

TURNER ALUMNI INITIATE CLASS OF GRADUATES

Turner—The annual alumni dinner of the Turner high school was held Saturday evening in the gymnasium. A large attendance of alumni, high school graduates of '29, and visitors enjoyed the evening. Much amusement was caused from the initiation of the new graduates. Humorous jokes and the paddles were used freely. A business meeting was held and a motion was made and seconded to put a framed photograph and motto of Glenn Miller in the high school auditorium 'in memoriam.' In the 14 years of the high school organization in Turner, Glenn Miller is the first member of the alumni to pass away last July. The picture will be signed by the alumni association.

New officers elected for the ensuing year were, President, Cecil Martin; vice-president, Lois Robertson; secretary-treasurer, Edward Gath; and alumni reporter, Vernon Coates. Visitors present were Mrs. Donald Riches, Mrs. Earl Bear, Mary Hennies, Sam Drager, Joe McKinney, Bert Mann, Willette Jesse and Lawrence Edwards. Alumni members were Beale Davenport, LaVern Hewitt, Mildred Martin, Frankie Porter, Roberta Wilson Everson of Salem, Lois Robertson, Ethel Given Edwards, Dorothy Moore of Salem, Lucille Riches, Owen Thomason, Edward Gath, Kenneth Witzel, Hollis Bones, Clifford Enslay, Cecil Martin, Vernon Coates, Arthur Gath, Donald E. Riches, Walter Peterson, Earl Bear, Stacey Edwards, William Pearson, and Lewis Scofield. The new class initiated were Lillian Peterson, Faustina Delzell, Mildred Schifferer, Claudine Roland, Robert Bauman, Charlie Standley, Wayne Chapman, Mervin Pearson, Marshall Snyder, and Waldo Riches.

TURNER FOLK ANGRY OVER ATTACK ON DOG

Turner—Several days ago, "Spot," a collie pup belonging to a Turner lad was run over and seriously injured by a car with a California license. Witnessed by several people here, the dog was walking at the side of the street near the old hardware building, when the car and occupants deliberately swerved out and ran over the pup, then rapidly drove away laughing over their inhuman sport. Despite "Spot's" painful bruises he seems to be getting over his accident all right and will soon be able to frolic with his young master again.

GATES

Sanford Basset is building an additional room on the west side of his house.

Cement walks are being built between the high school and primary building on the school grounds. The work is being done by Clyde Thomas.

The eighth grade pupils have received their grades and all passed with good averages. The following made up the class: Myrtle Knutson, Elizabeth Bock, Carl Ball, Leon Cline, J. O. Herrom.

Impressive Memorial day exercises were held at the Fairview cemetery Sunday. Children placed flowers on the graves of war veterans, led in the march by Rev. Lee Gray of Mill City. The program consisted of songs by the group of mixed singers, addresses by Rev. Bates of Mill City Christian church and by Rev. Gray of the Community church closing with a beautiful solo by Gwendolyn Johnson.

Ed Griffin returned Monday from Portland where he had been visiting and transacting business.

SUBLIMITY

George Tate and Tony Van Hantel attended the cannery meeting at Stayton Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roesser of Gervais were visiting at the J. P. Wagner home Monday. They came for their son Edward who has attended the Catholic school here the past term.

Mrs. Frank Hottinger of Portland is here keeping house for Rev. Father Scherbring at the parish house.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kremer of Stayton visited with N. W. Kremer Tuesday.

YEOMANS GET DAUGHTER
