Jaye Bleakney of Silverton doesn't intend to pay a fine of $1 that has been assessed against him for overtime parking in Salem, and in a letter to Police Judge Poulton tells why. He explains that on the night his car was tagged he was blinded, had to give it up and go to bed at a hotel. Next morning he had to buy a new battery, paying an excessive price for it, before he could start the car. Considering the price of a bed, tape to bandage his blistered hands and the cost of the battery, he says the city of Salem has enough of his money without collecting the $1 fine.

ATTORNEYS REBUKED IN PANTAGES TRIAL

Los Angeles (AP)—The defense and prosecution in the second degree murder trial of Mrs. Alexander Pantages was admonished by the court Thursday to speed their efforts in selection of a jury as attempts to obtain a panel entered the third day.

Rebuking the lawyers for "eternal quibbling" Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy told them that "both sides have tried to give the law to this jury . . . and I feel they are going to far afield and wasting a lot of time." Seventy-two prospective jurors already had been examined.

Questioning of the second panel of fifty veniremen began with each side fortified with only ten remaining preptory challenges.

Mrs. Pantages, who is alleged to have been responsible for the death of Joe Rokumoto, a Japanese, in an automobile collision last June 16 in which she was driving one of the machines, entered the courtroom on the arm of a nurse and it was apparent she was in a weakened condition.

TESTIMONY TAKEN IN GASTONIA TRIAL

Charlotte, N. C. (AP)—Taking of testimony in the case of 16 men and women on trial here for the slaying of Chief O. F. Aldrich of Gastonia entered the second day Friday, after the prosecution's attempt Thursday to prove the chief was shot in the back.

With the testimony of Arthur J. Roach, former Gastonia policeman and deputy sheriff, featuring the day's proceedings, the prosecution presented nine witnesses. Several claimed to have seen the shooting.

EDISON PERMITTED TO LEAVE HIS BED

West Orange, N. J. (AP)—For the first time since he was stricken with pneumonia recently Thomas A. Edison, famous inventor, was to be permitted to leave his bed Friday. The announcement was made in a statement by Mr. Edison's son, Charles Edison, which read: "Mr. Edison had a good night, his pulse is normal and he is making gains steadily. He will be allowed by his physician to sit up for a half hour today."

PLOT TO RAID TRAIN NIPPED

Kovno, Lithuania (AP)—Considerable excitement prevails here over the arrest of Colonel Pietakaitis and five companions on German soil Thursday who were supposed to be planning an attack upon the train carrying Premier Waldemarunas to Albania for a meeting of the League of Nations at Geneva. President Antanas Smetona returned to Kovno Friday morning from Poland, a health resort.

Premier Waldemarunas, who is still at Geneva, has been informed of the situation and his reply is awaited.

Political circles here credit reports that Pietakaitis planned an attack on the train carrying the premier and it is predicted that extradition of the group of Lithuanians will be demanded from the German government despite the fact that political offenders would probably not be handed over by the German government. It is stated here that Pietakaitis' case is criminal and not political.

LISTS 507 PET ANNOYANCES

New Haven, Conn. (AP)—A directory of life's principal annoyances, 507 pet peeves, was given to the International Congress of Psychology at Yale University Thursday by Professor Hulsey Cason of the University at Rochester.

It may be used to minimize some of the day's annoyances by learning when to be on guard against undue irritation. Virtually all the annoyances, said Professor Cason, "are learned," or acquired. A few, like the screech of a piece of chalk on a blackboard, are inherited, sure to grate on nerves the world over.

The average time of life to be on guard against a state of irritability is between the ages of 40 and 60. Susceptibility to annoyances is least from 19 to 25, rises a little 24 to 40, is maximum from 40 to 60 and dwindling slightly from 60 to 90. Dr. Cason has not investigated beyond 90.

