

BUCKERS COME FOR RODEO IF WEATHER WARM

Scio—A string of buckers and a bunch of buckeroos will entertain and thrill hundreds of people at the Scio ball park on Sunday, June 30, if the weather permits. The riders include F. E. Studnick, rodeo promoter and crack rider; and Mike and Chris Neitling, all of Stayton; George Nelson of Washington; Tim Derry of Eugene; Shanks Red of eastern Oregon; Pete Willard of California; Ted Kirkpatrick and others of broncho busting fame. The wild west program is to follow immediately upon the ball game between Stayton and Scio, which in itself is to be a feature attraction. Eight saddle contests, four bare-back horses and two bulls already have been lined up for the afternoon's program, according to Fred Studnick, who has followed the game for many years. Winners in the rodeo contests at McMinnville will be here for the exhibition on June 30, Studnick says.

MOTORING TO UTAH
Donald—C. L. Smith and brother-in-law, Mr. Sowa, of Woodburn, left Tuesday morning for Salt Lake City, traveling by motorcycle. Smith will visit his aged father, who is in poor health.

Gervais—Mrs. John Henning and daughters, Elma and Ellen and Miss Vera Buck all of Lodi, Calif., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Henning for a week.

BLAZE ALARMS KEEP FIREMEN ON THEIR TOES

Silverton—The city fire company was called to the old Silverton lumber company and mill site Wednesday evening about 5 o'clock where a large rubbish pile was afire. It was thought that the watcher believed the fire might get away from him. At 2 o'clock Thursday morning, the siren again sounded and again there was a fire on the same grounds, but this time it was at the round house and engine sheds. As there is no water on the grounds, hose had to be laid from the Silver Falls mill. The wind was blowing rather stiff toward the old Silverton mill proper in which there is still much machinery and also toward town so the Mt. Ararat fire department was called and they guarded on the other side of the fire. At 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the third alarm was turned in. The fire truck went to the old mill again, but it was later found that this third call was only to get the hose which had been left there in case this morning's blaze might break out anew.

LOOMIS' ARE HOSTS
Brooks—Recent din or guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Loomis were Mrs. P. L. Hayes and daughter Viola May, of Kelson, Wash. and Mrs. Mary Mathews. Other guests included Mrs. Van Pichard and daughter Lillian, the latter having spent several days visiting at the Loomis home, and Mrs. Mary Martin of Brooks.

AERIAL TRANSPORT SERVICE SCHEDULED

Albany—According to authoritative sources Albany will have regular airplane service between Portland and Eugene, with the two latter named towns as the termini for the route, with Charles Langmack, Albany aviator operating a high powered six passenger plane. Other planes will be brought into use, it was learned, with all planes stopping at the Albany airport, which is being rapidly put in shape for the venture and other flying purposes. Langmack could not be reached Thursday as he was out of the city purchasing the six passenger plane to be used by the group sponsoring the venture.

LEGION HAS BANQUET
Brooks—Willard Ramp and son Earl attended the banquet given in Silverton at the armory in honor of the American Legion No. 7 baseball team. Among others present were Holman and Hubbard of Molalla, Henry Lepler and Harvey Dimick of Hubbard, Vincent Keber of Mt. Angel, Jessie Arbuckle of Silverton, Neal of Woodburn, Lloyd Seely, Kenneth Manning and Orville Schwab of Gervais, Ed Ped and Rudehauser of Central, Howell.

PICNIC SET SUNDAY
Brooks—The Brooks Methodist Sunday school will hold its annual Sunday school picnic next Sunday at the church.

SERVICES ARE SLATED
Scio—The subject of the sermon by Rev. J. Y. Stewart, Albany Presbyterian minister, at the Christian church in Scio next Sunday morning will be, "Peace of the Soul." There will be a service at Mt. Pleasant at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Capital Journal sent to any vacation address for 2 weeks for 25 cents.
