RIPON PLANS JUBILEE FOR GOP FOUNDING

Ripon, Wis., (P)—Up here, come June 8, the folks are going to celebrate the diamond jubilee of the republican party, much to the disgust of Jackson, Mich.

Michigan histories say Jackson was without doubt the birthplace of republicanism. Wisconsin histories say Ripon was without doubt the birthplace of republicanism. To settle the argument, Ripon decided to hold a celebration.

None of which has anything to do with Herbert, the 25,000 pound elephant engaged to march in the parade here. He will be the symbol of the party's might or of its thick-skinnedness, depending upon whether one is looking through republican or democratic glasses.

The present arrangement is for the pachyderm to travel from Chicago to Ripon on the special train of the W. O. Dodge, secretary of war, to whom this may be of use.

GANSTER SHOT IN HIS AUTO

Chicago (P)—A man partially identified as John Hand, alleged racketeer with a long record, was found shot to death in an automobile in Cicero, a suburb, early today. Hand was questioned after the slaying of "Big Tim" Murphy, notorious labor leader and racketeer, last year.

Hand was at liberty on bond pending an appeal from his recent conviction in the federal court for violating the Sherman Anti-trust law. He was one of the defendants charged with and convicted of intimidating candy jobbers into joining an alleged racketeer organization. He has a long record as a racketeer, police said.

Hand had been shot once through the neck.

George W. Hug, Salem superintendent of schools, has made plans to leave in a month for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he will take special work in health education administration at the University of Michigan. Mr. Hug, former supervisor of schools for Marion county, will leave in a few weeks for New York City to take a six week course in health education at Columbia University and Mrs. Grace Wolgamott, head of physical education in Salem schools, will go to the University of California for special work. All three will study under scholarships granted by the Commonwealth Fund of New York City.

An unusual exhibit of writing done by the grade and junior high school children of Salem in connection with the state fair has been arranged in the office of the elementary supervisor in the senior high school building. The exhibit will be open all this week to all teachers and townspeople interested. Mrs. Clara Pomeroy, head of writing in the city schools, arranged the exhibit not only as a means of showing the fine type of work done in writing but also as a means of giving all teachers the opportunity of seeing the work which is being offered by their contemporaries.

The Brush College community club will sponsor their annual picnic at the Brush College school grounds Saturday afternoon, June 1. FORMER PIONEER MAN IS TAKEN IN SEATTLE

Pioneer—Word was received here of the death of Albert Bolten last week in Seattle, Wash., from spinal meningitis, after a few days' illness. He leaves his wife Mabel Mendenhall Bolten and small daughter, Betty, of Seattle, his parents at Gresham and two brothers, and three sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mendenhall, Mrs. Bolten's parents, left by automobile for Seattle when word of his illness was received. As soon as affairs are settled in Seattle, Mendenhalls will return, bringing Mrs. Bolten and daughter. The Bolten's resided here until about a year ago, when they moved to Seattle where Albert Bolten was employed in a meat packing plant.

CLOSE ELECTION IN PROSPECT AT HIGH SCHOOL

The political pot which has been brewing at Salem high school for the past four weeks will boil over Wednesday morning when all bona fide members of the associated student body vote for their student body officers. The polls will open in the main hallway of the high school building at 8:30 and will close at 1:15.

Barney Cameron, out-going president, has appointed Don Siegrote chairman of the election committee. Assisting Siegmont at the polls will be David Eyre, junior class representative, and Loree Barnham, sophomore representative.

According to the sentiment around the school the race for the presidency of the student body will be a close one between Richard Baker, present junior class president, and Joe King, president of the sophomore class last year. Among the girls the interest is keen for the job of song leader. With the student body constitution ruling that the majority of votes cast to bring election and with five candidates up for song leader, it is likely that a second election will be necessary.

Faculty members who have paid student body dues are entitled to vote in the A. S. B. elections and according to the reports about the school, the faculty members are taking as much interest in the present election as the students themselves.

