

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Rosalia Keber Phone 62

Upton Close Honored by Local Group

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Upton Close (Josef Hill) and their son, Joseph Hill, distinguished guests in Salem Wednesday, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin entertained with an interesting luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the Spa.

Mr. Close came to the Willamette valley Tuesday evening for a lecture at Monmouth normal school and for a similar talk Wednesday at Corvallis. Dr. Franklin, who was a member of the Upton Close expedition to the Orient last summer with Mrs. Franklin, invited Mr. and Mrs. Close to come to Salem Wednesday to meet Rev. Norman K. Tully, Professor Roy Hewitt, Professor Roy Lockenour and Ronald Hewitt, who will be members of the party in charge of Mr. Close, which sails Tuesday from Seattle for a summer tour of China and Japan.

After luncheon the group enjoyed a social afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Tully. Mrs. Close sang several numbers and Mr. Close gave very interesting accounts of his travels.

In the group were the honor guests and Professor S. B. Lauchlin, Mrs. Roy Hewitt, Ronald Hewitt, Dr. and Mrs. Franklin, Professor Roy Lockenour, and Rev. and Mrs. Tully.

14 Local Teachers Attend State Meet

Among those from Salem in attendance at the annual state convention of Oregon music teachers in session in Portland Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were Miss Elizabeth Levy, corresponding secretary of the state organization; Miss Francis Virginia Melton, president of the Salem association; Miss Lena Belle Tiantar, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill, Lena Waters, Mabel S. Powers, Elma Weller, Mrs. Frank Liburn, Mrs. Walter A. Denton, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Ruth Bedford and Mrs. W. R. Bush. Seventy-five music teachers outside of Portland were present for the convention sessions which were held in the Little Theater of the studio building.

Announcement was made that the 1930 convention the third week in June will be held in Salem.

Dr. Norman Tully Leaving for China

In honor of Dr. Norman Tully, who will leave Sunday for the Upton Close expedition for an 11-week tour of the Orient, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Chambers entertained with an interesting affair Tuesday evening in their home on North Sumner street. The group included the honor guest, Dr. Tully, Mrs. Tully, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schultz, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Miller and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers.

The missionary society of Calvary Baptist church will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Sam Willis on the Portland highway. Mrs. Curtis will conduct the devotional and reports will be given on the state Baptist convention held at Roseburg this spring. A pot-luck dinner will be served at 6 o'clock to society members and their families. In case of inclement weather the meeting will be held at the church.

Hill Hubbard auxiliary will be entertained with a social afternoon Friday at the home of Mrs. L. Mickelson, 1610 South Commercial street.

Mrs. Oliver Locke Luncheon Hostess

The outstanding social event of the week was the delightful bridge luncheon for which Mrs. Oliver C. Locke was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. Damon, in Independence.

Lovely bowls of pink roses centered the luncheon tables with covers arranged for Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. A. S. Hussey, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Miss Mabel Creighton, Mrs. John Caughell, Jr., Mrs. Louise Chapin of Los Angeles, California, and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard of Independence, all special guests, and the following club members: Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. F. H. Dancy, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. Milton I. Meyers, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. George P. Rodgers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. W. A. Jones and the hostess, Mrs. Locke.

Several hours of bridge were enjoyed following the luncheon. The first prize for high score honors was won by Mrs. Hollis Huntington.

Willing Workers Class Entertained

The willing workers class of the First Christian church was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dorothy McDowell on North J. th street.

A profusion of spring flowers decorated the living rooms and dining room. After the business meeting the group enjoyed a social afternoon with refreshments at the tea hour, by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Nellie Clark, Mrs. George Gibson, Mrs. L. H. Dunn, Mrs. C. E. Bowen, Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. B. W. Macy, Mrs. Homer Conklin, Mrs. Earl Wood, Mrs. Nellie Schleimer, Mrs. A. B. Seely, Mrs. D. J. Howe, Mrs. George Alderin, Mrs. H. A. Cuzenberry, Mrs. A. A. Carpee, Mrs. C. J. Emerick, Mrs. J. D. Scarce, Mrs. Ivan C. Martin, Mrs. Marie Miltenberger, Mrs. C. F. Reilly, Mrs. A. J. Flint, Mrs. G. H. Hunter, Mrs. Albert Cox, Mrs. Harry Hunt, Mrs. A. P. North, Rev. D. J. Howe, William May and the hostess, Mrs. McDowell.

