Mrs. Wilson Heads First W. H. M. S.

The women's home missionary society of the First Methodist church, at their first meeting after the summer recess on Wednesday afternoon elected Mrs. Charles F. Wilson, president of their group to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. George H. Alden, president for the past three years.

Mrs. Wilson was serving as stewardship secretary, a position which she resigned to accept the presidency. Mrs. U. G. Boyer was then appointed stewardship secretary.

Plans and policies of the missionary society for the coming year were discussed during the business meeting Wednesday afternoon. The new officers who were in charge for the first time included Mrs. Wilson, president; Mrs. Ronald Glover, vice-president; Mrs. D. H. Mosher, secretary; Mrs. B. E. Carrier, treasurer; Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. E. Bergman, young people's secretary; Mrs. J. O. Russell, missionary education secretary; Mrs. L. D. Waterman, evangelist; Mrs. U. G. Boyer, stewardship; Mrs. Hattie Dayton, mite box; Mrs. Nettie Schramm, temperance.

Announcement was also made of the members of the First church of Salem home missionary society who were elected to state offices during the state conference held in Oregon City recently. These include Mrs. John M. Canse, state corresponding secretary; Mrs. Benjamin J. Blatchford, state young people's work secretary; Mrs. E. C. Miller, state secretary of the children's work; Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer, state mite box secretary; Mrs. A. A. Underhill, state secretary of missionary education; Mrs. E. J. Swafford, secretary of perpetual membership; and Mrs. George H. Alden, state training schools secretary.

During the business session Mrs. Wilson appointed the following tea committee to serve at the quarterly tea meeting in December Mrs. E. T. Barnes, chairman; Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. Walter Winslow, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Edgar Fortner, Mrs. Floyd L. Utter and Mrs. W. E. Kirk.

The program committee for the year was appointed to include Mrs. George H. Alden, chairman; Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. Fred A. Lege, Mrs. J. O. Russell and Mrs. Ronald Glover. Mrs. J. O. Russell was appointed musician and Mrs. Ronald Glover, the press correspondent.

After a talk by Mrs. J. M. Canse on the paying of dues in September, more than one-third of the membership of 103 signed up for the new year with a full payment of dues.

The program which followed the business session included the devotionals by Mrs. W. C. Hawley, a vocal solo by Mrs. Edgar Fortner, and a talk on "Why I Am a Member of the W. H. M. S." by Mrs. Benjamin J. Blatchford. A talk on the Helen Manley settlement center home in Portland, which is maintained by the state conference of the W. H. M. S., was given by Miss Eugenia Savage, one of the staff members. A missionary story was given by Miss Amy Martin and Miss Eugenia Savage played a piano solo.

Salem school teachers who are members of the First Methodist church were guests of honor at the meeting.

The tea table was centered with pastel colored asters. Mrs. George H. Alden and Mrs. W. D. Smith presided at the serving urns.

The tea committee included Mrs. L. L. McAdams, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. Louisa Koon and Mrs. W. C. Young.

Charles Kay Bishop Honored Guest

Complimenting his nephew, Charles Kay Bishop, who leaves Saturday for Culver, Indiana, to re-enter Culver Military academy, Carl D. Gabrielson entertained a group of the younger set at a theater party at the Capitol Thursday evening followed by a supper dance at the Gray Belle.

Rose bronze dahlias and deep rose tapers centered the small tables in the Chinese room at the Gray Belle. Covers were placed for Miss Katherine Laughridge, Miss Dorothy Liveley, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Virginia Holt and Miss Ruth Pick all of Salem; Miss Barbara Bean of Albany and Miss Prudence Gray of Redlands, Calif.; for the honor guests, Charles Kay Bishop, Homer Goulet, Jr., David Eyre, Asahel Bush, Robert Bishop, Tommy Liveley and the host, Carl D. Gabrielson.

Chapter G Has Opening Meeting

Members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood met at luncheon at the Elks club Thursday afternoon for their first meeting after the summer vacation. Mrs. J. Hardy and Mrs. H. E. Taylor were special guests. Chapter members present included Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Caroline Selee, Mrs. William McGillchrist Sr., Miss Annora Welch, Mrs. H. E. Bolander, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. A. L. Godfrey, Mrs. F. E. Churchill, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. William Hughes, Mrs. A. E. Robins, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. C. K. Logan and Mrs. F. W. Laige.

Marigolds and bronze tapers centered the luncheon table. At the roll call, members responded with bits of their vacation experiences.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held in a fortnight at the home of Mrs. William Hughes but next Wednesday the group will meet at the home of Mrs. W. W. Moore to sew on bazaar articles.

