

CALIFORNIA CREAMERY CARAVAN WILL BE GUESTS

COOPERATIVES OF OREGON TO MEET VISITORS

Mr. Angel—The Mt. Angel Cooperative Creamery will be host to an informal dinner and meeting Saturday evening, for the Challenge Cream & Butter association caravan of California, and officials of the various cooperative creameries of Oregon.

The caravan will arrive here about 4 o'clock. The dinner and meeting will be held in the Mt. Angel hotel, commencing at 5 o'clock. Fred R. Wolford, advance man of the Challenge company of Los Angeles, was here Friday to make the final arrangements.

With the California caravan are the following: E. R. Hanner, John Poytress, W. F. Francis, H. P. Wilkinson, directors of the Danish Creamery association of Fresno, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lott and family and Joseph Enz and family of Holtville, Imperial Valley; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Horkins of Point Reyes; J. A. Oliveria and J. P. Pantazis of Gualtine; Mr. and Mrs. G. Salina and daughter, vice-president; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tognazzi and daughter, E. Caccia, director; A. Sanico, director of Harmony Valley; Mr. A. Serpa and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hubbard of Lemoore; Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson, A. Benckendorf, director; Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Miller, director; J. C. Jensen and Lewis Hepler of Modesto; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy, founder of the Challenge company; Mr. and Mrs. William Higdon, president; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gill, director; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fernandez, director of Tulare; Judge and Mrs. Morrison; C. W. Hibbert and son, general manager; C. L. Mitchell, production manager, and Ed Davidson, mechanic, of Los Angeles.

Officials of the Cooperative Creameries of Albany, Monmouth, St. Helena, Carlton, Eugene and the Skamokawa, Wash., will also be present.

The bank officials of the Mt. Angel bank and the First National bank, and Mayor J. E. Webb, have been invited for the occasion.

Frank Hettner, manager of the Mt. Angel Cooperative Creamery, with the directors, R. J. Berning, Martin Roskyold, Joseph Berning, Charles Boehler and Ed Overland will be in charge.

THREE COUPLES GET LICENSES AT DALLAS

Marriage licenses issued by the county clerk Wednesday and Thursday were married by G. L. Hawkins, residence, Salem, employed as an attendant at the state hospital, to Gertrude Capps, age 36 years, occupation, stenographer, residence Independence.

Floyd Bowman, age 28 years, residence Falls City, to Juanita Hawk, age 18 years, Falls City. The couple were to Chester M. Hesel, age 43 county judge.

Ed O. Turner, age 22 years, residence Reno, Nev., to Verna Schmidt, age 19 years, residence Toledo. The license was issued at 9 p. m. and Rev. Orval D. Peterson of the Christian church was called to perform the ceremony which took place in the county clerk's office.

WATER WHEEL GIFT TO SILVERTON POOL

Silverton—Louis Fischer of the Fischer flour mills here has given to the city for the swimming pool a new large red water wheel which will add much sport to those who use the pool. Some new swings have been generally "fixed up" which has made it much more attractive to visitors.

OFFICIAL WRECKED

Sublimity—L. M. Doerfler, assistant marshal, met with an accident Tuesday. While going to work on the road near Meham, he headed into a passing auto and damaging his own car so much that he is now getting a new one. The woman in the other car was quite badly hurt. Doerfler was on the wrong side of the road when the accident occurred.

Hubbard—Mrs. Robert Brown has recovered from her recent illness so that she is again able to tend to her work as relief operator in the local telephone office.

AMITY WOMAN HURT WHEN DOOR OPENS

Amity—While returning home from the Punjala 4 m. east of Amity Thursday afternoon, Mrs. C. H. Burch of this city met with a painful accident. The door of the automobile flew open and Mrs. Burch fell out, breaking her left arm between the wrist and elbow. She was brought to Amity where Dr. G. A. Davis gave treatment.

