

FUNERALS FOR STAYTON FOLKS ARE ON SUNDAY

Stayton—Paul Donald Yeoman, 24, died at Mill City hospital Friday night from burns received over three months ago.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Yeoman of Stayton and was born January 4, 1905. He had lived in Stayton five years.

Yeoman leaves his parents and five brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Jess Wells and Birdene Yeoman of Stayton; Ralph of Washougal, Wn.; Glen and Earl of Valsec, Kenneth of eastern Oregon, and Frank of Stayton.

The funeral was held from the Weddle chapel Sunday afternoon with W. H. Lyman, pastor of the Christian church.

Stayton—Mrs. Lida L. Walker, 57, wife of Leonard Walker of West Stayton died at her home Friday after a long illness from cancer. She was born August 18, 1872.

The funeral was in charge of W. A. Weddle and services were conducted by Rev. Wayne Wright of the M. E. church at the home Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The remains were shipped to her old home in Bigourney, Iowa, for interment.

LONG MOTOR JAUNT ENDED BY PAULSENS

Hubbard—Mr. and Mrs. Paulsens, Lillie, Helen and Alfred are back home after having a vacation trip from June 17 to August 20. In that length of time they traveled over 9000 miles, stopping each night at auto camp cabins. They kept a log of their travels, taking note of all points of interest such as the beauty and size of the towns, the condition of the auto camps, the percent of some of the winding grades of the mountain roads, the narrowness of the roads, the many sharp curves, the geysers, the many wonders of Yosemite park. They visited all points of interest on their way to Washington, D. C., and also on their return trip over another route. Paulsens, who is an ex-school teacher, found the trip especially good for the children as they absorbed history and geography readily by seeing the places of which they had studied.

AIRLIE

Mrs. Martha Kinney and Mrs. Abbie Call of California who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Dolph McAlpine, left for Portland Sunday for a short visit.

William Herron and wife, Marian Herron and wife drove up to Goldendale, Wash., to see Everett Herron who has been quite ill. They reported him better when they left him.

Margaret Byerley visited a few days the past week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jones at Albany.

Mrs. Anna Hadley is making a short visit with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hadley, in Seattle.

MOTOR TO SEASIDE

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Anton Hanauks and daughter Dolores Agnes and sons Billy and Teddy, accompanied by S. R. Kallak motored to Seaside Sunday on a business trip.

DR. FITZGERALD HOME

Woodburn—Dr. P. H. Fitzgerald returned last week from a five weeks' camping on the Molokai river in company with Kenneth Miller of Prineville. Dr. Fitzgerald reports Kenneth as much improved in health.

MISS SHOREY VISITS

Woodburn—Miss Louise Shorey of Portland spent the week end at the home of her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Lyman H. Shorey, on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Shorey, Miss Louise and Miss Irene Reichel motored to Valsec where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Parkhill.

MRS. GERNACHT LEAVES

Woodburn—Mrs. Alpha Gernacht of Stanton, Texas, who has been spending the past two weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Simmons, returned to her home Thursday. She was accompanied home by her son Willford Gernacht who has been visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, for the past year.

HANNON QUITE ILL

Silverton—"Grandpa" Hannon, 86, was brought home from a Salem hospital in the Jack Ekman ambulance Sunday morning. He had another stroke Saturday evening and the doctors said there was nothing to be done for him and it was thought best to bring him home. He is said to be in a critical condition.

BANQUET FOR FORUM SLATED WEDNESDAY

Silverton—The chamber of commerce has set its banquet and meeting date for Wednesday, in the armory at 6:30 o'clock at which time the local community fair will be fully discussed, dates set and possibly heads of different committees appointed. The Chamber and the American Legion will sponsor the fair together this year. Heretofore the Legion alone has done this.

HUBBARD WOMEN TO OPEN SEASON

Hubbard—The Women's club will resume their study and social afternoon in October, the first meeting being set for the first Wednesday when the new president, Mrs. Neva McKenzie and Mrs. H. C. Mack will entertain at the latter's home. Meetings will be held twice a month and Oregon will be featured at each meeting; the history of the state, its finances, its form of government will be some of the topics studied.

HUSBANDS GUESTS OF CLUB MEMBERS

Dayton—The Krowledeen Needle club members entertained their husbands at a 7 o'clock picnic dinner at the mouth of the Yamhill river Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Emmert, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthes, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Foster, Mr. and Mrs. George Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherman, Misses Madeline Rossner and Orpha Haworth and two cousins, were present; the last three were from Newberg.