At the meeting of the student body Tuesday night the election plans were discussed. It was also reported that the A. S. B. fund has been increased nearly $100 as the result of the high school day at Miller's store a week ago Saturday when 50 high school students served as clerks. The school was given a share in the day's profits.

SOPHOMORES WIN HI-SCHOOL DEBATE

That too many people in the United States are receiving college educations was proved to the satisfaction of the judges by Harold Pruitt and Sylvester Horn, sophomore debaters at Salem high school, when they received a unanimous decision over the senior debaters, Forrest Holiday and Ronald Hewitt, in an inter-class contest Tuesday evening. The sophomores took the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved: That too many people in the U. S. are receiving college educations."

Late Tuesday afternoon the senior affirmative team, Bob Gauer and Charles Newberry, will meet the junior negative, Dick Baker, and Doris Ross, Monday afternoon at the junior team, Helen and Frank Childs, now a two to one decision from the sophomore negative team, Eleanor Henderson and Eldon Olson. Members of the high school team are coaching class teams this year.

Willamette university law students are serving as judges in the class contests.

THWART PLOT FOR KIDNAPING MORROW GIRL

Boston, (P)—The Boston Post in a copyrighted story today says Dwight W. Morrow, ambassador to Mexico and father of Anne Morrow, fiancée of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, has been made subject of a $50,000 extortion plot. The money, the Post asserts, was demanded under penalty of torture and death of his youngest daughter, 15 year old Constance Morrow, a student at Milton academy.

The newspaper says it has learned that the receipt by the girl of two threatening letters was directly responsible for last Saturday's secret flight by Lindbergh and members of the Morrow family from the Morrow home at Englewood, N. J., to their summer place at North Haven, Me.

It was also reported that the detective guard which has since stood vigil over the inland retreat of the Morrows in Maine and for the impersonation of Constance by another girl at the Milton academy while Constance was being spirited away to join the airplane flight.

The Post declares it has learned that when Miss Morrow received the first letter she showed it to school authorities. Her family was notified and a guard assigned to her. When the second demand was made it gave detailed instructions how and where the money was to be placed and named last Saturday afternoon as the time.

At this juncture Mr. Morrow's former partners in the firm of J. P. Morgan and company were appealed to and the services of federal operatives were enlisted, but although Miss Morrow's impersonator adhered strictly to the instructions no one appeared to claim the package.

HOSS' DECISION TO BRING SUIT

The possibility of a suit against the state board of control by some state-aided institution caring for orphans and foundlings loomed Tuesday because of a decision by Secretary of State Hoes to follow the letter of one of the 1929 legislative appropriation bills.

The original act providing for a per capita state appropriation of $16 a month for the care of inmates of state-aided institutions provides that the allowance shall hold for each inmate up to 17 years old. The appropriation bill of the 1929 legislature reduces the age to under 16. The change made in the bill was admittedly done inadvertently. Attorney General Van Winkle takes this view of it in an opinion asked for by Carl Abrams, secretary of the state board of control, and he advises that the money be allowed on the old basis.

Secretary Hoes agrees that the change made in the bill was a clerical error and thinks the institutions are entitled to the usual allowance, but refuses to audit the claims on that basis notwithstanding the attorney general's opinion. The ground for his action is that the money has not been provided by the legislature.

Default and judgment order allowing the bank to recover $4483 has been entered in circuit court in the case of the First National bank of Salem against S. Paul Jones.

CONTRACT LET TO ROSEBRAUGH RECONSIDERED

On motion of Alderman Vandevort, chairman of the sewer committee, the city council Monday night reconsidered a vote of the previous meeting awarding to W. I. Spencer company of Portland a contract to furnish the city with manholes for sewer construction.

Mayor Lavesley refused to sign the contract on grounds that it was illegal for the reason that Alderman W. Rosebraugh is the principal stock holder of the W. I. Spencer company, and there is a charter provision against city officials holding contracts to furnish the city with equipment or supplies.

