

THIRTY PLANES FOR SILVERTON CIRCUS SIGNED

Silverton—At the present time about 30 planes have signed to be present at the local air circus to be held on July 8 and 7 and sponsored by the American Legion assisted by the Chamber of Commerce. General Chairman C. A. Reynolds has appointed the following committees for the event:

Program, advertising, prizes—W. Arbuthnot, Alfred Adams, A. J. Tibus, Brick Heblitt.

Finance and gate—Forest Stamey, L. Cooper, C. R. Wilson, S. Beebe.

Concessions and grounds—Ernest Starr and Clifford Rue.

Operations—Casper Towe, W. I. Boulester.

Police and Traffic—Nye Bristol, Harry Craig, Harry Bensen, A. Hemington.

Transportation—Earl Hartman, D. Allen, Arthur Dahl, R. Hendricks.

Housing—Clifford Rue and Austin Eastman.

Collections—Dr. Arthur Simmons, Earl Adams.

Dance—Gladys Hamre, George Towe, Dick Whitfield.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS MEETING AT TALBOT

Talbot—The Talbot Woman's Club met with Mrs. John Calavan at her home near Talbot recently. Holl call, "What the club has done for me," was well responded to by the following members: Mrs. Robert Austin, Mrs. George Patton, Mrs. Danley Turnidge, Mrs. Sara Taylor, Mrs. Albert Davidson, Mrs. Rosa Sayles, Mrs. Delman Davidson, Mrs. Charles Eummins, Miss Thelma Gunn, Miss Neva Eummins, Miss Kreta Calavan and the hostess, Mrs. John Calavan.

After the short business meeting the guests were amused with games. A prize was awarded Mrs. Robert Austin.

At four o'clock lunch was served by Mrs. Calavan, assisted by Kreta Calavan and Neva Eummins. Mrs. Fred Myers was a special guest for the afternoon.

KINGWOOD

Kingwood—Dr. Emma Curtis Tucker, of Chadron, Nebraska, who was a house guest at the St. Pierre home last week, is a very interesting woman, having hiked around the world. A number of years ago she and a young woman companion hiked across the United States, taught school that year in Oregon, and sailed to China in the summer. Dr. Tucker secured a teaching position in Japan a year and one in India, hiking across between continents in vacations. Then, still hiking she crossed the remainder of Asia, and Europe, and returned to America by steamer, and has been teaching in Nebraska the past school year. With this cosmopolitan experience and a happy gift of reminiscence, she is remarkably entertaining visitor. She left for Seattle last week.

Miss Hazel Emmert, who graduated with the June class from the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth last Friday, has moved home to enjoy her vacation before beginning her school in West Salem, in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigard Osland, who arrived with their sons, Robert and John Osland, from Woonsocket, South Dakota, Wednesday, visited at the G. Elmer Vosburgh home Sunday. They will make their home in Hollywood.

Miss Mary Slag is making an extended visit at the John Riebeck home.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKay, of Brooks were guests at the S. A. Laramie place recently.

Prof. Fred Denker, of Kansas, stopped at the St. Pierre home for a few days' visit en route to Portland to attend the Rose Festival.

Mrs. A. P. Erpelting, daughters, Hildegard and Margeline, and son, Leonard, who lived on Kingwood Terrace last year, returned for a visit at the G. E. Vosburgh home not long ago.

Robert M. Simmons, Miss Helen Hale, and mother of Brownsville visited at the Theodore Bernard home Sunday. Mr. Simmons is a son of Mrs. Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grimm and four children, Robert, Barbara, Josephine and Frederick Jim, of McGill, Nevada, early friends of Mable St. Pierre, were her guests over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Pearsons and little Betty Jean, of Albany were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peterson, sister of Mrs. Bernard.

HAS OPERATION
Independence—Midge Hewett, daughter of Mrs. Fred G. Hewett of this city underwent a tonsil operation Thursday morning at the office of Drs. Knott and McCoumel.