BINEGAR GETS BUS CONTRACT FOR NEXT YEAR

Silverton—W. Binegar of the Howell Prairie district has been given the contract to transport high school students from the Hazel Green, Central Howell and North Howell districts to Silverton this fall.

Martin Warwick has been given the contract to kalamine the interior of the Washington-Ingling building, the work to be done for $108.

The Crane Supply House of Portland was given the contract for painting the roof of the high school building, the cost to be $80.50, and the old part of the Eugene Field Green Central Howell and North Howell districts to Silverton this fall.

OFFICERS SEATED BY AMITY LODGE

Amity—At the last meeting of Industry Rebekah lodge of Amity, the following officers were installed by Mrs. Vernisha Newby, district deputy:

Mrs. Nellie Rogers, noble grand; Mrs. Edith Mack, vice grand; Mrs. Beale Sorenson, secretary; Mrs. Clara Broadhead treasurer; Mrs. W. E. Barnes, chaplain; Mrs. Ethel Williams, inside guardian; Mrs. Wilma Gibbs, outside guardian; Mrs. Jessie Mahood, warden; Mrs. Florence Blair, conductor; Mrs. Gertrude Richter, right supporter to noble grand; Miss Laura Bockes, left supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Vernisha Newby right supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Hettie Shields, left supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Mamie Randall, musician.

FORMER DAKOTANS GUESTS AT PARTY

Silverton—Mrs. Rudd Benton of East Hill gave a party at her home Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Dr. DeVall of Garrettsville, S. D. All of the guests attending were those who at one time resided in Garrettsville and were Mrs. E. J. McCall, Mrs. C. H. Benton, Mrs. Walter Frye, Mrs. Nels Langsner, Mrs. Ed Holden, Mrs. A. A. Grinde, Mrs. Olivia Benton, all of Silverton, and the Mrs. F. Weiser and Claud Glenn of Salem, Dr. and Mrs. DeVall came west to attend the medical convention in Portland last week.

SERVICES SCHEDULED

Brooks—The regular church services will be held in the Brooks Community Methodist church on Sunday morning, with the pastor, Rev. D. George Cole, in charge. Bible school will be at 10 o'clock and devotional services at 11 o'clock. The sermon topic is "Self Conquest." Text, "He that ruleth his own spirit is greater than he that taketh a city." The evening service will be held at Kester, with Epworth league at 7 o'clock and preaching at 8 o'clock.

Will Play Bridge—Silverton—Miss Eleanor Jane Ballantine, daughter of Mrs. Jack Ballantine of Coolidge street, will entertain several young ladies at a three-table bridge Thursday evening.

Girl Takes Tumble—Dallas—Miss Sylvia McIntosh, residing near Suver, fell six feet out of a tree and broke and dislocated her left elbow. She was treated by Dr. Bolman.

SUMMER TERM PEOPLE OFFER SOCIAL EVENT

Rickreall—The summer classes of individual instruction had a get-together dinner at the Black Bird inn at Rickreall this week. These classes are under the rural department of the Oregon Normal school of which Mrs. Inez Miller is the head. The class in technique of individual instruction is taught by Mrs. Miller at Monmouth; the classes in bulletin-making, as well as the demonstration school at Rickreall, are under the supervision of Mrs. Grace Taylor Pearce.

Mrs. Inez Miller presided as mistress of ceremonies. The following people made responses on topics assigned to them: benefits derived from the course in individual instruction, Mrs. Minnie Altman; books we have read, George Lusby; the bulletin-making, F. D. Braly; what Polk county is going to do with individual instruction, Mrs. Harry Dempsey; plans for the summer of 1930, Rosabel Shone; application of the work during the next school year, Harry Cameron; dangers to be avoided, J. W. Crites of the state department of education and head of 4-H club; the future of the class for its interest and willingness to work diligently in order to put over the work in their own schools.

