

HA YESVILLE QUARTERLY CONVENTION SET SUNDAY

MIDDLE GROVE WILL BE HOST FOR DISTRICT

Auburn — Middle Grove will be host for the 14th quarterly convention of the Hayessville Sunday school district Sunday with representatives of each of the 14 Sunday schools in the district expected to attend. The theme for the convention is "Peace" with the scripture text Luke 2-14.

William Colford will be the song leader for the senior program while Mrs. W. F. Scharf will be the leader for the junior division. Officers of the district are W. E. Savage, president; G. O. Looney, vice-president and Louise Keeler, secretary-treasurer.

Both divisions of the convention meet at 10 o'clock with a basket dinner at noon. The afternoon services open with song service at 1:15, followed by roll call and the business session.

For the morning session of the senior division, devotionals will be led by the Hayessville Sunday school and Homer Lette giving an illustrated review. A special feature will be provided by the Pratum Menonite Sunday school and special music will be offered. In the afternoon the Eldredge Sunday school has charge of special music and Rev. W. Earl Cochran of Salem will give the principal address, "The Prince of Peace." Special music by the Clear Lake Sunday school and the Keizer Sunday school and an address by Prof. Matthews, of

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY CONCLUDE THE PROGRAM

Mrs. A. A. Lee will take charge of the "Campfire in the Congo" for the morning program of the junior division with the Keizer Sunday school providing special music. "The Christmas Story" by the Hazel Green Sunday school, special music by the Eldredge Sunday school and a talk to the children on peace by Cota A. Beardsley complete the afternoon program.

Sunday schools in the district have reported to the secretary on enrollment and average attendance as follows:

Pratum Menonite, 120 and 181 with 36 on the cradle roll; Hazel Green, 24 and 32; Clear Lake, 29 and 45; Pratum Methodist, 40 and 55; Keizer, 37 and 40; Labish Center (senior banner) 23 and 30; Brooks Union, 24 and 26; Salem Japanese (junior banner) 50 and 39; Hayessville, 20 and 14; Eldredge (no report); Middle Grove, 25 average and Chemawa and Fruitland, no reports.

FORMER SILVERTON RESIDENT CALLED

Silverton — Word was received Monday noon of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran, who passed away at her home in Bakersfield Friday afternoon. Her two sisters, Mrs. John Dick, Mrs. Oscar Dick, her brother, Emil (Doc) Diechty, and his two nephews, Henry and Elmer Dick, started a short time later by auto for Bakersfield.

Mrs. Cochran will be remembered here by her many old-time acquaintances as Elizabeth Leachy, who with her parents lived about three miles southwest of the city.

HAZEL GREEN'S SCHOOL FILLED FOR EXERCISES

Hazel Green — The local school was crowded to the door and an enthusiastic audience applauded each number on the attractive Christmas program presented by the scholars and various other groups. The interior was decorated with holly wreaths and festoons and a gorgeous Christmas tree occupying one corner.

The program included the following numbers:

Song by primary scholars; playlet, "Mother Decides"; Marvin Van Cleave, Bernice Lehman, Mazine Wolf and Melvin Lehman.

A play, "Christmas Spirit," Lucille Dunigan took the part of the "Christmas Spirit," piano accompaniments by Hazel Woelke and Charlotte Van Cleave, and cornet soloist, Leonard Falst; five helpers, Elmer Johnson, Victor Williams,

INDEPENDENCE JUNIOR CHORUS GIVEN PRAISE

Independence — The Christmas program was given by the juvenile chorus of the Methodist church school and supplemented by the members of the Epworth league.

The program opened with a piano solo by Helen Mallard, followed by a duet by Elva and Gray McConnell. The chorus marched in and sang several songs in tableau.

Beryl Kelly, sang a Christmas number which was followed by the play "Good Will to Men on Christmas in the Williams Home," by the Epworth League. The cast included: Mr. Williams, Louie Hershberger; Mrs. Williams, Ernestine Smiley; Grandmother, Blanche Baker; Bob Williams, Melvin Kelley; Mary Williams, Cora Bullock. Singers who visited the home were Blanche Johnson, Elizabeth Baker, Maxine Carey, Hope Hershberger, Laveta Bullock. The pastor, E. G. Ranton, called at the home.

Miss Vera Johnson had charge of the choruses, assisted by Miss Naomi Hewitt at the piano.

A free-will offering was received for missions.

Each of the children present received a package of Christmas candy and a skipping rope. Members of the juvenile choir were Joyce and Constance Johnson, Frances Hanna, Jean Ellen Irwin, Beryl Kelly, Elva McConnell, Gray McConnell, Doris Mathison, Joy Hershberger, Letha Coquette, Kathryn and Mildred Hartman, Delbert Taylor, Faith Hershberger, Daisy McConnell, Mary Louise Carey, and Vivian Soden.

