SENIOR CLASS DAY PROGRAM INDEPENDENCE

Independence—The senior class of the high school gave the annual class day program at the training school Wednesday night.

Members of the class represented gypsies of a gypsy troupe passing along the way. The troupe stopped to make camp and bid farewell to each other before taking their own separate ways.

Winston Purvine as the leader introduced Miss Eva Bullis who sang two selections, "My Gypsy Sweetheart," and the "Gypsy Love Song." Next the salutatorian speech was given by Helen Byers.

The class history was read by the leader and Sadie Cockerle read the class will. Following this the class prophecy was revealed by the crystal gazer, Richard Pepworth.

The valedictorian address was delivered by Laurence Kemp. The school song was sung and then the leader bade the gypsies goodbye.

Frantic Campaigns... to substitute other cigarettes for Lucky Strike fail largely because Luckies' superiority so quickly demonstrates itself. Lucky Strike represents a milestone in the progress of cigarette manufacture. The toasting process makes Lucky Strike the brand of distinction, and, in the opinion of 20,679* physicians, is the reason Luckies are less irritating. No other cigarette enjoys this secret heat treatment which removes impurities and irritants, produces a flavor beyond comparison and assures the smoker the maximum of delightful smoking pleasure and comfort.
