

POLK COUNTY CLUBS STAGE OUTING WEDNESDAY

OVER 500 BOYS AND GIRLS ARE NOW EXPECTED

Dallas—Over five hundred boys and girls and their parents will gather at the Rickreall grove Wednesday of next week for the second annual boys' and girls' club members' picnic. This county-wide gathering is held for the purpose of getting the members of the various clubs together in a day of jollification and for the purpose of getting acquainted.

Club members and their parents will bring their own lunches but a feature of the day will be free ice cream furnished through the cooperation of the Morrow and Independence creameries.

Most of the entertainment features will consist of contests between the club members north of the Hawthorne highway against those south of that road. The older boys will engage in a tug-o-war across the Rickreall river, the winners pulling the losers through the river. The games will also include contests for the girls as well as the boys.

The Dallas Chamber of Commerce has offered $5 which will be used by the committee in charge in the way of prizes for the different contests. J. W. Critch of the state superintendent of public instruction's office, has been invited to make a talk of interest to club members as one part of the formal program and George Angell, known to hundreds of club members throughout the state, has been invited to lead in club songs.

OUTDOOR MEETINGS PLANNED BY LEAGUE

Jefferson—During the summer months the Epworth league of the M. E. church will hold outdoor meetings on Sunday evening in the grove near the Miller hop houses across the river from Jefferson.

At 5:30 lunch will be served by the members after which ten-minute periods of instruction in camping and nature study, under the leadership of W. R. Warner, pastor of the M. E. church, followed by the regular devotional exercises. The league will return to Jefferson in time for the evening services at the church.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS AT HOLLYWOOD FARM

Woodburn—The Woodburn Garden club will hold their next regular meeting on Tuesday, July 10, at the home of the president, Mrs. E. E. Settlemier, at Hollylane farm, where they will be entertained in the beautiful Settlemier garden.

CLEAR LAKE

Mrs. Fred Stolk and family were visiting at the home of Theodore Stolk's home recently. She also visited her parents in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hampton. Stolk came later to visit a couple days. He is employed at the Valeda lumber camp for some. His two brothers, Henry and William are caring for his farm here.

RANCH HAS CALLERS

Scio—Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard and daughter, Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Holman and daughter, Barbara, Los Angeles, Cal., were guests of W. W. Hardest at Malaha ranch, near Scio, operated by Otto Bilyeu, during the last week. As week-end guests the party also included Chief L. V. Jenkins of the Portland police department, and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Harder, also of Portland.

NEW DAY DAWNS ON THE SCREEN

Henry Preim of Airie, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Stolk, who was operated on recently, at a Salem hospital, is recovering nicely and will soon be able to return to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McParland

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McParland motored to Taft for a few days outing.

Mrs. L. Chapin's mother and Mr. Graves

Mrs. L. Chapin's mother and Mr. Graves of Dallas, were visitors at the Chapin home last week.

Mrs. Puren's sister, Bertha, of Albany

Mrs. Puren's sister, Bertha, of Albany, is here visiting for the summer and assisting Mr. Brown with the berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Miles and daughter of Lebanon

Mr. and Mrs. Will Miles and daughter of Lebanon were visitors at the Theodore Stolk home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider returned from Taft

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snider returned from Taft recently where they spent several days fishing and enjoying the coast. They occupied the Roy Smith cabin while there.

Miss Claire Collard is visiting at Vale, Ore.

Miss Claire Collard is visiting at Vale, Ore., where she will remain for some time.

Amos Smith writes from Iowa

Amos Smith writes from Iowa that the weather is hot there and that is sister is much improved and he will be home in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Meithof from West Thimber

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Meithof from West Thimber visited with home folks last week. They returned Sunday as Meithof is working in the camp there.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Collard and Evelyn Cahn

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Collard and Evelyn Cahn motored to Turner to attend the Christian church convention.

Mrs. Richard Van Pelt and son, Dick

Mrs. Richard Van Pelt and son, Dick, were visitors at the Fred Hammack home recently.

KINGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. David Harrell of Portland were recent guests at the J. B. Smith home on the upper Glenn creek road.

Mrs. Ellis P. White of Longview, Wn.

Mrs. Ellis P. White of Longview, Wn., who has visited at the J. C. Cannon home for a week or more, returned with her husband to their Washington home the first of the week.

Carl Worthington and baby, Betty Colleen

Carl Worthington and baby, Betty Colleen, who formerly resided on the Glenn creek road, visited at the Edward Pinley and J. B. Smith homes a few days recently. The Worthingtons now are living in Willamina where he has employment.

JONES HAVE SON

Falls City—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones July 3, and has been named Kenneth DeLoe Jones, Jr.

SECOND TWIN PAIR BORN AT SILVERTON

Silverton—Twin girls, each weighing six and one-half pounds, were born to Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hourham of Mt. Angel, at the local hospital Thursday evening. This is the second set of twin girls born at this hospital within ten days. The others were to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Elliott of the Cowing addition here.

FORMER WOODBURN PEOPLE TO PICNIC

Woodburn—The ex-Woodburnites association of Portland will hold their annual picnic on Sunday, July 21, at the Woodburn City park, where they will be joined by all old timers in this vicinity for a day of sociability and visiting. Committees selected by the Woodburn Women's club and the Woodburn Chamber of Commerce will be on hand to greet the visitors. A basket lunch will be served with free coffee, cream and sugar.

It has been customary for this organization to meet annually at Laurelhurst park in Portland, but this year the members have accepted an invitation to meet in Woodburn and an enjoyable reunion of old time friends is anticipated. No set program has been arranged but the day will be an informal one. All old time residents of Woodburn are invited.

TANGENT RESIDENT PAYS FINE, ALBANY

Albany—Hugh Jones, 26, Tangent, was arrested Thursday evening on the charge of intoxication in Tangent. Friday he was cited to appear before Justice of the Peace Victor Oliver, who fined him $25 when he pleaded guilty to the preferred charge.

BROOKS PREPARING FOR CHURCH SUNDAY

Brooks—Regular church services will be held in the Brooks Community Methodist church on Sunday morning with Rev. D. George Cole, pastor in charge. Bible school will be at 10 o'clock and devotional services at 11 o'clock. The sermon topic is "Acquaintance With God." Read Job 22:1. Text, "Acquaint now thyself with Him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come to thee."

The evening service will be held at Keizer with Epworth League at 7 o'clock and church services at 11 o'clock.

WILDE FUNERAL RITES AWAITING ARRANGEMENTS

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Theresa Wilde, 55 years of age, died Friday morning after a brief illness.

She was born in St. Lucas, Iowa, March 14, 1874, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Meyer, and married Frank Wilde May 16, 1897. They moved to Wisconsin in 1914 and came to Mt. Angel in the spring of 1920. Two months ago they sold their ranch east of town and located here where Wilde is in business.

She is survived by her husband, Frank Wilde, and six children, William Wilde, who lives in South America, Leo Wilde, Chippewa Falls, Wis., John of Portland, Frank of Ventura, Calif., Sister Mary Madeleine, O. S. B., of the Mt. Angel Academy, Regina and Albert, who live at home.

The date of funeral has not been announced.

SHENBECK INJURED FALLING OFF LADDER

Hubbard—Sam Shenbeck, former Hubbard resident, but now living near Woodburn, was injured Wednesday when he fell from the ladder as he was picking cherries. Dr. Edward Schoor reported that he had suffered severe injury to his right shoulder and a multiple fracture of the right arm between the elbow and wrist. The Shenbeck family moved from Hubbard to Dakota and last fall returned to the Willamette valley.

MEHAMA

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Phillips and sons Dick and Keith drove to Buckley, Wash., Thursday where they visited their son Nye and family. They also spent some time in Tacoma, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson and family of Corvallis spent the 4th at the home of Mr. Peterson's sister, Mrs. Glenn Phillips.

