Pre-Nuptial Affairs For Bride-Elect

Miss Ruth Griffith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith, whose marriage to Jack Stump, Jr., of Monmouth, will be solemnized at a pretty ceremony in the Griffith home this coming Saturday, is being feted with a number of charming pre-nuptial affairs.

Mrs. John Caughell, Jr. and Miss Katherine Hartley entertained for Miss Griffith with an evening of bridge and a kitchen shower in the Hartley home Thursday evening. Five tables of bridge were in play, with the prizes going to Mrs. Brazier Small and Miss Lou Thompson. The popular bride-elect was presented with a number of useful gifts after the evening of cards. At a late hour Miss Prudence Patterson assisted Mrs. Caughell and Miss Hartley in serving refreshments.

In the group were the honor guest, Miss Griffith, her mother, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. Bert Ford, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Prudence Patterson, Miss Rovena Eyre, Miss Leah Ross, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. Dolph Craig, Miss Winifred Byrd, Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mrs. Asel Koff, Mrs. Foster Cone, Miss Lou Thompson, Mrs. Rex Adolph, and the hostesses, Miss Hartly and Mrs. Caughell.

Miss Leah Ross is entertaining for Miss Griffith with a theater party Monday night, and Tuesday afternoon Miss Lou Thompson is entertaining in the Thompson home on Chemsakta street with an interesting bridge tea honoring the bride-elect.

Church Group Elects Officers

Burlon Randall was elected to the presidency of the South Salem Friends senior Sunday school class at a class party held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miles. Other officers chosen during the brief business session included Virginia Ahalt, secretary; Nora Davidson, treasurer; and social committee chairman, Bernice Thurman.

Following the business session, games, community singing and a taffy pull was enjoyed by the group. Those present were Miss Gladys Scott, Miss Nora Davidson, Miss Bernice Thurman, Miss Mildred Jager, Miss Ruth Davis, Miss Anna Caiaba, Miss Virginia Alait, Miss Erna Baker, Alfred Haworth, Jack Trochuel, Burton Randall, Don Patton, Paul Patton, Roland Hardman, Mrs. B. J. C. Patton, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miles.

Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean will entertain on Thanksgiving day with an informal family dinner. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Bean of Umatilla county, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Larsen of Portland. Hawley Bean is a son and Mr. Larsen a daughter to Judge and Mrs. Bean.

Sororities Entertain At Open House

The three sorority houses at Willamette university held their annual open house for townspeople and university faculty and students Saturday night from 7:30 to 9 o'clock. A large number of visitors called during the hours at the Delta Phi, Alpha Phi Alpha and Beta Chi houses.

At the Delta Phi house, Miss Margaret Bolt received at the door, and Miss Pauline Findley introduced to the receiving line. In the line were Miss Mary Hersberger, house president; Mrs. Paul E. Edwards, house mother; Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman and Miss Margaret Pro.

The program Saturday night included instrumental numbers by Miss Helen Price, Miss Edith Findley and Miss Iva Claire Love, and vocal numbers by Miss Margorie Miller and Miss Lillian Scott. Presiding at the attractive table were Miss Florence Emmison and Miss Anna Lanke for the first half hour, and Miss Yvonne Cornell and Miss Mildred Cook for the second half hour.

Assisting in the serving were the Misses Mary Allen, Virginia Edwards, Emma Green, Jean Middleton, Dorothy Pemberton, Joyce Kidder, Elizabeth Atkinson, Dorothy Boshaud, Marian Breez, Kathryn Egan, Annie Fox and Betty Lewis.

Prof. M. E. Peck A. A. U. W. Speaker

Professor Morton E. Peck, of Willamette university, addressed members of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women, at a meeting Saturday in the home of Mrs. A. N. Bush. Prof. Peck discussed "super aircraft," or the flight of birds, tracing the development of flying from the creation of the first flying life to the comparison of the flight of migratory birds with man-made aircraft. The lecture proved to be one of the most interesting of the year. Following the talk, Mrs. Dodd led the group of women about the Bush home, informally discussing the various art treasures it contains.

Mrs. Asa Fisher, chairman of the Salem district sale of historical maps, displayed a sample of the A. A. U. W. project, and is historically and pictorially correct. Maps may be secured either from Mrs. Fisher or Miss Beryl Holt.

Miss Ann Boente will spend the holidays in Portland as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Boente.

Salem Women At Portland Meeting

A number of Salem women, members of Nydia temple, daughters of the Nile, motored to Portland Saturday to attend the Nile ceremonial in the ballroom of the Portland Masonic temple in the afternoon and the dinner and program at the Benson hotel Saturday evening.

Mrs. Charles E. Stricklin of Salem was among the large class of candidates on whom degrees of the order were conferred Saturday afternoon. Among Salem daughters of the Nile at the Portland ceremonial were Mesdames Addie Pettes, Louisa Mack, Martha Pratt, Vivian Erickson, Addie Dunford and Della Russell.
