

CHURCH OF GOD CAMP MEETINGS CLOSE SUNDAY

Woodburn—The annual camp meeting of the Church of God which has been in session at the camp ground north of town since July 18, will close Sunday. A very successful session has been held with ideal weather and a camp ground that cannot be surpassed for cleanliness and sanitation, with all modern conveniences. Provision has been made for the entertainment of small children with sand piles and other recreations and special meetings are held each day for children and young people who form a large proportion of the attendance.

There are four general camp meetings each year by this church of which this is the first. Others which will follow are the Puget Sound camp meeting at Edmonds, Wash., Colfax, Wash., and Middleton, Idaho. There are about 20 ministers in attendance and a large number of campers. New faces on the camp ground this year are Rev. W. T. Seaton, pastor of the First Church of God in Portland, who came to Portland from St. Louis, Missouri; Rev. Clarence Hatch of Indiana, who is the newly appointed pastor in Salem; Rev. George Pullius of Middleton, Idaho, and Rev. George Green just out of the church seminary at Anderson, Indiana, who will be located at North Bend this year.

BURIAL SERVICE FOR MRS. HEWITT HELD

Turner—Mrs. Linnelle Idello Hewitt, mother of C. W. Hewitt of Turner, was laid to rest on Wednesday afternoon in the Howpelt cemetery, following funeral services at Rigdon chapel in Salem, and the Howpelt church. Floral offerings were beautiful and many, expressing the high esteem and love in which Mrs. Hewitt was held. She was a woman of sweet disposition and her friends were many. She was a Christian and all her life had been active in church work.

Besides her husband, I. C. Hewitt of Salem, six children survive and many other relatives and friends.

BROOKS

Miss Lena Riggs has been ill the past week at her home in Brooks. Miss Lena is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Riggs.

Mrs. Gertrude McLeod and sons, Malcolm and Francis, of Lebanon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ashbaugh and family on Monday evening. Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Ashbaugh are sisters-in-law. The McLeods returned to their home at Lebanon Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, who have been proprietors of the Brookside grocery store and garage for the past three years, left Tuesday for Washington, where they will make their future home.

Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Loomis were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown and family, and Mr. Bowman and son, Walter, of Hills Ferry. On Monday Mrs. Virgil Loomis and children accompanied her husband to Silver Creek falls to spend a few days with Mr. Loomis, who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard LaFontaine and children, Wilfred, Jr., and Llewella, of North Howell, were recent dinner guests at the home of Mrs. LaFontaine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Otto, in Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shields and son, Roy, of Keizer, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bosch and family, and Mrs. Shields' mother, Mrs. B. J. Morris. Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Bosch are sisters. Other recent guests at the Bosch home were Miss Flora Morris and Andrew Johnson of Salem.

Among those who spent the day at Wheatland Ferry picnicking and swimming Sunday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John Ray and B. D. Vibbert, and James Vibbert of Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. John Keller and daughter, Dorothy Jean, of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Blanton, Sr., and children, Kathryn and Glenn; Miss Gladys Otto, Miss Emmaline Sears, Miss Edna Lester, Miss Ina Lester, Willie Wright, Harry Loomis, Donald Metzger, John Dunlavy, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh and children, Kraid, Vera, and Kreta Pae, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brundage and children, Nelita and Hubert, and George Coombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard LaFontaine and children, Wilfred, Jr., and Llewella, of North Howell, were recent dinner guests at the home of Mrs. LaFontaine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Otto, in Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shields and son, Roy, of Keizer, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bosch and family, and Mrs. Shields' mother, Mrs. B. J. Morris. Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Bosch are sisters. Other recent guests at the Bosch home were Miss Flora Morris and Andrew Johnson of Salem.

Among those who spent the day at Wheatland Ferry picnicking and swimming Sunday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John Ray and B. D. Vibbert, and James Vibbert of Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. John Keller and daughter, Dorothy Jean, of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Blanton, Sr., and children, Kathryn and Glenn; Miss Gladys Otto, Miss Emmaline Sears, Miss Edna Lester, Miss Ina Lester, Willie Wright, Harry Loomis, Donald Metzger, John Dunlavy, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh and children, Kraid, Vera, and Kreta Pae, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brundage and children, Nelita and Hubert, and George Coombs.