Glenn Gough accompanied by his daughter, Betty and Mrs. Giles Wagner were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bardune and daughter Virginia enjoyed the 4th at Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves and children returned Saturday evening from eastern Washington and Idaho where they enjoyed a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guerkel, returned Sunday evening from eastern Washington and Idaho where they visited a week and spent the 4th.

Miss Estell King of Union Hill was a week-end guest at the E. D. Phillips home.

A daughter, Velma May was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson at the home of Miss Stout, the attending nurse.

Robert Whitman returned Sunday from a week's visit at Spokane with his family. He was accompanied by his son who has employment with the Silverton Lumber company.

Iowa farmers, on the average, have a fixed capital of $18,710, of which $1,499 is in machinery.

EPWORTH LEAGUES PLAN FOR SESSION

Falls City—Preparations for the annual Epworth League institute held here the first week of August has begun. H. H. Miller drained the dam and all debris will be cleaned from the bed of the river at this place so the swimming hole will be in good shape in a short time.

WESTWAY CLUB HAS ITS FIRST MEETING

Jefferson—The first meeting of the Westway club of the Woman's Benefit association was held Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Rose Green with Mrs. W. W. Warner as joint hostess.

During the business meeting it was decided that the club would meet on the second Friday of each month instead of the third Wednesday as first planned.

At the close of the meeting the club adjourned to the Eltie confectionary where refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Bertha Cull, Mrs. Dora Kottboff, Mrs. Lydia Hoy, Mrs. Gert Weddie, Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle, Mrs. J. G. Pontaine, Miss Rose Green and Mrs. W. W. Warner.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR GROUP HAS OUTING

Hubbard—A winter outing was the feature of the social evening of the Christian Endeavor of the Congregational church Wednesday evening.

The party was held from 8 to 10 o'clock in the woods near the Neiler place north of Hubbard.

Those attending were the Misses Helen Vogel, Anita Bevens, Agatha Vogel, Agnes Weaver, Jacqueline Dick, Lenore Scholl, Taleta Vogel, Meta Chubb, Irene Scholl, Louise Vogel, Frances Letler, Wilma Dick, Dorothy Scholl, Orva Marrett, Wilma Phillips, Gungadene Bidgood, Elsie Jungnickle, and the Messrs. Bernard Cole, Elwood Lehman, Arthur Mills, Herwig Nether, Henry Letler, Earnest Scott, Melvin Mitta, Merlin Belcher and Dale Kelley.

CIRCLE ENTERTAINED

Silverton—The Rainbow circle of the Immanuel Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Theodore Opsund on Oak street on Wednesday evening with about 30 members and guests present. The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Opsund. After this a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

WOODBURN WCTU MEETING HELD, SOULE'S HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. E. N. Soule entertained the Woodburn W. C. T. U. at her home on Young street Friday afternoon and every interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. A. H. Dean presided at the business meeting and devotion were conducted by Mrs. Henry G. Hanson who read the 121st psalm. A number of papers were read on topics of interest. Mrs. Dean read a paper entitled, "This Act Ain't for Us Americans." Mrs. Ivan G. Beer read an article by Prohibition Commissioner Deran, in which he stated that prohibition had netted the United States millions of dollars. Mrs. Henry G. Hanson read an article by Henry Ford, "Prohibition is Bound to Stay." Miss Sarah Jenny spoke of the attitude of foreign diplomats on the prohibition question and also gave excerpts from the speech of Senator Smoot on cigarettes. A statement was made that the convention of the Harvard club was the driest ever held. Mrs. J. R. London read an article entitled "The Testimony of College Girls."

There were 15 ladies present. Following the program refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Vern D. Harrington.

PACK TRAIN BOUGHT FOR TOURIST TRIPS

Scio—D. H. Poindexter and Oliver Beard have been purchasing saddle and pack horses in the Scio region during the last week. The animals are to be used at the Olalla lake tourist camp 15 miles north of Mt. Jefferson, which Poindexter and Beard are fitting up for the accommodation of vacationists and sight-seeing tourists. Their camp is on what is known as the Sky Line trail, which leads to Crater lake, 200 miles south. The elevation of the trail is about 4500 feet.