WEST SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wallace and children went to Brooks, Thursday to visit with Mr. Wallace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Rhodes. Mrs. Rhodes has been in poor health for some time.

Mrs. Watson and son and daughter Third street motored to Roseburg Wednesday for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roland and small daughter have returned to their home on McNary Avenue after a two weeks stay in Corvallis. While there they visited with Mr. Roland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. Roland.

MR. AND MRS. BILL GORDON

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gordon and two daughters of Yamhill were recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Summers on Rosemont avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Moon of Salem was a Thursday afternoon guest of Mrs. Fred Gibson at their home on Kingwood avenue.

Miss Carolyn Wilson of Salem, who attended the summer term at school at the University of Montana, at Missoula, studying for her master's degree, was a Tuesday luncheon and afternoon guest of Miss Ruth Bedford at her home on First street.

MISS IRENE BECKEN

Miss Irene Becken has come from Independence to stay with her grandmother, Mrs. J. T. Hunt while she is employed at the Reid, Murdoch cannery.

Mrs. L. M. Chase of Gladstone is staying at the home of her niece, Mrs. L. M. Hill on Third street caring for the home and little folks until Mrs. Hill, who is at the Salem General hospital with an infant son, is able to come home.

Jack Murphy, who is living at the Capital tourist apartments, came home from the Willamette Sanitarium Wednesday where he had been given a serious operation on one knee. He expects to be able to walk about in a couple of weeks or so. Dr. Fred Thompson is the attending physician.

Little Barbara Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Miles of Piedmont avenue who has been ill is somewhat better. It was feared for a time she had appendicitis.

Theo Laehr, who was seriously injured sometime since when removing some of the forms after the concrete had set in one of the bridges being built in Salem was brought to his home on Edgewater street Wednesday where he is slowly convalescing.

MRS. O. C. JOHNSON

Mrs. O. C. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson of Skinner street is planning to accompany Mr. and Mrs. B. Cagle of Mill City to Newport for a week end outing.

GUESTS OF MAYOS

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Day of Gold Hill are visiting at the Walter Mayo home this week. Mrs. Day and Mrs. Mayo are sisters.

RETURN FROM COAST

Turner—A jolly party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kunkle and son, Gordon, and daughter, Martha Joyce, of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Bell Massey and family of Klamath Falls, Mrs. J. Pifflet and daughter, Palma, and son, Oscar, of Salem, have returned from a motor trip to various beach resorts.

MAGNESS RITES HELD SUNDAY AT HOPEWELL

Unionvale—Robert Newton Magness, 74, of the Wheatland vicinity for 44 years, died after several days' illness at the McMinnville hospital Thursday evening.

Magness was born December 15, 1855, at Springfield, Ore., and came with his parents when a small boy to Fairfield in Marion county where he resided until his marriage to Miss Ollie Barendrick of Wheatland, December 3, 1885. Mrs. Magness died March 3, 1921.

Surviving are two sons, John Magness, Pullman, Wash., Howard Magness at home. Seven daughters: Mrs. Mabel Kyle, Noel, Mo.; Carrie Baker, Tillamook, Ore.; Mrs. Jessie Rogers, Fairview vicinity; Miss Bertie Magness at home; Mrs. Nettie de Raines, San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs. Virginia Magness at home; Mrs. Adeline Wunderlich, Newberg, Or.; two brothers, Perry Magness, Portland; A. Porter Magness, Wheatland.

Funeral services were held at the United Brethren church at Hopewell Sunday afternoon. Rev. Herbert Deek, Hillsboro, officiating. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

PRINGLE CLUB HAS VACATION FOR MONTH

Pringle—The August meeting of the Pringle Woman's club was held Tuesday evening at the country home of Mrs. Frank Clarke, with a small attendance. Prizes for stunts and guessing games for the evening were awarded to Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. John Fabry, Sr., and Mrs. B. A. Hilliker. The club will hold no meeting in September, owing to the prune harvest, but will meet October 15 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst.

In the club group present were Mrs. J. Bonney, Mrs. John Fabry, Sr., Mrs. H. C. Sylvester, Mrs. J. M. Coburn, Mrs. Oscar Sealey, Mrs. John Van Leygraf, Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. B. A. Hilliker, Mrs. A. Hilliker, Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. E. Clarke, and the hostess, Mrs. Frank Clarke.