President J. S. Landers was the last speaker and was greeted with the enthusiasm always accorded him by students of his school. Mr. Landers expressed a desire to make the work of individual instruction a part of the school program each summer in order that those who have begun in the pioneer classes of 1929 will have an opportunity to follow it up and make it a means for better schools for rural children.

The speakers from the classes expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Inez Miller, Mr. J. W. Crites and the classes in order that the normal school. Mrs. Jean C. Gibson, Monmouth; F. D. Braly, Portland; Rosabel Shone, Oakland; Bess Shanon, Monmouth; Ethel M. Miller, Monmouth; Bess Nelson, Junction City; Dorothy M. Johnson, Seaside; H. W. Cameron, Astoria; H. E. Holmes, Portland; Chas. New Mexico; Martha Lindley, Portland; Mrs. Anna Barzen, Astoria; Mrs. H. L. Lewis, Lewiston; Eleanor Jenne, Portland; Mrs. Helen Gillespie, Astoria; Irene Seidel, Gresham; Mary Tubant, Goldendale; Mrs. Walter Weller, Portland; Mrs. Jane Collins, Modesto, Calif.; Frances Cox, Cottage Grove; Helen Fletcher, Salem; Betty E. Joseph, Philomath; Lucy B. Morton, Portland; Ethel Timman, Portland; Sylvia Smith, Holmes; E. D. Paulson, Oswego; W. B. Long, Rupert, Idaho; J. H. Adamson, Cornelius; Helen Westing, Salem; Kenneth Westenhaven, Seaside; Gladys L. Murrow, Portland; Esther M. Herman, Portland; Doris Merrifield, St. Helena; Helen Ritcher, Molalla; Mrs. Bernice Smith, Holmes; Mary P. Mary Alice Wood, Beaverton; Clara Bagby, Molalla; Bonniel White, McMinnville; Arnette E. Scott, Silverton; Ray D. Bishop, Portland; Mary Lloyd Tregat, Troutdale; Mrs. Minnie B. Altman, Portland; M. M. Quick and Gresham; Zella Haley, Olympia, Wash.; George W. Lusby, Corbett; Mrs. Harry A. Dempsey, Rickreall.

Recent visitors at the demonstration school were Chester Ward, Seattle; H. P. Blanton, Merrill, Ore.; Mrs. E. A. Stenson, Rickreall; Ada Ross, Beulah S. Thornton and Grace Maurie Mitchell of the O. N. S.; Mrs. M. Sleep, North Bend; Marietta Lindley, Portland; Mrs. Chinook, Portland; Beale B. McKivrey, P. E. Fagan, city superintendent of McMinnville; Lillian B. Shaffer, Woodburn; Helen B. Camp, Gresham; S. G. Duncan, county superintendent of Yamhill county; Roy E. Cannon, county superintendent, Multnomah county; Josiah Willis, county superintendent of Polk county.

RETURNING FROM COAST—Silverton—Mrs. Ernest Ekman and little son Jimmie, Mrs. I. L. Stewart and two daughters, Evelyn and Frances, and Mrs. Stewart's niece, Miss Beulah Madison of Topeka, Kan., who are spending a short time at Oceanide, are expected home Saturday or Sunday.

WATER FIGHT EVENT AT HUBBARD MONDAY

Hubbard—The fire boys are planning a water fight for Monday evening. The fight will be between the company boys and a team of men picked from the business men of the town. After the fight there will be an old time ice cream social on the vacant lots between the Service store and the Three-in-One barber shop. The junior band will play during the social. The water fight will be held on the Commons.

OUTDOOR SESSION HELD BY LEAGUE

Brooks—The Brooks Methodist church Epworth league held its second outdoor meeting on Thursday evening, in the Oak grove on the farm of Mrs. Jennie Gilbert. A treasure hunt was a feature of the evening, with prizes for the winners, after which regular devotional exercises were held, with Marie Dunlavy as leader. After the meeting, refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Edna McDonough, Carpenter, 78, who passed away suddenly Monday evening at his home in Woodburn, were held at the Methodist Episcopal church Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. D. Woodfin and music was given by a quartet, Mrs. O. L. Withers, Miss Joyce Woodfin, James Livesey and Rev. Woodfin. S. E. Brune presided at the organ. Paul Beasars were James H. Livesey, L. M. Biny, Milo Kelsey, Robert H. Scott, Henry Hall and Warren Haakins. Interment was in the family lot at the Miller cemetery near Silverton.

