

BOWEN CLAN IN REUNION SUNDAY AT SILVERTON

Silverton—The fifth annual reunion of the Bowen clan was held Sunday all day at the local Knights of Pythias hall. Because of weather conditions and also because of a wedding in the Bowen family at Sherwood on that day, the gathering was somewhat smaller than in previous years. Nevertheless, a large number were in attendance.

At the election of officers the following were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. Chester Selfarth, Portland; secretary-treasurer, Mary E. Klemm, Salem, chairman of program, Merle Bowen, Silverton.

The place of meeting has been permanently fixed to be at Silverton as that is where the Bowens first settled when coming west.

POWELL MEMORIAL SOCIETY TO MEET

Monmouth—The annual reunion of the Powell Memorial society will be held next Sunday at the convention grounds of the Christian church at Turner. Members are the descendants and relatives of John A. Noah and Alfred Powell, and Mrs. Lucinda Powell Propst. The Powells emigrated to Oregon in 1831. The reunion this year will be featured with a sermon by Albert Egan. A picnic dinner will be served at noon.

"Billy" states that weather conditions were not so bad while in camp and the fishing was excellent. Mrs. Jack having made the biggest catch, a 17-inch red-side trout. On the way home they encountered a 12-mile stretch of snow with fresh snow still falling as they passed through.

ANNUAL ROBERTSON CLAN MEETING HELD

Turner—The Robertson clan held its annual reunion on Saturday and Sunday in the camp grounds of the Turner Christian tabernacle. A bounteous picnic dinner was enjoyed by all present at the noon hour.

A large attendance of members was present for the day, but due to rainy weather there was not as large a gathering as last year when almost a hundred members of the clan were here. A business meeting was held in the afternoon. Younger members enjoyed games and other sports during the day.

This is, supposedly, the largest family known in the world, dating back over one hundred and twelve years with a complete record of each member, and their address. This meeting makes the thirteenth annual gathering since the clan was organized, and is one of the largest clans to hold an annual two-day session.

SILVERTON FRIENDS CALL ON NEWLYWEDS

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Portland arrived at the home of her mother, Mrs. Cincinnati Bowen of the Silverton-Salem high school, Saturday and spent the week-end.
