

AIR FANS TURN TO SILVERTON FOR BIG WEEK-END

DERBY FLIERS ARE WELCOMED BY BIG CROWD

Silverton—Silverton's third annual air carnival opened Saturday with hundreds of fans watching the first arrival of cross country derby fliers from Swan Island, Portland.

Thousands are expected to be attracted here Sunday for the colorful opportunity of seeing one of the biggest, acrobatic carnivals ever planned in this part of Oregon.

Down out of the skies in various new types of planes such well known birdmen as Tex Rankin, Dick Rankin, Lieutenant R. W. Martin, Albert Parmenter, Alfred Adams, Lieutenant W. E. Case, Lee Eyerly, Scout Hazelwood, Emory Bronte, Lieutenant Gordon Mounce, Major Eckerson, Lieutenant Bond, commander of Pearson field, Lieutenant A. B. McKennie, Nick Manner, the army squadrons from Vancouver and Sand Point, Wash. flying mail type Boeing planes, Ford trimotored planes, Wacos, Ryan, American Eagles, Travelers, etc., will arrive at the Silverton airport.

The Portland glider club will give an exhibition of motorless flying with their home-built glider.

The arrival of the Derby racers in the afternoon, welcoming of fliers, formation flying, aviation ball in the evening will be the prelude to Sunday's activities, which include formation flying, inspection of planes and glider, passenger carrying, beacon site dedication, races, stunts, balloon bursting contest, parachute jumping, etc.

Legion Airport Popular Place

DR. A. W. SIMMONS W. N. ARBUTHNOT CHAS. REYNOLDS

Silverton—Prominent in the arrangements for the third aerial circus sponsored by Delbert Reeves post of the American Legion are Dr. A. W. Simmons, left; W. N. Arbuthnot and Charles Reynolds, all of Silverton. Ships of many types are on the field for the week-end affair.

RED HILL BIRTHDAY CLUB GIVES PARTY

Rosealea—Members of the Red Hill Birthday club and their families celebrated the Fourth with a picnic supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnett of Sunnydale. The supper was served out of doors under the trees, after which games were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole went to their summer home at Newport for the holiday.

Albert Baker and grandson, Alfred, have been spending several days here. They have returned to their home at Tillamook.

Robert McGilchrist has traded a part of his farm for a service station near the fair grounds.

AFTERNOON AFFAIR GIVEN AT MERRICKS

Lincoln—Honoring her daughter, Mrs. Dale Ridgeway of McMinnville and Mrs. Ralph C. Shepard, formerly a chum of Mrs. Ridgeway, Mrs. Thomas J. Merrick gave a delightful afternoon party early this week.

The living-rooms were tastefully decorated with vases and baskets of Madonna lilies, red snapdragons and blue larkspur in attractive combinations. Conversation, games and fortune telling occupied the guests. Mrs. Ivan Metzke assisted the hostess in serving delicious refreshments.

Guests present were Mrs. Ralph C. Shepard and daughter, Arden, Mrs. Dale Ridgeway (Reva Merrick), Mrs. Charles Purvine and Miss Margaret Purvine, Mrs. S. H. Barker, Mrs. Clarence Merrick and son, Chester, Mrs. Iva Hewitt and little grandson, Bobby Ross, Mrs. Ivan Merrick and daughter and son, Naomi and Norman, and the hostess, Mrs. T. J. Merrick.

CLUB PROGRAM SET FOR STAYTON SOON

Albany—Four-H clubs of Linn and Marion counties in the vicinity of Stayton will give a program at the Stayton theater, Friday, July 12, it has been announced by Mrs. F. Nemeyer, leader.

Following the play a picnic social will be held, with the public being invited to attend both.

HINKLE CLAN MEETS

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, Miss Emma Kinkle and Ross Nelson were among those attending the 27th annual reunion of the Hinkle clan in Corvallis. There were about 125 present from different parts of the state. The reunion was held in the city park.