SPECIAL! Carnival
DANCE
Mellow Moon

Plenty of fun for Everyone
Thomas Bros. Dance Band

PREMIER MACDONALD AND HIS CABINET

Holding prominent posts in the new labor government of Great Britain headed by Premier MacDonald are: Top row, left to right: Philip Snowden, chancellor of exchequer; Lord Parmoor; lord president of council; Sir John Sankey, lord chancellor; Arthur Henderson, foreign secretary. Middle row: William Graham, president of board of trade; Premier MacDonald; Margaret Bondfield, minister of labor. Lower row: John Clynes, home affairs; J. H. Thomas, lord privy seal; Tom Shaw, secretary of war, and Sydney Webb, secretary of dominions. A. V. Alexander, is first lord of admiralty.

FIREMEN PLANNING DANCE CELEBRATION

Mr. Angel—The Mt. Angel firemen are making final preparations for a dance, Tuesday evening, to celebrate the purchase of a large new Lincoln fire truck.

The dance will be given Tuesday evening in the school auditorium and the proceeds will be used to help pay for the new truck.

The committee in charge of the dance include C. J. Terhaar, A. T. Butsch and John Biggs. Special music will be had for the dance.

HAZEL GREEN

Guy Looney and son Glen motored to Philomath Monday for the purpose of bringing home Guy Alton Looney Jr., who has been attending college there the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunigan Sr. were dinner guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards of Salem. The Edwards were former residents of this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunigan Sr. spent Saturday at the Lebanon strawberry festival and incidentally visited with a number of friends who were formerly located in this vicinity among them being Peter Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bartruff (Louie Peckies), and Mr. O. E. Peckies and sons Ralph and Frank. The late Mrs. Peckies was for many years the pastor of the local church. The Peckies are now located near Lacombe on a strawberry ranch.

BROADACRES

Mr. and Mrs. Arne Kelmo from Laramie, Wyoming, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Reinford and their daughter, Mrs. Louise Madden. Ole Alexander, a nephew of Mr. Reinford, was also their guest recently. He was also from Laramie.

Word received states that Mr. Libby, who was taken seriously ill in Portland, is now on the way to recovery.

GATES

Miss Maxine Doyle left last week for a visit of several days with her aunt, Miss Mabel Stitt, who is employed in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner spent last week in Salem, visiting and transacting business.

GIRL RESERVES HOLD PICNIC WEDNESDAY

Silverton—The local Girl Reserve troop planed on the banks of the Abiqua Wednesday. There were 12 of the girls and one advisor, Mrs. Lee Alfred. The girls spent the hours swimming, picking flowers and having marshmallow and wicker roasts. The girls also had two meals out on the green.

SCOTTS MILLS BARBER MOVES HIS BUSINESS

C. W. Johnson moved his confectionery and barber shop Friday into the Reed building property that he has recently purchased and remodeled for that purpose. He is still on the same street but on the opposite side.

Mrs. Robert Shilts and children drove from Bridge, Ore., here and visited a sister, Mrs. Maude Myers and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maria of near Molalla. They recently left for home and Mr. and Mrs. James Shilts returned with them for a few weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scott who just lately moved to Culp Creek were back for a few days this week attending to business matters here.

SUBLIMITY

J. N. Jangwirth and Frank Klecker have just finished painting the bell tower at St. Boniface church.

Mrs. Rose Reisterer and daughter Helen motored to Salem Wednesday in company with Mr. and Mrs. George Bell of Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Zimmermann and George Zimmermann autoted to Salem Thursday.

W. J. Terhaar made a business trip to Portland Thursday.

ON CANADIAN TRIP

Silverton—Ted Hobart and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alvin Hobart, and children of the Wildwood golf links on the Columbia Highway west of Portland, left a few days ago for Kelowna, British Columbia, where they will visit Mrs. Hobart's sister and family and also will spend some time visiting friends in that vicinity.

GUESTS AT FINLEYS

Evergreen—Mr. and Mrs. Dan McFarland of Condon, Oregon, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Finley of Evergreen. Mrs. Finley is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. McFarland.

CASEYS ANNUAL OUTING MAY BE HELD AUGUST 4

Mt. Angel—At a recent meeting of the Knights of Columbus, plans were made for their annual outing and picnic. The tentative date is set for August 4, at Champegoe park.

Frank Duda and daughter, Miss Teresa Duda, left Sunday for Omaha, Neb., where they will visit with relatives and friends for an indefinite time. They will also tour the middle west, and on their return trip will visit with the Rehoboth boys at Stevensville, Mont. The Dudas are prominent farmers living east of town.