Sublimity—A large number of relatives and friends attended the shower given Sunday evening in honor of Miss Margaret Schumacher whose marriage to Roman Kintz will take place at St. Boniface church Tuesday, June 25.

Federation Fall Meeting At Mill City

Hubbard—The annual fall meeting of the Marion county Federation of Women's clubs will be held in Mill City in October with the Mill city and Gates clubs joint hostesses. Organizations for the session, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Waldo F. Brown, president of the county federation, at a board meeting earlier in the week at Hubbard.

Mrs. Brown entertained members of the board with a luncheon Tuesday afternoon at Hubbard Mineral springs. After luncheon the group made a tour of the new sanitarium located at the springs.

At the business session, Mrs. D. H. Looney of Jefferson, chairman of the children's farm home committee of the federation, read her report for the year in which she announced that a total of $344 now remains in the fund. Mrs. Brown will announce chairmen and personnel of the education, child welfare, conservation, civic, federation and extension and legislative committees later in the summer.

Board members in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Brown, president; Mrs. G. B. Bentzen of Silverton, vice president; Mrs. Wm. F. Fargo of Salem, secretary; Mrs. E. Bradle of Aurora, treasurer; and Mrs. C. H. Brewer of Stayton and Mrs. D. H. Looney of Jefferson, directors.

Miss Aletha Allen Bride of Ira Dumas

At a simple but impressive service solemnized Tuesday evening, June 18, at 8 o'clock at the Friends church at Scotts Mills, Miss Aletha Allen, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Allen of Scotts Mills, became the bride of Ira P. Dumas, son of Mrs. Fred Griffith of Portland.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Rev. J. N. Walker, wore a wedding gown of white crepe with a full length tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of rosebuds and sweet peas.

Miss Laura Cammack of Rose-dale, the only bridal attendant, wore lavender crepe de chine and carried pink and lavender sweet peas.

Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Dwight Armstrong, violinist.

After the service, a reception at the Allen home. Assisting in serving were Miss Margaret Coulson, Miss Ruth Kellogg and Miss Mary Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dumas are both graduates of the North Pacific Evangelistic institute, Portland. Following his graduation in 1926, Mr. Dumas served as pastor of the Pratum Methodist church for two years and since that time has been engaged in evangelistic work in various parts of Oregon. Mrs. Dumas completed her work at the institute last spring.

West Salem Couple Wed Wednesday

West Salem—One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 13, at 8 o'clock, in the Ford Memorial church, when Miss Mabel Melvina Hillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Miller of Portland, became the bride of Robert Arthur Clark, son of Mrs. Lula Clark, of West Salem.

The bridal party stood before a latticed arch banked with strings of pink and white roses. The single ring service was read by the Rev. Meredith A. Groves in the presence of one hundred fifty relatives and friends.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Margaret O'Dell of Pringle sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Betty Bedford at the piano. The wedding march from Lohengren was played by Miss Bedford.

The bride, who was in charge, Marie Adams, was lovely in a gown of shell pink tulle, made with uneven hem line. Her full-length tulle veil was caught in cap fashion with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Canterbury bells.

The bridal attendants were Miss Florence St. Pierre who wore a frock of green georgette, Miss Gladys Clark, sister of the groom, gowned in orchid georgette and Miss Mary St. Pierre in yellow georgette. They carried arm bouquets of carnations, roses and sweet peas.

Little Georgia Rose Cook, in yellow and Helen May Cook in blue were the flower girls. They carried baskets tied with yellow and blue ribbons.

Mr. Ross acted as best man, The ushers were Floyd Albin, Ivan Simmons, Miss Sarah Bridgeman and Miss Chairette LaDue.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Clark left for a two weeks' wedding trip to the beaches, Crater Lake and over the Mt. Hood loop.

Hunt Club Races Event Of Saturday

Much interest and enthusiasm are being evinced in the matinee races and derby of the Salem Hunt club which will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the fairgrounds track.

George Reynolds will act as superintendant of the track and announcer and the starter will be chosen by the judge. Doris Loveland is paddock supervisor; and Mrs. Harold Hughes and Miss Erna Bolander have charge of the prizes. Ann Stoop is traffic director.

