

KOMP FUNERAL SERVICES HELD AT MT. ANGEL

Mt. Angel—Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church here Friday morning for Miss Catherine Elizabeth Komp, 8, who died Tuesday morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Komp, following an lingering illness. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Besides her mother she is survived by six sisters and brothers, Mrs. Mary Fessler, John Komp and Mrs. Theresa May of Mt. Angel; Mrs. Anna Stuber of Silvertown, Mrs. Clara Davis and Ben Komp of Portland.

Six nephews of hers acted as pallbearers. They were William Fessler, Carl Fessler, Anthony Kramer, Math A. Beyer, Chester Bjorke and Joseph Maloney.

The deceased was born in Mt. Angel, November 6, 1900. After attending school here at St. Mary's school and Mt. Angel Academy, and the DeWitt Walker business college in Portland, she accepted a position with the J. R. Smith Tobacco company, Portland, as stenographer, which position she held until last January when she was forced to resign on account of ill health. She has been staying here with her mother since January.

ST. LUKE PICNIC IS SET FOR AUGUST 11

Woodburn—The annual picnic of St. Luke's Catholic church will be held in the city park at Woodburn on Sunday, August 11. Rev. J. E. Ruble is in charge of arrangements and an interesting program is being arranged. An address will be given by a prominent speaker, there will be a basketball game between Woodburn and St. Paul and the ever popular horseshoe contest and many other sports. A large crowd is expected from Woodburn and the surrounding country.

GARDENS ARE OPEN FOR PUBLIC VIEW

Silvertown—The P. L. Brown lawn and landscape gardens leading from the house to and along the banks of the Silver creek will be open to the public on next Monday evening. Flood lights have been arranged for that evening which make these gardens more beautiful than ever.

The P. A. Doerflinger gardens about six miles out on the penitentiary road will be open to all visitors on this coming Sunday. Here there are fish ponds, sunken gardens and many nooks of interest.

BROADACRES
Mrs. Lou Rogers and children, Keith and Nadine, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller and Miss Evelynne Bass are at the coast for a few days.

Mr. Rogers, who was injured in June while working in Portland, is at a hospital in Portland, having returned there for observation, as he has not recovered satisfactorily from his injuries. Rogers is a carpenter.

Mrs. Walter F. Wengert and Walter, Jr., and Dorina, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, drove to Boonville springs where Johnson will receive treatments. For some time he has been in ill health. Mrs. Wengert and children returned the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hubbard and children from Alberta, Canada, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitney, Sunday. Mr. Hubbard was born here and is well remembered by his former neighbors. His home was the place now owned by Mr. Kettel.

Mrs. Beeman and son Claire are motoring to California. They plan to drive at night to avoid the heat. They are accompanied by Mrs. Beeman's daughter-in-law, who has been their guest for some time and whose home is in California.

BROOKS
Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Larden and children Robray, Ruth, Rodney, Roger and Betty Harden of Long Beach, Calif., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffin. Mrs. Harden is a sister of Mr. Coffin's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ray and R. D. Vibbert and James Vibbert were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray's son, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ray, and family at Gladwings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hardy of Molalla, spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlavy. Hardy is a cousin of Dunlavy. The Hardys were on their way home from Eugene where they had been visiting relatives for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie D. Ramp lent Gold Beach, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Fred Bachelor of Salem, was visiting old friends in Brooks on Thursday. Mrs. Bachelor was a former resident of Brooks and still owns some property here.

Mrs. Cora McBee of Dallas and W. M. Shewey of Arlie spent the past week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturgis. Mr. Shewey is the father of Mrs. Sturgis' sister.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris, Mrs. A. H. Sears and Miss Marie Dunlavy, and George Cole motored to Portland Monday and attended the funeral of Mrs. H. R. Schuerman.

EASY WASHER
Don't buy until you see them
—in—
Ask for demonstration
VIBBERT & TODD
Phone 2115—191 South High Street

U. S. AND BRITAIN CURTAIL NAVAL CONSTRUCTION

Pledges of curtailed naval building by both Great Britain and America were announced by Premier MacDonald (left) and President Hoover on the day the Kellogg-Briand treaty against war went into effect. Premier MacDonald will visit the United States in October to advance the cause of disarmament. Among those taking part in the discussions are Secretary Stimson (upper center), Sir Eame Howard (lower left), Hugh Gibson (lower center) and Ambassador Dawes (lower right).

