Our January 1930 Sale

Starting just a few days before the close of the Old Year gives to every shopper the long awaited JANUARY SALE. This sale, because of the prolonged fair weather season, finds us with more merchandise than we ordinarily have on hand. We don't want to carry it over and consequently a close inspection of our prices will reveal greater and more numerous reductions than ever made in previous JANUARY SALES. Our entire stock is new and up-to-date and we invite your attention to these offerings—only a portion of those which you will find in the store