Women of all ages averaged uniformly more susceptibility to annoyances. There are exceptions, men, for example, object nearly twice as much as women to dancing with a fat person. Men are distinctly more annoyed at seeing a person wearing mourning clothes or seeing an adult weep.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN BUSH PASTURE

A stubborn fire that started in Bush's pasture about 1 o'clock covered several acres before it was gotten under control by the Salem fire department a half hour later.

The fire, starting from an unknown cause in the south half of the pasture, cut rapidly through the grass, brush and small trees towards the residence district bordering along Lefelle street. Two fire trucks kept a close guard on the residence district and wet down the area nearby to halt the fire as it approached.

It was impossible to reach the fire with hose until it had burned within a few rods of Lefelle, but the chemical apparatus was used with some success.

TEACHERS TO MEET HERE OCTOBER 7

Plans are being made by Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, Marion county school superintendent, for the annual Marion county teachers' institute which will be held in the Salem high school building October 7 and 8, the second Monday and Tuesday of next month. More than 500 teachers from all of Marion county will be in town for the two day sessions.

Dr. C. E. Moore of the school of education at Cornell University in New York state, will be the main speaker at the local institute. Dean Jewell of the O. A. C. school of education will also address general sessions of the institute.

The program is being arranged by Mrs. Fulkerson to provide opportunities for Miss Agnes Campbell, Marion county supervisor of nurses, to meet with the teachers from the county's sanitary officers will also meet with the different groups.

R. W. Tavenner, assistant principal of Salem high school, will assist Mrs. Fulkerson in arranging the institute program.

Mukden, Manchuria (AP)—Provincial officials reported Friday that 1114 Russians, charged with communistic activities, were being detained in an internment camp north of the Sungari river. Of the prisoners 71 were women.

Each prisoner was said to receive two pounds of bread daily, together with vegetables, sugar and tea. A hospital is attached to the camp. Friends and relatives may bring clothes and food but conversation and correspondence between them is forbidden.

The Omaha Life Insurance company has filed suit in circuit court against Anlos Pokorney, Tulle Pokorney, Cassie F. Lachinger, Harry Lachinger, Frank Brack, Alois Halter and Sarahline Halter to collect $2,700 said to be due on notes. Foreclosure of a mortgage is asked.

Los Angeles (AP)—Warren Kane, 23, aviator, was killed near Mines field Thursday night when his racing plane fell to pieces in a power dive during a speed dash from Los Angeles to Wilmington, Calif. Observers saw debris fly backward as Kane dove earthward. The propeller apparently had splintered and its fragments carried away the wing struts. The plane crashed in a flat spin, the engine landing 1,000 feet from the wreckage.

Prague (AP)—Three military air pilots were killed in southern Bohemia when two bombing planes crashed during the annual maneuvers of the Czech-Slovakian air force, it was announced by the war office Friday.

TELLURIDE BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

Telluride, Colo. (AP)—The Bank of Telluride, whose president, O. D. Waggoner, is sought by police in connection with a $500,000 swindle in New York, failed to open its doors Friday. A notice on the door said the institution's affairs had been placed in the hands of the state banking commission.

The bank had deposits of approximately $350,000 and a capital of $50,000.

Owing to a slump in mining in this vicinity lately the deposits have been diminishing. At one time the bank had deposits of $1,000,000.

Banking officials said the move was taken for the "protection of depositors" and expressed the belief that losses would be small.

Waggoner left Denver last week on his way to New York in an effort to obtain funds to tide the bank over a crisis. A man impersonating him was credited with having been responsible for the huge New York bunco operations.

BODY OF LABORER FOUND ON HIGHWAY

Bozeman, Mont. (AP)—The coroner here Friday was attempting to establish the identity of a farm laborer about 50 years old, whose body was found on a country road Thursday by school children. Although he was known generally here as "James Baker," it was known that this was not his true name.

A note found in the case in which the man kept his glasses gave his name as Albert Amundson and that of his wife as Pearl Violeta Amundson. The note had written on it the name of Jack Saunders of Pendleton, Oregon. A telegram sent to Saunders was unanswered.

