Local Folk At State Meeting

Mrs. Ora Bear of Turber and Mrs. Jennie McClellan of Stayton, are representing the county W. C. T. U. and Mesdames Rachel Reeder, Elmira Reed, Catherine White and H. W. Shanks are representing the Salem W. C. T. U. at the 46th annual convention of the Oregon organization which opened Monday in Pendleton for a four-day program.

The national president, who is also vice-president of the World W. C. T. U., Dr. Ella A. Boole, will be the important guest and speaker at the convention.

Dr. Boole is internationally famous as a speaker and for her work in promoting prohibition. She is, too, an author of many articles and books on temperance and is one of the internationally famous women in the councils of the Presbyterian church, being the only deaconess-at-large in that denomination. She is a member of all the important national committees connected with prohibition, is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Federation of Women's Clubs and a trustee of her alma mater, Wooster college, from which she received the degree of doctor of philosophy.

A board meeting will open the convention with program at 1 p. m. Monday in the convention headquarters, the Christian church in Pendleton. Mrs. Ada Jolley, president of the state W. C. T. U., will give her annual address in the afternoon and reports will be made by Mrs. Alice Thomas, treasurer, the auditor and other officers. At the formal banquet in the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening at 6:30 o'clock, at which Mrs. Jolley will preside as toastmistress, Mayor Lee J. Mackee of Pendleton; James E. Akey of the Commercial association; Mrs. Esther A. F. May and Mrs. W. I. Gadwa of the county and Pendleton organizations, Mrs. Boole will talk on "Eternal Vigilance and Price of Prohibition."

Star Benefit Event Tuesday

A number of tables have been reserved for the card benefit to be sponsored by the social club of Chadwick Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple Tuesday afternoon. Reservations are being made with Mrs. George M. King, 1093R, and Mrs. O. A. Olson, 758R, and provisions are also being made for a number of extra tables for those who have not made reservations. Both bridge and 500 will be in play, playing starting at 2 o'clock.

In addition to those already mentioned who have secured reservations, others who have secured tables are Mrs. S. B. Gillette, Mrs. C. Hawley, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Lloyd LeGarde, Mrs. Earl Duce, Mrs. C. L. Forge, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Robert J. Gilton, Mrs. T. A. Raffety and Mrs. Deaman.

The program to be given just before the tea hour, arranged by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith and Mrs. Joy Turner Moses, will include violin selection by Cleo Seeley, readings by Doris Unruh and piano and violin numbers by students of Joy Turner Moses. Mrs. C. P. Hoop and Mrs. Mary Johnson, co-worshipmistress of Chadwick chapter, will preside at the serving urns.

The Salem business and professional women's club will hold their regular meeting Tuesday at a 6:30 dinner in the Marion hotel. Miss Elva Fischer, mistress, will be assisted by Miss Irene Breithaupt and Miss Beale McCloud. Mrs. Signe Paulsen, chairman of the program committee, is in charge of the entertainment.

The Woman's Bible class of the First Methodist church have postponed their regular meeting on Friday, October 25, to a week later. In order that the class meeting shall not conflict with the session of the council of church women, also meeting in Salem on October 25. The class meeting was to be held at the home of Mrs. R. K. Orling.

Pimples Cleared Away

Muncie, Ind.—"Resinol Soap has worked wonders for me. I had been bothered for a few years with pimples on my face and had tried various soaps and lotions in an effort to overcome this condition, but without success. Resinol Soap was recommended to me, so I tried it and have used it ever since. It not only restored my skin to a healthy normal condition, but it has kept it so." (Signed) Mrs. J. O. Dailey.

Resinol is recommended by doctors everywhere for almost all types of skin disorders—eczema, rashes, pimples, cloudy complexion. Spread on a little Resinol. Cleanse at night, then wash off with Resinol Soap and hot water in the morning. Do this once a day. Try it yourself. At all druggists.

For free sample of each, write Resinol, Dept. 69, Baltimore, Md.

Wedding Solemnized At Home

One of the most charming weddings of the autumn was that of Mrs. Klytia Ankeny to Ben Dorris of Eugene, which was solemnized Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. G. Malaga. Thirty relatives and intimate friends were present for the ceremony.

The service was read by Dr. Fred C. Taylor, pastor of the First Methodist church, before the fireplace at one end of the spacious living room. A long basket of pale pink lavender and white baby and pom-pom chrysanthemums, combined with trailing fern, was placed on the mantel and flanked by tall white tapers. Fall baskets of chrysanthemums and gladioli, in hues of pink, lavender and white, were placed on each side of the mantel. Pails and baskets of flowers were used in profusion about the rooms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, G. M. Cornett of Prineville, was gowned in pale pink lace, made with long waist, pleated skirt and sleeves. She carried a beautiful bride's bouquet. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. H. G. Malaga, whose beaded frock was of pink crepe. Little Molly Jean Malaga, the flower girl, was also gowned in a dainty pink frock.

Floyd Cook of Portland was the best man.

Miss Georgia Merrifield played the wedding march. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. E. V. McKeeth sang "I Love You Truly" and Miss Iva Clair Love gave violin numbers.