HAZEL GREEN

The Catlin family who have been located in the Anna Williamson house here have moved to Labish Center. The Catlins moved here from Portland and Mrs. Catlin will be best remembered as Pearl Edman, sister of Earl Edman of Labish Center. The Catlins have two children, LaVern and Clayton, who were formerly enrolled in the local school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crowe of Moscow, Idaho, have been house guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Tom Van Cleave. Additional house guests at the Van Cleave home were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engle and daughter of San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Engle is a cousin of Mrs. Van Cleave. The Van Cleave family with their guests plan on attending the Van Cleave reunion to be held at Champeau Sunday, July 28.

Enate Tuve, a former resident of this community, but now residing in Portland, is spending a few days visiting his son Richard Tuve, who is managing the home ranch. Mr. Tuve made the trip from Portland in a new car recently acquired.

Mrs. Bert Lovett and daughter Lois and son James of Mill City are house guests at the Henry Dunigan home. Mrs. Dunigan and Miss Lovett are sisters.

DONALD VISITORS LEAVE
Donald—Mr. and Mrs. Jay Davis and Miss Margaret Stromfield, who have been visiting at the Goodwin home, started for Everett, Wash.,

THEY COMPILE EDISON SCHOLARSHIP TEST

George Eastman (center), camera manufacturer; Henry Ford (right), and Dr. Samuel Stratton (below) will help Thomas A. Edison compile the questionnaire to be used in selecting the youth who will be educated to become Edison's successor in invention. Boys from all of the states have been entered in the scholarship contest.

Wednesday morning, going by way of Tillamook and the coast highway to Astoria. Miss Stromfield, who is employed in Everett, was enjoying a two weeks' vacation and her first trip to Oregon. The party took the Mt. Hood loop drive and many others while here. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will go east from Everett to visit their old home in Michigan, and expect to travel through the eastern states, visiting the east coast, before returning to Oregon.

FORMER JEFFERSON RESIDENT CALLED

Jefferson—Fred O. Elder, age 70 years, late of Jefferson, died at the National Military home at Savelle, Calif., on July 29. Death was due to pneumonia contracted while there. Elder, who was a veteran of the Spanish American war, and his wife, were Jefferson residents for about three years. Several months ago he went to Savelle, Calif., where he was employed at the National Military home and Mrs. Elder went to Denver, Colo., to visit relatives. No word as to the funeral arrangements have been received.

CHURCH AT BROOKS

Brooks—There will be services in the Brooks Community Methodist church on Sunday morning with Bible school at 10 o'clock and devotionals at 11 o'clock. The sermon topic is "Eternal Joy." The evening service will be held at 7 o'clock and church services at 8 o'clock.

JEFFERSON

Mrs. Fred Shultz of Portland, has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Chul and family, this week. Mrs. Shultz is a former Jefferson resident.

Miss Mildred Kolthoff left Wednesday for a short visit at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Drager, near Hubbard.

Ed Hahn, who has been in the Albany General hospital under the care of Dr. B. R. Wallace after his recent accident, returned home Tuesday evening. He still suffers from his head and back.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Knight left Thursday for Livingston, Montana, where they expect to remain till fall, visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. D. Armstrong.

Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Oliver, pastor of the Evangelical church of Jefferson, accompanied by Rev. F. W. Launer of Albany, left for Jennings Lodge Monday to attend the summer assembly of the Oregon Conference of the Evangelical church which convenes July 23 to August 1.

H. B. Swartout, manager of the West Coast Creamery Co. of Jefferson, motored to Portland on business the first of the week, accompanied by H. E. Jones.

Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle and son, Richard, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Addie Hutchinson, and niece, Anita Cooper, left Tuesday for Bremerton, Wash., and vicinity, where they expect to spend two weeks' vacation on a camping trip.

SUBLIMITY

Miss Irene Frank, who has been working at Salem, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Jacob Frank, Thursday.

Mrs. Christine Dusa and small son, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Minde.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Glover and daughter, Georgina, who has been visiting here for the past week, have returned to their home in Drain.

Mrs. Jos. Koenig and Mrs. Frank Raucher autored to Salem Wednesday to meet the Koenig sisters, who are nuns at St. Mary's, Beaverton, Ore.

