

DALLAS PASTOR RETURNED WITH LEAVE GRANTED

Dallas—At a board meeting of the members of the First Christian church, a unanimous call was extended to Rev. Orval D. Peterson to serve his fourth year for the Dallas church.

During the three years that Rev. Peterson has led the church, 242 new members have been added, membership has been built from 165 to 350 at present, and at one time was up to 460. The Bible school has had an high as 494 on a special day and averaged 238 members the last year. The debt contracted before Rev. Peterson was pastor, has been settled, the building itself has been painted, needed repairs made, and an adequate new heating system of two furnaces has been installed.

The board also voted to release Rev. Peterson in order to allow a three weeks evangelistic campaign which he is to conduct in the First Christian church at Albany sometime in January or February. Rev. Peterson will arrange for a pastor to fill his pulpit during his absence. Dr. Walter L. Meyers, chancellor of Eugene-Bible university, delivered the sermon Sunday evening. The local congregation was also shown pictures of the university, and its associated work, as demonstrated by Mrs. Vernon Silvers and Mrs. Fred Brook both of the university.

MRS. NANCY DAVIS BURIED WEDNESDAY

Albany—Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Pettibler Funeral home for Mrs. Nancy L. Davis, 57, who died at her home in Portland Monday. Burial was in the Riverside cemetery. Mrs. Davis was a former Linn county resident having lived at Peoria and Oakville for many years before going to Portland.

She is survived by three brothers and two sisters. The brothers are James Coon, Albany; A. B. Coon, Reno, Nev.; and A. O. Coon, Portland. The sisters are Mrs. Margaret Miller of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ida Christian of Portland.

WEST SALEM REPORTS WEEK END VISITORS

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson had as Sunday guests at their home on Kingwood avenue, a number of relatives and friends.

At the dinner hour covers were laid for Mrs. Minnie Anderson and Miss Joyce Anderson of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Iex and Mr. Herbert Rex of Independence, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell Young of Plaza street had as their week-end guests Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Nutting of Albany.

EPISCOPAL GUILD IS GUEST AT POORMAN'S

Woodburn—St. Mary's Episcopal guild was entertained at the home of Mrs. T. C. Poorman on Settlemier avenue Tuesday afternoon. Rev. George H. Swift, rector of St. Paul's church of Salem was a guest and gave an interesting talk during the business session. Other additional guests were Mrs. Lyman H. Shorey and Mrs. Blaine McCord. After an enjoyable social hour refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Keith Poore, Mrs. Blaine McCord and Mrs. Harold M. Austin.

WELLS ARE WALLED

Unionvale—John Hibbs and S. C. Dixon have dug wells and walled them with brick. Bert Krieger of McMinnville did the work on the 23-foot well for Hibbs, and Estel Wilson of Monmouth dug the 28-foot one for Dixon. The first day after Hibbs' well was completed he had 12 feet of water.

BRIDGE MADE WIDE

Hopmore—The new concrete bridge across Evans creek has been completed. Looking towards the future when there may be a 100-foot highway between Portland and Salem the bridge has been constructed of ample width to take care of heavy traffic.

PYTHIANS IN SESSION

Dallas—The Knights of Pythias held their regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening with Chancellor Commander Horace Embree in the chair. No new business was brought before the meeting.

TREATMENTS STARTED

Unionvale—Clarence L. Fowler is taking X-ray and radium treatments in Portland for a small growth on his lower lip which began similar to a cold sore about six weeks ago.

Break!

COLD 3 ways in a day

Don't broadcast a contagious cold. Don't let it undermine health. At the first sniffle or sneeze get quick, pleasant relief. Take Hill's because it stops cold in less time. Fights it 3 ways at once... 1. Checks fever... 2. Opens bowels, no griping... 3. Soothes system. Gentle. Safe for young and old.

Ask any druggist for the red box of HILL'S CASCARA-QUININE

IMPROVEMENTS MADE BY VALLEY FARMERS

Mt. Angel—A number of farmers in this locality are making extensive improvements on their farms. Bernard Duda has installed electric lights and a new water system. Guy Taylor of Scotts Mills drilled a new 120 foot well at Bernard Duda's, and a 165 foot well on the Andrew Wachter farm. Jack Bean installed electric lights on his farm, south of town.

EASTERN STAR AT WOODBURN HAS ELECTION

Woodburn—At the regular meeting of Evergreen Chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, held in Masonic temple Monday evening, the annual election of officers was held and the following were chosen for the ensuing year:

Mrs. Myrtle Gill, worthy matron; C. Ray Shaner, worthy patron; Mrs. Carolyn Evenden, associate matron; Jess Ekan, associate patron; Miss Minnie Richards, secretary; Miss Mabel Fikan, treasurer; Miss Elfa Lytle, conductress; Mrs. Lillian M. Bitney, associate conductress. Mrs. Martha Reiling was re-elected as a member of the board of Masonic trustees. The remaining officers are appointed and their selection will be announced by the worthy matron elect at a later date.

