Stingy?

Absolutely not! Your husband is the most liberal of men. If he dreamed that you had to get his dinner in that bake-oven of a kitchen... well, we know he'd do the generous thing.

He'd come into our store tomorrow morning or telephone us from his place of business and say: "For heaven's sake, send out one of those Robbins & Mott's Fans to my wife. Our kitchen's hot as the hinges of..."

That's what he'd do. But you might remind him that these smooth-running R & M outfits use no more electricity than an ordinary electric light, and that we have all kinds, priced from—

FREEZING CONTROL solves the dessert problem

It's fun to plan dinners when you have an Electro-Kold. Deciding on the dessert becomes the simplest part of all. For your Electro-Kold can make you dozens of frozen delicacies, mousses, creams, parfaits. And with the Electro-Kold freezing control they can be made in much less time.

$195 in your home

Simply plug in—this new light socket Electro-Kold 56 1/2" high, 26 1/2" wide, 20 1/2" deep. The motor begins its soft purr—so quiet you scarcely hear it—it is silenced with rubber mountings. Freezing control speeds up dessert making and ice cube freezing.

36 cube ice trays

—or five pounds of ice—that's what this new Electro-Kold will freeze for you at one time! And when you come to filling it with your milk, eggs, butter, meats and fruits, you'll find the shelves are so ingeniously arranged as to give you maximum shelf space!

Simplified! The Electro-Kold has 100 less parts, which explains why it runs so smoothly, needs no attention—and it requires a small motor, which keeps operating cost low! All the machinery is enclosed, and out of the way, at the bottom of the refrigerator. The walls are of rust-proof metal, thoroughly insulated with pressed cork board.

For apartments and stores

Multiple control may be installed in old and new apartment houses. For stores, this same system permits operation of display and step-in boxes of same system. Electro-Kold products include water coolers, ice makers, ice cream cabinets, fountain refrigerators, root beer coolers.

Low terms

All Electro-Kolds may be purchased on convenient payment terms. Write us or ask Electro-Kold dealers for further information and literature. Electro-Kold Corporation, a leader in the field of household commercial and electrical refrigeration, Spokane, Washington.

Freezing Control

The easily accessible Electro-Kold freezing control enables you to adjust the freezing capacity to ANY POINT DESIRED within the ten degree freezing radius.
