Good Evening!

DON UPJOHN OFFERS Sips for Supper

We read in a current publication and article where in it bemoaned the fate of millionaires in not being able to find anything to do.

The "Salem business man" who has been the butt of the new ordinance to shut off radios around in the local stores told us yesterday that the reason his horn hasn't been shut off is because nobody asked him to shut it off.

HOW OLD LADIES HAVE FUN We happened to listen in on a conversation of a couple of elderly ladies yesterday and this is about what we heard.

"Too bad about Mrs. Smith, isn't it, I understand she has paralysis in her right side."

"And how about poor little Mrs. Roe when the doctors took out her appendix and found that wasn't her trouble at all."

But we didn't remain in earshot to find out about Mrs. Doe. We presume the ladies are nearly through with the directory by now.

SLIDING SCALE SUGAR TARIFF HELD VICIOUS

Washington (AP)—Characterizing the proposed sliding scale tariff for sugar as an iniquitous device, Chester H. Gray, Washington representative of the American farm bureau federation, in a letter to Sam H. Thompson, the federation president and to the state farm bureau, declared that "no risky experiments should be tried out on agricultural products."

"If we must experiment with a sliding scale proposition," his letter said, "it should be tried out on some profitable industrial commodity like steel, aluminum, rayon or jewelry. It would be interesting to see the fate of any member of congress who would dare advocate a sliding scale for any industrial commodity."

The sliding scale would mean virtually "price fixing" on the part of the federal government, Gray's communication declared. "It is equivalent to telling the American farmer who produces sugar that his refined product shall never go beyond $6 a hundred pounds."