A niece of Jos. Koenig of Minnesota, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koenig.

Teresa Toepfer is doing housework at the James Ripp home.

Rev. Father Paul of Mt. Angel, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Benedict Thursday.

Miss Davenport is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John P. Bentz.

VISITS IN SILVERTON
Silverton—Miss Dorothy Marshall, who is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Barnhart and husband at Falls City, spent a few days this week with her father, W. S. Marshall, and her sister, Cora.

Mistake Of Gas For Oil Is Serious

Stayton—Mistaking a can of gasoline for kerosene, C. T. Darley, engineer for the West Stayton irrigation project, was seriously burned near West Stayton when the liquid exploded. He was rushed to the Stayton hospital where physicians said he would be confined for several weeks. He suffered burns about the upper portion of the body, face and arms. Darley started to ignite a pile of brush, using what he believed to be kerosene to hasten the burning of some green matter when the accident occurred.

RICH HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE AT DONALD

Donald—The tapping of the fire going called a large crowd to the Rich home Friday morning about 11 o'clock when a fire was well started in the wash room. Mrs. Rich and son, Leland, had gone berry picking, forgetting that the electric iron was attached. The ironing board burned and a number of articles of clothing that were near. Neighbors saw smoke rolling out of the windows and spread the fire alarm just as Mrs. Rich was returning home. A few pails of water extinguished the blaze, with the loss of the board and several articles of clothing.

FARM PLACE TRADED

Scio—Joe Tannier and wife are now in charge of the apartment house in Junction City which they recently acquired in exchange for their farm property a short distance above Scio on Thomas creek. They also received residence property in Portland in the transaction, which involved the entire real estate holdings of Tannier here, about 200 acres. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweeney and the junior Mr. Sweeney and his wife, all of Portland, are on the Tannier farm and are very pleased with the place. Tannier owned the place only a few years but kept it in fine condition. Magnificent crops are being harvested there and the farm is known to possess great possibilities.

AUMSVILLE

Mrs. A. W. Greenlee and two daughters, Gladys and Frances, returned to Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Greenlee is taking medical treatments there and is improving rapidly.

Miss Eva Corser, daughter of Mrs. M. Corser, is seriously ill at her home. Mrs. Corser has been working in Boone's confectionary up to the time of her illness.

Mrs. Iris Miller, Noble and Robertus Bradley, made a business trip to Seaside, Vancouver, Wash., Monday.

BROADACRES

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hunt and their daughters, Justine and Elizabeth, are visiting friends in Portland.

Mrs. Carrie Whitney and daughter, Dorothy, from Portland, spent the week end at the farm. They entertained friends Sunday.

Miss Verna Wood from Salem, was calling on old school friends here Monday evening.

Clarence Friend was out from Portland for the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Friend.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Morgan, from Vancouver, B. C., who have been visiting relatives here, are now guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunt in Woodburn.

PLEASANT VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Howe of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook mo-

SPECIAL DISPLAY
AT THE PALM
IN SILVERTON
New window display of the International Correspondence school at Oak & Water streets in Silverton was announced today. The Electric book is attracting considerable attention. The display comes at an opportune time to interest people who are planning their studies. Complete information can be had from Mr. W. W. Moran, who is in charge of the display.

ADMITTED IN COURT

Silverton—The estate of the late McDougall Carpenter of Woodburn, of $65,000 has been admitted to probate. H. Otlin has been appointed administrator by Judge Sigmond. There is said to be $28,000 in real estate and $37,000 in personal property, and the heirs are said to be his widow of Woodburn, and his son, Delph, of Fullerton, Calif.

SCIO

Helen Eglin, Scio high school senior, has accepted employment in a store at Liberty, a few miles south of Salem, until the opening of school here September 17.

W. B. Goar of Silverview vicinity, was in Scio this week for treatment for the lacerated leg injured at a rock crusher near Jordan.

Several cars of Scio Sokols enjoyed an outing at Cascadia Sunday, some attending the Scio-Lebanon ball game others taking a hike to the mountains, bathing and swimming in the South Santiam river, and passing the day in various forms of outdoor recreation.

N. I. Morrison visited the Boy Scout camp on Neal creek a few evenings ago and narrated many experiences to the boys relative to hunting and camping trips during the several years he lived on a homestead in that region.

