

FIRE DESTROYS RURAL HOME OF MARVIN FAMILY

Woodburn—Fire which is thought to have started from a spark falling on the roof completely destroyed the large home and contents of the Mike Marvin family on the old Wengert place about a mile west of West Woodburn, Monday evening.

The fire was discovered about 9:30 o'clock and help was summoned from several nearby districts, including Woodburn and St. Paul and the intervening territory. Nearly forty automobiles filled with people were on the scene to prevent the fire from spreading into nearby fields.

A single trunk full of belongings was all that remained of the family's possessions. No estimate of the amount of loss had been made Tuesday morning, and it is not known here whether there was any insurance on the house or its contents.

Marvin is familiarly known about Woodburn as "Mike, the Greek."

DAYTON PASTOR IN PULPIT FIVE YEARS

Dayton—Members of the Baptist church of Dayton recently gathered to celebrate the anniversary of the completion of five years pastorate of Rev. Walter G. Smith at the church.

Devotional services were followed by a general review of the growth and many interesting reports of the church activities were given. Twenty-seven members have been added in the five years besides many other conversions who united with other churches. Music and singing was a portion of the program.

A lunch was served by a committee consisting of Mesdames J. W. Lorett, E. G. Lichtenthaler and Francis Wirls.

MILL CITY CLUB ENTERTAINED BY GROUP IN GATES

Gates—The Ladies' Improvement club of Gates was hostess to the Mill City Woman's club at the club room in the high school building last Thursday afternoon for a sociable and profitable time. Roll call was answered by an "incident from my first year at school." Many amusing and near tragic memories were recounted altogether showing great changes in school systems and supervision the last few years.

Mrs. Harry Mason of the Mill City club, presented and explained the picture library which the Mill City club made and presented to their school. These pictures, mostly reproductions and masterpieces, were tastefully mounted and magazines gathered largely from magazines.

Entertainment and music for the fall county confederation meeting were discussed and at a later meeting will be completed. A pleasing event of the afternoon for the Gates club was the complete installation of a kitchen sink with hot and cold water facilities, making for greater convenience to those entertaining at the club room.

Refreshments were served at the tea hour, bright garden flowers used as centerpieces while many other vases and potted plants, making out the smoky glow which has pervaded the atmosphere the past few days.

Much of the credit for the success of the meeting must be given to those interested busy women who furnished flowers, time, tables and energy for the afternoon. Guests from the Mill City club were: Mrs. Frank Taylor, president of the visiting club; Mrs. Charles Gentry, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. T. J. Means, Mrs. Albert Milsap, and Mrs. K. Cline.
