

INDEPENDENCE GETS EXTENSION OF MAIL ROUTE

Independence—Rural route No. 2 out of this city has added several patrons to the list by making two extensions consisting of four miles. One will go to the A. McLaughlin hop ranch and serve the families of J. W. Graber, W. A. Osburn, L. M. Todd and others. The other addition taken in the district north and west of Parker and about two miles on the highway. The route will follow the new road constructed by the county last year leading to the Heintz bridge, passing C. W. Sparks and Bruce Sparks' places. It follows the highway north from the bridge about two miles, then turning east to the Brading and Smith farms, going from there into the Highland road. This makes a route of 4.5 miles with only two miles paved on the entire route.

P. J. Dickinson is the congressional carrier on this route.