J. W. Parrish and family, who moved to Stayton last spring, are to return to Scio for residence, according to reports. Mr. Parrish is in the employ of the Mountain States power company, whose interests in this vicinity seem to require the attention of a resident representative. Scio is pleased to have the family return.

John Wesley and family will move to Salem about the middle of August, according to reports. Mr. Wesley having leased a place at 1655 S. Church St.

Mrs. Ruth Watkins left Thursday afternoon of this week for her home at Orling, Wash., after visiting for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dixie Hagey. Mrs. Hagey and Buster Walters accompanied her on the trip. The former will return within a few weeks but Buster will visit relatives at Seattle for a time.

Mrs. Lydia McQueen of Portland was calling on relatives and old-time friends in Scio this week, having come in from Jefferson, where she has been visiting for some time. She was accompanied to Scio by her niece Mrs. F. E. Sechale and the latter daughter, Mrs. H. L. Knight. Although 40 years have passed since Mrs. McQueen left Scio, she still finds familiar faces and scenes.

Claud Holteisen is home from Camas, Wash., where he spent a week with relatives and friends.

Mrs. William Matson and daughter Evelyn, who have been visiting

MARION

Laura Haack who has employment in Portland, has been spending a part of her vacation at the home of her father, also going to Oak Ridge to visit her sister, Mrs. Oak and Dimick.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Canfield of Long Beach, Calif., are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lelo Grottek. They made the trip by automobile. Mr. Canfield is a brother of Mrs. Grottek.

Mrs. Alice Ream of Tillamook, visited recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Winn, Winona. Winn returned home with her for a visit.

Lee Theissen of Turner, shipped two carloads of hay from his place to Tillamook this week.

Laura Thomas of Lebanon, returned to her home recently after a visit of several days with her friend, Claudine Roland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scott and children, Dorothy and Bob, and Eva Lewis of Portland, visited Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Davidson. Dorothy and Bob remained for a visit of several days.

When Kenneth and Lillian Christiansen were playing on the piling logs that are being put out by M. Aupperly of Jefferson, one of the logs rolled on to them pinning them fast until help came to remove the log. They were lucky to escape with bruises.

Mrs. Anna Conklin is taking a trip to the coast with friends from Washington.

Elma Barber is spending a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gladys Boyce, in Salem.

PIONEER

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hoover and daughter, Rosalie, spent a week end at Neskonim recently. They reported that the weather was perfect at the beach during their stay.

Mrs. E. C. Nottger of Vale, Ore., and a former resident of Pioneer, has been visiting in Salem during the past week and has called on relatives and friends here.

Miss Evelyn Cain of Mission Bottom has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnett for several weeks.

CALL BY ILLNESS

Silverton—Mrs. Frank Zinn was called to Goldendale, Wash., Thursday morning because of the serious illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Johannah Thorpe. Mrs. Zinn's mother, daughter of Mrs. Thorpe, is also expected at Goldendale.

LAST TIMES

Phyllis Haver in "Shady Lady" A story of adventure in the fashionable circles and underworld haunts of Havana. With Talking and Sound Effects! All Talking Comedy. Viennese Acts. Meritones.

THE TRAIL

The Story of Alaskan Gold Rush WITH SOUND Starring DOLORES DEL-RO 25c Any-Time

HAZEL GREEN SOCIETY HAS MONTHLY MEET

Hazel Green—The local Woman's Missionary society held its monthly meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Davis. The topic for the meeting was "Current Events," and the leader was Rev. Lella Luckey. Devotions were conducted by Rev. Frances Fisher of Peaseville, Calif., former pastor of the local church, who is visiting here.

Mrs. Iris Van Cleave read a letter from Mozambique, Africa, where the U. S. church has a girls' training school. Mrs. Ruby Latham gave a talk on Porto Rico; Mrs. Mary Wampler gave a reading concerning missionaries and their difficulties among the natives in the mountains of the Philippines.

Rev. Lella Luckey read a letter from Gladys Ward in China; a vocal solo by Helen Davis concluded the program, following which refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Davis, assisted by Mrs. Homer Davis, Miss Nora Rutherford and Miss Helen Davis.