An informal reception was held following the service. Mrs. Roy Simmons and Mrs. Vivian Oatts of Portland cut and served the ices and the bride's cake. A low basket of roses centered the pretty tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris left for a wedding trip by motor and will later make their home in Eugene. For her going away costume, the bride wore a brown velvet dress, with hat, coat and accessories, all in brown.

Central Deanery Here Thursday

The central deanery of the women's auxiliary of the Episcopal church will meet Thursday at St. Paul's parish house. The session will start at 11 o'clock, luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock and a program will be given in the afternoon.

More than 50 women from Eugene, Corvallis, McMinnville, Woodburn, Salem, Newport and Toledo, are expected to attend the sessions.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley is president of the central deanery, and Mrs. Sarah DeLisle is treasurer-secretary.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will sponsor a bridge tea Tuesday, October 29, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Pollock, 602 North Winter street. Reservations are being made with Mrs. Pollock.

IF BACK OR KIDNEYS ACHIE DRINK WATER

Drink Freely and Often to Flush the Kidneys, Also Take Salts

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then get fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. adv

Miss Holt Honor Guest At Party

Mrs. A. M. Jerman and Miss Maimi Victor were hostesses at the German country home north of Salem for a delightful evening of bridge, complimenting Miss Grace Holt, charming bride-elect. Plans for Miss Holt's wedding to James Young, which will be quietly solemnized at the U. G. Holt home on November 6, were announced at the party.

Miniature baskets of vivid autumn flowers were used on the card tables and larger baskets of flowers were effectively placed about the living rooms.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. W. A. Winters, Mrs. Trevor Kincaid, Mrs. Orris Fry, and Miss Elizabeth Gill, all of Portland; Mrs. Ray Glatt, Mrs. Eugene Courtney and Mrs. John Hunt, all of Woodburn.

Salem maids and matrons bidden to the smart affair were Miss Holt, the honor guest, Mrs. John Farrar, Mrs. P. M. Chittenden, Mrs. Ted Chambers, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Claude Steusloff, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. M. B. McKenney, Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. Oliver Jessup, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Kathryn Hartley, Miss Dorathia Steusloff, Miss Beryl Hill, Miss Olga Gray, Miss Louise Williamson, Miss Cecile Knox, Miss Bertha Eckerlin, Miss Nancy Sawyer, Miss Velma Gilliam, and Miss Ola Clark.

Mrs. Doughton Hostess Monday

Mrs. I. M. Doughton entertained members of the L'Heur Gale club with a 1 o'clock luncheon and an afternoon of bridge in the Elks club house Monday.

Tiny French maidens centered the attractive luncheon table where covers were placed for Mrs. B. B. Flack, Mrs. E. E. Lutz, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. A. C. Nelson, Mrs. George L. Forge, Mrs. Guy Lewis, Mrs. W. H. Hogan, Mrs. C. Y. McKelvey, Mrs. F. M. Moore, and the hostess, Mrs. Doughton.

Three tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon.

Mothers Guests of Golden West Group

Members of the Golden West club of the W. B. A. entertained their mothers at the first meeting of the club year held Friday night at the home of Mrs. F. L. Waters. A musical program was enjoyed, and refreshments were served late in the evening.

In the group were the following guests: Mrs. Mee, Mrs. Rosella Barringer, Mrs. Jennie Miller, Mrs. F. M. Woodard, Mrs. Bertha Patterson, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, Mrs. Casement and Mrs. F. L. Waters. Club members present were Miss Florence Casement, Miss Leola Crossan, Miss Alice Mee, Miss Lavelle Keene, Miss Edith Patterson, Miss Lucille Barringer, Miss Leone Casement and Miss Bebe Donella.

Needless Suffering

The next time a headache makes you stay at home—

Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement—

Remember Bayer Aspirin! For there is scarcely any pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To colds that might so easily be checked; to neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Bayer Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

For your own protection, buy the genuine. Bayer is safe. It's always the name. It never depresses the heart, so use it as often as needed; but the cause of any pain can be treated only by a doctor.

Five Salem young people have been selected by John Stark Evans of the school of music at the University of Oregon, as members of the university philharmonic choir and glee club of 110 voices, according to the lists made public this week. Among the group of 110 singers are Misses Nancy Thielson and Margaret Sims, altos; Miss Helen Adlman, soprano, and Ed Fisher and Dale Robbins, baritones, all of Salem.

Seventy Guests at Silver Wedding

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Laughlin of Astoria, was celebrated Saturday when Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings were hosts in their home on North Winter street. Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin were married in Shaw Falls, N. Y., and have numerous friends in Salem and vicinity.

Baskets of gladioli and vivid dahlias were used about the living rooms and in the entrance hall of the Cummings home. A program of music and readings was given, with numbers by Miss Lucille Cummings, Miss Lois Plummer, Mr. O. A. Noyes and Miss Evelyn Cummings. Numerous gifts, letters and telegrams were received by Mrs. Laughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin renewed their marriage vows, with the Rev. Gardner of the Jason Lee church officiating, as an impressive part of the afternoon program.

