adolph of Salem was announced at a dinner party at the home of the bride's parents in Portland Thursday evening. The wedding will be an event of September 8th.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waters were hosts at the meeting of the "Nite Owl Bridge Club." The prizes for high score were won by Mrs. C. M. Greene and Ted Graham. Supper was served late in the evening with covers arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mudd, Mr. and Mrs. Niles Wicker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greene of Medford, Miss Greta Glenn, Marvin Ross and the host and hostess, Dr. and Mrs. Waters.

One of the most elaborate formal affairs ever given at the Delta Phi sorority house on the Willamette University campus took place Saturday evening when sorority members were hostesses at a delightful garden party. The event was of particular interest as the engagement of Miss Dorothy Pemberton, daughter of Rev. G. Parker Pemberton of Hood River, and Gurnee Allen Flesher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Flesher, was announced.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Dorothy Boshard and introduced to the receiving line by Miss Marjory Miller, vice-president of the sorority. In the line were Miss Buneva Culbertson, house president; Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. J. L. Woodworth, Mrs. W. W. Baum, Mrs. Charles Wagner, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Harry Gray, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. E. Ellsworth G. Rickets, Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. E. V. McKeehan, Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Mrs. Oliver B. Huston, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, and the hostesses, Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Stockwell.

The garden motif was carried out in the decorations of the living rooms. A lily pond and rockery were arranged in reception hall, and wisteria, spirea, and snapdragons were entwined in lattice placed about the rooms and between the arched doorways which open into the attractive garden at the rear.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

P. E. O. In Session At Seaside

Among the local women who are in attendance at the 18th annual convention of the P. E. O. sisterhood which opened Tuesday afternoon at Seaside with Chapter T of Clatskanie as hostess at the Hotel Seaside, to remain in session May 21, 22 and 23, are: Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. P. A. Elliott and Mrs. A. T. Woolpert.

Mrs. Mattie A. BoDine, president of the sisterhood, is presiding at the convention. Mrs. Edith Markham Wallace of Seattle, first vice-president of the supreme chapter, will present the charters of the new chapters.

The P. E. O. sisterhood, one of the oldest women's organizations in America, was organized January 21, 1869, by seven college girls at Iowa Wesleyan college. Its work is educational. It maintains an educational fund of $500,000 and owns a junior college for women, Cotley college.

The first Oregon chapter was organized in 1905; there are now 46 chapters.

The program for the three days is a crowded one. Highlights include the following:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON
 2—Convention called to order. Address of welcome, Mrs. George Kent Mauder, president chapter T, Response, Mrs. Marie Y. Sennsmitz, treasurer Oregon State chapter. Formal opening of convention. Memorial hour, Mrs. Ethel Richards, president chapter AL, presiding. Address, Mrs. Besse Micker, past president.

TUESDAY NIGHT
 7:30—Presentation of new chapters. Mrs. Virginia Gray, organizer Oregon State chapter. Greeting and presentation of charters, Mrs. Edith Markham Wallace, first vice-president Supreme chapter. Address, Mrs. Edith Markham Wallace, first vice president Supreme chapter. Educational hour. Report of educational fund, Mrs. Mary Husted, first vice-president. A play, "Vision."

WEDNESDAY
 9—Convention called to order. Report of 1931 convention committee, Mrs. Veda M. Jones, past president Oregon State chapter.

1:30—Convention called to order. Summary of chapter activities, Mrs. Winifred Wood, recording secretary, Oregon State chapter.

6:30—Banquet and program at Hotel Seaside.

THURSDAY
 9—Convention called to order. Election of officers.

1:30—Convention called to order. Ratification of delegates to supreme convention. Invitation to 1932 convention. Installation of officers.

Mrs. D. B. Taylor, Miss Signe Paulsen, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Sylvia Paulsen and Miss Sue Bonner were hostesses at an attractive shower one evening recently complimenting Miss Inez Riefenyder whose wedding to Elmer Green of Portland, will be an event of the late summer. Twenty guests were present.

The Ever Ready birthday club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ida Shoemith. Honor guests will be Mrs. Shoemith, Mrs. Mary Hall, Miss Doris Strand and Mrs. Pauline Clark.

Members of the Can Do class of Leslie church will be entertained with a pot-luck supper Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bohmstedt on the Jefferson highway.

The Ladies' Guild of the American Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock for an "every member luncheon." Dr. John Selbert of Chicago will be the speaker in the afternoon and will give a second address at a meeting of church members in the evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the W. R. C. will meet Thursday for an all day session at the fairgrounds. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon.

W. R. C. Selects Memorial Speakers

In accordance with a custom of many years' standing, the Women's Relief Corps will send speakers to all schools in Salem on the Friday preceding Memorial Day.

