Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubbore, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that follow severs cold epidemics.

From any druggist, get 21½ ounces of Pilex, point it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar gyup or strained borey. Thus you make a full sint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cust. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like H.

Not only does this simple mixture section and beat the inflamed throat membranes with surprising case, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the branchial tubes, thus siding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It isosens the germinaten phisem and saves chest secures in a way that is really autonishing.

Fince is a highly concentrated compound of gennine Norway Pine, constaining the active agent of crossote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more belying in cases of distressing caughs, chest colds, and branchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Piner, it is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

group, Mrs. Alice Fisher, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. Mary Johnson; and for the sorority members. Miss Irene Breithaupt was toast-mistress at the banquet. Responses for the senior group were made by Miss Leona Ciothier; for the junior group, Miss Margaret Warnke; for the sophomore group, Miss Heien Stiles; and for the new sorority members, Miss Dorothy Eastridge.