SHAW

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lewis, and small daughter, Marjory of Portland are visiting at the John Battliner home. Mr. Lewis returned to Portland Sunday evening while Mrs. Lewis and daughter will remain here for several days. Lewis' residence a number of years ago.

Miss Valeria Amort has returned to her home after spending a week in Salem, where she visited her friends, the Misses Bremmer.

A number of people of this vicinity took part in the picnic which was held on the Luckiamute river. They were Mr. and Mrs. John Battliner, and sons Walter and Quido and the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lewis and daughter, Marjory; Miss Amanda Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. John Amort and children, Merrill, and Valeria; Kenneth Bowers, of North Bend visited several days here with his uncle, Archie Germond.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Keene, and small daughter, Geraldine, spent the week-end at the beach. Their stopping beach was Netarts, but they visited other beaches along the coast.

KARL DEDRICK LEAVES

Silverton—Earl Dedrick, who was called from Oakland, Calif., Thursday by the sudden death of his father, George Dedrick, left Saturday night by train from Salem for home. His mother may go to California later to make her home part of the time with her son and family.

ADAMS IN PORTLAND

Silverton—Alfred Adams, Silverton instructor of flying, who was hurt last week at Yakima when an army plane crashed into him just as he was taking off, is now in the Emanuel hospital where he was brought in a plane from the Yakima hospital Wednesday. The right arm which has a compound fracture has not yet been put in a cast because of the swelling.

GUESTS AT BEAR HOME

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bear entertained pleasantly for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillette and young daughter Rosella of Portland. Gillette is a brother of Mrs. Bear.

GOOD-BY ITCHING SKIN

when invisible Zemo is applied

Soothing, healing and tremendously efficient, invisible Zemo brings quick relief when bites, rash, sunburn, and other summer afflictions cause itching and discomfort. It cools and soothes. It draws out local infection. It smooths away blisters and clears up the skin. Keep clean, antiseptic Zemo always at hand. Use it freely. It is safe, pleasant. 35c 60c and $1.00. Adv.

BYERLEY SCHOOL HAS GREENWOOD REUNION

Arlie—A reunion of old school-mates of the old Byerley school of T. J. was held at Greenwood at the Mark Coppe place Sunday. A fine picnic dinner was held at noon. Among those present were John Jesse and William Walker of Independence, Governor Patterson and Henry Patterson, Mrs. Louisa Allen of Corvallis, Mrs. Kate Young of Rickreall, Mrs. Alice Grover of Soledad, Bill Blake of Portland and LeRoy Byerley of Arlie.

CLEAVER GARDENS SCENE FOR PARTY

Hubbard—A two course bridge supper served in the Cleaver garden on the Pacific highway by Mrs. C. H. Cleaver and Mrs. L. A. Beckman proved a delightful feature of the bridge party held Friday evening. The garden idea was carried out in the prizes which were shrubbery, large baskets of home grown walnuts and a set of garden tools.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. George Grims, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mack, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McManis, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stewart, Mrs. Neva McKenzie, Mrs. W. P. Brown, Mrs. A. Chapman of Santa Monica, Cal., C. H. Cleaver and A. L. Beckman. High scores were won by Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Mrs. Neva McKenzie, George Grims and Thomas Watson.

CLINIC SCHEDULED

Silverton—Silverton will have its first immunization clinic this fall in the Eugene Field building Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock in the clinic room when children from six months up will be taken care of. Local physicians are also working in conjunction with the state board of health in this eradication of diphtheria and other communicable diseases. Other immunizations and toxin anti-toxin can be procured at their offices.

MARION

Mrs. H. T. Scholey has gone to Los Angeles to make her home. Her son, Don, who formerly lived here is located there.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Battif August 22. She has been named Dorothy Arline.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stallard and children Mary and Owen, of Burns and Paul Clifford of Corvallis, were calling on friends recently. Mrs. Stallard is employed as a school teacher in Burns and was on a return trip from California.

VICTOR LOOSE HOME

Stayton—Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Loose, who live east of Stayton on the Mehama road, was taken very seriously ill Saturday night but was improving Sunday.

NURSE BACK HOME

Silverton—Mrs. Ethel Stewart, assistant nurse at the local hospital, returned Saturday evening from a two weeks' vacation trip with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wells of Molalla, to Grater and Diamond lakes. Her son Don came down from Walla Walla, Wn., to visit her the middle of the week and stayed over until she came home before returning.

