

HOME COMING AT AUMSVILLE HAS BIG ATTENDANCE

Aumsville—The annual homecoming picnic was held Sunday in Highberger grove. At noon a dinner was served. The day was spent in visiting old friends and acquaintances, except for the short program and election of officers in the afternoon. There was an unusually large crowd attending.

The program follows: "America," audience; prayer, Miss Grace Driver of Turner; address of welcome, Arbie Martin, president; reading of minutes, Maude Boone, secretary; music, Bert Amend; remarks, Adam Burns of Salem; Frank Bell and Charles Hottinger; election of officers, Arba Martin, president, and Maude Boone, secretary-treasurer, both re-elected; financial report, Treasurer Maude Boone.

The audience stood while Henry Porter read the names of old pioneers who have passed away in the past year, most of them attending the picnic last year. They were: Tom Ball, Charles Cartwright, John Duncan, Hattie Roberts Gibson, Mrs. Elizabeth Guler, Henry Keene, Tom Miller, Carey Natt, Frank Savage, Mrs. Staples, Uriah Whitney, Mrs. Sarah Darley, Robert Witzel, J. J. Weaver, Mrs. Sarah Hleakney, Mrs. Elizabeth Hleakney, John Coffey, S. L. Hulin, Marion Porter, Fred Von Behren and Felix Vaughn, Sarah Lewis. "Shall We Gather at the River" concluded the program with a prayer by Miss Driver. Mrs. Mable Wodewoda of Monmouth, visited in Aumsville recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavis Fuson and small son, spent the week end here with relatives and to attend the picnic.

Misses Gladys and Frances Greenlee have returned home from Portland after having spent three weeks there with their mother who is under medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fulton have returned from a week's visit at Belknap Springs. Mr. Fulton is principal of the Aumsville school.

FAMILY GROUP MEETS AT VETERANS REUNION

Hubbard—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jensen of Rainier, Wash., attended the Spanish-American war veterans' annual picnic in Portland Sunday. There they were met by Jensen's sister and family, the A. R. Stevens group. They came to Hubbard with them and later on went to Eugene to visit another sister, Mrs. J. A. Morrison. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen expect to return to Hubbard the latter part of the week to visit with relatives and friends.

LABISH CENTER

Ernest Garbarino, Fred and Edward McClaughry motored to Janitown beach Sunday to spend the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Isham and family went to the coast Sunday. Mrs. W. R. Daugherty has as her recent guest Mrs. Margaret and small daughter of Tigard.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burr motored to Bellingham, Wash., where they are transacting business.

W. R. Daugherty is buying grain in the surrounding country. He reports the crop very good.

BROADACRES

Mrs. W. F. Wengert and Donna, drove to Pacific City Saturday returning home Sunday. On the return trip Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson accompanied them. Mr. Johnson had been taking treatments at Broton Springs, and is very much improved.

A. L. Whitney transacted business in Portland Tuesday. R. E. Loney spent the week-end at Newport.

ATTEND INSTITUTE

Independence—A number from here attended the closing sessions of the Epworth League convention in Falls City Sunday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kune, Rev. E. G. Hamilton and son Leonard, Miss Lavita and Cora Bullock, Zarnesline Smiley, Blanche Baker, Midge Hewitt, Mrs. Bertha Ferguson, Mrs. Val. There were also several from the Buena Vista district present.

HEARS OF DEATH

Woodburn—Mrs. A. E. Austin has received word of the death of her cousin Mrs. Frank West who died at Oakland, Calif., on August 12. Mrs. West was formerly Miss Zoe Hunsaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hunsaker, now deceased, who at one time resided in Woodburn. She is survived by her husband and two sons Ralph and Harold.

VISITS SIMMONS

Woodburn—Mrs. Alpha Simmons Gernacht of Stanton, Texas, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Simmons at 1205 East Cleveland street.

HOME FROM TRIP

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. George Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coleman returned Sunday evening from a 10 day vacation which they spent on the Matohus river and at Sparks lake, 36 miles from Bend. They report a large catch of fish. Enroute they visited friends in Eugene.

STEPHENS LOCK GATE

Marion—The gate to the swimming hole on Stephens Brook place has been padlocked on account of the carelessness of someone with cigarettes that started a grass fire which was discovered and quickly extinguished.

FINLAY HURTS EYE

Sidney—Lawrence Finlay injured one of his eyes while feeding foxes on his father's farm near here. A piece of the bread which he was throwing to the foxes flew and struck him in the eye causing an ulcer to form on the eyeball.

ITALY'S MINISTER AT VATICAN

Count Cesare de Vecchi, first Italian ambassador to the Vatican, is shown entering the palace to present his credentials to the pope.

VACATIONS BLAMED FOR CLUB ABSENCES

Independence—At the regular weekly luncheon of the Lions club, held Monday at the Presbyterian church, R. K. Montgomery, local agent for the Southern Pacific company, was the principal speaker.