McDonough Carpenter was born on August 7, 1851 near Clinton, Wisconsin. He came from Wisconsin to Oregon and resided for a time at Silverton, then moved to California. About 15 years ago he came back to Oregon and settled at Woodburn where he has since resided and where about a year ago he built a beautiful home on North Front street. He was first married on December 25, 1876 and his first wife died February 23, 1901. On March 20, 1914 he married Mrs. N. E. Woods who survives him. He also leaves one son, A. D. Carpenter of Fullerton, California and two foster children, Denny McCleary of Newport, Oregon, a brother, Elijah Carpenter, and a sister, Carrie Long, reside in Iowa. A daughter by his first wife died at the age of 18 months.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS MEETING AT HUBBARD

Hubbard—The Hubbard school board met Thursday with the new chairman, Dr. A. F. de Lespinaze, presiding. The newly elected clerk, E. O. Erickson, and the new school board member, Garfield Voget, qualified and the latter was sworn into office. The first session of the board took care of the usual summer routine work such as paying of bills, inspecting and repair work going on in the building, planning for the fall opening. The third member of the board, H. L. Carl, was unable to be present.

"FLYING PARSON" IS SILVERTON VISITOR

Silverton—Rev. Alexander Crawford of the Portland Apostolic Faith churches of Portland in his plane, the "Wings of the Morning," which landed on the local airport Tuesday for a short stay. He stated that he would be here again Saturday evening for an open air meeting at the Ames hardware corner. Several singers will also be here. Coming in their large bus which takes these people in all sections of the north-west.

HUBBARD BAND BUSY

Hubbard—The Hubbard Community band will play at the press association meeting to be held at Champeong Sunday afternoon. The junior band, composed of the beginners who started band work in January, will play for the water fight and social to be given by the firemen Monday evening, the 22nd. Both bands are under the direction of Dr. A. F. de Lespinaze.

SHEELERS HAVE SON—Silverton—Word has been received of the birth of a ten pound boy, born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sheeler at Tillamook. The sheelers lived here for some time. She will be remembered as Miss Rider, a teacher in the local schools.

EARL ODOM GUEST—Amity—Earl Odom of San Francisco is visiting in Amity and Bellevue this month at the homes of his sister and father. Mrs. A. R. Pierson and Mr. Odom, Sr.

EASY WASHER

Don't buy until you see them wash Ask for demonstration VIBBERT & TODD Phone 2112-191 South High Street

CARPENTER IS LAID TO REST AT SILVERTON

Woodburn—Funeral services for McDonough Carpenter, 78, who passed away suddenly Monday evening at his home in Woodburn, were held at the Methodist Episcopal church Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. D. Woodfin and music was given by a quartet, Mrs. O. L. Withers, Miss Joyce Woodfin, James Livesey and Rev. Woodfin. S. E. Brune presided at the organ. Paul Beasars were James H. Livesey, L. M. Biny, Milo Kelsey, Robert H. Scott, Henry Hall and Warren Haakins. Interment was in the family lot at the Miller cemetery near Silverton.

McDonough Carpenter was born on August 7, 1851 near Clinton, Wisconsin. He came from Wisconsin to Oregon and resided for a time at Silverton, then moved to California. About 15 years ago he came back to Oregon and settled at Woodburn where he has since resided and where about a year ago he built a beautiful home on North Front street. He was first married on December 25, 1876 and his first wife died February 23, 1901. On March 20, 1914 he married Mrs. N. E. Woods who survives him. He also leaves one son, A. D. Carpenter of Fullerton, California and two foster children, Denny McCleary of Newport, Oregon, a brother, Elijah Carpenter, and a sister, Carrie Long, reside in Iowa. A daughter by his first wife died at the age of 18 months.