DINNER PARTY HELD

Kingwood—Mrs. Theodore Bernard gave a little family dinner party in honor of her husband's birthday, Wednesday evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bernard and niece, Miss Zelma Bernard of Mountain View, Cal., Mrs. A. L. McCarty and children, Patricia and Amacy, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard, hosts.

WOODBURN WCTU MEETING HELD, SOULE'S HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. E. N. Soule entertained the Woodburn W. C. T. U. at her home on Young street Friday afternoon and every interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. A. H. Dean presided at the business meeting and devotion were conducted by Mrs. Henry G. Hanson who read the 121st psalm. A number of papers were read on topics of interest. Mrs. Dean read a paper entitled, "This Act Ain't for Us Americans." Mrs. Ivan G. Beer read an article by Prohibition Commissioner Deran, in which he stated that prohibition had netted the United States millions of dollars. Mrs. Henry G. Hanson read an article by Henry Ford, "Prohibition is Bound to Stay." Miss Sarah Jenny spoke of the attitude of foreign diplomats on the prohibition question and also gave excerpts from the speech of Senator Smoot on cigarettes. A statement was made that the convention of the Harvard club was the driest ever held. Mrs. J. R. London read an article entitled "The Testimony of College Girls."

There were 15 ladies present. Following the program refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Vern D. Harrington.

SIX TABLE BRIDGE PARTY, SILVERTON

Silverton—Mrs. Walter Arbuthnot entertained at a six table bridge party at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. The flower decorations were ahasha daisies, sweet peas and nasturtiums. Mrs. C. R. Wilson won high score and Mrs. P. L. Brown consolation.

MILL CITY WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Mill City—The death of Mrs. Thargala Feit occurred following an illness of several months and undergoing several operations without success.

Mrs. Feit was born in Bavaria, Germany, May 7, 1859. She was married to Vitus Feit in 1880 coming to America in 1895 and settling in Indianapolis. They came west in 1907 residing in Mill City.

Funeral services were held at the Catholic church Wednesday morning with burial in Fairview cemetery.

STATE BOYS WILL FEATURE CONCERT

Hubbard—Dr. A. F. de Lesplasse, director of the Hubbard community band, has arranged for a number of features for Saturday evening band concert. The first one will be William Boydston, well known baritone player with the Dallas band, who will appear as soloist with band accompaniment. He reports that Boydston, who is also a capable band director, is an unusual baritone player, having a remarkable range with splendid intonation.

As another concert Marinus Verhagen of Salem will appear in xylophone numbers, accompanied by band. Verhagen has a four and one-half octave instrument that is conceded to be one of the most musically toned ones in the market and he has been perfecting himself in mastering it for many years.

The third feature will be the appearance of the boys' chorus from the state training school who will give their initial performance in Hubbard in connection with a Saturday night concert. Dates for these special events will be announced later.

PAST NOBLE GRAND CLUB ENTERTAINED

Jefferson—The members of the Rebel Past Noble Grand club were guests of Mrs. Dora Humphrey and Mrs. Maude Blackwell at their regular meeting Thursday afternoon in the Odd Fellows hall.

The following officers were installed by the retiring president, Mrs. Dora Humphrey: Mrs. Bertha Cull, president; Mrs. Millie Blyeu, vice-president; Mrs. Ada Wells, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Bernice Skelton, marshal; Mrs. Grace Thurston, chaplain.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the joint hostesses, Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Blackwell.

The regular meeting will be dispensed with in August and the members with their families, will go to Waterloo for a picnic.

WOODBURN WCTU MEETING HELD, SOULE'S HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. E. N. Soule entertained the Woodburn W. C. T. U. at her home on Young street Friday afternoon and every interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. A. H. Dean presided at the business meeting and devotion were conducted by Mrs. Henry G. Hanson who read the 121st psalm. A number of papers were read on topics of interest. Mrs. Dean read a paper entitled, "This Act Ain't for Us Americans." Mrs. Ivan G. Beer read an article by Prohibition Commissioner Deran, in which he stated that prohibition had netted the United States millions of dollars. Mrs. Henry G. Hanson read an article by Henry Ford, "Prohibition is Bound to Stay." Miss Sarah Jenny spoke of the attitude of foreign diplomats on the prohibition question and also gave excerpts from the speech of Senator Smoot on cigarettes. A statement was made that the convention of the Harvard club was the driest ever held. Mrs. J. R. London read an article entitled "The Testimony of College Girls."