Those attending were Rev. Frances Fisher of Peaseville, Calif.; Mrs. Orville Luckey; Mrs. Iris Van Cleave; Mrs. Mildred Kittelson; Mrs. Johanna Rasmussen; Mrs. Mary Wampler; Mrs. Ruby Latham; Mrs. Pearl Woods; Mrs. Homer Davis and children, Billy and Dick of Monitor; Miss Nora Rutherford; Miss Charlotte Van Cleave; Miss Marion Lou Wampler and Miss Josephine Woods.

The next meeting will be held in August at the Louis Wampler home.

CARPENTER ESTATE

Silverton—The estate of the late McDougall Carpenter of Woodburn, of $65,000 has been admitted to probate. H. Otlin has been appointed administrator by Judge Sigmond. There is said to be $28,000 in real estate and $37,000 in personal property, and the heirs are said to be his widow of Woodburn, and his son, Delph, of Fullerton, Calif.

SCIO

Helen Eglin, Scio high school senior, has accepted employment in a store at Liberty, a few miles south of Salem, until the opening of school here September 17.

W. B. Goar of Silverview vicinity, was in Scio this week for treatment for the lacerated leg injured at a rock crusher near Jordan.

Several cars of Scio Sokols enjoyed an outing at Cascadia Sunday, some attending the Scio-Lebanon ball game others taking a hike to the mountains, bathing and swimming in the South Santiam river, and passing the day in various forms of outdoor recreation.

N. I. Morrison visited the Boy Scout camp on Neal creek a few evenings ago and narrated many experiences to the boys relative to hunting and camping trips during the several years he lived on a homestead in that region.

J. W. Parrish and family, who moved to Stayton last spring, are to return to Scio for residence, according to reports. Mr. Parrish is in the employ of the Mountain States power company, whose interests in this vicinity seem to require the attention of a resident representative. Scio is pleased to have the family return.

John Wesley and family will move to Salem about the middle of August, according to reports. Mr. Wesley having leased a place at 1655 S. Church St.

Mrs. Ruth Watkins left Thursday afternoon of this week for her home at Orling, Wash., after visiting for some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dixie Hagey. Mrs. Hagey and Buster Walters accompanied her on the trip. The former will return within a few weeks but Buster will visit relatives at Seattle for a time.

Mrs. Lydia McQueen of Portland was calling on relatives and old-time friends in Scio this week, having come in from Jefferson, where she has been visiting for some time. She was accompanied to Scio by her niece Mrs. F. E. Sechale and the latter daughter, Mrs. H. L. Knight. Although 40 years have passed since Mrs. McQueen left Scio, she still finds familiar faces and scenes.

Claud Holteisen is home from Camas, Wash., where he spent a week with relatives and friends.

Mrs. William Matson and daughter Evelyn, who have been visiting

MARION

Laura Haack who has employment in Portland, has been spending a part of her vacation at the home of her father, also going to Oak Ridge to visit her sister, Mrs. Oak and Dimick.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Canfield of Long Beach, Calif., are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lelo Grottek. They made the trip by automobile. Mr. Canfield is a brother of Mrs. Grottek.

Mrs. Alice Ream of Tillamook, visited recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Winn, Winona. Winn returned home with her for a visit.

Lee Theissen of Turner, shipped two carloads of hay from his place to Tillamook this week.

Laura Thomas of Lebanon, returned to her home recently after a visit of several days with her friend, Claudine Roland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scott and children, Dorothy and Bob, and Eva Lewis of Portland, visited Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Davidson. Dorothy and Bob remained for a visit of several days.

When Kenneth and Lillian Christiansen were playing on the piling logs that are being put out by M. Aupperly of Jefferson, one of the logs rolled on to them pinning them fast until help came to remove the log. They were lucky to escape with bruises.

Mrs. Anna Conklin is taking a trip to the coast with friends from Washington.

Elma Barber is spending a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gladys Boyce, in Salem.

PIONEER

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hoover and daughter, Rosalie, spent a week end at Neskonim recently. They reported that the weather was perfect at the beach during their stay.

Mrs. E. C. Nottger of Vale, Ore., and a former resident of Pioneer, has been visiting in Salem during the past week and has called on relatives and friends here.

Miss Evelyn Cain of Mission Bottom has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnett for several weeks.

