

CIVIL CASES FILL DOCKET LINN'S COURT

Albany—Five civil cases will appear on the docket of the circuit court, department No. 1 with Judge Percy Kelly presiding, when it opens this week.

The civil case of E. O. Immel, trustee vs. the Albany Iron works, remanded by the Oregon supreme court for a new trial, will come up in this case the plaintiff as trustee for the Yagulla Harbor Lumber company is suing for $10,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained when the defendant seized property of the lumber concern in January, 1921.

The second case is that of Evelyn Plisk, Charles Maring, A. A. Irvin and Cathryn Irvin, vs. Margaret Ackerman as guardian of the late Delbert Ackerman, for damages alleged to have been sustained as a result of a fatal automobile accident on the Albany-Corvallis road last January. The four Ackerman suits ask for $45,000 damages. Young Ackerman drove the car that is said to have injured the limbs or property of the four plaintiffs and killed two persons besides Evelyn Plisk is suing for general damages of $20,000, and special damages of $22,789.95; Charles Maring for $20,000 general and $483.59 special damages; Cathryn Irvin for $2500 general damages and $100 special damages and A. A. Irvin for damages of $400 to his automobile, in which the Ackerman car crashed.

In addition the case of the state vs. George Powell, an appealed liquor possession case from Justice of the Peace Victor Oliver's court was set for trial.

SHRUNK INJURY FOUND SERIOUS

Independence—Wayne Shrank, former basketball star of the local high school, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident near the Hog place on the Salem-Dallas highway, Thanksgiving day, will be in the hospital until after the holidays as his injuries were more serious than first indicated. Forty-eight stitches were taken to close his scalp wounds and it was found that his pelvis was cracked. George Young, another local young man, who had several ribs cracked and other injuries in the same accident, is getting along nicely and expects to go home soon. Another brother, Roy Young, escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. A. J. Shipley, who was in the other car in the mix-up, is reported to be in a serious condition, having both legs fractured and other injuries.

A report of the national grange meeting at Seattle was given by Mrs. W. F. McCall, a candidate for election to the position of lecturer for the state grange.

BEN HAWKINS ILL

Auburn—Ben Hawkins, who is employed at the county road sheds, has been in a serious condition the past week with neuritis in the back.

Needless Suffering

The next time a headache makes you stay at home—
Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement—
Remember Bayer Aspirin! For there is scarcely any pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To acids that might so easily be checked; to neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Bayer Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

WHY SIGN AWAY BEAUTY?

(Awarded a First Prize of $250 in "Scenic or Sign-ic?" Contests)

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA announces WINNERS IN "SCENIC or SIGN-IC?" CONTESTS

Judges' awards distribute $3,725 among fifteen leading contestants.

CONGRATULATIONS and Christmas Greetings to the fifteen prize-winners in Standard Oil Company's four "Scenic or Sign-ic?" contests, inaugurated in September to heighten public interest in the preservation and improvement of our natural scenic beauty and in the removal of objectionable road signs.

Congratulations also to the "runners-up" who made decision so difficult that, in the end, two votes were reported and equal prizes were awarded to each tie-contestant. And congratulations to the newspapers, the civic bodies, garden clubs and women's organizations for the active interest they have aroused in sign-free scenic highways, as manifested by more than THIRTY THOUSAND ENTRIES in these four contests. Standard Oil Company of California, which several years ago removed 1,200 of its own signs from the highways of the Pacific West, wishes to express its sincere appreciation of the very active cooperation from so many sources in this further step toward highway beautification.

To the judges of the "Scenic or Sign-ic?" contests, the Standard Oil Company of California owes grateful acknowledgment which it makes to the following ladies and gentlemen: The Honorable Horace M. Albright, Director, National Park Service, U. S. Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.; Kathleen Norris, Palo Alto, California; The Honorable James D. Phelan, San Francisco, California; W. L. Valentine, Former President, Automobile Club of Southern California, Los Angeles, California; H. B. Van Duzer, Chairman, Oregon State Highway Commission, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. H. F. Alexander, Seattle Garden Club, Seattle, Washington; and David Whitcomb, Chairman, Executive Committee, Pacific Empire Association, Seattle, Washington.
