

BALKY MACHINE CAUSES DEATH OF DALLAS MAN

Dallas—Cranking his automobile while it was in high gear took the life of J. A. Moore, clerk for the Shell Oil company Wednesday afternoon. Moore, his wife and four children had lived here about six months and were operating a fox farm on Fairview avenue. After leaving the courthouse where he had made a business call, Moore started to crank his machine when he was observed to fall, the machine passing over his head and shoulders which were against the curb. The machine kept on across the courthouse lawn and was not stopped until it struck the building nearly 100 feet away. First aid was given by Dr. L. A. Bellman and the ambulance called Moore lived about an hour after the accident, dying at 3:30 o'clock.

MILL OPERATIONS ON 10-HOUR BASIS

Valsetz—Operations at the Valsetz mill are now on a ten-hour basis, six days a week, with the schedule opened this week, to continue indefinitely. The shifts are from 7 o'clock in the morning to noon and from 1 o'clock to 6. No change in hours for the planer operation are contemplated at present.

ELKINS

Mrs. Annie Southern was a guest at the home of her brother, Sam Ray, Sunday. Mrs. Southern spent about two months here last winter where she made many warm friends. Walter Kirkwood of near Hope-well, bought seven head of registered Jersey heifers of the Allen and Loughary herd Wednesday and transported them by truck to his farm home. Kirkwood is stocking his farm with the Jerseys. Joe Tetherow, who has been sick for the past week is improving. Mrs. M. B. Lucas took the Elkins Calf club boys to Corvallis on their final judging tour of inspection Monday. Mrs. J. M. Tedrow and two sons, Jean and Jess, have left for Portland where Jean and Jess will enter Portland schools. Tedrow is remaining here preparing for a public sale to be held soon on their farm. Mr. and Mrs. Tedrow and family were born and raised in this community.

GROOM IS KIDNAPED

Independence—At a charity party held at the L. D. Patton hop yard on Tuesday evening, the groom, Jack Richardson, brother of Mrs. Patton, was kidnaped and taken for a long drive while his bride was sequestered in the house. In an effort to get her away Mrs. Kenneth Arrell was alashed with a large knife on the wrist and rushed to a doctor for medical attention.

LYONS LODGE HOLDS FIRST FALL AFFAIR

Independence—Lyons Lodge, A. F. & A. M. met Wednesday evening, their first meeting since the summer vacation, and went through the regular order of business. The decorating of the hall has not been completed as yet but it is expected to be finished by next regular meeting. There will be initiation at the next meeting.

CAMPERS ARE GIVEN PROGRAM OF MUSIC

Independence—A program for the entertainment and pleasure of the campers at the Dean Walker yard was given through the efforts of Mrs. Joe Rogers, who operates the camp store. The program consisted of several numbers by William McGilchrist Sr. of Salem on his concertina. Scotch and Irish songs and bagpipes by Mr. Sharp. Mrs. Joe Rogers danced the Highland Fling, accompanied by the bagpipes. Mrs. L. Conklin gave a negro impersonation; Mrs. Madin gave several accordion selections.

HOLE SUPERINTENDS CHURCH DEPARTMENT

Dayton—Frank W. Hole, assistant superintendent of the Dayton Methodist Sunday school will assume the full duties of the school from now until the first of the year to fill the vacancy caused by Walter Jackman's resignation as superintendent when he moved to McMinnville recently. Mr. Jackman has been employed in the Dayton Motor company for several years. He is now with the Ford garage in McMinnville.

LEAVE FOR PASADENA

Amity—Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Cheshire of Pasadena, Calif., who have been visiting in Amity at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, have left for the south. The Cheshires made the trip by automobile, coming north over the Redwood highway and will return by the Shasta route. Mrs. Cheshire is a sister of Mr. Taylor. Mr. Cheshire is with the tax department of the city of Pasadena.

COLLINS ARE HOSTS

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins of East Independence, are entertaining as house guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Dave J. Collins of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Klingensmith, Mr. and Mrs. Terrmahlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dams, Mr. and Mrs. Hoagball, all of Portland.

JUDGE ON VACATION

Dallas—Judge O. L. Hawkins left his office in the courthouse Wednesday for his two weeks' vacation which he is spending by harvesting the prune crop at his farm near Dallas.

Independence—Mrs. C. P. Baker, who has been visiting her parents in Ohio for the past several weeks, returned here this week. She had a most enjoyable trip and visit but the best of the journey was getting home.