While the attendance was not large the interest was good, and Montgomery's talk on the Egyptian mounds was especially interesting. He has made quite an extensive study along this line and hopes some day to visit Egypt and make a closer observation of these historic mounds.

The small attendance was due to the fact that a number are just now enjoying their summer vacations.

BOYS' CHORUS WILL SING FOR CONCERT

Hubbard—The boys' chorus of the state training school on the Pacific highway will be the feature of the last outdoor concert by the Hubbard band. The boys will occupy the band stand with the community band and will have a prominent part in the evening's entertainment.

GUEST AT MINISTERS

Silverton—Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Foss of the Immanuel church have as their house guests Mrs. Foss' sister, Mrs. C. R. Nebstad and daughter from Montana. The party left Tuesday morning for Seattle to visit his parents for a two weeks' vacation.

LEAVE FOR BAKER

Silverton—Miss Marian Bowen of Baker, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Miss Anna-villa Bowen, and her aunt, Mrs. E. A. Donagalla of the Silverton-Salem highway, left Tuesday noon for home.

BOOTH ON VACATION

Silverton—Ed Booth, manager of the Ed Porter store, is taking his vacation on the McKenzie with a friend from Portland where they will spend most of their time fishing. Mr. Webb Haskins and Glen Huddleston are taking care of the store during the absence of Mr. Booth.

VISIT IN INDEPENDENCE

Independence—Reta Gillman and daughter of Portland are spending a few days here visiting old time friends. They are guests at the M. R. Black home. Mrs. Gillman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cuthbert, former residents of this city.

CLUB TAKES RECESS

Silverton—The ladies' club of the Bethany district met for the last time until October, at the Holter Mickelson home a few miles out of town with a good attendance. It was voted to hold no more meetings until October when one will be held at the home of Mrs. Johnnie Anderson on North Second street.

LEAVE FOR SPRINGS

Silverton—Mrs. Joe Wethers and daughter, Betty Jane, and her aunt, Mrs. R. McBee and daughter, Zaida, of McMinnville, left Monday morning for Breitenbush to join Mrs. Wether, Mr. and Mrs. Len Neal of McMinnville. They will remain about two weeks.

WATCH for Formal Opening Announcement of the Foot-Health SHOE Co.

415 STATE ST.

REGISTRATION CLOSES AUG. 31 IN TWIN EVENT

Albany—In view of the large cash prizes to be given out at the second annual Twin Round-Up to be held in Albany September 2, Labor day, and the large, varied program to be staged with mayors of Oregon's leading cities taking part, last year's registration of 210 sets of twins will be surpassed this year. It is believed by the Albany Twin Round-up committee.

The program will start at 10 o'clock Monday morning and will last throughout the day. Elaborate plans are being made by the various committees in charge for the judging of twins.

Motor boat races on the Willamette river, a bathing beauty contest will be among the major attractions.

All twins who intend to enter in the contest are asked to list their names with R. W. Dill of Albany, chairman of the registration committee, on or before August 31.

JENSEN LEAVING FOR NEW LOCATION

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hiltbrand on Seventh street, entertained Tuesday with a 6 o'clock dinner, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jensen, who are leaving Friday for their new home in California. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. L. J. Hiltbrand, Albert McCready, Miss Gienna Hiltbrand, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Hiltbrand.

On Monday afternoon, on the G. O. Walker lawn, a farewell party, honoring Mrs. Ed Jensen, who will leave for her new home in Santa Anna, Friday, was given by Mrs. G. O. Walker and Mrs. M. C. Williams, as hostesses.

The lawn was very beautiful and a very pleasant afternoon was spent at bridge, followed by refreshments. The guest list included Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. George C. Knott and her house guest, Mrs. Young of Dixon, Calif., Mrs. P. L. Hedges, Mrs. S. B. Walker, Mrs. G. G. Godfrey, Mrs. Emerson Groves, Mrs. O. G. McConnell, Mrs. G. O. Mattison, Mrs. Lee O'Kelly, Mrs. Ira D. Mix, Mrs. T. D. Pomeroy, Mrs. R. M. Walker, Mrs. K. L. Williams, Mrs. Irene Baum, Mrs. G. C. Skinner, and the hostesses, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Williams.

Wayne Mack of Portland, a pharmacist has accepted a position with the Williams Drug company, of this city, succeeding Ed Jensen, who left Wednesday for California. Mack has moved his family here and are occupying the Homer Wood cottage on South Third street. He is a nephew of Mrs. P. G. Hewitt and comes well recommended.

ROSEDALE DRIERS READY FOR FRUIT

Rosedale—Several prime driers in the community are being repaired in preparation for the harvest. Those having work done on them are the Robert McChesler drier, the Blinn drier, with Clifford Smith in charge; the Thomas Noot drier, on R. H. Jones is having work done on the Birdsell drier.