The president of the W. R. C. has announced her appointments to the various schools as follows: Chemawa, Alma Henderson, Pearl Harris; Englewood, 1:30 o'clock, Jennie Jones, Hattie Hewitt; Grant, 2:15, Charity Gabel, Rachel Ruth; Garfield, 1:30, Laura McAdams, Sara Drager; Glis, Industrial school, Clara McDurby; Louisa Kappa, Highland, 1:30, Hattie Cameron, Rose Hagedorn; Kelzer, 1:30, Wednesday, May 29, Emma Thompson; Lincoln, 2 o'clock, Alta Scott, Mary Knowles; Leslie junior high school, 11 o'clock, Bertha Loveland, Clara Adams; Livingston, Mary Watson; McKinley, 1:10 o'clock, Martha Marr, Louisa Alley, Hannah Higgins; Parrish, 1:30, Wednesday, May 29, Ida Fraglio, Gertrude Remington; Richmond, 1:15 o'clock, Mrs. T. Remington, Fannie Bard and Dora Gobler; senior high school, Florence Shipp, Fannie Chittenden; State school for blind, 2 o'clock, Sarah Peterson, Mary Ackerman, Julia Blodgett; Sacred Heart Academy, Norma Terwilliger, Lizzie Smith; St. John's Lutheran, Jennie Jones, Mrs. George Salem Heights, Rose Voris, Hattie Kennon; St. Vincent de Paul church, 10 o'clock, Pauline Clark, Mary T. Johnson; Willamette University, Helen Southwick, Sarah Drager; Washington, 1:30 o'clock, Jennie Martin, Mary Wirtz; West Salem, Hattie Cameron; Hedgewich Mill and Minnie Baker; Yew Park, Cordelia LaBare, Bessie Martin and Jessie Crossan.

Margaret Wells Is Recent Bride

At an attractive ceremony solemnized Sunday afternoon, May 19, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wells, north of Salem, Miss Margaret Wells became the bride of Marlin O. Muehlhaupt.

Rev. H. C. Slover read the service before an improvised altar of narcissi, yellow tulips and snowballs. Baskets of the same lovely flowers were arranged about the living rooms and dining room. Forty relatives and close friends of the bridal couple were in attendance.

The bride wore a gown of madeleine blue flat crepe with a corsage bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses, forget-me-nots and lilies of the valley. There were no attendants.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Jewel Gardner sang "I Love You Truly," and Michael Farrell sang "At Dawning." Miss Lucille Cummings accompanied the two soloists and played Mendelssohn's wedding march on the organ. A quartet, Jewell Gardner, Mildred Gardner, Lucile Cummings and Michael Farrell, sang "Into the Dawn with You," after the service, and Miss Cummings sang "When Love Comes Calling," as a solo.

In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Muehlhaupt left by motor for Hood River where they will visit Mr. Muehlhaupt's mother, Mrs. J. Stevenson for a week. They will be at home to their friends at 1065 North Liberty street after May 26.

DELPHIAN ASSEMBLY HELD, M'MINVILLE

Independence—The members of the Delphian club from this city went to McMinnville the latter part of the week to be in attendance at the Delphian assembly in session there.

A 1 o'clock luncheon was served by the ladies of the Baptist church to the visiting members and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent. Those attending from this city were Mrs. A. B. Robinson, Mrs. Henry N. Mattison, Mrs. M. J. Butler, Mrs. J. C. Collins, Mrs. Wander, Mrs. W. R. Day, Mrs. C. O. Sloper, Mrs. W. H. Cockle.

Those attending from Monmouth as members of this club are Mrs. Ebert, Mrs. D. W. Hoag, Mrs. David Riddle, and Miss Mabel Riddle.

FIELD JAUNT MADE BY HUBBARD CLASS

Hubbard—The geography class has returned from a week-end at the coast in study under principal J. R. Bidgood. They camped at Pacific City and made their observation trips from there. Those attending were Rollie Bidgood, Marvin Hopkins, Roy Claypool, Ray Bevens, Willis Duncan and Franklin de Espinasse under the supervision of L. M. Scholl and J. R. Bidgood; and the Misses Alice Kunkle, Hazel Claypool, Ruth Ingalls, Amy Hershberger, Dorothy Scholl, Frances Leffer, Grace Williams, Genevieve Duffy, under the chaperonage of Mrs. J. R. Bidgood.

No tea satisfies like Lipton's Famous Blend

YOU will find that Lipton's Tea is a delicious builder of energy. When you feel tired, or your nerves become a bit frayed, make a steaming cup of Lipton's Tea. There is no better natural stimulant or energizer. Serve LIPTON'S for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.

LIPTON'S TEA

ASK FOR THE YELLOW PACKAGE

GUARANTEED BY Home Lipton TEA PLANTER, CEYLON

Betrothal Announced At Delta Phi

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Dorothy Boshard and introduced to the receiving line by Miss Marjory Miller, vice-president of the sorority. In the line were Miss Buneva Culbertson, house president; Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. J. L. Woodworth, Mrs. W. W. Baum, Mrs. Charles Wagner, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Harry Gray, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Mrs. E. Ellsworth G. Rickets, Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. E. V. McKeehan, Mrs. Thomas Roberts, Mrs. Oliver B. Huston, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, and the hostesses, Mrs. Downs and Mrs. Stockwell.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed couple were outlined in gold letters.

The guest group included O. A. C. and Willamette University students.

Harry Wiles was honored with a surprise party on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Friday when 10 couples gathered to spend the evening. After several hours of "900" refreshments were served.

The pre-school division of the child study classes of the A. A. U. W. has discontinued meetings for the spring. The group will resume its work again in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston have as their house guests for several weeks Mrs. Huston's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Johnson of London, Ontario, Canada.

meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at two-thirty. Mrs. C. W. Noble will give a travelogue of her trip through Sumatra and Java. Mrs. Charles Maxwell will give a tea of negro spirituals. Mrs. C. Davis will be chairman of the tea committee. A large attendance has been requested by the society president.

At the close of the evening a picnic supper was served at small tables. Miss Pauline Findley presented Mrs. Reed with a lovely basket of snapdragons in which the names of the betrothed