Standing Committees For Woodburn Forum Selected; Judge Belt Dinner Talker

Woodburn—A splendid turkey dinner was enjoyed by the Woodburn chamber of commerce at St. Luke's hall Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The dinner was served a half hour early in order that the members might attend "The Madcap Queen," presented by the woman's club at the high school at 8:30 the same evening.

The new president, W. H. Baillie, called the meeting to order and started proceedings with a pep which promises much for the new year. The speaker of the evening, Justice Harry Belt, of the state supreme court, was introduced by Eugene Courtney, who told of the splendid work done by Judge Belt as star pitcher of the Yamhill baseball nine in boyhood days and other interesting incidents of their long time friendship.

Judge Belt took as his subject, "Public Opinion and the Courts," and delivered one of the most instructive and interesting addresses ever heard in Woodburn. The speaker touched upon the question that has been asked since before Columbus discovered America, "What's wrong with the Courts," and after telling of some of the customs of the old days, gave many examples of technical rules and stated that criminal procedure can only be improved by arousing public opinion. He also stated that the courts should not be condemned as an institution because some judges are warped in his judgment and showed the advantages of abolishing the jury system. According to the speaker, America, which is considered the most lawless nation, has the most laws, and excels in law making and law breaking. He advocated the repeal of unjust laws rather than non-enforcement. He addressed was given close attention by the large crowd, and a rising vote of thanks was extended to him at the conclusion.

During the business session President Baillie appointed the following standing committees: roads and highways, Eugene Courtney; John P. Hunt, John Ramage, all of whom were reappointed; schools and education, H. P. Butterfield, C. J. Eppy and V. D. Bain; Boy Scout committee, reappointed, Blaine McCord, Elburn T. Sims, Lee Withers, Ray Glatt, C. P. Hansen; national guard committee, Keith Powell, Elburn T. Sims, H. M. Austin; membership, George Dorr, Gerald B. Smith, C. P. Hansen; labor committee, P. L. Love, Lee Withers, Ivan C. Beers.

John P. Hunt, chairman of the "Turkey Day" committee gave a brief report of the success of the affair and asked for further time as all tickets calling for prizes had not been turned in. This committee will give a full report later.

Dr. Gerald Smith, chairman of the community Christmas tree committee reported the erection and illumination of the tree at a cost of less than $10.

A letter was read from Mrs. Eugene Moshberger, chairman of the Christmas seal sale committee for this district, asking the club to purchase seals and on motion $3 was drawn from the treasury for this purpose.

Leutenant Sims announced a dance to be given on Christmas night by Howitzer company at the Woodburn armory, the proceeds to be used for equipment for the armory. President Baillie announced the free matinee of Santa Claus' Life and Home to be given at the Bungalow theater Saturday afternoon at 2:30 for the children of this vicinity through the courtesy of the Capital Journal. F. G. Eversen, C. P. Hansen and Manager T. C. Poorman.

Eugene Courtney gave a report of a meeting held in Salem by the Baby Chick association honoring Jess Hansen of Corvallis, who won high honors with his 10 white leg-horn hens in a recent egg laying contest, and stated that in a flock of 1200 hens Hansen has 110 who are 300 egg producers.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the meeting was W. G. Hardy, Harold Aspinwall and George Becker. For the next meeting George Keys, A. J. Beck and C. J. Eppy were appointed.