CALL BY ILLNESS

Silverton—Mrs. Frank Zinn was called to Goldendale, Wash., Thursday morning because of the serious illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Johannah Thorpe. Mrs. Zinn's mother, daughter of Mrs. Thorpe, is also expected at Goldendale.

LAST TIMES

Phyllis Haver in "Shady Lady" A story of adventure in the fashionable circles and underworld haunts of Havana. With Talking and Sound Effects! All Talking Comedy. Viennese Acts. Meritones.

THE TRAIL

The Story of Alaskan Gold Rush WITH SOUND Starring DOLORES DEL-RO 25c Any-Time

for some time with Mrs. Matson's sister, Mrs. Quigley near West Scio, have returned to their home at Havre, Mont. Their daughter Lilla remained for a more extended visit with her aunt.

Miss Lee Bilyeu and Ivan Ayers of Lebanon, Mrs. Nellie Pierce and little son, Billy, of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Neva Neely and daughter Doris Ann and Alice Pomeroy of Sacramento, Cal.; visited Mrs. Kimina Pomeroy and other relatives in Scio and vicinity a few days ago.

H. Traasen has rented the Snodish property, north of Dr. Pratt's and will move his family here from Toledo the last of this week.

D. H. Thornton and family of Los Angeles visited a few days ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mumper.

T. C. Thornton and Mrs. Charles Thornton were in from Junction City recently as guests at the Fred Mumper home.

Edna Mumper has returned from Salem, where she was employed in a cannery. She expects to resume employment there during the near season.

Ben Mumper is home from Salem where he underwent surgical treatment at the Willamette sanitarium.

Mrs. Lillian Sims enjoyed a birthday party in her honor at her home in Scio Sunday, there being present the honor guest, William Sims and family, and Kenneth Sims and wife of Scio, Leonard Gilkey, wife and daughter, and Jack Goard and wife of Silverview, George Flook and family, Mill City; Errol Sims and family, Neskonim, and Milton Hutchinson, wife and daughter of Portland.

George Bilyeu visited relatives at Junction City the fore part of the week.

S. W. Gains of the Santiam farm a few miles south of Scio was in the city the fore part of the week consulting a physician relative to a stomach disorder.

HUBBARD FIREMEN

PICNIC, AUGUST 18
Hubbard—The firemen's picnic will be held August 18 at Playmore park. This is an annual affair and in the past has been largely aided by the surrounding communities.

Fire Chief George Grimpa reports that the day will be memorable on account of the variety and quality of the sports offered to the public. A ball game, water sports and races are part of the day's program. The music will be by the Hubbard Community band.

WEEKLY PAPER SOLD

Scio—H. F. Lake and wife of Halcyon were in Scio a few days ago, enroute to Mill City where they expected to take charge of the Logue, live-wire weekly newspaper which they have purchased. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lake's grand children Bob and Cora and her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Allen.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS

FROLIC OUTDOORS
Stayton—The Aokiyia camp five girls of Stayton held an outdoor supper Wednesday evening. This was an important event as it was the means of earning an honor bead.

Those attending were Mrs. Wood, the guardian; Patsy Mayo, Hazel Murphy, Sylvia Stupka, Luella and Adeline Thomas, Patricia Brandenburg, Luella Lewis and one visitor, Katherine Boyer.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Hubbard—Thalia Rebekah Lodge, No. 191, seated the following officers at the recent installation: noble grand, Winnifred Friend; noble vice-grand, Verna Ott; recording secretary, Meta Friend; treasurer, Frances Weaver; financial secretary, Wilma Lettler; warden, Ellen Carl; conductor, Ada Ott; chaplain, Elizabeth Orin; inside guardian, Rilla Zeek; outside guardian, Cora Taylor; R. S. N. grand, Caroline Smolinsky; L. S. G. Vera Boje; R. S. V. grand, Ava Maloney; L. S. V. grand, Nettie Salls; musician, Edith Painter.

LYONS

Jack Johnston fell from a load of hay Tuesday morning, dislocating his knee. Dr. Beauchamp of Stayton, was called and put the member in a cast.

Mrs. Clyde Sherman and daughter, Mildred, returned to their home in Salem Tuesday after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shelton.

