Reception For Parish Wednesday

Members of St. Paul's Episcopal church will entertain at a reception from eight to ten o'clock Wednesday evening honoring the new rector and Mrs. George Herbert Swift. The affair will be given in the home of Brigadier General and Mrs. George A. White on Bellevue street and is planned as an occasion when all of the members of the parish may meet the new rector.

In the receiving line with the honor guest, Rev. and Mrs. Swift, will be the seven members of the church vestry, and the presidents of the three women's organizations of the parish, Mrs. U. G. Shipley of the women's auxiliary, Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger of the senior guild, and Mrs. Homer H. Smith of the junior guild. Older members of the church will assist about the reception rooms.

Mrs. Russell Catlin is chairman in charge of the reception and her assistants are Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. William Nelmeier, and Mrs. Homer Smith.

The girls who will assist in the dining room include the Misses Mary and Helen Kafoury, Sarah Lansing, Irene DeLisle, Beatrice Olin, Maimi Victor, and Henrietta White. The guests will be greeted at the door by the Misses Dorothy White and Marie Patton.

Edith Stone Weds St. Louis Man

At a lovely wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilgus Smith of Portland last Sunday, Miss Edith Stone, who has spent the past summer in Salem, became the bride of Leroy Baling of St. Louis, Missouri.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin and lace. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. C. O. Wright of Portland, in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Marie Mampus sang two numbers, accompanied by Miss Alma Sandwick of Corvallis and Miss Alice Vandevort of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Baling left immediately for St. Louis, where Baling will continue his work in the Washington university located there.

Program in Senate Tuesday Evening

G. Y. Wigfall, Portland attorney, will deliver an address on the constitution of the United States, in a program to be given in the senate chambers of the Oregon statehouse at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening under the sponsorship of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

The program is open to the general public and is planned by the Daughters in observance of national constitution day. Mr. Wigfall is a graduate of both Yale and Columbia universities. He is brought to Salem through arrangements made by Mrs. John Richardson of Portland, regent of Multnomah chapter of the Daughters.

Musical numbers will be given during the evening by Miss Elizabeth Levy's violin choir.

Members of Miss Levy's violin choir who will play during the program include Joyce Phelps, Eleanor Wagstaff, June Director, Horlense Taylor, Yvonne Pickell, Margaret Hogg, Margaret Bell, Isabel Fragg, Daniel Hardy and Ralph Branch. The accompaniments will be played by Mrs. Eugene O'Brien.

Miss Zieber Leaves For East Friday

Mrs. Brazier Small and her small daughter, Suzanne, have returned to San Francisco with Mrs. William Earl Shafer (Eugenia Zieber) who came north for a visit of several days with her sister, Miss Charlotte Zieber before her departure for a year's stay abroad. Mrs. Small and Suzanne will spend a fortnight with Mrs. Small's sister, Mrs. C. E. Smith (Gladys Cartwright) at Placerville, Calif.

Much entertaining is being done this week for Miss Charlotte Zieber, niece of Miss Sally Bush, who leaves Friday of this week for a year's stay and study abroad. Both Miss Dorothy Livesley and Miss Rovena Eyre are entertaining for Miss Zieber before her departure.

Last Thursday Miss Zieber and her sister, Mrs. William Earl Shafer of San Francisco, shared honors at a luncheon in Portland at which Mrs. Willard Marshall (Margaret Steidl) was hostess.

Miss Zieber will go directly to Northampton, Mass., where she will join a group of five girls and a chaperon from the Mary A. Burnham school. Miss Zieber formerly attended the Burnham school and some of her former classmates are included in the group making the trip abroad.

They will sail from New York September 27 and will dock at Naples. The group will tour Italy and will remain in Rome until the Christmas holidays. After winter sports in Switzerland, they will go on to Paris to remain until early spring. They will tour all of the leading countries of the continent and will spend some time in England before returning home late next summer.

Homer Smith, Jr. Host to Young Folks

A group of 36 young people were guests of Homer Smith, Jr., at a bridge and dancing party Saturday evening in the Homer Smith home on North Summer street. Tables were arranged for cards in the attractive garden at the Smith home. A number of boys and girls who are leaving this week-end for University and college were honor guests at the affair.

The host was assisted by his mother, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Sr., and by Miss Mary Louise Morley. The prizes for high bridge scores were won by Miss Esther Wood and Edward Rafferty.