Although the list of entries is quite complete accommodations are available for several more if entries are listed by Friday noon.

The schedule of events will be as follows: Junior race, one-eighth mile, 18 years or under; ladies' trotting event, trot or pace; ladies' dash, ladies only, one-fourth mile; potato race, all riders; Gretzina Green; relay race; gentlemen's heavy race, 180 pounds or over, one-fourth mile; Salem derby, one-half mile.

The general public is invited to attend the races a feature of which will be the entry of Patsy, owned by Jimmy Emmons, who won the red ribbon in the spring meet of the Portland Hunt club at the Aaron M. Frank ring near Garden Home last week-end.

Miss Opal Brewer Nice of Stayton Weds Saturday

Silverton—Miss Opal Brewer, niece of Stayton and Charles Cecil, now of Stayton, wed quietly Saturday evening at the parsonage of the First Methodist church with Rev. James A. Hardie officiating. Miss Gertrude Olson and Margaret Effe were attendants. The young couple will reside in Salem.

Turner—Of interest to Turner friends—Miss Lucille Pearson, whose home is in Pendleton, is the news of her departure on Saturday from New York for a three months' tour of Europe, returning the latter part of September. Miss Pearson

West Salem Couple Wed Wednesday

They will return to make their home on Ridge street.

Out of town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Benjamin Miller of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gurgurich, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Tozney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Grabenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Fabry, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Allin, Miss Ruth Stapleton, Miss Myrna Bonney and Miss Aline Olsen of Pringle.

Miss Jaquet and Mr. Goode Married

The wedding of Miss Minnie Jaquet, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jaquet, and Emory J. Goode of Salem, was solemnized Sunday at the country home of the bride's parents at Victor, Tend Rev. M. P. Smalley of Portland, read the service.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Oma Goode of Salem, sang "Eden", accompanied by Miss Genevieve Kuni. Miss Madeleine Saucy played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal couple stood beneath a latticed arch entwined with roses in a wild flower garden. Donald Jaquet, dressed in a black velvet suit, opened the lattice gateway, and little Vivienne Jaquet, niece of the bride, wearing a frock of yellow organdy, was the flower girl.

The bride wore an attractive gown of white tulle and lace with a full length tulle veil banded with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of rosebuds and sweet peas.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Goode will return to occupy their new home on the Silverton-Salem highway.

Elkins—Miss Gertrude Greg of Wren, Oregon and Frank McEldowney, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McEldowney, were married Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock at the home of Rev. Victor A. Balentine at Airlie.

Following the service a wedding dinner was served at the McEldowney home at Elkins. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. McEldowney left for a short trip to the Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. David Bennett Hill and her daughter, Charlotte, are spending several weeks in Pendleton with relatives and friends.

Mrs. B. J. Gies is accompanying her home on the past few weeks, Mrs. C. A. Miller, as far as Portland Thursday morning on her return trip to Arkansas City, Kansas. Guests at the Miles' home this week are Mrs. Miles' cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Donaghy of Kansas City, Missouri.

Miss Edith Panning will leave Friday for San Jose, California where she will spend six weeks at the state teachers' college. Mrs. Bert Panning will accompany her daughter south.

Miss Edith DeNise, teacher of French at Willamette university, is spending a fortnight in Eugene as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass.

There's beauty to this Comfort

Let Your Spring Arch Support Footwear be One of the Smart Patterns We Are Now Showing in New Supertarsal Footwear

Clever, tried and cutouts, in blond, black and tan kied.

No longer need you hesitate in giving your feet the solace of health shoes because you thought they wouldn't be as pretty as shoes bought purely for style. These new arch support shoes are as spicy and delightful in design as you could wish.

Make your selection now while we can fit you perfectly in any style. Pair

$6.85 and $7.85

Hamilton Shoe Co. 118 South High Street

Your first long run tells you what sort of a car you've got

Some cars tire you, some cars fight you, but this Reo Flying Cloud is with you all the way. There's not a car (in any class) that can hold the road better—for safe speed on the straightaway, for the smooth swing around the turns.*

It has an engine that picks up quickly at any speed—high or low . . . brakes that stop without skidding (and we mean precisely that) . . . springs that cushion out all shocks without side-sway or lurch.

For versatile performance, safety, comfort, beauty and mechanical dependability, a Reo Flying Cloud holds its own with the world's finest.