Friends of Rev. C. A. Hadley, former pastor of the Rosedale Friends church, will regret to hear that he has been necessary for him to undergo another operation at a Portland hospital.

Ormal Trick has returned home from the Epworth league institute at Falls City.

ST. PAUL

Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones of Redmond, Ore., motored to St. Paul Sunday to visit relatives.

Robert McNamee, accompanied by his sisters, Mrs. John Flynn of New York, and Mrs. P. N. Conlon of Portland, and sons, Bernard and Daniel, spent three days last week at the coast.

Al Brentano and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brentano of Portland, visited at the home of Tom Connor Friday evening.

COUGAR IS KILLED IN LYONS SECTION

Lyons—A large cougar was killed Monday evening, three miles above Meham on the road to the Crabtree saw mill. The animal was first seen by E. Crabtree and J. Kursh who immediately called for Ed Taylor and with the aid of his dog and gun, shot it about thirty minutes later. It measured seven feet in length and weighed about 100 pounds.

SURPRISE OFFERED AT BUCHHOLZ HOME

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Paul Buchholz was the incentive of a surprise party, given recently at the Buchholz home. "500" was the diversion of the evening at which Mrs. Paul Buchholz was awarded high score. The door prize was given to Mrs. Seash.

The guest list included Mesdames George May, Jr., Otto Oswald, H. Wachter, J. Bartnick, Henry H. Ansen, Joseph D. Hauth, R. Ebner, P. N. Smith, Henry Sealford, Leo Barr, G. D. Ebner, N. Lauby, J. Stadler, E. Kraemer, H. Kraemer, T. Buchholz, Ed Buchheit, C. J. Berning, John T. Bauman, H. J. Berning, J. A. Kaiser, Frank Hettner, L. Schroeder, R. De Jardin, E. Beyer, J. Pfaff, C. Schwenk, P. Wirtz, J. Bauer, Steve Spranger, L. Wachter, Emil Hochsler, William Hammer, W. S. Hauth, Harvey Smith, Art Schaffler, A. A. Klinger.

The hostesses were Mesdames A. P. Kraemer, F. J. Walker, J. J. Mickels, T. Buchholz, M. Buchholz, J. Schumacher, J. Stadler, and A. P. Miller.

GRAIN THIEVES HELP SELVES FROM FIELD

Dallas—Sometime between Friday afternoon and Monday morning, presumably Sunday night, a truck drove into the field of D. D. Northland at the Crowley farm north-east of Richfield, and thieves helped themselves to 25 sacks of mixed oats and wheat and 19 sacks of wheat. No clues to identify the thieves have yet been found.

ATTEND REUNION

Hubbard—The Spanish-American war veterans' re-union was attended by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stevens and Miss Anita, William Barrett and daughter, Miss Orva, Miss Irene Scholl, John Blosser and son, Jack, J. Voder, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McArthur, little daughter and son, Dave. The meeting was held at Laurelhurst park in Portland.

CORNER CAFE SOLD

Woodburn—Mrs. Dan McDougall has purchased the Corner cafe from Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Temple and took possession Monday. Mrs. McDougall has planned many improvements both in the interior of the building and in the service. Mrs. Temple and daughter, Dorothy and Penna will spend the winter in Salem and will join Mr. Temple in Seattle where he has a position, in the spring.

BUILDING IMPROVED

Stayton—Rola Harold is building another story over the cheese factory and short order room where lunch is served to travelers and school children, near the Christian church. The outside of the building has also been improved.

OLD FRIENDS VISIT

Stayton—Miss Hilda and her brother, Lawrence Marking of Portland, were here visiting old-time friends over the week-end, also Miss Rose Deldrick, Miss Lucille Caspell, Miss Eda Adams came up to visit their respective parents and enjoy the dance with their old schoolmates.

KLAMATH CAMP CLOSED

Stayton—Willard Goodman, who is employed at Klamath Falls in a logging camp, spent a few days here, returning to work Sunday. The camp was closed for repairs, hence the vacation at this time.

RETURN TO SEATTLE

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Volna Cousins and two children returned to their home in Seattle, Wash., after spending a week here at the home of Mrs. Fred Schwab.

WINGER RITES ARE WEDNESDAY

Dayton—Louis Winger, 32, a resident of the Dayton vicinity for 15 years, died Sunday morning at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland following an operation there Wednesday. He had been ill several months.

Winger was the son of the late A. and Mrs. Gunder E. Winger, pioneers of Silverton, Ore. Born May 11, 1897 at Silverton. Was member of the Trinity Lutheran church of Silverton.

