WOODBURN LUNCHEON HONORS MRS. NORMAN

Woodburn—Mrs. E. J. Allen and Mrs. A. H. Dean entertained at an attractive luncheon at the Allen home on East Lincoln street Thursday honoring Mrs. W. F. Norman, who is leaving for Portland, also Miss Lake G. Watson of Kalispell, Montana, house guest of Mrs. H. F. Butterfield. The guest group included Mrs. J. J. Hall, Mrs. S. W. Maupin, Mrs. H. F. Butterfield, Mrs. Henry G. Hanson, Mrs. W. F. Norman, Miss Lake G. Watson, Mrs. Eugene Mosherberger and the hostesses, Mrs. A. H. Dean and Mrs. E. J. Allen. A delightful afternoon was passed in social conversation.

VACATIONIST BACK
Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. A. Snider and children of Sheridan street returned Thursday evening from a two weeks' vacation trip. The first week they spent at Myrtle Point with Mrs. Snider's sister and family and made trips daily to interesting points. From there they went to Marshfield to visit a cousin. They made trips to the mountains and to different coast resorts. Snider states that one of the most beautiful places he ever saw is Sunset beach near Shoreacres.

LIKEM IN HOSPITAL
Silverton—A. Likem, who lives in the Silverton hills near the falls, is in St. Vincent's hospital where he went Thursday, first for an examination only. He was found to be in rather a critical condition and will probably be there two or three months.

OLD RESIDENT BACK
Jefferson—Mrs. M. A. Longworth, a former Jefferson resident arrived from Hillsboro Wednesday and will spend the next two weeks visiting friends in this locality. Mrs. Longworth, who is past 80 has lived in and near Jefferson for many years. Her late husband, Rev. Longworth, was at one time pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. She is at present making her home with a daughter at Hillsboro.

ON VACATION TRIP
Stacyton—Miss Alice Downing is employed at the bank of Stacyton while some other employees are taking their summer vacations. Mrs. Blanch Scranton, who works there, will leave for Yellowstone park soon.

WILL RACE AROUND THE WORLD

Traveling in opposite directions, two New Yorkers, Charles Olsen (left) and Raffaele Maullari, will vie for a new record in circumnavigating the globe by regular transportation facilities.

REVIVAL MEETINGS HELD FOR TURNER

Turner—The series of revival meetings in session at the Turner Methodist Episcopal church, are drawing good attendance and Evangelist Ira Dumas is delivering some inspiring sermons. The meetings will close Sunday after two weeks of service.

Next Sunday morning during the Sunday school hour, the Children's Day program will be given. Recitations, songs, exercises, and special music will be enjoyed on this annual occasion. Evangelist Dumas will have charge of the morning and evening church services. The church will be especially decorated for the Children's day program.

The Children's day program was presented last Sunday at the Turner Christian church with a large attendance. Songs, readings, exercises and music made the program a beautiful success by the enthusiastic children. Rev. Earl Confer, pastor of the church was unable to be here, and sent another minister from Eugene who gave two splendid sermons at the morning and evening services.

SHAW TEACHER GIVES PARTY FOR STUDENTS

Shaw—Mr. Dorabough, teacher of Shaw public school, entertained her seventh and eighth grade classes in honor of their success in their state examinations. Elmer Gruchow, Henry Amos and Arlene Boock were successful in the eighth grade tests, while Cleo Barry and Alfred Amos passed in geography with high grades.

The party attended a picture show at the Elsinore theater in Salem, followed by a picnic supper at Hager's grove.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA
Silverton—Mrs. Laura Hubbs and daughter Blanche left Friday evening by train for Anaheim, near Los Angeles, to visit Mrs. Hubbs' son (Nate) and family. They expect to be gone several weeks.

MANGOLD ILL
Gervais—F. A. Mangold is confined to his bed at his home and his store is being managed by Frank Cannard until he regains his health.

Tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ivan C. Beers, Mrs. A. H. Dean, Mrs. C. J. Rice and Mrs. Jeanette Zimmerman. Mrs. Beers presided at the tea table which was attractively decorated with roses.

FORMER RESIDENT IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Stacyton—Mrs. Ellen Caldwell Barnes of South Salem is seriously ill with a serious malady. Mrs. Barnes was a resident of Stacyton many years and has many friends here who deeply regret her affliction. Her two sons, Willis and Denis Caldwell, owned the chair factory here several years. Willis is also now a resident of Salem and Denis of Portland, but he is spending most of his time at his mother's bedside. Miss Lena Cole, a niece of Sel, is assisting in her care.

SCOUTS ON TEST TRIP

Silverton—Wayne Tate, Billy Klub and Stewart Petty of the Boy Scouts troop No. 20 were making their 50 mile cycling test Saturday, going to Newberg and back on their bicycles. This will be 10 miles more than they are required to make.

ON ROSEBURG TRIP

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. James Brehaut and son, accompanied by Mrs. Dean and daughter, Lavern, drove to Roseburg Thursday where they will remain a month or more visiting their parents and other relatives. Mrs. Dean is a sister of Mr. Brehaut.

VISIT AT ALBANY

Silverton—Mrs. S. H. Graham and her little niece, Ila Jones who lives with the Gabriels, left for Albany and vicinity where they will visit Mrs. Graham's parents and other relatives. Graham will fish on the Abiqua for a few days with friends and leave for Albany about Tuesday. He is with the Union Oil company and is having a few weeks' vacation.

