

FIRE DESTROYS MATSUDA DRYER AND HOP CROP

Independence—The hop houses and cooling room containing the entire hop crop of C. D. Matsuda, Japanese, was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon.

A call for help was sent to this city and the fire truck made a quick run to the scene of the fire, but the fire had gained rapid advance before they arrived and all they could do was to protect surrounding buildings.

The Matsuda farm is located about five miles south of town and the origin of the fire is unknown. The buildings were new having been built two years ago. He will rebuild.

CORVALLIS YWCA SECRETARY NAMED

Independence—Mrs. Ralph W. Parker, wife of Prof. Parker of this city, has been selected to head Y. W. C. A. activities at the Agricultural college in Corvallis and will take up her duties there the first of the week.

Mrs. Parker is well qualified to do this work. She is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, Oregon Normal school and has had four years of teaching experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker will maintain their home here, having leased the W. G. Grant residence. Mr. Parker is manual training instructor in the local high school.

AMITY SISTERHOOD PLANS FALL BAZAAR

Amity—"The Sisterhood" of the Christian church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. A business meeting was held and plans made for the bazaar that will be held later in the fall.

A social hour was enjoyed by all present. Those present were Mesdames George Richardson, Etta Day, L. McClure, H. R. Martin, E. L. Green, J. W. Roth, M. E. Brown, Eva Robinson and Carl Martin.

HUTCHENS DISPOSES OF FARM PROPERTY

Independence—Ed Hutchens, justice of the peace for this district, has disposed of his small farm west of town to Mr. Crocker and will move his family to town giving possession of the farm October 1. The judge could not do justice to farming and keep up his office practice which requires much of his time.

The family will occupy the William Addison property.

FLAX STUBBLE MAKES SPECTACULAR BLAZE

Unionvale—After the precautionary measure of plowing fire guards of the 13 acre upland field of flax stubble in the E. M. Alderman farm, was set on fire and a most spectacular display was witnessed by neighbors Wednesday evening and Thursday forenoon.

The flax on this land had been harvested for the seed. Because of the expected detrimental drying condition that the fiber would produce on the land, is the reason for burning it while dry so that none will be left on the ground as might be the case if left until rain set in, Mr. Alderman reports.

LEAVE FOR EUGENE Falls City—Richard Horn and Harry Otto left Friday for Eugene where they will enter the University of Oregon. Richard is a senior and Harry will be a sophomore this year.

PASTURE FIRE BURNS Dayton—A pasture fire in the Dr. Bishop farm about two miles north of Dayton, caused much excitement until it was controlled Friday.

CHURCH REVIEW SHOWS RESULTS IN WEST SALEM

West Salem—The Sunday morning sermon subject for the Ford Memorial church will be, "A Review of the Year's Work", and the evening topic will be "Quit You Like Men," with the pastor, Rev. M. A. Groves, preaching at both services.

There will be special music both morning and evening including a selection by the choir and some numbers by the John Priesan family, at the evening service.
Lyle Thomas will lead the senior league and Mrs. Floyd DeLapp, the young married people's league.
Sunday, September 29 will complete the year's work of the present pastor, Rev. Groves. Considerable has been accomplished in the church during the past year including payment on the indebtedness, improvement of the church lot and organization of a Woman's Foreign Missionary society. The church also conducted a vacation Bible school for two weeks this past summer.
A chorus choir has recently been organized and is being directed by Mrs. Jewell Brinkley. It is planned to have the choir a feature of the Sunday evening services for the fall and winter.
A junior choir is being planned for the morning services.

WORK IS RUSHED ON DAYTON BRIDGE

Dayton—A great deal of preliminary work has been done on the county bridge repairing over the Yamhill river at the east city limits at Dayton on the paved highway, without in any way inconveniencing traffic and the same is true of the culvert and fill at the west city limits. A supply of material has been assembled and contractors in charge will rush the work to completion, officers of the Dayton bank report.

DEPARTING TEACHER HONORED AT PARTIES