Mr. Carpenter was a farmer for many years and of kindly disposition, and has aided materially in the welfare of Woodburn by his progressiveness and interest in civic improvement.

NORTH SANTIAM

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Devlin and family spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Devlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Davis of this vicinity. Mrs. Devlin and children stayed until Wednesday morning when she returned to her home at the Silverton logging camp.

George Miller, who has been on a trip into Washington, returned to his home in this vicinity Wednesday.

Mrs. Jessie Arehart and children, Marie, Doris and Ladana, who have been staying with Mrs. Arehart's son, Herman Reister, helping in the heavy harvest, has returned to her home.

Retha Davis and Mabel Hale, who have been picking berries at Union Hill, have finished and returned to their homes in North Santiam. They report the berries very good this year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Davis received word from their daughter in Idaho that her health is better and she has a good job and likes it fine there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gunkel of Meham were recent visitors with Mrs. Gunkel's parents of this vicinity, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bond.

MUSIC STUDENT HOME—Silverton—LeRoy Rue who has been attending school at Ansborg college of music in Minneapolis the past year and who was here some months ago with a glebe club from that school, arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Rue over west hill a few days ago and expects to spend the summer here.

DOG BITES GIRL—Scio—The little Pinkay child, who was bitten in the face by a dog a few days ago, is reported making good recovery. The child is visiting at the Kukacka home with its parents.

PICNIC LUNCHEON IS GIVEN CLUB MEMBERS

Hubbard—The Pink and Lavender club met Thursday at the Hubbard Mineral Springs park for a picnic noon luncheon. Members present for the day were Medames Jackson, Kidston, Sewell, Calvert, Zeet, Weaver, Speight, Beyona, Stauffer, Rector, Wells, Wolfer, Adams and the Misses Frances Weaver, Ruth Calvert, Anita Beyona, Rose Jordan and Mary Goudy. Miss Beyona was in charge of the games for the day. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alice Weaver.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS LEAVE ON OUTING

Independence—Seventeen campfire girls from the local camps assembled at the corner of Main and Monmouth avenue Saturday morning and with their company outfits were taken in a train, furnished by local citizens, to Portland where they were embarked on a special train carrying other groups to camp Nauannu, the last lap of the trip being a hike. Their trip has been made possible by donations from business men and other friends of the camp fire girls.

Those in the group were Florence Carol, Hulda Kurre, Ruth Cuthbert, Carol Bristol, Mildred Mattison, Vera Ramsey, Margaret Schoeder, Elizabeth Baker, Thelma Clark, Gertrude Johnson, Ruth Stryker, Blanche Scholler, Evelyn Davis, Neida Butt, Vula Becken, Evelyn Brandt, and Tone Moore. They were accompanied by their guardians and will spend a week at camp.

BETHEL

Miss Eunice Prewing of Alberta, Canada, is visiting at the home of H. W. Prewing.

Several persons from this vicinity attended the boys and girls picnics held at Rickreall park Wednesday.

Mrs. Beale Schultz and daughters of San Francisco, are visiting relatives here.

While sealing a jar of fruit, Miss Eva Christensen cut her hand so badly she had to have several stitches taken in it.

Billy Hadly of Seattle, Wash., is visiting at the Fred Jennings home. Mrs. Jennings being his aunt.

Miss Beatrice Hawley spent the week end at Pacific City.

Ernest Sears is able to be around again after a siege of the measles. Mrs. Gus Prang, Helen and Anna Prang, Mrs. B. H. Loehring of Dayton, and a niece of Mrs. Loehring's from Iowa, enjoyed a trip on the Columbia highway Tuesday.

Victory Rebekah Lodge No. 94 installed the new officers at their meeting Saturday evening.

