

DESERT SONG ON SCREEN BILLED TO SHOW HERE

Frank D. Bligh announces "The Desert Song," one of the most tuneful and popular musical plays ever shown on the stage...

Sigmund Romberg's score, with its magnificent choruses and the luring charm of its beautiful solo numbers, has been reproduced by Vitaphone in all its original glory.

The remarkable production qualities included in "The Desert Song" have been equaled by the unusual excellence of the all-star cast presented by Warner Brothers.

The scenes throughout the picture are especially beautiful, ranging from an extensive French military post in Morocco to encampments of the Red Shadow and his band of native Riffs in rocky passes of the mountains...

The all-star cast of "The Desert Song" includes John Boles, Louise Fazenda, Carlotta King, Johnny Arthur, John Miljan and hundreds of other notable screen and stage stars.

"The Desert Song" will be the attraction at Bligh's Capitol theater on July 14 and will run seven days.

TALKIE BRINGS LAUGHS, THRILLS

"Stark Mad," Warner Bros. latest all-talking picture, comes to Bligh's Capitol Sunday for a run of four days. The piece recounts the blood-curdling, rib tickling adventures of a group of well-meaning people who joined the search for a young hunter lost in the Central American jungles.

Shivers come in the form of the largest gorilla in captivity, a temporary madman, closing cavern doors and vanishing floors—the laughs in the terror of the timorous Miss Fleming. Vitaphone offers all voices, all sounds, and weird accompaniment. The cast includes H. B. Warner, Louise Fazenda, Jacqueline Logan, Henry B. Walthall and many other notable stage and screen stars.

As added attractions on the bill the Capitol will offer the latest Vitaphone vaudeville acts and the Fox Movietone news.

THEFT CHARGE IS DROPPED BY HARLAN

Dallas—The five Salem youths who were arrested last Tuesday night on a charge of pilfering the home of Joe Harlan near Rick-reall on the preceding Sunday were freed Wednesday night as the stolen goods were recovered and Mr. Harlan did not care to press the charge. After investigation by the authorities it was determined that one was responsible for most of the trouble. The boys were: Roy Pulla, Ralph Etzel, Joe Geesler, Paul Jaenecke, and Wallace Bennett.

AUTO DRIVERS MEET; CAR DAMAGE LIGHT

Dallas—A collision occurred at the intersection in North Dallas of the Salt Creek road and the Salem highway, Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock, the only mishap at Dallas during the day.

F. B. Rice, driving an Essex sedan, was hit by Bert Teates' Chevrolet touring when Rice drove in front of the touring car coming down the highway. Rice had stopped according to the law, but drove onto the highway directly in front of the Teates' car. No damage was done other than a scarred body and a broken spoke of a left rear wheel on the sedan.

"Miss Salem" And Other "Opportunity Girls" Appear Here

Above—Fanchon & Marco "Opportunity Girls," who appear at Elsinore theater next Wednesday in the Opportunity Idea. Below—Dorothy Beyer, who appears as "Miss Salem," having won that title in the Capital Journal's "Opportunity" contest.

TEACHER TO MAKE CRUISE ON 'QUEEN'

Independence—Miss Lella Howe, who is a critic teacher in the Independence training school, will be one of the students on the University of Oregon summer session cruise. The Admiral line steamship "Queen" will leave Seattle August 6. Students on the tour will enjoy a two weeks' trip to Alaska waters, studying and sight-seeing at the same time. Previous to sailing from Seattle the students will register at the university campus at Eugene and upon their return will put in a final two weeks' study on the campus.

Those on the steamship "Queen" for the trip will include only students, faculty and crew. Faculty members from the university and other colleges are included on the staff of instructors.

FUNERAL RITES FOR MRS. GROOMS FRIDAY

Independence—The funeral of Mrs. Winnie Grace Grooms, wife of Henry Grooms, was held from the Methodist Episcopal church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. E. G. Ranton, pastor of the church officiating.

A quartet consisting of Mrs. E. G. Ranton, Mrs. George Graves, Arlie G. Anderson and L. H. Willard sang three selections being familiar hymns of the deceased.

There was a profusion of beautiful flowers which banked the casket and covered the casket, manifesting the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

The Keeney funeral home had charge of the funeral, A. L. Keeney of Corvallis assisting. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends.

Interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

PICNICS CALL MANY FROM BRUSH CREEK

Brush Creek—A number of Brush Creek families spent the Fourth in picnicking in various places that offered swimming opportunities. Mr. and Mrs. John Moe and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Larson, Viola and Ruby Larson, Mrs. Marie Bunes, and Vivian Bunes spent the day at the Silverton city park. Mrs. O. Nelson, Mrs. Gilbert Underdahl and children, Ludwig Meyer, and Iri Graec spent the Fourth on the Abiqua. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen, Colleen Madsen, Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Lillie Madsen, Althea Meyer and Henry Hjorth drove to Woodland park.

POOR ALIBI

Mobile, Ala. (UP)—The slub of James C. Rahey and Mitt Hudson failed to work to Detective Lawrence Arras. "Believe it or not, Sir, we are pushing this automobile to police headquarters," they said as Arras spied them pushing an automobile through the streets. The vehicle was reported stolen an hour previously from a local battery service company. A charge of grand larceny will be placed against them.

MISS SALEM ON ELSINORE BILL FOR WEDNESDAY

It won't be long now.

The beautiful galaxy of Fanchon and Marco girls, who were chosen to represent their various cities, as the most talented and versatile girls will be seen on the Elsinore theater stage Wednesday, July 10.

Fanchon and Marco, who are known far and wide for their excellent stage presentations, by virtue of their many years of relationship with the huge Fox-West Coast Theatres string, have termed this show as being one of their most elaborate yet sent on tour. It is called the "Opportunity Idea."

In the "Opportunity Idea" will be seen Dorothy Beyer, who was selected from many local contestants to represent Salem, in a contest fostered and promoted by the Capital Journal. Miss Salem, according to information by the theater from the Fanchon and Marco offices in Los Angeles, promises to become very successful on the stage—her work proving so popular with Marco Wolf, head of Fanchon and Marco, that he has offered her a new contract for next season.

The "Opportunity Idea" consists of 16 winners, among them being successful contestants of the following cities: Salem, Portland, San Francisco, San Diego, Vancouver, B. C., San Jose, Salt Lake City, Fresno, Hollywood, Seattle, Bellingham, Oakland, Long Beach, Pasadena and others.

Miss Salem is the wife of John Beyer, who is a nephew of J. C. Beyer, president of the Western Paper Converting Corporation of this city. Her liking for the stage, together with her natural ambition for this type of work, is very evident in this "Idea," inasmuch as she takes a very important role. She sings a popular number called "Mean to Me," and does some very fine eccentric dancing, in the ensemble work.

Beautiful lighting effects, together with elaborate stage settings will make this show one of the outstanding of the present theatrical season.

WILDES HAVE GIRL

Mt. Angel—Announcements have been received here of the birth of a daughter, Mary Louise, to Mr. and Mrs. John Wilde, at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. The little girl is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilde, who have the pool hall and confectionery here.

VISITORS TAKE LEAVE

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Frank Lals and daughter returned to San Francisco after a two weeks' visit at the John Lals home. Mrs. Frances Roycroft returned to her home in Portland after spending several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Bronkey.

The home-town news while on your vacation. The Capital Journal sent for two weeks—25 cents.

NORTH COUNTY CHURCH EVENT TO BE SUNDAY

Woodburn—The North Marion county Sunday school convention, which includes about 12 Sunday schools in the northern end of the county, will be held at the Church of God camp ground at Woodburn Sunday.

A union Sunday school will be held at 10:15 o'clock and the morning preaching service at 11:1 o'clock at which time there will be an address by Rev. Walter L. Van Nuy, D. D., who has just returned from the Holy Land and left New York for Portland July 1.

At 12:30 there will be a picnic dinner and the afternoon program will begin at 2 o'clock with devotional and Sunday school exercises. At 2:45 Rev. W. T. Milliken, D. D. of Portland will give an address.

A hearty invitation is extended to every one to be present for the entire day. Rev. John T. Myers of Woodburn is chairman.

WEST SALEM WOMAN FILES FOR DIVORCE

Dallas—Lillian Riesebeck of West Salem, filed divorce proceedings against John Riesebeck by her attorney last Wednesday. The couple was married April 5, 1921 and there have been three children as issue of the marriage. They are Everett Francis, John, Jr., and Virginia Florence Riesebeck. The plaintiff is suing on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and for non support. She asks for the care and custody of the children, support money for them and alimony.

VISITS IN VICTORIA

Independence—Miss Marjorie Plant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Plant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plant of the Wierich ranch accompanied by her aunt, Miss M. E. Plant, are making an extended visit in Victoria, B. C., where they are the guests of Major and Mrs. Lewis Rose.