There were 15 ladies present. Following the program refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Vern D. Harrington.

PACK TRAIN BOUGHT FOR TOURIST TRIPS

Scio—D. H. Poindexter and Oliver Beard have been purchasing saddle and pack horses in the Scio region during the last week. The animals are to be used at the Olalla lake tourist camp 15 miles north of Mt. Jefferson, which Poindexter and Beard are fitting up for the accommodation of vacationists and sight-seeing tourists. Their camp is on what is known as the Sky Line trail, which leads to Crater lake, 200 miles south. The elevation of the trail is about 4500 feet.

DINNER PARTY HELD

Kingwood—Mrs. Theodore Bernard gave a little family dinner party in honor of her husband's birthday, Wednesday evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bernard and niece, Miss Zelma Bernard of Mountain View, Cal., Mrs. A. L. McCarty and children, Patricia and Amacy, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernard, hosts.

WILDE FUNERAL RITES AWAITING ARRANGEMENTS

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Theresa Wilde, 55 years of age, died Friday morning after a brief illness.

She was born in St. Lucas, Iowa, March 14, 1874, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Meyer, and married Frank Wilde May 16, 1897. They moved to Wisconsin in 1914 and came to Mt. Angel in the spring of 1920. Two months ago they sold their ranch east of town and located here where Wilde is in business.

She is survived by her husband, Frank Wilde, and six children, William Wilde, who lives in South America, Leo Wilde, Chippewa Falls, Wis., John of Portland, Frank of Ventura, Calif., Sister Mary Madeleine, O. S. B., of the Mt. Angel Academy, Regina and Albert, who live at home.

The date of funeral has not been announced.

SHENBECK INJURED FALLING OFF LADDER

Hubbard—Sam Shenbeck, former Hubbard resident, but now living near Woodburn, was injured Wednesday when he fell from the ladder as he was picking cherries. Dr. Edward Schoor reported that he had suffered severe injury to his right shoulder and a multiple fracture of the right arm between the elbow and wrist. The Shenbeck family moved from Hubbard to Dakota and last fall returned to the Willamette valley.

MEHAMA

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Phillips and sons Dick and Keith drove to Buckley, Wash., Thursday where they visited their son Nye and family. They also spent some time in Tacoma, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson and family of Corvallis spent the 4th at the home of Mr. Peterson's sister, Mrs. Glenn Phillips.

Glenn Gough accompanied by his daughter, Betty and Mrs. Giles Wagner were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bardune and daughter Virginia enjoyed the 4th at Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves and children returned Saturday evening from eastern Washington and Idaho where they enjoyed a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guerkel, returned Sunday evening from eastern Washington and Idaho where they visited a week and spent the 4th.

Miss Estell King of Union Hill was a week-end guest at the E. D. Phillips home.

A daughter, Velma May was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Anderson at the home of Miss Stout, the attending nurse.

Robert Whitman returned Sunday from a week's visit at Spokane with his family. He was accompanied by his son who has employment with the Silverton Lumber company.

Iowa farmers, on the average, have a fixed capital of $18,710, of which $1,499 is in machinery.

EPWORTH LEAGUES PLAN FOR SESSION

Falls City—Preparations for the annual Epworth League institute held here the first week of August has begun. H. H. Miller drained the dam and all debris will be cleaned from the bed of the river at this place so the swimming hole will be in good shape in a short time.

WESTWAY CLUB HAS ITS FIRST MEETING

Jefferson—The first meeting of the Westway club of the Woman's Benefit association was held Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Rose Green with Mrs. W. W. Warner as joint hostess.

During the business meeting it was decided that the club would meet on the second Friday of each month instead of the third Wednesday as first planned.