Mrs. Fritzell, who was in a Portland hospital, is very much improved.

GUEST AT HENRY'S—Zena—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry have as their guest this week Mrs. Henry's sister, Mrs. Louis Randall of Cottage Grove who has been attending the world wide guild house party at McMinnville. Mrs. Randall gave two addresses while there telling about her experiences while doing missionary work in China seven years, and she also put on a play "Love's Extremity," the plot being based on the customs of dealing the sick in China. The play was written by Rev. and Mrs. Louis Randall.

GUESTS IN BOOKS—Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lemmon and daughter, Loretta Lemmon, of West Salem, were guests Tuesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder in Brooks. Snyder left Wednesday morning for Arlington where he will be employed this summer.

OLD RESIDENT NORTH DALLAS ANSWERS CALL

Dallas—Funeral services were held Wednesday for Sarah Belat Reed, 87, who died at her home in North Dallas after an illness of more than a year. She was born June 22, 1842, at New Garden, Ohio, and had been a lifelong member of the First Christian church. Interment was in the Dallas cemetery with Rev. Peterson, pastor of the Christian church, officiating.

She married G. W. Reed Sept. 20, 1866, and lived in Ohio until 1891 when she moved to McMinnville where she resided for eight years. Then, after buying at North Dallas she moved here and has lived here since 1899.

Her husband died at North Dallas January 10, 1913. He was a Civil war veteran.

She is survived by four children: Mrs. Ben Brown of Pendleton; R. E. Reed of Dallas; Mrs. Jola Gleason of Salem, and Mrs. Will Hayes of Dallas. Her grandchildren are C. S. Town of Pendleton, Elmer, Marie, Sarah and Helen Hayes, all of Dallas; Orville and Norville Gleason of Salem, and one great grandchild, Marguerite Shaver of Pendleton.

SUBLIMITY

Wednesday afternoon 36 cars with the delegates and visitors at the Central convention were here on a sight-seeing tour.

Leo Zuber of Portland was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zuber, Wednesday.

Miss Aurelia Kintz visited with Mrs. Myles Kintz in the Jordan valley Thursday.

Theodore Wolf and Leo Schmidt who are studying for the Jesuit order were shaking hands with relatives and friends Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Rose Riestter, Mrs. Ida Steffes and Mrs. P. A. Bell went to Portland with the delegates Thursday, sight-seeing.

RICKEY

Dr. and Mrs. A. Morefield of Yakima, who formerly resided here, spent the week-end visiting friends in the community.

Frank Harris who was employed by the Reed Murdock company in California, has returned to take charge of his father's farm, who is forced to retire on account of ill health.

R. Evans has had the interior of his shop redecorated recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mills of Newberg were recent guests of Mrs. Mills' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hoota.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Doyle of Covina, Calif., have been the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. McMillin.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brougher spent the week-end with relatives at Scotts Bluff.

Miss Elvora Edwards of Lincoln is a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Randall and family spent the week-end at the beach.

Dale Magee of Crooked Finger and Emily Magee of Ashland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee Monday.

Mrs. Mary Roth of Salem spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Harris.

BOARD WILL MEET

Scio—The Scio school board is to hold a meeting soon for the consideration of matters pertaining to the coming school year.

RED CROSS LEADER IS SCIO VISITOR

Scio—Deborah B. Pentz, Linna county Red Cross executive, was in Scio on business this week. Miss Pentz stated that the swimming course for this county is under way and that demonstrations will be given at or near Scio once each week during the campaign. Miss Pentz has resigned her position and will return to her former home in California. She has just returned from that state, where she spent some time on official business.

LINCOLN RESIDENT BURIED IN SALEM

Lincoln—A large number of persons from this vicinity and over Spring Valley attended the funeral in Salem Wednesday of James Smith, Sr., 81, who died in a Salem hospital Monday morning, and who had been a resident of this community for 36 years. Services were held at Clough-Huston's chapel and interment was made in the City View cemetery where his wife was buried several years ago. Rev. C. E. Ward officiated.