FIRE DESTROYS HOP HOUSES AT INDEPENDENCE

Independence—The hop houses of Dick Chittenden across the river from this city were destroyed by fire Friday forenoon and only by hard fighting, by the timely arrival of the Independence fire truck were the house and barn and other buildings saved. The barn caught fire several times but was put out.

It is supposed by those who arrived on the scene first that the fire caught from sparks from a nearby fire that was used for heating hop spray materials. The men had only been away from the place a few minutes when flames were discovered and the alarm was sent to Independence for help.

All the baskets and tools belonging to V. M. De Coester's yard, stored in the building, were a total loss. No insurance was carried on equipment which will amount to about $1500. The buildings were insured.

RURAL CARRIER AWAY

Amity—J. W. Walling, R. F. D. carrier from Amity, is in Ashland this week to be with his daughter, Mrs. Reta Cole, who has been ill in a hospital there for several months. Eugene Stunt is on the mail route while during Mr. Walling's absence.

Amity—Mrs. Nellie Lamb of Havana, Cuba, is spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Faneck, east of Amity. Her brother, John, who is a student at Gooding college, Idaho, is also spending his vacation with home folks.

HOLIDAY CALLS MANY FAMILIES FOR RE-UNIONS

Mt. Angel—A number of family groups held reunions at the river on the Fourth. Among those at Sellers on the Abiqua river included the groups of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berning, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bauman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zoller and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kaiser and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer and family of Portland.

In another group were Henry Butsch and family, Mrs. Lawrence Butsch and daughter of Oakland, Calif., Miss Barbara Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ebner and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ebner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirsch.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwab and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Craig and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Schwab, Miss Rose Hasting, Miss Angela Coltmire, Miss Florentine Mickel, Cletus Butsch and Joseph L. Wachter.

Others were Mrs. Christine Eberle and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Haut and family.

Those who went to Anness, on the Abiqua, included Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ficker and family, Mrs. Ed Gooley, Mrs. Mike Shields and Edward Gooley of Harrington, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Schwab and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Schwab and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Scharbach, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prosser and family.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hammer. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klotz of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Klotz and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hammer and family.

PORTLAND COUPLE WED

Albany—Marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk Friday to Lester H. Foster, 42, Portland barber, and Melithia Gibbens, 42, Portland nurse. This was Foster's third marriage and Mrs. Gibbens' second. They were married by Rev. D. H. Leech; and to George V. Chladek and Lillie Fitzwater, both of route three, Lebanon.

Majestic Radios

Don't buy until you hear them—Ask for Demonstration VIBBERT & TODD 191 S. High St.—Phone 2112

DALLAS' FOURTH CELEBRATION IS VARIED AFFAIR

Dallas—The 4th of July celebration held at Dallas drew a large crowd. The day's events began with a walking race at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, 25 miles for the men and 10 for the women. Schrader, of Salt Creek, brother of last year's winner, came in first, 6 minutes or about a mile ahead of the second man, Slater.

The two baseball games between Newberg and Dallas were won by Newberg 12 to 5 and 7 to 1.

Walter Syron gave some exhibition diving during the swimming meet. Lenthal McLiman, Leland Leffors and Melba Robinson, all won prizes in this contest.

The program at the park featured a talk by Professor Horner, from Corvallis. The auxiliary post of the Salem Legion presented singing during the program by a quartet.

The Salem band played at different occasions during the day and the Dallas band gave a concert in the evening.

Dallas had one fire alarm during the 4th of July celebration at 10:00 o'clock in the evening. It was started in the grass near Soehren's warehouse and quickly extinguished before any damage was done.

DIES AT FUNERAL

Fountain City, Tenn. (UP)—While the casket of her daughter was being carried out of the Austen home to the hearse, Mrs. Molly Austen fell dead. A double funeral was held the next day.

Chevrolet advertisement featuring a car and the slogan 'Another Record! over 800,000 New CHEVROLET Sixes on the road since Jan. 1st!'.

Advertisement for Douglas McKay Chevrolet Co. listing car models and prices, and the United States National Bank.

Advertisement for Clough-Huston Co. Funeral Home, featuring a 'Golden Rule' logo and text about funeral services.

Advertisement for Williams Self Service Store, featuring a 'Correction' about sandals and a price of $3.98.

Advertisement for the United States National Bank, featuring a historical illustration and text about the bank's 153 years of service.