Miss Gladys McGee left for an extended trip to Minnesota, where she will visit with relatives and friends. Miss McGee is a teacher in the St. Mary's school here.

Rev. Father Bede Rose, D. D., returned Thursday from a two month mission at Clarkston, Wash., where he had been relieving the resident priest during a trip to Rome.

George Kinney of Albany, a former Mt. Angel college student, was a visitor here recently.

Joseph Imralle and Leo Gilfeather of Santa Rosa, Calif., and Ted Voss of Palo Alto, Calif., visited with friends here and at Mt. Angel college Thursday.

GENTLE PRESENTS GRADUATION TALK

Mehama—Thomas Gentle of the University of Oregon faculty was the speaker at graduation exercises for the eighth grade of Mehama school held Tuesday evening in the local church. Chester Rubin, chairman of the Mehama school board, introduced the speaker and members of the graduating class.

Mrs. Mary L. Fikerson, county school superintendent, presented diplomas to the following graduates: Arlyn Moe, Alice Marts, Elma Carruth, Ina Goodell, Alice Boyington, Lorene Landers and Harry Monroe.

Mrs. Lillian Poyner, teacher of the school the past year, has been elected for another term.

ILL-FATED FAMILY GOING TO HOOD RIVER

Silverton—Fred Haskins and six children expect to move from the Cowing addition to Hood River next Wednesday where they will be employed during the summer season. The family came from the middle west some time ago. Ill luck has followed them ever since.

Mr. Haskins was out of work for months, then Mrs. Haskins was taken ill and passed away. Now the children have all just recovered from a siege of the mumps and were out of quarantine Wednesday.

EDITOR LEAVES

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Norman Parquharson, who have been editing the Mt. Angel News for the past 14 months, left for College Place, Washington, where they will visit relatives and friends for some time. Mr. Parquharson has not decided on a new location, but has several places in view.

GORDON OFF TO CAMP

Silverton—Bryan Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon of the Silverton Hills, left Friday morning for Camp Lewis, where he will be at encampment for two weeks. Bryan has attended school at Oregon Agricultural college for two years and intends going back this fall.

VISITS JARVIS HOME

Silverton—Mrs. Mary Jarvis of Salem is visiting at the home of her son, Clair, and family this week. Miss Ethel Graham was taken to The Dalles by Mrs. George Shalhammer a day or two ago, where she is visiting her mother for a few weeks.

TICKET AGENT ON TRIP

Independence—P. E. Montgomery left at midnight Thursday for a pleasure trip to California. He is traveling by train and his place as agent at the depot is being filled temporarily by Oscar Frederickson.

WEST SALEM

West Salem—Miss Florence Nutting of Albany was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Hubbell Young at her home on Plaza street.

Delbert Moore came down from Eugene Monday to spend several days' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Moore, and other relatives. Moore is the violin instructor in the Eugene schools.

Mrs. W. R. Anderson of Salem and her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Rinehart, of Tacoma, Wash., were Tuesday luncheon guests of Mrs. Mary Billings and Miss Lottie McAdams.

Miss Evelyn Thomas went to Oak Point near Independence Monday evening to attend the program and graduation exercises of the eighth grade of the Oak Point school.

Mrs. Alta Gillian and sister, Miss Iva Richardson of Baker, Oregon, arrived here Monday for an all-summer's stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lemon. Mrs. Gillian, who is Mrs. Lemon's mother, visits here frequently.

The L. D. S. relief society of Salem, of which a number of West Salem women are members, held a picnic at the Eola springs Wednesday.

Mrs. Ernest Moore, of Monmouth, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Moore, of Edgewater street.

The Warren Bakers, of the Robertson apartments on Kingwood avenue, have purchased an acreage on Cascade Drive and plan to erect a residence in the near future. The city water department has recently made water connections there.

ANKENY CLUB HAS MEETING THURSDAY

Silverton—Mrs. Fred Myers entertained the Ankeny Woman's club Thursday at her home near Talbot. Attractively arranged bowls of roses were used to decorate the rooms.

Current events were discussed by the members in response to roll call. Mrs. C. F. Meier gave a character sketch from the Bible on the life of Paul, while Mrs. C. F. Johnston presented a paper on Cottonwoods. Mrs. R. H. Farr was awarded the prize in the game furnished by Mrs. M. J. Davidson.

