"You have personal knowledge of the conditions caused in most of the nation's towns and cities by the promiscuous discarding of old cars. ## LINDY CAUSES STIR CALLING FOR REPORTER

Cleveland (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, whose reticence has kept him busy eluding reporters for more than a year, voluntarily telephoned a newspaper asking to be interviewed. All morning long he reported for the Cleveland News besieged the home of Mrs. Charles Long Cutler, grandmother of Mrs. Lindbergh, who was hostess to the flyers in their since they dropped in unexpectedly Monday. Finally the reporter pointed out the consideration his fellow workers had shown Mrs. Lindbergh when she visited her several months ago previous to her marriage.

A short time later the staff of the News was astonished by the information that Col. Lindbergh was on the telephone and wanted to talk with a reporter. Unbelievably, routine questions were put to him and brought forth the information that he and his wife had come from Washington, dropped in for a short visit and intended to leave late Tuesday for some place they had not decided on yet.

Unconvinced, a call was put through to the Cutler home. Lindbergh himself answered, and with a chuckle said it was true.

He lost his balance and grabbed the almost bare wire. The force of the current held him until the high voltage, shunted circuiting through his body, melted one of the strands and he dropped into the river 30 feet below.

2 BANK BANDITS SHOT BY POSSE

Toledo (AP)—Two bank bandits were shot by a posse in Ottawa park here Tuesday afternoon after they had robbed the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Lyons, Ohio, and later attempted to kill a member of their own gang. The bandits obtained $5000 in the hold-up.

They entered the bank when H. E. Treasury, cashier, was alone, and ordered him to hand over all the money in the cage. The three robbers had gone about four blocks in their automobile when one of them fired a number of shots from the rear seat at the driver of the car. The third man pulled the wounded driver into the back seat and took the wheel, speeding toward this city.

A posse came quickly and caught up with them in Ottawa park here. They were captured after the gun battle in which the two were wounded.

BUILDINGS IN GOOD TRIM FOR SCHOOL YEAR

With less than six weeks remaining before the city schools open for the new year, the opening date being set for September 23, all of the buildings are rapidly being put in first class condition, and painting, calculating and varnishing will be finished within the next few weeks, says G. W. Smalley, head janitor. Outside painting work must still be done at Garfield and Englewood schools.

The senior high school, the largest building in the city system and one of the older structures, presents the heaviest upkeep every year, says Smalley. Painting, calculating, varnishing, floor repairing and cleaning have been done in the senior high building in addition to building a sound proof band room in the attic and making a large studyhall out of two classrooms on the main floor. The band room, equipped with three large skylight windows, is being painted an airy green.

Park and Lincoln schools have been entirely recalcitrated and much varnishing is being done in both buildings. Varnishing is also being done at Englewood school.

For the first time the laws at Richmond, McKinley and Garfield schools have been kept green during the summer months. Several janitors have been kept on the payroll during the entire summer to give the proper care to the school grounds.

The lawns at the two year old Leslie junior high school are in good shape now with the grading finally completed. Some shrubs have been planted around the building but it is planned to add more later.

FISH THAT EAT MOSQUITOES IN PONDS COMING

Mosquito-eating fish will be planted in some of the small lakes in the north end of the county and in sloughs where the insects breed during the coming fall, says Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer. When R. D. Steyer, Lodi, Cal., one of the six sanitary inspectors in San Joaquin county, Calif., visited the Marion county health unit early this week, he told Dr. Douglas that he would send some of the fish north when the weather gets cooler.

The gambusia fish, a small fish several inches long when it reaches its maximum development, has been imported from Africa to San Joaquin county in the vicinity of Stockton, and has proved to be most successful in fighting the mosquito war. The fish eats the larvae which the insects lay in the water. The gambusia is a hardy fish and its worst enemies are trout and fishermen. The anglers use the gambusia for bait. It is caught with nets.

Inspector Steyer told Dr. Douglas that the gambusia had been successful in his county in the one year that it has been recruited for service that portions of orchards near the water's edge have been picked for the first time this year. Previously the mosquitoes have been so thick in some of these places that it was impossible to remain in the areas for any length of time.

San Joaquin county has the only organized health district in the United States which is organized like a school district with the power to levy taxes. The San Joaquin county health plan is known nationally says Dr. Douglas.

Harry Sinks, Marion county sanitary inspector, will make an investigation for Dr. Douglas to determine where in this county the gambusia fish is the most necessary.

SUSPECT IN SILK ROBBERY CAUGHT

Sacramento, Calif. (AP)—Declared by authorities to be wanted in Hartford, Conn., in connection with a $150,000 silk robbery, Angelo Sica, 22, of Fresno, was held in the county jail here.

