

SHIRES-WILSON FIGHT SCHEDULED FOR JANUARY

LANDIS NOT TO INTERFERE IN PLAYERS BOUT

Chicago (AP)—There will be several things new under the sun when Arthur (The Great) Shires, White Sox first baseman, meets Lewis R. "Hack" Wilson, Cubs outfielder, here next month to determine the pugilistic world's series. Both fighters will appear in dress suits before the show and autograph programs for their admirers.

Babe Ruth may act as referee.

And Promoter Jimmy Mulren, proverbial hard-luck boy of the profession, may line his pockets with a goodly sum.

The battle is expected to determine the boxing supremacy of the two baseball clubs and will bring into the open many fans whose pocketbooks usually remained untapped after the world series.

The fight already has set one record—that for a purse offered an athlete who never has fought a professional battle. Hack is to get $10,000 and $10,000 training expenses. Shires will work on a percentage basis.

Arthur, in addition to a couple of decisions over Lena Blackburne, erstwhile manager of the White Sox last Monday won a professional encounter here from Dan Daly, a mysterious fighter from Cleveland. Daly was put down and out in eleven seconds.

Wilson is like Shires in that he has obtained considerable notoriety from impromptu bouts. In 1928 he invaded a box in Wrigley Field and snatched down Edward Young, a milk wagon driver, whose caustic remarks irritated him. Last year Hack entered the dugout of the Cincinnati Reds and took a swing at Pitcher Ray Kolp. Later in the day he flattened Pete Donohue, another Red hurler.

Hanley Pinched For Speeding; Later Released

Wilmette, Ill. (AP)—A policeman Friday arrested Dick Hanley, for speeding.

Hanley, tried to explain who he was, football coach at Northwestern University, and all that.

"So you're Dick Hanley, eh?" said the policeman. "Well, I'm Knute Rockne. Let's go over to the station house and meet Fielding H. Yost, Dr. Clarence D. Spears and the boys."

At the station house Police Chief William Brautigan recognized the coach and released him.

"Humph," snorted the arresting officer. "If Northwestern had gone as fast on the gridiron as their coach did in that automobile, it might have got somewhere."

SOUTH PROPOSES PLAYER SUBSIDY

Baton Rouge La. (AP)—The southern conference Saturday had before it a resolution proposing an "open and understood" arrangement for the support of athletes in the colleges and universities of the south.

The resolution was presented at a round table discussion lasting until past midnight by Major W. H. McKellar, faculty chairman of athletics at the university of the south.

Major McKellar proposed that each institution of the southern conference be privileged to award scholarships or an emolument otherwise designated to athletes, the sum to be issued by voucher by university authorities sufficient to cover the athlete's college fees, text books, board, lodging and fraternity or other college organization dues; that the universities keep a complete and public record of such assistance; that no other funds should be received by the beneficiary save from his parents or other legal guardian, and that the receipt of such other funds from outside sources should result in the student being dismissed, or in his failure of the institution to do that, the expulsion of the institution from the conference.

McLarnin Beats Ruby In Decisive Manner; Fields Next On List

New York (UP)—Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, B. C., stood out Saturday as a truly welterweight champion of the world, after his decisive knockout victory over Ruby Goldstein of New York in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

McLarnin flattened Goldstein after 52 seconds of fighting in the second round, having sent his opponent to the floor twice previously with Jackie Fields, present holder of the 147 pound title, tossed out of the ring for poor showing against Gorilla Jones up in Boston Friday night. McLarnin looms as a real threat for titular honors.

The little "baby faced" Irishman had everything necessary to defeat Goldstein, including two ready fists which quickly pummeled the pride of New York's eastside into submission. Goldstein was accorded one of the greatest ovations ever given a fighter in a New York ring when he crawled through the ropes, but the cheers turned to jeers as Ruby wilted under the two fluted attacks of his eager opponent.

The New Yorker, weighing 144½, had had a pound advantage in weight. McLarnin quickly demonstrated that he was Goldstein's master, forcing the fighting and winning the first round by a wide margin. Towards the end of the opening session, Ruby went down for a count of four, seemingly without having taken a really hard punch.

The second and decisive round did not last long. McLarnin came out confidently, and after maneuvering Goldstein into position, shot over a right which dropped Ruby through the ropes. The chances are that Goldstein never would have come back into the ring had he not been shored.

As it was McLarnin swarmed all over him with both hands flying head and body, and a right to the jaw finally sent the New Yorker down for the long count.

SILVERTON CARD IS BIG SUCCESS

Clary Campbell won a Johnson won over Wilbanks in three rounds; Rudisshover knocked out Sandberg; while Jorgensen won from Williams by a knockout. Webb and Brodie were both disqualified because of physical ailments.

A battle royal between four youngsters was a feature of the evening. Each boy was outfitted with one glove and a rattle and had his eyes blindfolded. At the stroke of the gong they went to it. The affair was called a draw.

The next card will be held some time in January.

A great deal of interest is being manifest in volleyball this year and it is expected play will be resumed with vigor shortly after the first of January.

DRAGER, DUFFY SHOW WELL ON BEAVER SQUAD

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis—With practically the whole squad from last year back in uniform and hard at work, Oregon Agricultural college prospects in the coming basketball race are exceedingly bright.

Coach A. T. (Slats) Gill has a tough job on his hands in picking men from the wealth of material available. There are numerous seasoned men from last year's freshman team who are making the varsity step to maintain their status.

Salem is well-represented on the Orange quintet this year having two men on the squad, Robert Drager and Tom Duffy.

Drager is one of last year's veterans holding down a guard position and will undoubtedly be one of the key men on the team this year. His scrappy style of playing will do much for the team morale and also in garnering points.

Duffy, a recruit from last year's freshman squad is showing up well at guard and had plenty of experience at the pivot position on the rook squad.

The squad will go on the road during Christmas vacation, playing eight non-conference games with teams in northern California and the bay region around San Francisco.

The Oregon Agricultural college games in the Pacific coast conference are as follows:

January 10, Idaho at Corvallis.
January 13, W. S. C. at Corvallis.
January 14, Idaho at Corvallis.
January 17, W. S. C. at Corvallis.
January 17, Washington at Seattle.
January 18, Washington at Seattle.
January 27, Washington at Corvallis.
January 28, Washington at Corvallis.
January 29, Washington at Corvallis.
February 1, Oregon at Eugene.
February 7, Oregon at Corvallis.
February 8, Oregon at Eugene.
February 14, Idaho at Moscow.
February 15, Idaho at Moscow.
February 17, W. S. C. at Pullman.
February 18, W. S. C. at Pullman.
February 22, Oregon at Corvallis.

WOODBURN GRID SQUAD HONORED

Woodburn—Woodburn's annual football banquet, honoring the players, was held at the high school Thursday evening.

Superintendent V. D. Bain acted as master of ceremonies for the occasion and introduced Adrian Scholer, Lowell Gribble, Murel Nehl, Lewis Radcliffe, Emerson Baldwin, Kenneth Gillanders, Charles Bartos and Lavern Scholer, all of whom gave very interesting speeches. Coach Ray O. Wolf gave his impression of the team as a whole and as individuals. Doctor Gerald B. Smith, an ardent supporter of the team, Assistant Coach Gilbert Odie and Wilmot Courtney, athletic manager, also gave interesting talks.

The meal was prepared and served by the domestic science students and the boys were well pleased both with the quantity and quality of the menu.

The Woodburn team has completed an unusually successful season, having been undefeated in the seven games played. Although twelve men on the squad, ten of whom were regulars, will graduate this year, next year's prospects seem fairly bright with a reserve squad