QUITS STATE SCHOOL

Brush Creek—Mrs. Marie Bunes who has been employed at Salem at the state school for the deaf and dumb, has returned to Silverton where she is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna K. Jensen. Mrs. Bunes has been at Salem since the first part of May.

HOLIDAY PEACEFUL

Stayton—The Fourth of July passed very peacefully at Stayton this year. Stayton nor any of the nearby towns celebrated this year, so the people scattered to various places, including Molalla, Greens bridge and the coast. A number of parties were made up and took to the river banks for their outings.

PARTY AT SPRINGS

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sigmond, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith, J. W. Mayo and Stewart Mayo formed a party and spent the Fourth at Brettenbach Hot Springs.

CATTLE MAN CALLS

Mr. Angel—J. W. Snodgrass, a cattle buyer from Porterville, Calif., was a guest recently at the C. J. Berning home. He also visited with Lawrence Thomas, who has charge of the Mt. Angel college dairy.

GRAIN FIELDS CALL

Mr. Angel—Louis Hoesch left on a motor trip to Minnesota where he expects to work in the grain fields. He will visit Yellowstone Park and North Dakota points enroute.

GUEST AT MERRICKS

Lincoln—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Merrick had as their guest Monday, D. C. Walker of Arizona, an old-time friend of theirs when they lived at Buell.

CROSS HAVE SON

Silverton—An eight pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cross at the Silverton hospital Friday afternoon. The Cross' live on Grant street. This is their first child.

PROGRAM OF WEST SALEM CHURCH FULL

Lincoln—A group of young people assembled on the banks of the Willamette on the Woelk place and enjoyed an evening of swimming, water sports and fireworks.

In the group were Irene and Vernon Windsor, Byron Purvine, Morris Shepard, Edie Schubert, Velma, Ted and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woelk, Imogene and Anna Mae Aleman, Mary Hackett, Lorien Walling, Irene Bradford, Claude Walling, Harold and Clyde French, Elza Fisher and Jesse Walling.

SMITH'S CHILDREN HOME FOR HOLIDAY

Silverton—All of the A. H. Smith children are gathered at the parental home for a week at least. Beryl and Kathryn from Medford, Gladys from Pine Ridge, Theodore from Shreveport, Louisiana, and Ethel at home.

They all spent Wednesday in Portland, Friday morning Kathryn went to Portland to visit her school friend, Vera Anderson, who was graduated from the Immanuel hospital this spring, and who lived here until she finished high school. The same day Gladys and her husband, Floyd Kirober, Beryl and Ethel, motored to Jantzen beach for an outing.

Theodore Shattuck, a brother of Mrs. Smith, who had been their house guest for the past week, returned to his home in Chicago on Thursday.

Mrs. J. Jenkins and son, Gordon, of Seattle, who have also been visiting at the Smith home left Thursday morning.

DAMAGE CASE ENDS BEFORE JUDGE KELLY

Albany—The case of Clytie Goodland versus the Doerbeck Manufacturing company, was dismissed by Judge Percy R. Kelly, who heard the case in his chambers in favor of the defendant. Charles Fisk of Albany was the driver of the truck which hit Miss Goodland's car.

The plaintiff in her complaint asked for $8,200 damages, stating that she lost time from her work to the amount of $2,700, her physician's fees were $500 and she asked for a general sum of $5,000.

In her complaints the plaintiff stated that on September 12, 1928, she heard the case in his chambers in favor of the defendant. Charles Fisk of Albany was the driver of the truck which hit Miss Goodland's car.

IMPROVES PROPERTY

Albany—The blacksmith shop on the property recently purchased by R. R. Massey on Trade street is being torn down and the lot will be improved at once. The building on part of this property is nearing completion and will be used as an addition to the super-service station adjoining it.

GUEST AT LARSONS

Brush Creek—Ruby Larson of Seattle, Wash., is a guest at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Larson.