GUEST IN DALLAS

Dallas—Mrs. A. M. Knapp entertained Miss Elsie Maakottine of Salem at her home Friday. The guest returned to Salem Saturday morning.

GUESTS AT BEAR HOME

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bear entertained pleasantly for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillette and young daughter Rosella of Portland. Gillette is a brother of Mrs. Bear.

GOOD-BY ITCHING SKIN

when invisible Zemo is applied

Soothing, healing and tremendously efficient, invisible Zemo brings quick relief when bites, rash, sunburn, and other summer afflictions cause itching and discomfort. It cools and soothes. It draws out local infection. It smooths away blisters and clears up the skin. Keep clean, antiseptic Zemo always at hand. Use it freely. It is safe, pleasant. 35c 60c and $1.00. Adv.

HIGH VOLTAGE BURNS BOWENS AT MILL SHED

Dallas—R. R. Bowens, who lives at 215 Clay street here, was deeply burned by a 440 volt electric wire while working in the top of a new dry shed at the mill, 40 or 50 feet from the ground Friday afternoon.

In some manner Bowens came in contact with several of the wires near his position on the rafters of the high building and was knocked unconscious by the current.

The switch was thrown as soon as the workers below noticed the accident and the current stopped. When Bowens was reached he appeared dead and artificial respiration was begun which revived him within a few minutes.

The burn was very painful and deep on the left hand and wrist. When the wire touched him his skin was cooked to a crisp and had to be cut out. He was attended by Dr. Starbush and taken to the Dallas hospital. Oscar Holmes, building contractor, is his employer.

AUSTINS HAVE MANY GUESTS ON SUNDAY

Woodburn—Miss Marjorie Jones of Portland spent the week end as the guest of her cousin Miss Julia Bell Austin. Elmer Jones of Marshfield was also a week end guest at the Austin home. Other guests at Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones and Miss Betty Jones of Portland, Mrs. C. F. Clark and Mrs. Herbert Clark of Portland, all of whom in company with the Austins attended the reunion of the descendants of S. W. B. Jones which was held at the state fair grounds Sunday. Mrs. Emma Simpsons of Woodburn also attended the reunion.

TRIP HOME DELAYED

Silverton—Word was received by Ernest Boesch from his wife, who with their five year old son has been in Detroit, Mich., for several weeks, that she slipped on the basement steps and broke her wrist in two places and will not be able to start home for some time. She had intended starting home Monday as she wanted to get her daughters, who are here with Boesch, ready for school.

TATES ON TRIP

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tate of Portland are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tate. He and his father left Monday for Culver in eastern Oregon, to visit a brother, Richard Tate. Ed has charge of the egg department in the Lamarr warehouse at Portland and will spend two weeks here visiting relatives.

BENSON FAMILY ILL

Silverton—The George Benson family of the Silverton Hills district, have had sickness in their family for the past several months and now their little daughter, Dorothy, is very ill with an attack of the flu. First Mrs. Benson was taken ill with flu and then pneumonia. As she was a little better Mrs. Benson became ill and a few weeks later their son, Maurice, contracted a severe case of pneumonia.

GIVING UP FARM

Stayton—Ray McLaughlin and wife, who have been living on the old Follis farm south of Stayton, have decided to quit farming and move to Stayton. They will hold a public sale September 4, to dispose of cattle, horses and farming equipment. They have rented the property in north Stayton, formerly owned by Mrs. Jetty Tate. He is employed by Hunt and Tate garage.

RABENS ON VACATION

Stayton—William Rabens and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hunt and two children, returned Saturday evening from a trip including Bend, Diamond lake, Klamath Falls, Crescent City, Cal. and the Oregon caves. The trip will probably take two weeks.

NEEDLE CLUB WILL PICNIC AT RIVER

Dayton—Mrs. P. B. Sweeney entertained the Aloha Needle club at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Sweeney served refreshments. Mrs. Jennie Murphy of Dayton, mother of Mrs. Sweeney, was a guest. Members present were: Mesdames Arthur Bramlett, Marlon Bouden, Fred Finnicum, Ralph Hadley, Bet McParlane and J. A. McParlane were present.

A picnic at Dorsey's bar on the Willamette river will feature the next regular meeting.