Now you can have a Reo Flying Cloud at a lower price than ever before.

REO MOTOR CAR COMPANY • LANSING, MICHIGAN

Proper distribution of weight, front and rear, gives Reos their balance. Smooth, long, sensitive springs mounted in rubber keep the wheels from leaving the ground. Hence, safety on straightaway or curve.

Illustrated is the 2-4 Passenger open coupe model of Reo Flying Cloud the Master

Reo Flying Clouds are priced at the factory as follows: 5-Passenger Sedan $1395, Sport $1455; Master $1745; 5-Passenger Coupe $1375; Sport $1475; 2-4 Passenger Coupe $1395; Sport $1495; Master $1625; Sport $1750; 5-Passenger Brougham, Master $1595; Sport $1720; 4-Passenger Victoria, Master $1695; Sport $1820; Roadster, Master $1695; Sport $1810.

Reo Sales & Service Co. 337-347 N. High Street.

"Wonder Powder" Say Beauties

MELLO-GLO Face Powder is preferred by beautiful women because it leaves no trace of stickiness, pastiness or irritation. Stays on longer—no shiny noses! Made by a new French process—prevents large pores. Spreads more smoothly—gives a youthful bloom. Very pure. Use MELLO-GLO Face Powder. It's wonderful. Crown drug store. adv.

YOUR MIDDIES ARE ALWAYS BRIGHTER THAN MINE, HELENI!

WHY, THIS IS AN OLD ONE FROM LAST YEAR. I'VE JUST WASHED IT IN RINSO SUDS

THAT'S FUNNY, MY MIDDIES ALWAYS GET YELLOW AND DINGY FROM WASHING . . .

SO DID MINE—UNTIL MOTHER CHANGED TO RINSO. IT WASHES CLOTHES SNOWY WHITE

Save scrubbing and boiling . . . by changing to Rinsol!

WHAT a work-saver Rinsol is! The dirt fairly slips off—rinses away—and clothes come whiter than ever, safely!

No scrubbing, not a bit of hard rubbing, no boiling—no wonder clothes last so much longer. The makers of 36 leading washing machines recommend Rinsol for a whiter, safer wash.

Cupful for cupful, this compact, granulated soap does more actual washing than lightweight soaps. Its suds are thick, creamy, lasting.

Saves the hands, too—they're not in hot suds so much. Get the BIG household package.

Guaranteed by the makers of LUX—Lever Brothers Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Rinsol

The granulated soap that soaks clothes whiter

ELECTRO-KOLD Since 1922 - The simplest electric refrigerator

De Luxe all-porcelain models Cabinets by Seeger

Beautiful smooth porcelain, satin finish chromium plated fittings, cabinet work of the finest sort, graceful balanced design, massive insulation! For years, these qualities have maintained for these Seeger built refrigerators an enviable reputation. Both interior and exterior are of smooth, fine porcelain. You may order the exterior to harmonize with your kitchen—in pastel tints, marbled effects. All white, bright colors, and with decorations.

Scientific laboratory research by Seeger has evolved a line of cabinets that will produce and maintain a thoroughly adequate temperature for the perfect preservation of food, at a positively lower cost—results being proven by exacting tests with various types of refrigeration. The use of heavy corkboard insulation is one of the factors producing these remarkable results.

The drawn wire removable shelves are large and roomy with ample space provided for tall water bottles, milk bottles, ginger ale, etc. Every cabinet is easily cleanable and food reached conveniently without stooping.

The porcelain chilltray is for adequate chilling and making more palatable certain particular foods, and quite indispensable for crisping salads and celery, chilling olives, radishes, choppers and steaks, and as a receptacle for surplus ice cubes.

Electro-Kolds, perfected with seven years of experience in household electrical refrigeration, carries an absolute guarantee of service. If you wish you may purchase yours on convenient payment terms. Plan to see the new models today. Ask our dealers, or write us for further information and literature. Electro-Kold Corporation, a leader in the field of household and commercial electrical refrigeration, Spokane, Washington.

Lower priced models, too!

1929 light socket model Electro-Kold, slotted with rubber insulation and Tinkon bearings, 48 inches high, 20 1/2 inches deep, delivered right to your kitchen door for

$195

C. S. Hamilton FURNITURE CO. 310 High St. S.L.