The arrest followed a consultation with the office of Clarence Morrill, chief of the state bureau of criminal identification. Morrill had received pictures of the men believed to have engineered the robbery from the Hartford police, and aided deputies here in tracing Sica. Sica is said to have admitted driving a truck containing 1,000 silk dresses from the plant where they were stolen, later fleeing to California.

GARAGE FIRE PROBED

PREPARATION OF DISINFECTANT FOR WATER EASY

Because a number of vacationists and picnickers are requesting the county health officer for information regarding the disinfection of drinking water, Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, health officer, has compiled the following information regarding the disinfection of water with iodine:

"To treat a three gallon (12 quart) bucket half full of clear water: add six quarts to be treated. Add 18 drops (3 drops for each quart) of tincture of iodine. Mix and allow to stand at least 15 minutes. Add six drops per quart if the water is colored, cloudy or contains sediment. Enough iodine should be added to give a slight but distinct brown color to the water. If it is desirable to destroy the brown color due to the iodine and restore its original appearance, add a pinch of sodium thiosulphate or "hypo"—the chemical used for "fixing" in photographic work. If brown color still persists, add another pinch. The water is ready for use."

Dr. Douglas says that the thorough boiling of water is the easiest and cheapest method of disinfection but this method may have its drawbacks. The after-taste when the boiling method is used has no significance. The water should actually boil for at least five minutes. Aeration by splashing, pouring or other wise will cool the water and will improve the flat taste.

PAINT OFFERED FOR ROOF SIGN

An offer to furnish enough material with which to paint the name Salem on a roof in the city as an aid to air navigators, was received Tuesday by Mark Poulson, city recorder, from W. P. Fuller & Co. of Portland. The company offers to furnish five gallons of chrome yellow, which they state is a sufficient quantity to paint a large sign.

According to a government statistical circular sent with their offer, the letters in the sign should not be less than six feet in height and should be illuminated for night flying.

It has been suggested here that the roof of the grandstand at Olinger field would be a good place to place the word "Salem" as the building stands out by itself.

The offer of the paint company extended from August 15 to October 15.

(AP)—Confidence that his Mercury racing seaplane would do 360 miles an hour on a straightaway—six miles a minute—was expressed by Lieutenant Al Williams as he prepared to conduct a flying test over Chesapeake Bay later in the day. Williams said he believed the plane would have to do 400 miles an hour to beat the British entries in the Schneider cup races at Cowes, Eng., next month.

AMERICAN GIRL SURVIVES ROUND OF ADVENTURES

Moscow, U. S. S. R. (AP)—Miss Mary Van Rensselaer Cogswell, New York society girl, has arrived here temporarily penniless and in borrowed clothing after a series of adventures in which she tilted with European officers and red tape with true American abandon. With her was Mrs. Mabel Ingalls, also of New York, who had shared most of the adventures. The climax came when Miss Cogswell was thrown into a jail as a spy.

At the start of the recently concluded American tour of the Soviet Union, Miss Cogswell gained a small niche in the hall of fame by being the first person ever to pass openly the frontiers of the union without a Russian visa. She had started without going through this formality rather than miss the tour and succeeded in wheeling entry out of border officials.

Both women left the delegation at Tiflis, Georgia, and made their way into Armenia, with the intention of becoming the first of their sex to climb Mount Ararat, a 7,000 foot peak that few men have succeeded in mounting. They were saved their strength, however, by the flat refusal of both Turkish and Persian government to permit them to try it.

They then attempted to make their way through the Caesetan mountains, in the main Caucasian range in southern Russia, on horseback but were arrested by the police in Kutais for taking photographs without permission. They were detained two hours until the police established that they were members of the American party. After a 50-hour journey the women's horses being exhausted, they hired a motorbus for $75 to take them to Vladikavaz. To offset this expense they picked up passengers on the way and collected $55 in fares. Miss Cogswell acted as conductor and Mrs. Ingalls as chauffeur.

ALSIKE CLOVER IS SHOWING UP WELL

The first of the alsike clover being threshed shows fine returns, reports Charles R. Archer and threshing of red clover will start soon. In the meantime threshing of wheat and oats in this section continues to show surprising yields and in most cases yields are considerably in excess of estimates made by the crop owners.

Farmers who have storage space, Archer reports, have in numerous instances responded to the plea made through the Journal to hold their wheat as long as possible because of congestion of storage space both in Salem and Portland, but nevertheless large quantities of wheat are coming in. However, considerable help is being given to the situation by the response of farmers.

Default judgment in the sum of $100 and costs has been entered in circuit court in the case of Joseph Adolph vs. B. S. Rice.
