

PRODUCE FIRM, FEAR SHORTAGE IN CRANBERRIES

Portland, Ore. (UP)—The butter market was reported steady here Monday. There was no change in the general trading basis for eggs...

General conditions in the live chicken market continues favorable here with no change in either buying or selling values despite the nearness of the holiday...

Only about 3 1/2 carloads of cranberries are held upon the Oregon-Washington border at this time, a condition which indicates a famine of the holiday fruit late in the season...

While little change is as yet shown in the local prices, sweet potato market here indicates an early advance due to the higher values being asked at the source...

Owing to the fact that every one is interested in turkey and other fowl, there is but little call for country killed meats of any sort...

With the California season getting more advanced, the lower prices asked in the south have influenced the local trade...

Because of the scant offerings together with the greater demand California produce prices are higher here. Fancy beans are arriving and selling 22 cents pound...

Celery is too green for carload business generally and prices are firm but nominally steady. Orange market is quiet.

Potato trade is quiet but prices appear steady. Demand for onions continues slow. Markets are well supplied with seasonable fish and shell food...

Letting more call for sizeable heads. Small stuff not so high. Nut market still dull with more or less price shading on walnuts.

PLANNING TO PLANT BLUEBERRY RANCH

John Diem of Salem has purchased a tract of land on the south side of Yaquina bay, known as South Beach, and is preparing to put blueberries under cultivation...

PORTLAND TURKEY MARKET SUPPLIED

Portland, (UP)—Turkey sales over Sunday were generally 2 1/2 to 3 cents pound for the selected birds, few moving at the higher mark...