SCIO MASONIC LODGE ELECTS

Scio — At the regular communication of Scio Masonic lodge the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Jack Brock, W. M.; Ed Holland, S. W.; Fred Sturges, J. W.; J. S. Sticha, secretary; E. D. Myers, treasurer; Dr. A. G. Prill, trustee.

Sticha and Myers were re-elected, having held their respective offices for a number of years.

Installation of the new officers will take place at the Masonic hall Friday evening, December 27 for Masons and their wives. A banquet will be served by the Ladies Aid society at 8:30 o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall, will precede the installation ceremonies.

STAYTON PRIMARY CLASS ENTERTAINED

Stayton — The basement of the Methodist church has been given a coat of paint inside, and Mrs. Harry Rowe, who has charge of primary department of the Bible school, arranged a party for several of the young classes Monday afternoon, with decorations and treats in keeping with Christmas. She was assisted by Mrs. Herbert Bennett and Mrs. Artie Mack.

MARY MILLER LAID TO REST

Woodburn — Mrs. Mary Kathryn Miller, 61, died at her home back of Horseshoe Park near Woodburn at 8:40 o'clock December 21 after a lingering illness of five months. Mrs. Miller was born in Walsburg, Wash. on January 20, 1862, where she lived until three years of age. Then with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Goodman, she moved to Roseburg where she grew to womanhood.

She was married to Jack Miller of Spokane, Wash. in 1907. In 1924 Mr. and Mrs. Miller came to Woodburn and settled on a farm about three miles north of town where they have since resided. Surviving are the husband and two brothers, R. J. Goodman of Canby, Ore., and A. H. Goodman of Oakland, Ore., and a number of other relatives.

Mrs. Albert Morris, east of Woodburn, is a cousin.

Funeral services were held at the residence on Monday morning with Rev. Henry G. Hanson of Woodburn, Presbyterian church officiating. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koenig. Interment took place in the Hubbard cemetery.

BRUSH CREEK'S EXERCISE HELD SCHOOL MONDAY

Brush Creek — The Christmas program given at Brush Creek school Monday evening was very well attended both by local people and by visitors from Bethany and Evergreen. The schoolhouse was decorated in Christmas greenery and a large Christmas tree was placed in the front of the school room. Candy, nuts and oranges were passed to all those attending the program.

The main feature of the program was the play, "The Christmas Glimmer." This consisted of the following characters: Mr. Blake, Lyle Krug; Mrs. Blake, Charlotte Goplerud; Grandfather Blake, Milo Grace; Mable Blake, Marjory Hillman; James Blake, Robert Moe; Mrs. Metcalf, Vivian Fness; Dorothy Metcalf, Oriet Mason; Jerome Metcalf, Walter Goplerud; Della the maid, Ruth Maurer; Mrs. O'Grady, the washerwoman; Juanita Moe; Willie O'Grady, Meri Grace; Mike O'Grady, Jordan Moe; Denny Dunn, Harlan Moe; Lucy Lindon, the crippled girl, Borghild Underdahl.

Other numbers on the program included recitations by Donna Krug, Juanita Moe, Meri Grace and Jordan Moe; piano solo, by Walter Goplerud, and songs by girls of the school.

Shaw — High mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church at midnight Christmas eve. The public was invited to attend.

SIX COUPLES ARE FREED BY COURT

Albany — Six default divorce decrees were handed down by Judge L. H. McMahon in circuit court Tuesday to Alice M. from Clarence E. Nordyke; Claire Frances from Eric Milton Leever; Ralph from Cora Blair; Inez P. from Oscar Jensen; Bessie M. from Percy C. Miller; Willis E. from Hazel E. Brown.

HUBBARD HAS ATTRACTIONS

Hubbard — The various churches are featuring Christmas programs this week. Sunday the Congregational Sunday school gave an appropriate program at 8 o'clock at the church. The church was well filled with interested parents and friends. After the program a treat was given to the members of the Sunday school.

Monday evening the Methodist church held their program with a great variation of talent. Assisting the members of the Sunday school was the glee club from the high school. All the children and young people received the customary treat after the program.

The Menonite churches held their program Wednesday evening. As is usual with this organization they feature singing without accompaniment. The chorus work, quartette, trios are well prepared so that the voices blend harmoniously.

LEE BROWN HOME
Stayton — Lee Brown, who attends school at Eugene, is spending the holiday season with his mother, Mrs. Martha Brown.