Mrs. Floyd Berry and children have returned from Weiser, Idaho, after spending several weeks with relatives there. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. D. G. Gilland, who was a former resident of Lyons.

Mrs. Anna Skaffe and son, Ben, of Silverton, were Sunday guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. F. Bodeker.

Mrs. Louis Trask and little daughter, Donna, of Albany, were weekend visitors in Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen are frequent visitors at the Albany hospital, where Mrs. Allen's mother, Mrs. Bassett of Gates, is recuperating from an appendix operation.

CALIFORNIANS VISIT

Silverton—Mrs. Elmer Olsen's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. White of San Jose, Calif., are making a several weeks' trip in Oregon, Washington and Canada. They are now visiting Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denness, of Portland, and will visit the Olesens and Mrs. White's uncle, Dr. A. E. Wrightman, before returning home.

SHOREY AT BEACH

Woodburn—Postmaster and Mrs. Lyman H. Shorey are spending a week's vacation at Neskonim.

COUNTY VETERANS WILL ELECT SOON

Silverton—The Marion County Veterans' association will meet in the Pythian hall Aug. 1. There will be a business session from 10:30 o'clock until noon at which time officers will be elected.

In the afternoon the following program will be given: address, Rev. Livingston; vocal solo, Richard Nelson; reading, Frances Courle; piano solo, Janet Comstock; reading, Juanita Rankin; vocal solo, Mrs. Gilbert Benson; piano solo, Mrs. Gertrude L. Cameron.

There will also be short addresses by out of town members.

HUBBARD FIREMEN

PICNIC, AUGUST 18
Hubbard—The firemen's picnic will be held August 18 at Playmore park. This is an annual affair and in the past has been largely aided by the surrounding communities.

Fire Chief George Grimpa reports that the day will be memorable on account of the variety and quality of the sports offered to the public. A ball game, water sports and races are part of the day's program. The music will be by the Hubbard Community band.

WEEKLY PAPER SOLD

Scio—H. F. Lake and wife of Halcyon were in Scio a few days ago, enroute to Mill City where they expected to take charge of the Logue, live-wire weekly newspaper which they have purchased. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lake's grand children Bob and Cora and her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Allen.

POLES ARE SHIPPED

Hubbard—Two carloads of poles left the Hubbard station Saturday. The poles were sent in from the surrounding territory. They were consigned to the Southern Pacific at West Oakland, Calif., that being the main distributing point for poles of the company.

FAIRFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Du Rette of Salem were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Marthaler recently. Afternoon callers at the Marthaler home were Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Skaffe, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Broyles and daughters, Bertha and Georgia, all of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Mahoney and son Stephen of Gervais.

Archie Zellar was host at a surprise party Sunday evening for his niece, Dora Zellar of Arizona, the occasion being her fourteenth birthday. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. James after an evening of merry games. The guests were the Misses Florence, Marguerite, Dorothy and Thelma Du Rette, Bonnie Bell Miller, Lorene Balweber, Pearl Zellar, Vera Short and the honor guest, Dora Zellar.

Kenneth Balweber received a deep cut over his eye and numerous bruises Saturday when he was thrown from his horse.

Ed Smith is recovering from a severe seizure of pneumonia.

Frank and Mike Mahoney are both proud possessors of new Chevrolet six sedans.

Mrs. Ida Jamieson and family visited at the S. F. Parker home Sunday.

SCOTTS MILLS

Mrs. Nettie Bryson of Los Angeles, Calif., is here visiting with her brother, J. S. Korb and family. Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Adkins of Salem are spending a few weeks here at their old home. Their daughter, Mrs. Margery Abbot, and children of Portland are with them at present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Saueressig have moved to their new home just erected on Butte creek.

IVES BACK HOME

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ives may again be found at their home on North Second street of the North side addition, after an absence of nearly two months. A good share of this time was spent with their son and family of Valjeo, Calif.

TURNER

Mrs. Geraldine Meritt and small son, Bobby of Linn county, and Miss Ruth Purdy of Portland arrived several days ago for a visit at the country home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Purdy east of Turner. Mr. H. Purdy who has been in ill health for some time is now confined in a sanitarium for a short time, but is improved so that he is expected home soon. He is mechanic at the state highway garage in Salem.

COWLES RITES HELD

Lyons—Funeral services were held Sunday at the