A special meeting will be held December 30 for the purpose of installation and the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Elma T. Havemann, will act as installing officer. At the next regular meeting, December 23, degrees will be conferred and refreshments will be served by the brothers of the chapter under the direction of C. Ray Shaner.

YOUNG MEN'S ORDER ACCEPTS MEMBERS

Mt. Angel—New members were taken in to the Young Men's Sodality at impressive services in St. Mary's church Sunday evening. Rev. Fr. Odillo, O. S. B., officiated. Members of the Young Ladies' Sodality acted as honorary guests.

The new members are William Bean, Joseph Stecklein, J. Schindler, Plus Miller, Jos. Grosjacques, William Imper, Jos. Nehl, George Foltz, G. Brockhaus, William Frank, Thomas Wachter, Robert Welton, Wilbert Kimlinger, Wilfred Kimlinger, Frank Terhaar, Louis LeDoux, Robert Appleby, Hubert Saalfeld, Robert Kehoe, Felix Masehorn, Stephen Sprauer, Arthur Henshorn, Walter Smith and John Wayra.

SIXTH BIRTHDAY IS FITTINGLY OBSERVED

Stayton—Lela Mae Bell entertained a group of her young schoolmates and friends at her home recently, celebrating her sixth birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games, following which a lunch was served the young folks by Mrs. Hal Shelton, Grace Ditter and Rose Bell.

TRADITIONAL TREE PLACED FOR SCHOOL

Dallas—In keeping with the tradition inaugurated in 1925, the seniors of the high school have placed a decorated tree in the hall near the entrance door, and it is expected the seniors will present a Christmas program for the student body as has been the custom in the past, though nothing has yet been said about the matter.

MACHINERY ADDED

Dallas—A new piece of machinery has been placed in operation in the manual training department of the high school. Constructed entirely by the boys of manual training I. and III, it is a lathe that will turn pieces of wood up to 20 inches in diameter and six feet in length. It is operated by a 1/2 h.p. motor.

SILVERTON CLUB PAST PRESIDENT PROGRAM GIVEN

Silverton—A special Christmas program was given honoring past presidents of the Silverton Woman's club at the regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Hubbs on Coolidge street.

Miss Rosella Richardson read a paper on Madona paintings and the painters of these. Miss Richardson had seen many of the originals on her European tour some time ago. Mrs. Edson Comstock eulogized the past presidents and telling of the splendid work they had done.

Tea was served after the program. Among the past presidents who attended were Mrs. C. M. Wray, Mrs. Ernest Palmer, Mrs. George Hubbs, Mrs. G. B. Benton, Mrs. Jay Morley and Mrs. Hugh Latham.

DRUNK CHARGES ARE FACED AT DALLAS

Dallas—Erwin Ballard is in the county jail here awaiting a hearing before Judge Ford Wednesday. He was arrested by Officer Neufeldt for drunkenness and disorderly conduct in a public place.

William Cutsforth was also arrested for being drunk in a pool hall here. His hearing is set for Wednesday and he furnished $15 bail.

EOLA CLUB MEETS; PROGRAM GIVEN

Eola—The Eola Community club was given a program and refreshments were served by Mrs. M. J. Delapp, chairman for the next meeting. Mrs. L. A. Ferguson and Mrs. L. Pugh are on the refreshment committee. Curtis Ferguson chairman of arrangement for a play to be given in the near future. Mrs. W. G. Gierke was appointed a committee of one to arrange for an electric light to be placed on the school grounds for the benefit of any one attending night meetings.

BROADMEAD MOTORIST HAS DAMAGED SEDAN

Dallas—The new sedan belonging to Arthur C. Christensen, of Broadmead, was badly damaged on the West Side Pacific highway near Monmouth late Monday afternoon when Christensen slowed down upon meeting another machine and a pedestrian. Another automobile back of him was unable to stop and skidded into his car and then into the ditch. The second machine bore a South Dakota license and was driven by a man named Cross. None of its occupants was injured.

In warm, train-comfort

$15 to $24

to Los Angeles

Extremely low fares good on four daily trains. By train you enjoy greater comfort and speed. Tickets good in coaches and in Tourist Sleepers

"West Coast," "Klamath," "Oregonian" and "Shasta" (no tourist sleeper on "Shasta"). The coach fare and tourist ticket save nearly half the regular travel cost.