ECKENER PROMISES FLIGHT TO MOSCOW

Moscow (AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener hopes to make a special flight in the dirigible Graf Zeppelin over Moscow at some time in the future to give the Russian people a glimpse of the famous airship.

Dr. Eckener said so Thursday in a telegram to Russian government authorities, expressing regret that he was unable to pass over the Soviet capital on the Graf's world flight because of unfavorable meteorological conditions.

MANILLA STILL FACES CRISIS

Manilla (AP)—It was with a feeling of despair and utter helplessness that citizens of Manilla received the latest report of the typhoon's death toll of 78 lives and other calamitous news as they faced a crisis even more acute Friday as the prolonged water shortage continued with no indication of abatement.

Albay on Luzon island was stricken hardest by the typhoon. Seventeen deaths were reported from there with the restoration of communications.

Rocks and earth slid down the sides of Mayon volcano, killing many and damaging coconut plantations. Hundreds of homes were carried away by the floods.

The Mayon volcano slides destroyed 12 bridges. All of the province of Albay is under water and rice crop ruined.

Sulacan province, Luzon island, also suffered heavily, the typhoon taking a heavy toll of life there and causing damage estimated at several million dollars.

No reports have been received yet of the damage done in the province of Catanduanes, the district being still isolated. Other places are expected to eventually report heavy losses.

5 INCHES SNOW FALLS, WYOMING

Cheyenne, Wyo. (AP)—An advance showing of the winter styles in weather was evident throughout Wyoming Friday, with snow ranging from a trace to 14 inches, a continuation of the fall in prospect and freezing temperatures reported from several sections.

Motor traffic was seriously impeded along roads in the outlying districts and scores of automobiles were stalled.

Five inches of snow fell in Casper. The storm approached blizzard proportions between Rock Springs and Pinedale. Snow was holding west-bound air mail planes in Cheyenne and Laramie.

Cheyenne experienced its earliest snowfall within memory. Telephone service was out of communication at Wheatland where ice three inches thick had formed on the wires.

Fourteen inches of snow fell in the Fox park district. Albany was buried under a foot of snow.

12 HOUR DAY IN MEDFORD PLANTS

Medford, Ore. (AP)—Fruit packing plants in the Rogue river valley will go on a 12 hour basis next week to handle the peak of the pear crop. Night shifts will be maintained by most of the orchards. A flood of boxes and D'Anjous pears from the lighter soil orchards will start Monday and continue for 10 or 12 days.

By the middle of next week picking will be general for these varieties, pressure tests indicate.

The two fruit trains a day schedule of the Southern Pacific from this district will then go into effect.

Several of the smaller D'Anjous orchards started picking Friday. Shipment of Bartlett pears to canneries upstate and in California will reach its crest next week.

TEACHERS FAIL TO FILE CERTIFICATES

Several scores of more teachers in Marion county will forfeit some of their salary this year unless they make a show of speed in registering their certificates and contracts with the county superintendent within the next few days or a week, says Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, Marion county superintendent.

The state law requires that all teachers must register their certificates, their contracts and their reading circle certificates with the county superintendent each year before they actually begin teaching.

A large number of teachers, particularly the Salem teachers, have failed to comply with their requirements this year. The penalty is forfeiture of salary until registration is done. With the bulk of the county schools opening next Monday and the following Monday there will be either a rush on the superintendent's office or some teachers will be salary-less when schools open, says Mrs. Fulkerson.

ASTORIA GETS 2 FLOUR MILLS

Astoria, Ore. (AP)—Operation of two flour mills with a daily capacity of 5000 barrels will be undertaken here immediately by the Pillsbury-Astoria Flour Mills company which completed organization Thursday. Announcement of the purchase by Pillsbury was made several weeks ago. A majority of the stock in the new company is held by the Pillsbury Flour mills of Minneapolis and the Astoria operation will be essentially a unit of the Pillsbury organization.

A 4000-barrel plant of the Port of Astoria property and a 1000-barrel mill on another section of the waterfront have been taken over. Edgar Smith, Portland, is president of the new company.