Mrs. Power Returns From Trip East

Mrs. Frank Power and her daughter, Miss Florence Power, have returned from a three months' visit with relatives in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and in the state of Washington. Leaving Salem in early June they went to Pittsburgh, and to LeToBe, Pa. Mrs. Power's former home. After an extended stay along the Atlantic coast they returned to Tacoma for a month's visit with relatives.

In Tacoma they were guests of Mrs. Power's brothers, E. J. Baker and H. D. Baker, and of her sister, Mrs. A. B. Hopkins. They were guests in Seattle and Mrs. Power's niece, Mrs. Herbert Kaufman (Ruth Barnes).

Turner—Mrs. Nellie Hamilton entertained recently in her country home in the Cloverdale district for Mrs. Hattie Busck and son Edwin of Salem, Captain Ledbetter of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hamilton of Salem.

Chapter Regent To Be Installed

Formal installation of Mrs. W. H. Byrd as regent of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held Saturday afternoon when the chapter has its first meeting after the summer recess. The meeting will be held in the public library auditorium. Mrs. C. C. Clark, former regent, will be installing officer. Mrs. Homer Goulet will be presented with the past regent's pin.

Mrs. Byrd will call a meeting of the executive board of the chapter at 2 o'clock. The regular chapter meeting will open at 2:30.

Lucille Thomas Bride This Week

Miss Margaret Lucille Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas, became the bride of Norval L. Hiron, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hiron, at a ceremony Saturday afternoon performed by Rev. Father Keenan, pastor of St. Vincent of Paul parish. Only relatives and a few friends were present.

The bride wore a gown of apricot georgette and she carried a shower bouquet of pink rose buds and sweet peas.

Miss Mildred Thomas was her sister's only attendant. She wore green georgette and carried rose buds and asters. Kenneth Hiron, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents on North Commercial street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiron are spending this week and next at the Oregon beaches. They will return to Salem to make their home.

P. E. P. Company Picnic at Neskowin

Seventy-nine employees of the Portland Electric Power company made merry at the third annual beach picnic at Neskowin during Labor day week-end. Mr. E. T. Hart, president of the employes' club, was general manager of the affair. Everyone reported a good time, with no accidents to mar the pleasures.

A huge beach bonfire was the gathering place for the crowd Saturday night, when wienies and marshmallows were roasted, and real lemonade was consumed by the hungry group. Trucks were chartered to carry supplies for the festivities.

Competitive games of all sorts furnished the amusement on Sunday, together with swimming and beach baseball. Miss Henrietta Bishop won the ball throwing contest for ladies. In a handicap race for children of all ages, Jackie Boytama walked, or rather ran off, with the grand prize. Prizes were given to all those entering the races for younger children. Jack Nordturf and Mace Bishop competed in a foot race, with the former taking first and the latter taking second honors.

Although camp was broken early Monday for the crowd to go various places, twenty-eight gathered at Newport for deep sea fishing.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Peggy Hamilton, Melvin Millet, John Verdick, Marguerite Farmer, Marie Ellett, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McDowell, Wilmer McDowell, Mrs. Harvey W. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Catter and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. T.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott Luncheon Hostess

Honoring Mrs. LaMoine Clark before she resumes her duties as principal of Leslie junior high school, Mrs. F. A. Elliott was hostess Thursday at a delightful informal luncheon in her home.

Late summer flowers in deep shades of bronze and russet centered the luncheon table with favors marking covers for Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mrs. W. C. Hawley, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, and the hostess, Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop entertained at an eight o'clock dinner in her home on Court street Thursday night complimenting her grandson, Robert Bishop, on his birthday anniversary. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Robert Bishop, Miss Mildred Roberts, Mrs. R. B. Fisher of Portland, Miss Imogene Roberts of Portland, Ted Young of Albany, Charles Kay Bishop, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Later in the evening the young people were guests at the theater party and supper dance which Carl D. Gabrielson was host complimenting Charles Kay Bishop.

Aumville—Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. E. F. Wallace delightfully entertained with a shower for Miss Hazel Powell. Miss Powell is to become the bride of Christie Johnston. The honor guest was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Those present were the honored guest, Miss Powell, Mrs. Jessie Porter, Miss Jessie Richards, Mrs. G. L. Lowest Bacteria Count

August 31 we received an official report on the bacteria count made by the Marion County Health Unit. We are allowed up to 50,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter in grade "A" milk but the official report shows a content of only 500 as pure as we can humanly make it, and an exceedingly fine report.