Breakfast Honors Hester Davis

A delightful affair of Sunday morning was the ten o'clock breakfast in the Bush garden on Mission street when Miss Sally Bush entertained as a compliment to Miss Hester Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis, who will return to O. A. C. next Sunday after spending the summer vacation here. A group of 24 young people were included in the guest list. The breakfast tables were spread under the trees in the lovely old garden.

Mrs. W. A. Davenport has gone to Newport for a visit of several days with Mrs. Walter E. Keyes. They will both return to Salem Friday.

Birthday Honored At Bridge

Mrs. Ernest Thom and Mrs. Edgar A. Pierce were hostesses at a delightful affair Saturday evening when they entertained at bridge and supper complimenting Mr. Thom and Mr. Pierce on their birthday anniversaries. Each year the two birthdays are celebrated together. Bridge was enjoyed for several hours in the Thom home on Lincoln hill and supper was served later in the Red Lantern on the Jefferson road.

Among the five tables of bridge players the high score prizes were won by Mrs. Karl Becke and Ronald Jones.

O. A. C. Club Benefit Bridge Enjoyed

Members of the Salem O. A. C. club were hosts at an enjoyable affair Monday evening when they entertained at a bridge party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Wright on Stewart street. The affair was given for the benefit of the club's scholarship loan fund.

Seventeen tables were in play during the evening with the prizes for high score going to Mrs. Glen Gregg and William Marriott. At the supper hour Mrs. Edith Ricketts, Mrs. William Marriott, Mrs. Mark McCallister, Mrs. Larry Flagg, Mrs. David Wright, and the Misses Eleanor and Eloise Wright served.

Lovely fall flowers were arranged about the Wright home for the affair.

County Convention Plans Made

The annual fall meeting of the Marion county federation of women's clubs will be held in Mill City probably on October 24, advises Mrs. Waldo Brown, of Hubbard, county president. The final decision of the date and the sending out of the convention call await the completion of final arrangements with the convention speaker who is being brought in from the outside.

Should October 24 be decided on, as is thought now, the convention call will go out before September 24. Mill City club women are already making plans for the entertainment of the guests from more than 20 clubs affiliated with the county federation.

Mrs. Brown has not yet selected all of her county federation committee chairmen but the committee lists are rapidly nearing completion.

Miss Esther Lisle, a member of the 1929 class at Willamette University, left Monday for Cleveland, Ohio, where she will take work in the school of applied social science at Western Reserve University for her master's degree. Miss Lisle will do part time work in social settlements in Cleveland. She has been recreational advisor to the Salem girl reserves for the last year and has had experience in playground work both here and in Portland.

The women of the Knight Memorial church will have an all-day sewing meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Maude H. Pointer at 1650 North 15th street.

The meeting of the writers' section for this week has been postponed for a fortnight because of the death in Boston of Mrs. John M. Clifford's mother. Mrs. Clifford was leader of the group.

An interesting note from Mrs. H. J. Clements written while she and Dr. Clements and Miss Dorothy Pearce were touring the Scotch highlands has been received by Mrs. P. C. Franklin. The note said that they expected to reach London September 5.

Members of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at luncheon at the Elks clubhouse Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. This will be the first meeting of the fall and A. U. W. problems will be discussed informally.

Reservations will be made with the secretary, Mrs. Milo Rasmusen.

442 of the 451 important Hollywood actresses use Lux Toilet Soap

BETTY BRONSON, Warner Brothers' star, in the luxurious marble bathroom built in Hollywood just for her charming youthfulness. She uses Lux Toilet Soap not only in her bathroom, but in her dressing room on location—wherever her pictures are being made.

The next time you see her in a close-up, notice how smooth this daintily fragrant white soap keeps her skin.

She says about Lux Toilet Soap: "A star must have smooth skin for the close-up. I find this lovely soap is wonderful for my skin."

Betty Bronson

"A smooth skin is a star's most prized possession," says JOSEPHINE DUNN, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star. "Lux Toilet Soap keeps my skin perfectly smooth."

SMOOTH SKIN is a perpetual attraction," says Allan Dwan, famous director—and sums up what 39 foremost Hollywood directors have learned from the movies. "The kind of rose-petal skin which can pass the test of the close-up is the kind of beauty that gets the American public every time," he goes on to say.

It is for this reason that 9 out of 10 screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap. They have found that it keeps their skin satiny and soft—always. And all the great film studios have made this white fragrant soap the official soap in their dressing rooms.