AIRLIE PIONEER RESIDENT TAKEN

Arlie—Word of the death of T. B. Williams, better known among his many friends and acquaintances as "Uncle Tom," was received here. He passed away at the Dallas hospital Wednesday afternoon at the age of 88 years. He has been a resident of this community for several years. Williams crossed the plains in 1885 with his parents from Tennessee. His wife passed away two years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Max Goyer of Jasper, and Mrs. Dolly Scanlon of Portland. Also several children and great grandchildren.

GUESTS AT IVES

Silverton—Mrs. Stanley Fry (Ethel Ives) of Los Angeles, and infant son are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ives, of the north side addition. Mrs. Fry was one of the Eugene Field teachers' staff until two years ago.

VISITS BEACH RESORT

Turner—Miss Emma Schifferer is enjoying a week's vacation at Twin Rocks. She recently returned from an extended tour of Canada, and has been visiting at her parent's home, Mr. and Mrs. John Schifferer, in the Cloverdale district.

FORMER ILLINOIS RESIDENTS GATHER

Woodburn—A large number of former residents of the state of Illinois gathered at the Woodburn auto park Sunday to enjoy an all-day picnic and reunion and to elect the organization of an Illinois association which will meet annually. After organization the election of officers took place. M. C. Davis of Woodburn was elected president; C. R. Duncan, vice president; Mrs. C. R. Duncan, secretary; and I. V. McAdoo of Gervais, treasurer. Otto Sawalish was chosen as chairman of the program committee for next year, he to choose his assistants.

At 1 o'clock a regular Illinois dinner was served at long tables under the trees and covers were placed for 52. Many more attended during the day who were not present at the dinner hour. A most enjoyable day was spent in visiting and getting acquainted.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schwartz and sons, Eldon and George of Salem, B. F. Shrock, Mrs. Alice Guyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Baskett, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parr, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Freckburg, and Mrs. S. W. Maupin, W. N. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sawalish, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dick-ey, John Skiller, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Skiller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Skiller, Orle and Lyle Skiller, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Duncan and son, Willis; Charles L. Ogil, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. McCarty and daughter Ethel, all of Woodburn; D. W. Shrock, Hubbard; Ralph Myers, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. I. V. McAdoo, Gervais. Many were present who neglected to register.

HOLLYWOOD THEATRE

Home of 25c Talks
SUN., MON. & TUES.

Mary Pickford
COQUETTE

A SAM TAYLOR PRODUCTION
100% TALKING PICTURE

SUN. Continues Performance 8-11
Special Matinee Mon. & Tues. at 2 P. M.

UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE

OIL Peppermint

Highest cash market price paid at all times for any quantity.

Daniel J. Fry
280 N. Commercial St.
Phone 223
SALEM, ORE.

We had Bragged about our Lovely City

Then our Visitors saw a Sight like this!

"We thought your state was America's leader in Automatic gas-heating," they said. And so it is, but thousands are still enslaved to chopping and stoking, not knowing that in this age of comfort, Gas heating is quite reasonable, all things considered.

Call at our displayrooms for free estimate, 136 High St., phone 373

Portland Gas & Coke Co.

Now Playing

CAPITOL

Mon. Tues. Wed. Shows at 2, 4, 7, 9

TIME PLACE GIRL

Western Electric Sound System

Distortions, misadventured wires. Starring Grand Winners and A gay comedy drama of college life, shocks, stocks and Betty Compton

VITAPHONE ACTS

SALEM FIRST VISIT OF THE giant consolidation here in two years.

AFTERNOON AND NIGHT

Thurs. AUG. 29

Twice Daily—2 and 8 P. M.—DOORS OPEN AT 1 and 7 P. M.

RINGLING BROS AND BARNUM & BAILEY COMBINED

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

1000 NEW FORDON FEATURES including the ONE and ONLY ORIGINAL HUBBARD CACCHINI

"THE HUMAN PROJECTILE"

A Living Parous Shot Through Space With Terrible Force

THE SENSATION OF THE CENTURY!

"SOLARIS" Mammals SEA ELEPHANT—The One You Never Saw Until Now—and OTHER SENSATION

More PEOPLE—More ACTS—More ANIMALS—MORE OF EVERYTHING THAN EVER BEFORE

DOWNTOWN TICKET OFFICE (CIRCUS DAY) AT PATTON'S BOOK STORE—340 STATE