UNDERDAIL RETURNING

Brush Creek—Mrs. Gilbert Underdail has received word that her husband left Montana on July 3 enroute for Silverton. He is driving in the company of another man as far as Seattle from where he will come on by train. Underdail went to Montana early this spring to take care of his farm which has there.

COMES FROM GERMANY

Aurora—Mrs. Alfred Forke, nee Clara Mueckel, and daughter Anna Marie from Hamburg, Germany, visited friends in Aurora last week. She is visiting her brothers Hugo and Carl of Portland. The Mueckel family are old residents of Aurora and have many friends here. While here she called at the homes of Mrs. Charles Snyder and George Miller. Mrs. Forke intends returning to Germany in October.

ATTENDS FRAT MEET

Silverton—Ronald and Max Hubbs, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hubbs, drove up from San Francisco Tuesday to spend some time with their parents. He was returning from the convention of the A. T. O. fraternity of which he was a delegate from W. of O. and stopped off at San Francisco to drive up with his brother. He returned to Eugene Friday where he is employed with the university, and Max will remain at home for a few weeks' vacation.

AURORA FOURTH QUIET

Aurora—Aurora spent a very quiet Fourth with many families going to Molalla and Oregon City. The fire works drew a very large crowd both evenings and were unusually good.

REUNION IS HELD

Amity—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Dickey attended a family reunion picnic near Sheridan Thursday.

PIONEER WOMAN OF WOODBURN IS BURIED FRIDAY

Woodburn—At the Presbyterian church, which she had faithfully served for almost forty years, impressive funeral services were held Friday morning at ten o'clock for Mrs. Estella Moshberger, who passed away at her home Tuesday afternoon after a short illness.

The church was a garden of fragrant blooms where a profusion of floral pieces from relatives and friends were massed. The sermon was preached by her pastor, Rev. Henry G. Hanson and solos were sung by Mrs. Jack Hanson, with Mrs. J. W. Richards at the piano. Pall bearers were H. L. Gill, Hiram Overton, Henry Layman, Fred I. Hall, George H. Beebe and S. W. Harper. Interment was in Belle Place cemetery beside the grave of her husband.

Estella Mack was born May 10, 1847 in Pennsylvania and crossed the plains with her parents, W. O. and Lotza Mack, when 6 years of age. She was the last known survivor of the train of 150 people who drove their ox teams across the plains in the fall of 1852. Her first home was where the town of Mackburg in Clackamas county now stands and there she met and later married Charles F. Moshberger in 1868, who passed away five years ago.

A few years after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Moshberger left Clackamas county and made their home in Hubbard. Later they moved to Woodburn, where they resided for about 40 years. To this union there were five children born, Orson A. of Portland; Lois M. Ogle, deceased; Lawrence and Eugene of Woodburn, and Ramon of Palo Alto, Calif., all of whom were present during her last illness. She was stricken with apoplexy on June 21 and the last call came on July 2.

Beside her children she leaves the following brothers, Arthur L. Mack of Stayton, Ramon W. and Cecil C. Mack of Big Sandy, Montana, Morley T. Mack of Longview, Wash., Roscoe C. Mack of Milwaukie, Oregon, and one sister, Mrs. O. Ogle of Canby, Oregon. She also leaves 17 grandchildren and two great grand children and a host of friends. She united with the Presbyterian church at Woodburn in 1890, soon after its organization and was its oldest member in point of continuous membership. She was also a charter member of the Ladies Aid society.

WEST SALEM FOURTH PROVES VERY QUIET

West Salem—West Salem was very quiet on the Fourth of July, many residents going out of town. A number of them availed themselves of the holiday by motoring to the coast. Several went fishing. A few attended picnics at a distance while others had family or neighborhood gatherings at or near home.

Among the latter was one by the family of Mayor and Mrs. C. E. Greene and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. Pfeiffer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Stump, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Greene and Mrs. Blain Hanks and children.

Another was at the Billings-McAdams home. Guests were Mrs. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brock, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bedford, Misses Betty and Ruth Bedford and Lottie McAdams.

Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Groves and son Meredith motored to Oregon City Tuesday for a visit and on to Portland where they were overnight guests of friends. They returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gosser and sons Winston and Jackie, and Miss Helen Gosser started Thursday on a two week vacation going by auto. They expect to take in a number of Oregon summer resorts and have taken a trailer along to carry their camping equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbel Young and children went up to Albany Wednesday evening and were guests over the Fourth of Mrs. Young's parents.

SCIO MEN FINED ON LIQUOR COUNT

Albany—Antone Kebza, Seis and Frank Studnicka, also of Scio were arrested Thursday night at Scio by Linn county officers and charged with possession of liquor. Kebza and Studnicka appeared in justice court Friday morning and entered pleas of guilty to the charges. Kebza was fined $50 and Studnicka $100 and costs. They both paid their fines.

George L. Carroll, was brought to Albany by Sheriff Herbert Shelton, Thursday on a warrant charging larceny by bailer. In V. Hall, Salem, representing the Singer Sewing machine company, signed the warrant, stating that on February 8, Carroll made away with a $190 sewing machine. Carroll, it is understood is a former sewing machine salesman.

He is being held in the county jail awaiting trial in the justice court.

INSTALLATION HELD

Scotts Mills—Tuesday evening was installation of officers at Ivy Rebekah lodge, but owing to the busy season only a few of the officers were present to be installed. After the closing of lodge those present enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and cake.

WALLING FAMILY HAS OUTING NEAR RIVER

Lincoln—A picnic was enjoyed on the banks of the Willamette when members of the Walling family gathered to celebrate the Fourth together. A big bonfire and picnic

GRANGES ENJOY SHORT HOLIDAY NEAR WEBFOOT

Dayton—Many Dayton residents spent the Fourth at Hirtens camp at the junction of the Yamhill and Willamette rivers. Others were at the picnic at the recently acquired hall and grounds in the Webfoot neighborhood under the auspices of the Yamhill county granges.

"America" was sung by a male quartet composed of George Thompson, Bert Thompson, Ed Grabenhorst and Elmer Jackman. Rev. Roy W. Nelson, pastor of McMinnville Presbyterian church delivered the address. John Eckman of McMinnville impersonated Uncle Sam.

Other numbers on the program were furnished by the Webfoot grange. Reading, Myrtle Bejaul; violin solo, Mrs. Will Crittser, accompanied by Mrs. H. May; song by the male quartet; flag drill by 12 girls, vocal solo, Miss F. Bingham; reading, Mrs. Will Crittser; song, Mrs. Alton Vernon, Miss Bingham, Ed Grabenhorst and Elmer Jackman. A basket lunch was served at noon.

A ball game between Hopewell and Unionvale was played in the afternoon. Hopewell winning 1 to 0.

At Wheatland a group of 40 people gathered from several surrounding neighborhoods and enjoyed boat riding and swimming and a picnic dinner and the same group enjoyed a display of fireworks in the evening at the Martis Braat home.

OUTING IS ENJOYED BY SUNDAY SCHOOL

West Salem—The joint picnic of the West Salem and Pratum Sunday schools held at Pratum on the Fourth was very well attended, thirty or more motoring out from here.

There was a program in the morning at which Dr. A. S. Hisey of the eastern district gave an address. A dinner was served on long tables at the noon hour. Many races and games of various kinds were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Two games of ball between the two Sunday school teams were won by the Pratum nine. A game between married and unmarried men was played with the young men coming out the victors.

GUESTS IN AMITY
Amity—Mr. and Mrs. Edson Brown and family of Portland, spent the Fourth in Amity at the home of their mother, Mrs. M. E. Brown.

MEDFORD WOMAN IS OPERATOR OF HOTEL

Dallas—The management of the Dallas hotel changed hands July 2. Mrs. N. L. Dusenbury, from Medford, who leased the place from Mrs. Kimmell, the owner, is the new proprietor. Mrs. Kimmell is returning to Portland and will enter the real estate business there.