It is reported that Rosebraugh decided there would be no profit in the contract, that he desired to withdraw because of this and because of the controversy and that the move for reconsideration Monday night was his method of withdrawal.

There was another report Monday to the effect that he promised to withdraw if the contract were awarded him as a vindication of his attitude in the matter, but that he failed to withdraw as agreed with the committee and that Alderman Vandevort then decided to move for reconsideration of the vote whereby the contract was awarded him.

CONTRACT LET FOR GRANDSTAND

The Hansen Construction company of Portland was low bidder and has been awarded the contract by the state fair board for construction of the new combined grandstand and exhibit building at the fair grounds. The contract price for the general construction was $116,843. Nine firms submitted bids, the highest of which was $149,900.

The 1929 legislature appropriated $100,000 for the building, to be available when the fair board produced an additional $50,000. To provide the latter sum negotiable warrants have been issued and sold, bearing 5 1/2 percent interest, and the $50,000 has been placed with the state treasurer. The $100,000 appropriation is to be rapid and the warrants retired from proceeds of the state fair over a period of 10 years.

Charles A. Murphy of Portland has been employed as superintendent of construction for the building. Construction is to begin the latter part of this week.

Motion for a bench warrant to be issued by the court against James J. Hall bringing him into court to show cause why he should not be held for contempt of court was entered in circuit court Tuesday afternoon by attorneys for Mrs. Nadine T. Hall. Mrs. Hall is suing for divorce. The motion for contempt charge is based on Hall's neglect to file an answer or demurrer to Mrs. Hall's complaint within the time specified by the court. Hall's answer was filed Monday, the same day on which the default order was entered.

JUNE 11 PICKED FOR VISIT FROM KIWANIS CHIEF

June 11 has been set as the date of the divisional conference of Kiwanis clubs here and the visit of Harry Gowen, governor of the northwest district. It was announced at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the local club by President Ralph Cooley and Claude Barrick of Tillamook, lieutenant-governor of the district.

Delegates from the clubs in this division will meet here in the afternoon of that day with Mr. Gowen and with the general committee of the local club in charge of arrangements for the district convention here in August. A banquet at which the wives of members of the club and of the visiting delegates will be entertained will be substituted for the regular weekly luncheon that day.

Solus by Miss Josephine Albert and readings by Miss Elma Nell of Willamette university were entertainment features of the luncheon meeting this week.

$2187 VERDICT AGAINST SPEIGHT

The case of R. D. Gray for a $196.47 judgement against Walter D. Pugh, an action on account stated, occupied Judge Percy R. Kelly, and department one of Marion county circuit court all day Tuesday. Gray was assigned a claim of A. M. Hansen against Pugh. The jury was not expected to go out until late Tuesday afternoon.

Shortly before six o'clock Monday afternoon and after nearly three hours deliberation, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $2718.25 in the case of W. S. Dustin vs. E. Scotty Speight. The suit is the result of an automobile accident on State street last year. It is understood around the courthouse that Speight was covered by liability insurance.

By the consent of both parties in the case of H. D. Sollars vs. L. C. Hutchins was heard without a jury before Judge Kelly Monday afternoon after the jury had gone out on the Gray vs. Pugh case. Judge Kelly decided in favor of Sollars giving him $429 damages sustained when his sedan was struck by a truck owned by Hutchins. The accident occurred on Commercial street last fall.

Homer W. Carson has been awarded judgement in the sum of $127.85, interest and costs against Lewis Mishler, in a default order entered in the case of H. S. Radcliff vs. Davis Rees.

EFFECT MERGER OF M. E. CONFERENCES

Tacoma, Wash., (P)—A merger of the Columbia River and Puget Sound conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church was consummated in Seattle Monday, according to Dr. Edward H. Todd, president of the College of Puget Sound and active in the preliminary negotiations. The action of the merger commission at its meeting climaxed negotiation extending over the past year. The joint conference, embracing most of the Pacific Northwest is said to be the largest Methodist conference in the world.