More than 70 guests called during the afternoon, among whom were included: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Laughlin, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bunn, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Sawyer and Richard, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George L. Summings, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hill, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Merl Muehlhaupt, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miss Ramseyer Bride of Mr. Hersch

Miss Lina Ramseyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ramseyer, became the bride of Fred Hersch, son of Mrs. Matilda Herz, at an impressive ceremony in the Ranneyer country home east of Salem Sunday at 3 o'clock. The Rev. J. M. Franz, pastor of the Mennonite church at Pratum, officiated in the presence of 30 immediate relatives and friends of the bridal couple.

The bride was gowned in a frock of eggshell satin, made in princess style with long, uneven hemline. Her lace and tulle veil was caught into a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. Her only ornament was a necklace of crystals, the gift of the groom.

The only attendant of the bride was Miss Marguerite Bailey, who wore a frock of orchid silk and carried an arm bouquet of orchid chrysanthemums.

Carl Ramseyer, youngest brother of the bride, was best man. Miss Evelyn Herz played the wedding march from Lohengrin, and accompanied Miss Alice Hersch, another sister of the groom, who sang "Truly" immediately preceding the ceremony.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. A quartet, including Ben and Dave Ramseyer, Theo. Rich and Carl Egulman, gave a number of vocal selections. The Misses Little, Bertha and Elma Schuts set the ices and served the bridal cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Hersch left immediately after the reception for a wedding trip by motor. They will make their home on the Hersch ranch in the Wallace hills.

Several attractive pre-nuptial affairs were given for the bride, Mrs. J. L. Busick and Mrs. Claude Busick were hostesses recently for a delightful shower, when a number of beautiful gifts were presented to the honor guest. The affair was held in the charming J. L. Busick home, and covers were placed for 12 at the luncheon table decorated with pink flowers and tapers. Mrs. D. C. Ramseyer also entertained for the bride with an interesting shower in her home.

Members of the Alpha Phi Alpha entertained 50 young people of the Willamette university, set, at a treasure hunt Saturday night at the sorority house on Oak street. Mrs. W. V. Johnson, house mother, Mrs. Alda Gale Curry and Prof. and Mrs. Forrest W. Gaw were chaperones for the affair.

The rooms of the sorority house were decorated to represent a pirate's den. At the end of the treasure hunt, with the chest containing gifts of huge ear-rings for the girls and pirate key-rings for the men, the party returned to the house for a cabaret program. Delores Mills sang a group of songs, accompanying herself on her ukulele, and Willard Moses also gave a group of popular numbers. A late supper was served at small cabaret tables, each centered with a tall candle, the only lighting used throughout the rooms.

Mrs. S. L. Moorhead and daughter, Mrs. Otto Hoyer, of Castle Rock, Wash., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Libburn. Mrs. Libburn is another daughter of Mrs. Moorhead.

Mrs. R. R. Daniels entertained members of the Minerva club at her home Thursday afternoon. Fall flowers were used attractively about the living rooms. Sewing was enjoyed before the tea hour.

Members present were Mrs. E. R. Adams, Mrs. Leslie Boytana, Mrs. Frank Prince, Mrs. Joe Ringwald, Mrs. C. H. Ringwald, Mrs. Joe Turner, Mrs. W. F. Thompson, Mrs. Dory Ward, and the hostess, Mrs. R. R. Daniels.

One of the outstanding events of the coming week will be the benefit dance to be given Saturday night. (Additional Society on Page 8)

HILLS BROS' Big idea in roasting coffee is a little at a time

No BULK-ROASTING method can be as exact as Hills Bros' continuous process—Controlled Roasting. Since only a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters, every berry is roasted evenly. The result is a matchless uniform flavor always.

Maison Premet

(famous creator of brilliant costumes for smart Parisiennes)

says . . . "The Fall clothes reflect the spirit of the age. They aim to transform every body line into a flowing, harmonious expression of dynamic grace and beauty. But whether they do this depends largely on the shoes selected for each ensemble. Footwear must beautify the foot, as the frock beautifies the body, in terms of glorious freedom and vibrant activity, to permit a woman to look her best."

Jane Chulatte
Directress Maison Premet

AND now the American woman who looks to Paris for her clothes inspiration finds in the new Selby Arch Preserver Shoes the ultimate expression of her needs and desires in footwear, attuned to every ensemble and every occasion.

New lightness and grace in the shoe itself give new fleetness to the step, new grace to the carriage, fluid beauty of motion to the figure. New high heels and narrow shanks emphasize the high curve of the instep, and heighten the foot's natural charm.

But even more amazing is the skill which has hidden in each smart shoe all the famous Arch Preserver assurances of foot happiness and vigor . . . the arch bridge that prevents all awkward strain, the metatarsal support that keeps the step elastic and young, the flat crosswise inner sole that permits complete freedom of action to nerves, muscles and blood-vessels.

Trim street shoes, svelte afternoon models, distinctive designs for evening, await you in our collection of the new Selby Arch Preserver foot-