THEFTS REPORTED TO POLICE AT ALBANY

Albany—Fifty-nine of the 300 Japanese teapots which were to be distributed to Albany tea-buyers were stolen from the shop of the Albany Democrat-Herald some time after Tuesday, it was found Friday.

C. A. Mockmore, one of the party of engineers surveying the water of the Willamette river to determine its purity, reported to police Thursday night that bedding and equipment valued at $20 had been taken by boys. Names of several suspects have been obtained.

MEHAMA

Mrs. Hadley Hobson of Fox Valley, Mrs. W. J. Imbler of Melama, Mrs. Nora Merel and daughters, Leodice, and Mrs. Esther Mile of Salem, left Monday for a few days' outing at Garibaldi and resort points on Tillamook bay.

Merle Phillips has returned home after spending a week at the home of her uncle, V. J. Phillips of Scio. Mr. and Mrs. H. Earley and daughter of Garibaldi spent the week-end with Mrs. Earley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Dixon. They were accompanied home by their son, Arthur, who has been visiting his grandparents for some time.

Edwin Kubin who is employed by the Crabtree Logging company, had a dead limb fall, hitting his head and shoulder, while there were no bones broken it will be necessary for him to carry his arm in a sling for a few days.

Mrs. T. Bohannon has returned home after completing her six weeks' course of study at O. A. C.

Miss Jessie Mae is spending the week in Salem for dental work, and visiting with an aunt.

VALLEY VISITORS LEAVE

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Ed Hortsch and daughter, the Misses Mildred, Mary Catherine and Edna of St. Francis, Minn., who have been here for the past week at the home of Mrs. Hortsch's sister and brother-in-law, left for The Dalles and Umatilla Saturday where they will visit for several days with relatives prior to their returning home. They have been here for the past month, visiting with Mrs. Hortsch's parents, brothers and sisters, in Salem, Shaw and Silvertown.

SCHOOL MEN LEAVE
Woodburn—Superintendent Vern D. Bain of Woodburn, O. D. Adams, director of vocational education, and Oscar Paulsen, state supervisor of vocational agriculture, both of Salem, left for Detroit Friday on a two day fishing trip. During their absence Mrs. Bain and daughter will be guests at the Paulsen home in Salem.

Hollywood

Home of 25c Talks
—3 DAYS—
SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUES.
Continuous Show Sunday
2 to 11

A Paramount Picture with a cast
that can TALK!

"THE JANARY MURDER CASE"
—in—
This Mystery Thriller
100% Talking Comedy
25c any time

EASY WASHER
Don't buy until you see them
—in—
Ask for demonstration
VIBBERT & TODD
Phone 2115—191 South High Street

PAIR PAY FINES FOR WRONG CAR LICENSE

Albany—Henry Matlock and C. R. Davis, residents of Holley, were arrested at Lyons Thursday on the charge of using transferred license plates on their automobiles. Each was fined $30 and costs. Friday morning by Justice of the Peace Victor Oliver.

GARDEN CLUB ELECTS

Woodburn—Members of the Woodburn Garden club are invited to attend a special meeting of the club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Noyes on Tuesday evening, August 6, at 7 o'clock.

MOTOR TO NESKOWIN

Brush Creek—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer of this district, left Thursday evening for a few days' outing at Neskwini. They expect to return Sunday evening. Both Mr. and Mrs. Meyer are employed at Silvertown but live in this neighborhood. Miss Althea Meyers and her brother, Ludwig, are caring for the place during their parents' absence.

LEAVES FOR CALIFORNIA

Turner—Hollis Bones left Wednesday for California where he is employed in various horse shows, attending all the big fairs throughout the United States. He will be back to the state fair in Salem this fall managing some thoroughbred horses for a prominent horse show man. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones of Turner.

GOING TO MANILA

Silvertown—Mrs. E. P. McNeer of the Geiser addition has been visiting Miss Ruby Barnett of Centralia, Wash., who is an old time friend. Miss Barnett will leave from Vancouver, B. C., next week on the Empress of Asia, for the Philippines where she will be affiliated as a trained nurse with a training school and hospital in Manila.

STORE POLKS PICNIC

Woodburn—Employees of the Mc-Marr store at Woodburn were guests of Manager Herman E. Hicks at a chicken dinner Friday evening at Playmore park.

RUSSELLS PARENTS

Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Russell of Brooks, are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the birth of a daughter Sunday.

THE HISINORI

Salem's Greatest Entertainment!

Always The Best For The Guest!

Now Playing! Ends Mon. Nite!

HURRY!

A Big Stage Hit!

