ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM GIVEN BY RELIEF CORP

Hubbard—The Armistice program at the city hall proved most attractive Monday evening, all the numbers receiving enthusiastic applause.

The principal number on the program was an address by Charles F. Walker, president of the North-Western Business college. Other numbers on the program were the glee club in the "Volga Boatman" and "Baccaro" under the direction of Miss Adeline Zucher and the high school orchestra in appropriate selections under the direction of Dr. A. F. de Lespinaque.

The Women's club quartette, Messdames Merle Stewart, Ella Stauffer, Lois Miller and Sadie Scholl, accompanied by Mrs. Kathleen Beckman, made its first appearance at a public program and was enthusiastically received. Mrs. Ethel Hilly sang "The Bells of St. Mary," accompanied by Mrs. Beckman at the piano. Helen Knight of the senior class, read her essay, "Armistice."

The program was under the direction of Professor J. R. Bidgood, principal of the school and was sponsored jointly by the school and the Relief corps.

SCOTT'S MILLS P-T MEETINGS STARTED

Scotts Mills—The first P. T. A. meeting since organization was held in the high school room with Mrs. Nellie Robinson, chairman. The constitution and by-laws as handed in by the committee were read and adopted.

Mrs. Martin Hanan, president of the Silverton P. T. A. was present and gave a report of the state meeting just recently held at Grants Pass which was very interesting. Mrs. Carl Specht, also of Silverton, gave a short report on the district convention just held at Monitor a short time ago.

As this P. T. A. is young, having just organized, both women offered suggestions which was appreciated and will no doubt prove helpful. The regular meeting night was changed to the second Thursday in each month instead of the first as first stated.

Newly installed officers are: Mrs. Maude McGee, grand regent; Miss Anne Erwert, vice-grand regent; Mrs. Valeria Begin, financial secretary; Mrs. Rose Appleby, historian; Miss Hilda Eberle, treasurer; Mrs. Carolina Aman, sentinel; Mrs. Rose Koesler, lecturer; Miss Elizabeth Unger, prophetess; Miss Hilda Eberle, organist; and Mrs. Antonette Klingner and Mrs. Veronica Ehner, trustees.

GUILD HAS MEETING

Woodburn—St. Mary's Episcopal Guild was entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Wolfe in Hall addition Tuesday afternoon. The regular monthly business was transacted following which the members enjoyed a social hour. Mrs. Wolfe was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Harold Austin and Mrs. Ella Hartman.

BROUGHER HOME SCENE OF FESTIVITY

Scotts Mills—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brougner had for their dinner guests Monday a number of their children and families. They were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brougner and infant son of Clatskanie, Mrs. Boby Munnahill and daughter Ruby Harriet of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brougner of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coulson and daughters, Margaret and Mildred and son Edgar of this place, and Mrs. Brougner, who is home.

A pleasant evening was spent at the A. L. Brougner home Friday in honor of their son Ira's birthday. The young folks of his Sunday school class of the Friends church were guests and the evening was spent in a social way playing games.

STUDENTS WRECKED BY SLICK PAVEMENT

Jefferson—Slick pavement was the cause of several wrecks between Jefferson and Salem Saturday and Sunday. Two wrecks occurred near the D. H. Looney farm. Too much speed in making the curve caused a Corvallis car with two occupants to skid off the highway and overturn directly in front of the Looney residence early Saturday morning. Not much damage was done to the car and no one was injured. Sunday another accident occurred near the same place.

Fast driving caused a car in which a group of U. of O. students were returning to Eugene, to skid off the road into the ditch at Stewer prune orchard and several of the students received minor injuries. Passing motorists brought them to Jefferson, where Dr. J. C. Van Winkle dressed their wounds. The car was badly wrecked.

WESTERN Girl Prize Winner...

"MARY JO was delicate and nearly always fretful," says Mrs. T. D. McGinnis, 1028 Drexel Avenue, San Antonio. "She was all over the place; didn't want to eat and couldn't digest her food right."

"California Fig Syrup has changed all that; and made her a different girl. It regulated her bowels quickly, improved her appetite and digestion. She has had no trouble since; but has continued to gain until today friends say she's a regular prize winner for health."

Mothers by thousands are praising California Fig Syrup. Physicians endorse it. A pure vegetable product; it is safe for any child. The prompt relief it brings biliousness, head-ache, constipated children later; because it helps tone and strengthen bowels and stomach. Appetite increases; digestion improves with its use! A youngster's entire system benefits. Next time bad breath, coated tongue or feverishness warn of constipation, try it with your child and see how it helps!

When buying, look for the name California; that marks the genuine product, famous for 60 years.