At the close of the meeting the club adjourned to the Eltie confectionary where refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Bertha Cull, Mrs. Dora Kottboff, Mrs. Lydia Hoy, Mrs. Gert Weddie, Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle, Mrs. J. G. Pontaine, Miss Rose Green and Mrs. W. W. Warner.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR GROUP HAS OUTING

Hubbard—A winter outing was the feature of the social evening of the Christian Endeavor of the Congregational church Wednesday evening.

The party was held from 8 to 10 o'clock in the woods near the Neiler place north of Hubbard.

Those attending were the Misses Helen Vogel, Anita Bevens, Agatha Vogel, Agnes Weaver, Jacqueline Dick, Lenore Scholl, Taleta Vogel, Meta Chubb, Irene Scholl, Louise Vogel, Frances Letler, Wilma Dick, Dorothy Scholl, Orva Marrett, Wilma Phillips, Gungadene Bidgood, Elsie Jungnickle, and the Messrs. Bernard Cole, Elwood Lehman, Arthur Mills, Herwig Nether, Henry Letler, Earnest Scott, Melvin Mitta, Merlin Belcher and Dale Kelley.

CIRCLE ENTERTAINED

Silverton—The Rainbow circle of the Immanuel Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Theodore Opsund on Oak street on Wednesday evening with about 30 members and guests present. The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Opsund. After this a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

WOODBURN WCTU MEETING HELD, SOULE'S HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. E. N. Soule entertained the Woodburn W. C. T. U. at her home on Young street Friday afternoon and every interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. A. H. Dean presided at the business meeting and devotion were conducted by Mrs. Henry G. Hanson who read the 121st psalm. A number of papers were read on topics of interest. Mrs. Dean read a paper entitled, "This Act Ain't for Us Americans." Mrs. Ivan G. Beer read an article by Prohibition Commissioner Deran, in which he stated that prohibition had netted the United States millions of dollars. Mrs. Henry G. Hanson read an article by Henry Ford, "Prohibition is Bound to Stay." Miss Sarah Jenny spoke of the attitude of foreign diplomats on the prohibition question and also gave excerpts from the speech of Senator Smoot on cigarettes. A statement was made that the convention of the Harvard club was the driest ever held. Mrs. J. R. London read an article entitled "The Testimony of College Girls."

There were 15 ladies present. Following the program refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Vern D. Harrington.

SIX TABLE BRIDGE PARTY, SILVERTON

Silverton—Mrs. Walter Arbuthnot entertained at a six table bridge party at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. The flower decorations were ahasha daisies, sweet peas and nasturtiums. Mrs. C. R. Wilson won high score and Mrs. P. L. Brown consolation.

MILL CITY WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Mill City—The death of Mrs. Thargala Feit occurred following an illness of several months and undergoing several operations without success.

Mrs. Feit was born in Bavaria, Germany, May 7, 1859. She was married to Vitus Feit in 1880 coming to America in 1895 and settling in Indianapolis. They came west in 1907 residing in Mill City.

Funeral services were held at the Catholic church Wednesday morning with burial in Fairview cemetery.

STATE BOYS WILL FEATURE CONCERT

Hubbard—Dr. A. F. de Lesplasse, director of the Hubbard community band, has arranged for a number of features for Saturday evening band concert. The first one will be William Boydston, well known baritone player with the Dallas band, who will appear as soloist with band accompaniment. He reports that Boydston, who is also a capable band director, is an unusual baritone player, having a remarkable range with splendid intonation.

As another concert Marinus Verhagen of Salem will appear in xylophone numbers, accompanied by band. Verhagen has a four and one-half octave instrument that is conceded to be one of the most musically toned ones in the market and he has been perfecting himself in mastering it for many years.

The third feature will be the appearance of the boys' chorus from the state training school who will give their initial performance in Hubbard in connection with a Saturday night concert. Dates for these special events will be announced later.