Now—A Riotous, Screaming 100% Vitaphone Talking Triumph!

L. CARLOS MEIER
Offering
A Novelty Organologue

Pathe Sound News

"Our Gang"
Comedy
"Election Day"

Good News!

Watch for these Big Road-Show Pictures Coming Soon!

"Trial of Mary Dugan"

"A Man's Man"

"The Pagan"

"The Cocoanuts"

Always—Salem's Greatest Entertainment!

LEBANON PLANNING SCHOOL BUILDING

Lebanon—A number of architects have been asked to submit plans and drawings on a proposed eight-room grade school building, construction of which is scheduled to get underway during the early fall. Construction costs have been tentatively set at between $25,000 and $30,000. The building would probably be concrete, with all classrooms on a single floor level. Under plans understood to be generally favored by the board members, several plans have already been submitted, but the school board members have given no hint as to the successful architect.

STUDENT IS HOME

Brush Creek—Miss Stella Dybek who is attending the University of Oregon, is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dybek. Miss Mae Arnold will accompany Miss Dybek. During the winter Miss Dybek is secretary at the superintendent of school's office and Miss Arnold is teacher at Silvertown.

GUESTS AT EKMANS

Silvertown—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ekman of Mill street have as their house guests Mrs. Ekman's sister, Mrs. J. Bernier and her husband from Hutchinson, Wis., who arrived in Portland Tuesday and were brought to Silvertown by Ekman who drove down to bring them here. They expect to stay several weeks.

RECOVERING FROM MEASLES

Turner—Miss Allene Robertson, who has been confined to her Turner home for two weeks is able to be out again. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Robertson. No further cases of the disease has been reported in Turner.

LAST TIMES TODAY

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

SILVERTON HAS NEW PRESIDENT OF VETS GROUP

Silvertown—The annual convention of the Marion county veterans association was held in the local Knights of Pythias hall Thursday. A pot luck lunch dinner was served at noon to about 200 people by the Silvertown Relief Corps.

At the business session in the afternoon the following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. Frances Gourlie, Silvertown; vice-president, Mrs. Laura Livensay, Woodburn; secretary, Mrs. Mary Watson, Salem; treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Simmer, Silvertown; marshal, Mrs. Lenora Jaschke, Silvertown.

After the business meeting the following program was given:

A song, words and music composed by Mrs. Roy Morley, entitled, "Just a Little Prayer," was dedicated by her to the Silvertown G. A. R. Post and was sung by Mrs. B. Benton, with Mrs. Gertrude I. Cameron at the piano. Reading, Mrs. Frances Gourlie; piano solo, Richard Nelson; reading, Vera Helstrom; vocal solo, Mrs. W. F. Tate, with Mrs. Edson Comstock at the piano; address by Dr. A. J. McCannell on the different wars of America beginning with the Revolutionary war.

FISH DYNAMITERS PAY FINES, ALBANY

Albany—Arthur Smith, John Kerr and Sidney Jenks of Salem were fined $35 each by Justice of the Peace Victor Oliver here Friday, when the entered pleas of guilty to a charge of dynamiting Indian Prairie lake, east of Scio, to catch fish. The crime was committed July 28. The trio was arrested Thursday by P. A. Stelmacher, district deputy.

SIX TABLE BRIDGE PARTY IS ENJOYED

Silvertown—Mrs. George Steelhamer and Mrs. Charles Reynolds gave a bridge luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Steelhamer Green Gables home on Liberty Hill. Six tables were played. Mrs. Mabel Patterson won high score; Mrs. Arthur Jans, second, and Mrs. Theodore Opsund, consolation.

SIDNEY

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Banfield and daughter, Beverly, and son, Edson, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wittner of Portland, spent the week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Meier. The Chet Miller combine is in this neighborhood and around Talbot this week.

LOOKS OVER SHOP

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Kraker, recently of Los Angeles, Calif., were in Turner Tuesday afternoon looking over the Miller barber shop here that is for sale. Harry Kraker is a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Prather, having owned the barber shop at Cloverdale five years ago when Prather was connected with the drug store at that place.

GUESTS AT BONES

Turner—Recent visitors at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones and Mrs. Bones' mother, Mrs. Mary Barr, were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Swank of Junction City and Mrs. Goldie Sink and son, Willis of Salem. Miss Hazel Bones, student nurse at the Eugene Christian hospital spent several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones and visiting among friends.

MISS PEETTY ILL

Turner—Miss Helen Peetty is quite ill at her parents' home in Turner as the result of swimming. It is believed that she is suffering from sinus trouble the last few days. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Peetty.