James Smith, Sr., was born in Aberdeen, Scotland. As a youth he went to Australia and from there came on to America. He worked with importers of Clydesdale horses for some time and came later to the Broadmead farm near Amity where he was farm manager, before coming on to Lincoln where he lived the latter part of his life.

Surviving him are Miss Jeannie Smith and John Alexander Smith of this community and Mrs. Mary Bayne and James Smith Jr., of Salem, his four children, and one grandson, Albert Bayne of Salem.

LEG IS AMPUTATED

Lincoln—It is reported that Howard Wilton son of Mrs. Charles Mutha, had his leg amputated at the Shrine hospital in Portland on Wednesday. He has suffered for many years with a serious affliction and several operations have proved unsuccessful. His brother, Albert Wilton of Port Townsend, came up to be near him for a few days. He was accompanied here by William Kennedy and Kermit Surette, both also of Port Townsend.

LEAVE FOR ARIZONA

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. George Centre, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Boehm of East Hill, have left for Arizona where he has been transferred from Medford. He is employed on the railroad.

FISHING TRIP ENDS

Dallas—Jack Brown and Will Collins returned Friday from a fishing trip on the Santiam river, up in the Cascades. They left last Tuesday.

Exceptional Business Opportunity

A strictly modern and new method of merchandising of a product universally used. A wonderful opportunity for a man of limited means. Exclusive territory can be had. No stock for sale; the proposition is sold direct and on its merits. Complete information available from

Metzger & Linville

Senator Hotel, Room 336

All Eugene Invites You

JULY 25, 26, 27

The West's greatest pageant
America's most unique parade
All-Northwest air derby
Industrial Oregon in review

The greatest pioneer celebration ever held in Oregon will across a new animation for the brave deeds of those who settled this great area. The pioneer pageant, with a cast of 1500 people will thrill you as nothing ever has before. The pioneer parade will be the most unique and novel event ever held in America. Every phase of Oregon business and industry will be in the industrial parade. The air derby will be the outstanding aeronautical event of the year in the Northwest.

Send in reservations for the Sunset Trail Pageant to Sunset Trail headquarters, 948 Oak St., Eugene. Seats on sale from 75c to $2.00.

Plan now to join all Oregon at Eugene
A Progressive Celebration in True Pioneer Spirit

Hollywood Theatre

Any Time
SEE AR 25 C
First National
VITAPHONE

RICHARD BARTHELMSS
Weary River
A First National Picture

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday
Continuous Performance Sunday 2-11

ELSINORE
"Salem's Greatest Entertainment"
LAST TIMES TONIGHT!
WHIDE EAST IS EAST
Lon Chaney
In His Greatest Role!
with Lupo Valco and Estelle Taylor
See and Hear It!
Starts Sunday for 3 Big Days!

Daily Chronicle
WEDS ADVENTURESS TO SAVE DAUGHTER
Action...Thrills...Excitement...

See! Hear! "Gentlemen of the Press"
The hard-ship of Newspaper Life...
It Will Only You!
WALTER HUSTON
A Paramount Picture
NORM—You are invited to remain over after tonight's show to See and Hear "The New Show World"
Paramount's novelty picture. Pictures in the making.

Starts Tomorrow
CAPITOL
Sun, Mon, Tues.
A 100% DIALOGUE DRAMATIZATION OF DIXIE
William Fox PRESENTS
HEARTS in DIXIE
A CAST OF 200 NATIVE ENTERTAINERS
CAKE WALKS, FOLK DANCES
Forty Negro Spirituals Sung by the Famous Ballerina Chorus of Sixty Mixed Voices. and 100 VITAPHONE ACTS
LAST TIMES TODAY
WARNER BROS. SPECTACULAR SINGING SUCCESS
THE DESERT SONG
Don't Miss It!