SCORES GATHER AT CLATSOP FOR GUARD REVIEW

Camp Clatsop, (AP)—The beaches were filling rapidly Friday as hundreds of people arrived from all parts of the state to attend the combined brigade review and combat demonstration of the troops of the Oregon national guard at Camp Clatsop Saturday afternoon. The majority of the large crowd was from up-state points and it is expected that the main body of Portlanders will not arrive until Saturday morning.

The hotels at the resort cities are reaching their capacity and from early estimates it appears that a crowd of fully 15,000 people will be present when the first blast of the trumpet sounds for the start of the review. The hillside above the parade ground is sufficiently large to seat the crowds and from this point the whole program can be watched. The review will be held at a conference of commanding officers at camp headquarters Friday evening. Decisions relative to the attacking methods and the order of the marching bodies will be made at the meeting at camp headquarters.

ASSESSOR OF LAKE COUNTY IN HOOSE-GOW

Proclaiming to the world that he could "lick any blankety-blank man" that dared to tell him where "to head in at," C. C. Mahan, county assessor of Lake County, was placed under arrest early Friday forenoon at a local hotel, by city police and was placed in the "little hole" at the police station, after he had made an attempt to wreck the main cell, where he had previously been placed. A drunk charge was placed against him.

Mahan first appeared at the Valley Grill on South Commercial street, early Friday morning and was ordered out of the place when he became abusive. Entering a barbershop next door, he threw his hat to the floor with a flourish and demanded a shave, at the same time offering to fight anybody who dared to order him about. H. G. Coursey, proprietor thereupon took him by the coat collar and led him to the street.

Later on Mahan is said to have attempted to cash a check for $300 at the Marion hotel. Officers took him in charge there and hauled him to the city hall where he asked Sergeant Thompson to stop payment on a check he had issued for $50. When "fricked" Mahan was forced to be without a cent.