Refreshments were served at four o'clock by the hostess, Mrs. Myers, assisted by Mrs. C. F. Meier. Those present included Mrs. R. H. Farr, Mrs. C. F. Johnston, Mrs. C. F. Meier, Mrs. E. L. Finlay, Mrs. Sidney Howard, Mrs. Lewis Smith, Miss Janis Meier and the hostess, Mrs. Fred Myers. Mrs. John Calavan was a special guest.

TRIES TO CRANK CAR, IT PLUNGES IN RIVER

Scio—Rudolf Weesly was cranking his Ford at the Scio cannery last Saturday when the machine headed for the mill race before the owner could reach the steering wheel. The car plunged into the race and was somewhat damaged.

Clark Mumper of Scio has enlisted in the Oregon national guard and is attending the annual encampment for two weeks.

Roy Devlin and family and his sister, Miss Myrtle Devlin came in from Wray, Colo., a few days ago and have taken berry picking jobs at Lacombe. Mrs. Devlin is a niece of C. M. Donovan of the Scio hotel.

Mrs. R. S. Davis is under treatment at the state tuberculosis sanitarium in Salem.

Raymond Churney returned a few days ago from Eugene, where he completed a term in public accounting at the state university. He will be on the road most of the summer and expects to return to the university in September.

ATTEND GRADUATION

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berrit and daughters motored to Portland Thursday to attend the graduation of their daughter, Miss Marie Berrit, from the school of nursing at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland.

MISS KUNG VISITS

Silverton—Florence Merryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Merryman of the Cowing addition has as her house guest, Lan Chen Kung, a senior at O. A. C., who will complete her course there by fall, after which she intends to go to New York to study some time before returning to her home in China, where she intends to teach.

DOCTOR RECOVERING

Silverton—Word has been received from Dr. H. S. Sauve that he has suffered a nervous breakdown while visiting his friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dedrich at Seattle, Wash. His health is now improving and he expects to be in Portland again soon and will make it a point to visit his friends both in Silverton and in Mt. Angel.

LEAVING FOR DAKOTA

Silverton—Mrs. Rasmus Wik and four daughters of Koons street will leave next week for Pierpont, South Dakota, where they expect to spend the summer visiting Mrs. Wik's parents and other relatives. Mr. Wik will remain here as he is employed in the Silver Falls mill.

MANY ATTENDING LAYMEN'S RETREAT

Mt. Angel—Many men are arriving from all parts of Oregon and Washington to attend the ninth annual Laymen's Retreat, now being held at Mt. Angel college.

The retreat started Friday morning and will close Sunday morning with mass at the St. Benedict's Abbey church.

The Rt. Rev. Abbot Lambert Burton, O. S. B., of St. Martin's college, Lacey, Wash., is conducting the retreat. Many who are unable to stay at the college for the entire retreat, take advantage of the wonderful talks given each evening at 7:30 at the college.

FORMER SILVERTON MAN MAKES BURNER

Silverton—Jonas Kloppenstein of Portland, a former Silverton resident and who has been on the Portland police force for several years was in the city a few days ago and told of a sawdust burner he had recently invented and is now manufacturing. He states that he is selling them at the average of 30 per month. He says these burners absolutely burn no kerosene or other grades. He has named his burner the "Superior."

OBERSINNER HOME IS SCENE FOR SURPRISE

Mt. Angel—Complimenting Mrs. Joseph Obersinner on the occasion of her birthday, a number of friends honored her with a surprise party recently at the Obersinner home north of here.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Obersinner, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Butsch, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultsberger, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Q. L. Richards.

JESSIE RICHARDS HOME

Aunsville—Miss Jessie Richards, a senior at the Oregon normal school is home to spend a week here with her parents and friends. Miss Richards attended school at Aunsville in 1928 and next September she will begin teaching her first school which is the primary room at Williston, Oregon. Her many friends are wishing her success in her school work.

TWO CANDIDATES IN SCHOOL BOARD RACE

Silverton—The question of a director to be elected on the school board on Monday, June 7 has now come to two candidates, namely Otto Legard of the Men's furnishing store and Dr. Edolph Klein-sorge to succeed himself.

Checks and judges of the election will be as follows: William Swilley, Mrs. T. E. Preston, Ed Booth and J. Hobbelt.