PAST NOBLE GRAND CLUB ENTERTAINED

Jefferson—The members of the Rebel Past Noble Grand club were guests of Mrs. Dora Humphrey and Mrs. Maude Blackwell at their regular meeting Thursday afternoon in the Odd Fellows hall.

The following officers were installed by the retiring president, Mrs. Dora Humphrey: Mrs. Bertha Cull, president; Mrs. Millie Blyeu, vice-president; Mrs. Ada Wells, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Bernice Skelton, marshal; Mrs. Grace Thurston, chaplain.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the joint hostesses, Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Blackwell.

The regular meeting will be dispensed with in August and the members with their families, will go to Waterloo for a picnic.

WOODBURN WCTU MEETING HELD, SOULE'S HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. E. N. Soule entertained the Woodburn W. C. T. U. at her home on Young street Friday afternoon and every interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. A. H. Dean presided at the business meeting and devotion were conducted by Mrs. Henry G. Hanson who read the 121st psalm. A number of papers were read on topics of interest. Mrs. Dean read a paper entitled, "This Act Ain't for Us Americans." Mrs. Ivan G. Beer read an article by Prohibition Commissioner Deran, in which he stated that prohibition had netted the United States millions of dollars. Mrs. Henry G. Hanson read an article by Henry Ford, "Prohibition is Bound to Stay." Miss Sarah Jenny spoke of the attitude of foreign diplomats on the prohibition question and also gave excerpts from the speech of Senator Smoot on cigarettes. A statement was made that the convention of the Harvard club was the driest ever held. Mrs. J. R. London read an article entitled "The Testimony of College Girls."

There were 15 ladies present. Following the program refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Vern D. Harrington.

SIX TABLE BRIDGE PARTY, SILVERTON

Silverton—Mrs. Walter Arbuthnot entertained at a six table bridge party at her home on West Main street Thursday afternoon. The flower decorations were ahasha daisies, sweet peas and nasturtiums. Mrs. C. R. Wilson won high score and Mrs. P. L. Brown consolation.

MILL CITY WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Mill City—The death of Mrs. Thargala Feit occurred following an illness of several months and undergoing several operations without success.

Mrs. Feit was born in Bavaria, Germany, May 7, 1859. She was married to Vitus Feit in 1880 coming to America in 1895 and settling in Indianapolis. They came west in 1907 residing in Mill City.

Funeral services were held at the Catholic church Wednesday morning with burial in Fairview cemetery.

STATE BOYS WILL FEATURE CONCERT

Hubbard—Dr. A. F. de Lesplasse, director of the Hubbard community band, has arranged for a number of features for Saturday evening band concert. The first one will be William Boydston, well known baritone player with the Dallas band, who will appear as soloist with band accompaniment. He reports that Boydston, who is also a capable band director, is an unusual baritone player, having a remarkable range with splendid intonation.

As another concert Marinus Verhagen of Salem will appear in xylophone numbers, accompanied by band. Verhagen has a four and one-half octave instrument that is conceded to be one of the most musically toned ones in the market and he has been perfecting himself in mastering it for many years.

The third feature will be the appearance of the boys' chorus from the state training school who will give their initial performance in Hubbard in connection with a Saturday night concert. Dates for these special events will be announced later.

PAST NOBLE GRAND CLUB ENTERTAINED

Jefferson—The members of the Rebel Past Noble Grand club were guests of Mrs. Dora Humphrey and Mrs. Maude Blackwell at their regular meeting Thursday afternoon in the Odd Fellows hall.

The following officers were installed by the retiring president, Mrs. Dora Humphrey: Mrs. Bertha Cull, president; Mrs. Millie Blyeu, vice-president; Mrs. Ada Wells, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Bernice Skelton, marshal; Mrs. Grace Thurston, chaplain.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon by the joint hostesses, Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Blackwell.

The regular meeting will be dispensed with in August and the members with their families, will go to Waterloo for a picnic.

WOODBURN WCTU MEETING HELD, SOULE'S HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. E. N. Soule entertained the Woodburn W. C. T. U. at her home on Young street Friday afternoon and every interesting meeting was held.

Mrs. A. H. Dean