Southern Pacific
CITY TICKET OFFICE
184 N. Liberty Telephone 80

NOTICE

Halik Electric Co.

is discontinuing their wholesale business and will hereafter place their efforts on the retail line—

10% to 20% Discount on all Electric Appliances

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

Tree Lights	Ranges
Waffle Irons	Percolators
Heaters	Toasters
Corn Poppers	Irons
Fixtures	Cords

BOSCH RADIOS

HALIK ELECTRIC CO.

PHONE 2
461 FRONT ST.—NEAR CENTER

THE SATURDAY AMERICAN

IF IT'S AN ADVERTISED WATCH - WE HAVE IT

Bulova's Lone Eagle
This is the famous Timekeeper named in honor of Colonel Lindbergh—Fifteen-jeweled movement—White Gold filled and dustproof case—A guaranteed timekeeper—Complete with flexible metal band to match—Cash or terms—$37.50. Delivered for a dollar—Paid for A Dollar a Week

Lady Bulova $29.75
In the style sketched—White Gold filled case with flexible metal bracelet to match—Sold at the cash price on the Burnett Budget Plan—(Twenty-Nine Seventy-Five). Take one for a dollar bill—Pay A Dollar a Week

Lady Constance $17.75
White Gold filled case in the style sketched—with a six-jeweled movement—a guaranteed timekeeper with a lot of style—Featured at Seventeen-Seventy-Five and sold on the Burnett Plan. Take one for half a dollar—Pay the balance Fifty Cents a Week

Milady Elgin $75
The finest timekeeper—and withal a "thing of beauty." White Gold case set with Diamonds—Fifteen-jeweled Elgin movement. Nationally advertised at Seventy-Five dollars and sold at the cash price on the Burnett Budget Plan. Take one for a dollar—Pay the balance One-Fifty a Week

Miss Liberty $37.50
A new creation by Bulova—White Gold case and flexible bracelet to match—set with Emeralds or Sapphires. Nationally advertised at Thirty-Seven-Fifty—Sold at the cash price—nothing extra to pay. Take one for a dollar—Pay A Dollar a Week

Elgin $41
This is the new Elgin model named after Harvey S. Firestone, famous tire maker—Seventeen-jeweled, distinctive White Gold filled case—unconditionally guaranteed. Sold at the cash price ($41)—Nothing extra to pay—Take one for a dollar—Pay A Dollar a Week

Elgin Bracelet Watch $29.50
In the style suggested in the sketch—White Gold filled case and flexible bracelet to match—stylish and dependable. Sold at the nationally advertised price on the Burnett Budget Plan. Take one for a dollar—Pay A DOLLAR A WEEK

Elgin Pariasienne $35
Modernistic Elgin for a lady fair—The White Gold filled case is enameled in black and colors—as gay as you please and as good as they look. Thirty-Five Dollars—Cash or Budget Plan, makes no difference. Pay a dollar down, and A DOLLAR A WEEK

Elgin Diamond Set Watch $85
Exquisitely beautiful—White Gold case, set with two diamonds—the movement has fifteen jewels—nothing finer that we know of—nationally priced at $85 cash—Here at the cash price—Take a year to pay. TWO DOLLARS A WEEK

Hamilton for Men $52
Yellow Gold filled case with the famous Hamilton seventeen-jeweled movement—Unconditionally guaranteed, of course—Sold at the advertised price—Fifty-Two dollars. Take one for a dollar—Pay the balance A Dollar a Week

Elgin—Masterpiece $43.50
White Gold filled case and seventeen-jeweled movement—both case and movement by Elgin—Unconditionally guaranteed, of course—Sold at the advertised price on the Burnett Budget Plan—$1 down and A Dollar a Week

Harwood, the Watch that Winds Itself
Next door to perpetual motion. A new invention by John Harwood, an English watchmaker who served in the "big push" winds itself—never goes wrong. Guaranteed, of course. Featured at Forty-Five Dollars. Sold for a dollar down and A Dollar a Week

AS LITTLE AS 50¢ A WEEK

Eighty-four of the watches shown in the sketches above—Forty for the ladies—Forty-four for the men—Six-jeweled movements—Guaranteed timekeepers—Offered more for the sake of the advertisement than for any other reason. While they last you can buy one for Twelve-Forty-Five—Take one for half a dollar—Pay the balance as may be most convenient for you.

Railway Watches:
Hamiltons
Elgins
Walthams
Illinois

All are sold at the Burnett Stores at the cash prices on the Burnett Budget Plan—take any one for a dollar—pay a dollar or so a week.

Burnett Bros.

457 State St.—Salem