

RELIEF CORPS HAS ELECTION HUBBARD HALL

Hubbard—Rusk No. 39. Women's Relief Corps, held election at the recent corps meeting. Mrs. Elizabeth Priddy was elected senior vice president; Mrs. Nina Rice, junior vice president. Mrs. Ella Stauffer was elected treasurer and Mrs. Sarah Colvin, chaplain. Mrs. Lucy Sewell was elected as guard. The president and the conductor will be elected at the next corps meeting. Delegates to the department convention in Eugene to be held in June are Mrs. Maud Biggood and Mrs. Edna Mack with Mrs. Ella Stauffer and Mrs. Elizabeth Grim as alternates.

The usual Christmas baskets will be prepared for distribution, the work being in charge of Mrs. Susan Ott, Mrs. Ella Stauffer and Mrs. Edna Mack. The corps members are busy making chair cushions for the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg.

The attendance was not as large as usual due to the stormy weather and also to sickness. Mrs. Edna Mack, president, who has been ill for some time, has recovered sufficiently to preside over the meeting.

SISTERHOOD MEETS AT WOODBURN HOME

Woodburn—Mrs. H. F. Butterfield entertained Chapter J of the P. E. O. sisterhood at her home on the Pacific highway Thursday evening. The rooms were very attractive with a profusion of pyracantha and cotoneaster which with their bright red berries gave a seasonal atmosphere. The Christmas story was read by Rev. Katherine Powell and a resume of the chapter on Egypt from the "Globe Trotter's Diary" was given by Mrs. Wayne B. Gill. Roll call was answered with current topics, some of which were extremely interesting. Refreshments were served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. George Landon and Mrs. Fred G. Evenden.

BOOST PLAYGROUND BY PLAY AND SOCIAL

Labish Center—A play, "Kidnapping Betty," was presented by the Labish Center school last week. Following the entertainment a box social was held at which time W. F. Woody, auctioneer from Salem, conducted the sale. A large crowd was present and the proceeds of the sale will be used for playground equipment.

FOUND NEAR ALBANY

Albany—The Chevrolet car belonging to M. L. Edwards, 723 Pacific street, Portland, which was stolen Thursday night, was found south of Albany in the ditch, Friday. Officers believe that whoever stole the car appropriated the new Buick sedan of Thomas Kengray at Tangent Friday, as his car was stolen from his garage. No trace of it had been found late Saturday.

OPENS AUCTION HOUSE

Silverton—W. J. Hatch of McClaine street has leased the empty Pettyjohn building on South Water street where he will open up an auction house and will hold his first auction sale on Saturday, December 21.

SOCIAL SCHEDULED FOR M'KEE SCHOOL

Woodburn—Pupils of the McKee school, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Lillian Shaner, are planning a basket social and program which will be held December 19 at the schoolhouse. An interesting program is promised, which will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The proceeds will be used to buy new furnishings for the schoolroom.

RAINY DAY BRAVED BY WOODBURN WCTU

Woodburn—The Woodburn W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. O. T. Allen on Wilson street Friday afternoon and in spite of the fact that it was Friday the 13th and very stormy there was a good attendance. In the absence of the president, Mrs. A. H. Dean, Mrs. C. J. Rice, the vice president, occupied the chair. Devotions were led by Mrs. Henry Hanson. A letter of thanks for canned fruit donated was read from the Children's Farm home. Fruit for this purpose may be left at the home of Mrs. James H. Livesay.

Musical numbers were given by Miss Helen Woodfin, Miss Elizabeth Swiger and Miss Marcie Love, and a reading by Miss Charlotte Mae Livesay. Mrs. Jeanette Zimmerle read a list of 12 things under prohibition for which we should be thankful and Mrs. Waldron read an excerpt from a speech by a worker in England. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. D. H. Hawley, Miss Woodfin and Miss Swiger.

DINNER IS GIVEN BIRTHDAY GUESTS

Mt. Angel—Mrs. George Willis, Jr. was hostess at dinner Sunday evening honoring her husband and her sister, Mrs. Laurel Lamb, on the occasion of their birthdays.

A big birthday cake centered the table, and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Willis, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Lamb, Mrs. Dorothy Mohring and son Otto, Mrs. H. C. Hoffman and family, Myra, Edie, Mable, Harold, Melvin, and Kenneth, Martin Rehm, Miss Bertha Elchoff and the Misses Viola, Irene, Leona and Florence Willis.