SILVERTON CANNERY MAY OPEN MONDAY

Silverton—It is thought that the local cannery will start up Monday with gooseberries. They also will put up strawberries, beans and prunes. An especially large pack of beans is expected for this fall. Plenty of help so far as is known has been registered for the opening season and more may be needed later.

INFANTRY COMPANY TO CAMP FOR DRILL

Silverton—The members of Company I, 102nd Infantry, will pitch their tents in the canyon Sunday morning, as a prelude for their leaving for camp Clatsop on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock. They will do rifle range work and parade with all paraphernalia in the canyon.

COLLEGE FOLK HOME TO SPEND VACATIONS

Woodburn—Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sims attended the graduation exercises at Oregon Agriculture college where their daughter, Miss Wava Sims, was one of the graduates. Miss Sims has secured a position as teacher in the city schools at Myrtle Creek for the next school year.

Other students of O. A. C. returning home for the summer are Miss Irma Wilson, Harvey Adams, Elmer Klump and Norman Richards. Miss Naomi Moehrerger has returned from University of Oregon and Misses Elizabeth McCord and Margaret Poorman are expected home Sunday.

FAREWELL DINNER AT SCHWAB HOME GIVEN

Mt. Angel—A farewell dinner was given at the Paul Schwab home on Thursday evening, in honor of Leonard and Raymond Fisher, who left Friday morning for their home in Ketchikan, Alaska, where they will stay for the summer.

Covers were placed for Leonard Fisher, Raymond Fisher, Miss Rose Hanning and Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Schwab.

POSTMISTRESS AWAY

Stacyton—Mrs. Emma Sloper and son Val Dore, with her sister, Miss Ida Frank, left Thursday morning for a visit with their sister, Mrs. Ellen Reynolds in San Francisco. They plan on a two weeks' vacation. Mrs. Sloper is postmistress and has employed Mrs. Nora Gardner to assist with her work while away.

CALLS AT MILL CITY

VISITORS ON SUNDAY

Sublimity—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Subbauer and children and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hasler and Vera, visited with Myles Kints and family of Jordan Sunday.

SILVERTON AIR CIRCUS WILL BE HELD JULY 6-7

Silverton—The American Legion members who are sponsoring the coming air circus have changed the date to Saturday and Sunday, July 6 and 7 instead of Friday and Saturday, June 21 and 22. At the later date more plans will be available and more prominent airmen will be able to present.

Captain Bond, head of Pearson Field, U. S. A. at Vancouver, states that they will be able to be here in July but could not attend the June date. Then too, another unit from Sandy Point will accompany the Pearson field fliers here.

It is expected that master of ceremonies for the two days will be Mr. French, president of the Oregon chapter of the National Aeronautical association.

It has been stated that Tex Rankin will bring one new or several new planes never seen here before, and that N. Manot of Spokane may bring a new Ford tri-motor, all metal plane, and C. Pounder may attend with his Curtiss Robin.

In addition to this the "Arrow Sport," a small bi-plane with a LeBlond five-cylinder radical motor, may be procured for the circus.

WOMEN LEAVE ON 2 MONTHS' TRIP EAST

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Anton Gilles of Mt. Angel, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Frances Grand of Oregon City, and Mrs. John Gilles of Woodburn, left on a two months' trip for Iowa and North Dakota where they will visit with relatives.

Mrs. Fred Deraght returned to her home in Portland after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Mary Butsch.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Palm and family left the first of the week for Los Angeles, Calif., where they intend staying for some time.

ATTORNEY CALLS

Jefferson—Austin Myers, an attorney from Ellensburg, Wash., was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Josephine Looney, Tuesday.

WOMAN INJURED AT HAZEL GREEN PARK

Hazel Green—Mrs. Albert L. Girod of Salem, route eight, had a bad scare and suffered a severe cut on her head and minor cuts and bruises last Thursday evening when the "trolley car" amusement device on which she was riding at Hazel Green park, lurched sideways, struck a tree, and threw Mrs. Girod and the eight year old sister of Mrs. C. Ward Davis from the board.

Both managed to grasp the iron handles as the car swung out over the 200 feet gully, some 30 to 40 feet in the air, at a speed estimated at 35 miles per hour. The handholds were slick, and the little girl started to slip. Mrs. Girod gripped her about the waist with her knees and they were carried safely to the other side.

Mrs. Girod was given first aid at the C. Clemens home nearby.

MARION WOMAN HURT IN FALL FROM CHAIR

Marion—Mrs. R. O. Small fell from a chair while peering a room and injured herself quite severely. Mrs. Charile Small of Summit, is caring for her.

Prof. and Mrs. L. R. Ayers will spend their summer vacation in Eugene where they both will take summer courses.

Bonnie Waak has returned to her home here from Mill City where she has been teaching school. Mrs. Waak and her mother, Mrs. Fred Waak are planning on a trip to Iowa this summer.

SMITHS EXPECT GUESTS

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith of the Needlecraft shop expect as their guests soon Mrs. Smith's brother, Theodore Shattuck of Chicago. Shattuck is an insurance salesman and wrote out a $100,000 policy to one man a few days ago, according to word received here. Two of their daughters, Miss Kathryn of Medford, Ore., and Theo, Mrs. Charles Friend and baby daughter Marjorie Nanette of Shreveport, Louisiana, will also be here in the near future.
