

TURKEY DEMAND IMPROVES; EGGS REMAIN STEADY

Portland, Ore. (UP)—Market for eggs was without change for the week end sessions. The co-ops reported prices steady at the late advance here but the east has of recent date declined lower.

Somewhat better demand for shipment is shown in the market for turkeys although prices are unchanged. Carload business is indicated. The call continues only for fancy dressed birds.

Quite serious scarcity of chickens is shown in the local trade and a general scramble for requirements is indicated. Some of the country branches have at last started to pay prices in line with those in the city.

With the demand for immediate needs rather pressing, a shortage of potatoes is indicated. The Deschutes is filling some back orders and has not offered anything during the last week. This has brought business into the Klamath section from where the freight rate is higher.

There remains a lagging tone in the onion market here. Country business has ceased with the exception of an occasional carload. Growers generally are not inclined to press sales. Buyers feel the same way.

Very liberal demand continues for carload lots of celery. A firm price is reported by distributors and during the week demand has been in excess of the available cut. The Japanese association will start to cut Monday.

WIFE TO HELP FALL WIN VINDICATION

amount they owe Doheny—something to add to her own small income, which she said is sufficient to keep the family from want.

Vehemently and with some indignation, she denied reports that Doheny has supported them since their troubles began. The family is, and has been since the crash, and will be sustained on the returns from investments made with her own inheritance, she said.

Still maintaining Fall's innocence of bribery, she repeated with spirit: "If he were guilty, I would be." For she had been with him step for step, she added, since he was 21 and she was 18, and that was 48 years ago.

"We are going to use every means to prove our innocence," she said, using the pronoun with a casualness born of having employed it those many decades when telling of her husband's career. She smiled as she explained she always said, "When we were on the bench," and "when we were in the cabinet."

One way of vindication she sees is the publication of "the whole story" of Albert B. Fall. She wants the world to have a picture of his romance from prospecting days, and hopes to see it in print before she dies. Several writers already have signified eagerness to undertake the task, and she is planning to cooperate now.

SENATE TO VOTE BINGHAM CENSURE

fore adjournment the senate approved increases sponsored by Alabama democrats, in duties to protect the graphite industry.

Although only two days ago a White House statement said President Hoover was anxious that the senate complete work on the measure within two weeks, efforts to proceed Saturday proved fruitless.

The recess was taken as Senator Smoot of the finance committee sought to bring up manganese in the metals schedule.

Smoot served notice he would consider on Monday of every paragraph of the first three rate schedules which have been passed over and a vote on those before proceeding with other schedules.

Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, protested against Saturday being made a "day of leisure" for some senators and a day of work for others.

Senator Borah of Idaho, a leader of the republican independents, suggested that the agriculture schedule, located in the middle of the bill, be taken up and that the senate dispose of those rates not susceptible to prolonged discussion.

Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, called attention to the absence of several senators from agricultural states and said it would not be fair to them if this were done—so that eliminated agriculture as a vehicle for progress.

Borah then asked that the senate take a recess until Monday and Smoot, plainly irritated, made the motion.

WOMAN BARBER SAYS MEN BEST PATRONS

Providence, R. I. (UP)—Opportunity for local males to get barbered by a member of the gentler sex will be offered when Mrs. Zula Arnold, former beauty shop attendant, opens her barber shop here "for men only."

Men, says Mrs. Arnold, are "less vain" and "not as cantankerous." She believes and is willing to demonstrate that she can give as good a "shave and haircut" as any man.

MAKES GRUESOME FIND

Tulare, Cal. (UP)—O. B. Moore was cleaning up his garage here, struck his hand into a mass of debris and felt a cold hand in his own. It was a real human hand, severed at the wrist. Moore later found that the hand was a laboratory specimen of his brother, a medical student.
