

JULIA SIMPKIN NATIONAL YWCA OFFICER TAKEN

Dayton—Mrs. Julia Elizabeth Simpkin, 66, wife of Rev. Peter A. Simpkin and sister of Miss Catherine Burnard and Dr. H. W. Burnard of Dayton, died Friday morning after an illness of several months at Dayton.

Rev. and Mrs. Simpkin are both nationally known, Simpkin being the chaplain of the Lumbermen's Fraternity for the United States and Canada while Mrs. Simpkin was for some years an executive officer of the Y. W. C. A. with headquarters in New York City.

Mrs. Simpkin was born at Broadhead, Wis., September 8, 1866, the youngest daughter of Rev. William Henry Burnard, a Congregational minister.

The body was taken Saturday to Salt Lake City, Utah, for interment. Rev. Simpkin was pastor of Phillips' Congregational church, Salt Lake City, for over 22 years, from which services were held Monday.

Three children survive, Mrs. Gay F. Anderson and Joseph William Simpkin of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Dr. John M. Simpkin, Marshfield, Ore.

MERRILL FUNERAL RITES AT ALBANY

Albany—Henry Fall Merrill, 75, a resident and business man of Albany for the past 50 years, and a native of New York City, died at his home in Albany Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Baptist church with burial in the Riverside cemetery.

Merrill married Miss Elizabeth Althouse in 1882, by whom he is survived. He is also survived by four children, a daughter, Elizabeth Merrill, Albany, public librarian, and three sons, Dr. Harry P. Merrill of South Pasadena and Dr. John A. Merrill of Monterey, Cal., and Edwin E. Merrill of Los Angeles, Cal.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocodile that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the crocodile goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