Mrs. Dusenbury owns three rooming houses at Medford and has been in the business a number of years. She intends to feature the "home" style of serving in the dining room. Also she will operate the Electric Home laundry which adjoins the hotel.

GHORMLEY FUNERAL AT ALBANY SUNDAY

Albany—Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon from the Interdenominational church for Cecil Clare Ghormley, 46, who died here Wednesday at an Albany hospital. Burial will be made in the Riverside cemetery.

Ghormley was a native of Indiana and spent a greater part of his life as a school teacher.

He is survived by his parents and a number of brothers and sisters. Mrs. C. E. Cochran and Mrs. Mabel Turner are Mrs. Virgil Bolton are the sisters living in Oregon.

ROAD IS IMPROVED

Amity—The market road leading east from Amity to the Hopewell road has been resurfaced with crushed gravel. This road carries much traffic during the summer as it is the direct route from the Wheatland ferry to the coast through Amity.

FRUIT TRACT SOLD

Amity—The Amity Realty company reports the sale of the Swan Erickson place in the Yampo district east of Amity. This consists of 22 acres and has a fine prune orchard in bearing and is improved. Mr. Nichols, the purchaser, is from Wyoming and took immediate possession of the place.

LAKES GUESTS LEAVE

Lincoln—Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacDowell of San Diego who have been guests at the Gus Lake home since Monday afternoon, left Friday morning on their homeward drive, expecting to reach Roseburg and to continue on from there via the Roosevelt highway. Charles MacDowell used to be a resident of this community 17 years ago when he was employed by Tracey Walling, and lived here for a year and a half. This was his first trip back here since he left. The family had been to Washington and had taken a drive over the Mt. Hood loop.

VISITING IN AURORA

Aurora—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schulte, David and Margaret, have arrived from Oceananowac, Wis., to spend several weeks with friends and relatives. While in Aurora they called on their cousins, the Charles Snyder and L. L. Gribble families.

AT SUMMER SCHOOL

Brush Creek—Miss Stella Dybevik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dybevik, is spending the summer at Eugene where she is attending summer school. This is Miss Dybevik's third summer at the university. During the winter she is employed in the office of R. Goetz, superintendent of Silverton schools.

THOMAS LEASES FARM

Seio—Clyde Thomas has leased his farm near Jordan to Sim Bechtstead, 1 arrival from Iowa. Mr. Thomas is in poor health and will change climate in the hope of recuperating.

HATTLERS ARE HOSTS

Mr. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hattler have as their guest, Mrs. E. H. Shoup of Springfield, Ill. Mrs. Shoup is a sister of Mr. Hattler, who lives in the Marquam district.

Always "The Better Entertainment"

CAPITOL THEATRE

STARTS THIS SUNDAY For Four Big Days

STARK MAD

ALL 100% TALKING PICTURE

INSTALLATION HELD

Plenty of time to see the last Show after Band Concert!

100% TALKING PICTURE

DONOVAN AFFAIR

JACK HOLT DOROTHY REIFER WILLIAM COLLIER

DESERT SONG

July 14th

FOR ONE BIG WEEK

Phone 307 Doors 1:45

ELSINORE

"The Best Always"

NOW! FOR 4 BIG DAYS!

SEE... HEAR "The Idol of France"

Go Now!

CHEVALIER

He has taken America by storm! The Marvellous Chevalier... in his first 100% All-Talking and Singing and Dancing Sensation!

10 cents

Paris

—Also—"Jed's Vacation" Pathé Sound News

L. CARLOS MEIER at the Organ

Sunday at Silverton

One of the Gliders That Will Participate in Silverton's Third Annual Air Carnival

SUNDAY, JULY 7th

Balloon Bursting Contest, Races, Parachute Jumps

Sponsored by Silverton American Legion

Aviation Ball at the Silverton Armory Tonite