AIRLIE

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bybee and children motored to Newport Wednesday for the day.

Loren Cooper and George Williamson went to Portland on business Wednesday.

Dr. V. C. Sinaas was called to the home of "Uncle" Tom Williams' home.

Gilbert Williamson is a proud owner of a new sport roadster.

Mrs. Harold Withrow and sons Harold and Roland and Mrs. John McCustin motored to Los Angeles, Calif., for two months' visit with friends.

A farewell party was given in J. P. Wiersner hall in honor of Guy Tarter who is leaving for Philadelphia, Pa., where he will be employed.

FIND APPLES GROWING ON FOUR-FOOT SPRIG

Silverton—Mr. J. Rogers of route one found a four-foot sprout on one of his apple trees bearing 24 healthy looking apples. The twig had some time ago been broken off near the root and had grown out. The base of the sprout is nearly one inch through but is bent nearly double from the weight of the fruit. He is wondering how many of the apples, if any, will mature.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Silverton Hills—Mrs. Anton Sacher and baby son, Arthur Lee are at the home of Mrs. Sacher's mother, Mrs. J. H. Larson, where they arrived this week from the Silverton hospital. Mrs. Sacher and infant will remain with Mrs. Larson for a short time before going to their own home.

Salem's House of Hits

CAPITOL THEATRE

LAST TIMES TODAY—SEE AND HEAR FATSY RUTH MILLER in "Marriage By Contract"

Starts Tomorrow—4 Big Days

WILLIAM FOX PRESENTS
ALL-DIALOG
MOVIE-TONE FEATURE
SPEAKEASY
hear New York City talk

Actual Scenes—Actual Sounds—Actually Photographed
In The Great Metropolitan HEAR ALL THAT YOU SEE
As You Are Whirled Through a Throbbing NEWSPAPER PLANT
CHEER with Premier Mob Watching a FIGHT AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN
PLUNGE into the Battle of Riders during THE SUBWAY RUSH HOUR
JOIN the Swirling, Milling Crowds at GRAND CENTRAL STATION
YELL with the Frantic Throngs at EMPIRE CITY RACE TRACK
PUSH Your Way Down Jostling BROADWAY
CRASH the Gate of a Famous SPEAKEASY in the FIFTIES
Get a Line on the Revelry and Jazz EXPERIENCE THESE AND A HUNDRED OTHER THRILLS
In the First Pulsating, Rapid-Fire, Thrill-Drama of Glamorous New York and 100 VITAPHONE ACTS and latest FOR MOVIE-TONE NEWS

COMING! ONE WEEK STARTS JUNE 23rd

The Screen's Perfect Talking Voice
MARY PICKFORD
in "Coquette"

100% TALKING PICTURE
A UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE

ELSINORE
"Salem's Greatest Entertainment"

Last Times Today!
Don't Miss It

RICHARD DIX 100% All Talkie
Nothing But the Truth

L. CARLOS MEIER Organist

STARTS SUNDAY

THE MAN I LOVE 100% Talkie
Government Picture

with RICHARD ARLEN
MARY BRIAN, BACLANOVA, JACK OAKIE, HARRY GREEN

EXTRA
EDDIE CANTOR in "Ziegfeld's Frolic"
Fashion Marco "Varieties"

ELSINORE
ONE NIGHT ONLY THURS., JUNE 20TH

MUSICAL TRIUMPH OF THE SEASON

THE DESERT SONG

LAST TIME IN THE FLESH
LILLIAN ALBERTSON PRESENTS
The Most Successful of Romantic Operettas

NOW PLAYING IN LONDON, NEW YORK AND CHICAGO

A thrilling love story of the hills unfolding in Northern Africa at an outpost of the French Foreign Legion. Musical score by Sigmund Romberg, better than his "Student Prince" or "Blossom Time". Best "ONCE ALONE" and "THE DESERT SONG" and other hits.

NOT A MOTION PICTURE
COMPANY OF 100

PRICES: Lower floor and Mezzanine $3.00
Balcony $1.00, $2.00 and $2.50

MAIL ORDERS NOW
Send stamped, self addressed envelope for safe return of tickets.
Box Office opens June 15th. Order now. Don't get left.

Cecil Stewart's Symphony Orchestra