He is survived by one brother, Ed Winger, Dayton, and four sisters: Mrs. Ella Myers, Portland; Mrs. George Londerhausen, McMinnville; Mrs. Harvey Ellis, Des Moines, Mex.; and Mrs. C. L. Jarvis, Marshfield, Ore.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Silverton, Rev. Foss officiating. Burial in family lot at Silverton cemetery.

DALLAS VOLUNTEER FIREMEN TO PICNIC

Dallas—The Dallas volunteer fire department will hold its annual picnic at the city park Friday. Between 50 and 60 members are expected to attend. Refreshments will be served and a general good time is planned for the enjoyment of all.

Incidentally the department has been industriously burning grass on vacant lots during their weekly drills, sometimes raising a large blaze from the burning grass. They are thus reducing the number of fire hazards about town.

NEWSPAPER PICNIC PROVES BIG EVENT

Dayton—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Duzan and daughter, Lois, and son, Ivan, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler, all of this vicinity attended the fourth annual Oregonian picnic at Gladstone park Sunday. A crowd estimated at 350 was present. Ball games were played in the forenoon. An interesting musical program by the KGW broadcasting orchestra and talks by O. L. Price, manager, and R. G. Calvert, managing editor, followed by various sports were interesting features of the day. An invitation to hold the next year's picnic at Longview, Wash., was extended by R. M. Anderson, Oregonian correspondent at Longview.

ARRIVE FROM MONTANA

Hubbard—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Claypool arrived Sunday evening by automobile from Missoula, Mont. They are the guests of the former's brother, John Claypool, who lives south of Hubbard. They expect to remain for several days.

ROAD IS IMPROVED

Labish Center—The graveling of the new road through this section is progressing slowly. They are now beyond the H. E. Boehm house, which is near the Labish Center schoolhouse. They are putting on a thick coat of fine gravel and the road will be in good condition when it is finished.

HOCKETTS HAVE GIRL

Mt. Angel—Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. R. Hockett of Raymond, Wash., on the arrival of a daughter, which they named Deloras Anna. Mrs. Hockett will be remembered here as Miss Marie Wilke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilke.

VISIT IN CAMAS

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cuthbert and family are in Camas, Wash., to visit a sister and other friends.

SEARCH CONTINUED FOR POLK COUGAR

Dallas—William White and Newt Guy of Dallas, and Fitzgerald and another man from Independence, took three hounds Monday morning and made another search for the cougar that has been reported heard on the creek east of town. No evidence or satisfactory sign of the animal was found but the last time it was said to have been heard was the Saturday before.

SILVERTON YOUTH INJURED IN CAR

Silverton—Little six year old Frank Shearer, whose parents live on route two, had an artery and some veins cut in his temple Monday afternoon when the Ford car in which he and his father was driving bumped into the rear end of the Harry Benton sedan as Mrs. Benton was backing out on Main street in front of the Women's Specialty shop.

Mrs. Benton stated that as she started to back she saw this car coming and so she stopped. It was stated that Shearer seemed to be looking into another direction and did not see the Essex. The Ford windshield was shattered, some of the glass cutting Frank's temple. He was rushed to the hospital where the artery was attended to and at the present writing the little fellow is doing fine. The Essex was not damaged but the Ford had, besides a broken windshield, bent radius rod and bent front axle.

BILL ROBBINS HURT

Silverton—William (Bill) Robbins returned Tuesday morning from the lumber camps near Nelsalem, with a badly sprained and wrenched knee.

Hollywood Theatre
(Home of the 25c Talkies)
Wednesday and Thursday
Clara BOW
The FLEET'S IN!
Now Playing Today - Thursday
The SPECTACLE OF THE AGES
DOLORES COSTELLO
SEE AND HEAR
NOAH'S ARK
GEORGE O'BRIEN
No Raise in Prices
Shows at 2:00, 4:20, 7:00, 9:00
Vitaphone Acts 'News'

Men's Shoes and Oxfords

The Oregon Shoe Co.
326 State Street
Next to Ladd & Bush Bank

Ends Friday
THE MARX BROS.
Now!
SEE... HEAR!
Ramon Novarro Sing!
It's a Scream!
Saturday - 5 Big Days
Greater Movie Season
THE COCOANUTS
OSCAR SHAW and MARY EATON
All-Talking - Singing - Dancing

Consistently the lowest bacteria count in Salem.
THE MILKY WAY TO HEALTH
Lowest Bacteria Count
August 9th we received an official report on the bacteria count made by the Marion County Health Unit. We are allowed up to 50,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter in grade "A" milk, but the official report shows a content of only 500 as pure as we can humanely make it, and an exceedingly fine report.
WHY NOT BUY THE BEST—IT COSTS NO MORE!
"She'll say, 'No fault to find at all. It's mighty good milk, all right!'"
—MRS. MILLY BREAK O'DAY.
Curly's DAIRY
Phone 2420