TURNER BOY JOINS ARMY AIR SERVICE

Turner—Robert Bauman, a graduate of Turner high school last year, is now in the army aviation service and stationed at Luke Field, in the Hawaiian Islands. In a letter to friends in Turner he states that he is soon to enter the motor school at the port of Honolulu to study airplane mechanics, the first step in the army air service. Later will come ground flying with a final commission as pilot.

Bauman reports he is enjoying it immensely, the scenery and climate very much to his liking. He left San Francisco about the middle of August taking six days to make the trip by transport. The field at which he is stationed is about 12 miles from Honolulu. At present he is attached to the 65th Service squadron.

Young Bauman resided on a farm a short distance south of Turner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calavan, while attending school here. His parents have since moved to Bend, Ore., where they now reside.

Coal Discovered In Digging Well On Shaw Farm

Shaw — Joe Robl reports that while digging in his well last week he found a piece of coal.

This coal was found at a depth of nearly 21 feet, the vein being about a foot thick. They secured a trailer full of it and Mr. Robl says it burns like any other coal.

After passing through the coal strata there was found blue sand, which is believed is an indication of oil.

PAINT HELPS LOOKS OF TURNER'S CHURCH

Turner—The appearance of the Turner Christian church has been greatly enhanced by a coat of paint. The paint is a waterproofing job as well as a covering. The edifice now is one of the most attractive buildings in the valley. The work of applying the waterproofing has been done by Jay Denhem, assisted by U. S. Talbott. The members of the church voted the painting be done as a preservative measure.

Rev. J. E. Gilstrap, pastor of the Christian church, reports that the response to the musical leadership of Dr. H. C. Epley of Salem, is exceptional. He has a splendid chorus and orchestra assisting him. Some real community sings are being planned for in the near future. Everyone is speaking well of the friendly services in the church this fall under the able leadership of Rev. Gilstrap.

CARNIVAL HAS LARGE CROWDS AT JEFFERSON

Jefferson—One of the most successful high school carnivals here, was held at the school house Friday afternoon and evening. A large and enthusiastic crowd, both in the afternoon and evening, was in attendance and there was something doing in the line of entertainment every minute.

Elaborate booths represented the holidays of the year and the refreshments sold corresponded with the season. The seniors booth represented Independence day; juniors, Hallowe'en; sophomores, Thanksgiving; freshmen, Christmas; Girls' League, May Day. Numerous novelties and side shows afforded additional entertainment.

The pantomime "Hearts Lost and Found," a scene of western life, was given with the following cast: Beautiful Beulah, Gladys Calahan; Handsome Harry, Robert Harris; Four Gun Freeman, Max Myers; Ukelele Uncas, Charles Smith; Band of Indians, John Kiha, John Wright and Harold Hjalmson; curtains, Emilin McCaw and Margaret Goin; reader, Mary Louise Fontaine.

A picture show featuring William Boyd in "The Cop" and other shorter reels were given in the school auditorium by R. J. Stumbo at 7:30 o'clock. Half the proceeds were turned over to the high school.

Prizes were given to the winners of the beauty and popularity contests. Elda Wintermantle was voted the prettiest girl and Loel Bilyeu the most popular. Charles Smith and Kenneth Seipp tied in the boys popularity contest.

The student body gave two cash prizes to the class having the best decorated booth and to the class making the largest profit. The sophomore booth was judged the most artistic. It will not be known until later who wins the latter prize.

Two peppy basketball games were played. The senior and freshman girls vs. juniors and sophomores, played, the score being 16 to 14 in favor of the seniors and freshmen. The alumni was defeated in a game with the high school boys. The score was 34 to 5.

Over $125 was realized from the affair and the students and teachers are much pleased with the results and also with the interest shown by the patrons of the school.