LAST TIMES TODAY

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

HOBOS DISLODGED; POPULATION GAINS

Turner—Twelve satisfied hobos who were beating their way on a freight train, were molested on their pleasant journey in Turner. They were discovered and rather roughly dislodged in town about 6 o'clock in the evening. After roaming the streets for some time, they managed to get another free ride into Salem on a truck. It is a common occurrence to see freights go through with hobos beating their way to the south.

BITZERS ARE HOSTS TO IOWA VISITORS

Clear Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bitzer have as their guests a daughter, Mrs. Henry Gustafson, her husband and a niece, Joan Holmes, of Oskaloosa, Ia. Mrs. Gustafson was surprised by a dinner planned by Mrs. Bitzer Thursday evening in celebration of her birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bitzer and son, Earl, of Crabtree Mr. and Mrs. P. Bitzer and son, Ralph and Lyle, of Salem. During the afternoon the visitors were honored with a tea, guests being: Mrs. C. W. Beacroft and Donnie; Mrs. R. McClay; Mrs. Joe Bartruff; Mrs. George Browning; Mrs. Guy Smith and daughters, Oral and Betty Jean; Mrs. John McLeod; Mrs. Bondsdu; Mrs. Will Taylor; Mrs. W. E. Savage and Milton; Mrs. Francisco and son, Miss Marjorie Mudge; Mrs. L. Rosa, Mrs. Bert Turner and Jewell Turner, Mrs. Dave Turner, Mrs. O. Kerburg, Mrs. Roy Nelson, and Mrs. Gardner and daughter, La Vaun.

BROOKS AND KEIZER SERVICES SCHEDULED

Brooks—The Brooks Community Methodist church will hold its regular services Sunday morning, with Rev. D. George Cole, pastor in charge. Bible school will be at 10 o'clock. The sermon topic is "No Shadow of Evil." Read Revelations 22:5. "And there shall be no night there."

ESTATE IS PROBATED

Albany—As provided in the will of Orris A. Archibald, which has just been admitted to probate, J. Raymond Archibald of Little Rock, Ark., has been named executor of the $10,000 estate of his father, who died here recently. Except for $700 which is to be divided between six surviving children and one granddaughter, the estate will go to the widow, Mrs. Anna Archibald.

LOOKS OVER SHOP

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Kraker, recently of Los Angeles, Calif., were in Turner Tuesday afternoon looking over the Miller barber shop here that is for sale. Harry Kraker is a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Prather, having owned the barber shop at Cloverdale five years ago when Prather was connected with the drug store at that place.

GUESTS AT BONES

Turner—Recent visitors at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones and Mrs. Bones' mother, Mrs. Mary Barr, were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Swank of Junction City and Mrs. Goldie Sink and son, Willis of Salem. Miss Hazel Bones, student nurse at the Eugene Christian hospital spent several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bones and visiting among friends.

MISS PEETTY ILL

Turner—Miss Helen Peetty is quite ill at her parents' home in Turner as the result of swimming. It is believed that she is suffering from sinus trouble the last few days. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Peetty.

LAST TIMES TODAY

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

Today

LUMBER MILL LOST IN FIRE AT SODAVILLE

Albany—The Fir Lumber company mill near Sodaville was burned to the ground between 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock Friday morning, with uninsured loss of $3000. The fire is believed to have been started by an incendiary, as it broke out in a part remote from the engine room.

C. C. Cameron, principal owner, was notified here today after the blaze started. He stated that the mill was to have been moved to Lebanon next Thursday.

INJURIES RECEIVED BY SILVERTON MEN

Silvertown—W. Shepherd of the Cowing addition, who fell from a 20-foot ladder Tuesday while painting the house of Elmer King in the Waldo Hills district, is up and around. One bone was broken in his left arm near the elbow and he received many bruises.

JACK VEARRIAR, WHO WAS HURT AT THE THOMAS LUMBER CAMP A FEW DAYS AGO WHEN A CABLE BROKE WHILE HE WAS SETTING A CHOKER, IS DOING NICELY. SEVERAL STITCHES WERE TAKEN IN THE DEEP GASH ABOVE HIS EYE AND IT WAS THOUGHT AT FIRST THAT HIS EYE HAD BEEN INJURED.

Frank Simmer of East Hill, who has been employed at the lumber mill at West Fir, is at home nursing a badly bruised left cheek. A little limb of a vine maple slashed him in the face