RUNAWAY TEAM SENDS DRIVER INTO HOSPITAL

Silverton—Ed Clough was brought to the local hospital in the Jack Ekman ambulance Thursday afternoon suffering with a broken right arm, a hole in his head and minor internal injuries.

He was hauling wood about two and one-half miles the other side of Scotts Mills when the horses became frightened and caused him to fall from the wagon load which passed over his body. They ran on, leaving the wood and the back part of the wagon came to a car standing to the side of the road, separating them, one going on each side of the car, tearing off the top of the car and otherwise damaging it. Just before they got to the car Mrs. W. P. Schutt, Clough's sister, saw the runaway team and ran out in the road and nearly got run over trying to stop them and had to run to a fence corner to save herself. At the fence they became entangled after they had spanned it and were caught by some men who had arrived by this time. Clough's niece, Mrs. Dick Lawrence and another woman had just gotten out of the car.

Scotts Mills—H. H. Clough was very badly hurt Thursday afternoon while hauling cordwood. He was unloading when a stick of wood fell and frightened the horses, causing them to run away. The wagon struck him, knocking him down. Whether it passed over his body was not determined, one arm was broken and his shoulder badly bruised. He also received a scalp wound which required several stitches. The ambulance was called and he was taken to the Silverton hospital for treatment. The horses ran into the Whitney car which was standing in the road. Miss Evelyn Whitney and Mrs. Alene Lawrence had just gotten out. They took the car a ways and when found were entangled with it. The car was practically demolished.

Mr. Clough was reported resting easy Friday morning.

CORD WOOD HIGH, DIRECTORS FIND

Hubbard—At the school board meeting held Thursday the bids for furnishing the winter supply of wood were opened, read and placed on file. DIET CRAZE TAKEN BY HORNED TOADS

Gervais—Some bystander is always to be found in front of the window of the bank watching the capers of two horned toads brought here by Fern Wadsworth from Oklahoma. They seem to lay in a dormant state most of the time unless the sun rays coming through the window panes gives the intense heat they are accustomed to and they manifest more life.

Their captor has tried every way in tempting the toads to eat but so far they have taken no food since being captured and one wonders if they will beat the endurance mark set by the now famous toad said to be found in a cornerstone of a Texas church.

PARIS PACT TOPIC FOR STATE SCHOOLS

Solo—Principal F. A. Gallegly and other faculty members of the Scio high school will be asked to cooperate in an intensive educational campaign to acquaint students of the United States with the far-reaching importance of the Paris pact, according to announcement of Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University of Oregon.
