Christmas Dance Is Brilliant

Quite the most brilliant event of the Yuletide season for the younger set was the formal dance Christmas night in Castilian hall, with Mrs. R. L. White and members of her senior ballet and tap classes as hostesses for the event. The large ballroom was unusually attractive with glittering Christmas trees and evergreens, making a lovely setting for the formal gowns of the maids and younger matrons.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. White were patrons and patronesses for this gay affair. The feature of the evening was an adagio dance by Miss Grace Day and George Birell.

Mrs. Russell Bonesteel, chairman of the dance committee, was assisted by Miss Mary Jane Lau, Miss Phyllis Day and Mrs. Carl Armstrong. The feature dance was arranged by Mrs. Armin Berger.

In the invitational list were Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Evelyn Syk, Miss Ruth Gillette, Miss Annabelle Rosenthal, Miss Isabelle George, Miss Nell Thibelen, Miss Eunice Robertson, Miss Pauline Grauel of Portland, Miss Edith Findley, Miss Helen Darby, Miss Leah Ross, Miss Sally Lansing, Miss Mary Jane Lau, Miss Rosalie Nisbaum, Miss Velma Emmett, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Carolyn Hadden, Miss Margaret Stevens, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Marian Bretz, Miss Madette Heenan, Miss Lillian Demytt, Miss Lillian Scott, Miss Ardath Young, Miss Dolores Mills, Miss Adrienne Jensen, Miss Katherine Earle, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Charlotte Brown, Miss Julia Creech, Miss Claudia Plank, Miss Grace Day, Miss Marion Johnson, Miss Constance Kreis, Miss Louise Cramer, Miss Kathryn Rowe, Miss Betty Vaughn, Miss Eleanor Wright.

After a wedding trip they will make their home in Klamath Falls where Dr. Adler is a practicing physician.

TO WED PUBLISHER'S SON

Helen Mitchell Frampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Craig Frampton of St. Louis, is the bride-to-be of Van Lear Black, Jr., son of the publisher of the Baltimore Sun. They are to be married January 20.

Miss Holt To Entertain With Party

One of the delightful informal events for the entertainment of the younger set during the holidays will be the Christmas party with which Miss Virginia Holt will entertain a small group of friends in her home on Oak street on Tuesday night. The sparkling Christmas tree and an exchange of gifts will be the main features of the evening.

Miss Holt's guests will include Miss Helen Olson, Miss Julia Creech, Miss Katherine Coffey, Miss Kathryn Laughridge, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Yvonne Smith, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Virginia Sisson, Miss Harriet Brigham, Miss Ellen Hemenway, Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Ruth Pick and Miss Myra Bell.

Golden Wedding Observed Monday

Monday evening, December 23, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Brown were pleasantly surprised at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ruth E. Swart, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. The Swart home was decked with golden novelties, yellow chrysanthemums and yellow tapers.

A feature of the surprise party was a musical program given by the grandchildren, Ruth and Mildred Brown of Des Moines, Ia., Beverly and Velma Swart and Bobby Brown of Salem, and Berta A. Brown, who played the part of the minister.

Among those present were Mrs. Belle Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Minto, Jack Minto, Mrs. O. W. Moon, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. A. Winter, E. W. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bailey, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Hedda S. Swart.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brown and family of Des Moines, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Annis Grosland of Seattle, Washington.

The honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, received a number of gifts and a shower of cards from their friends in Des Moines, Ia., their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delaney entertained the operating engineering staff of the Oregon-Washington Water Service company at a Christmas dinner party, given in the Oriental room of the hotel Marion Saturday evening, December 21.

The table was beautifully decorated in an appropriate Christmas color scheme, the favors being small Christmas packages. Santa Claus made several calls during the dinner and Mr. and Mrs. Delaney were presented with a large basket of poinsettias.

Those present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gridley, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sieford, Mr. and Mrs. G. Amer Stolp, Oscar Blumberg, J. M. Rands, Thomas Small, R. H. Corey, and the host and hostess.

Dinner Celebrates Two Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Forrest and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Owensbey of Fruitland celebrated their respective wedding anniversaries Sunday with a dinner at the Forrest home on Ferry street. The occasion was the 45th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Owensbey and the 30th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Forrest. Miss Leona Giles and Russell Forrest, both of Cascadia, were out-of-town guests for the dinner and week-end at the Forrest home.

Covers for the anniversary dinner were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Owensbey, T. G. Harris, J. H. Mittleer of Stayton, Miss Giles, Russell Forrest, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest.

Silverton Couple Wed Christmas Day

Silverton — Miss Isla Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallis Frye, and Robert Goetz, son of Superintendent and Mrs. Robert Goetz of McClaine street, were married at the home of the bride's parents in the Geiser addition Christmas afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Bennett, ex-pastor of the local Christian church officiated.

The bridal couple were attended by the bride's sister, Mrs. Inez Frye Wagg of San Francisco, and Roland Curry of Salem.

After a wedding and Christmas dinner the newlyweds left for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to West Fir where Mr. Goetz is employed.

Independence Man Wed in the East

Independence — The many friends of E. N. Lindquist were delightfully surprised to hear of his marriage to Miss Elza Anderson, daughter of Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson of Missoula, Mont., on Sunday, December 22.

They were married at the home of the bride and left immediately for Chicago where they will visit over the Christmas holidays, with the groom's parents, and return to Oregon early in January to make their home here.

H. R. Steiner, of Missoula, formerly of this city, was best man to the groom.

Mr. Lindquist is a very popular young man of this city, coming here from Chicago two years ago and has made many friends, who will be pleased to welcome him and his bride. Mrs. Lindquist is an accomplished musician.

Miss Lucille Emmons, teaching in the high school at Lockport, Illinois, is a guest at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons, during the Christmas holidays. Miss Lulu Heist, of Portland, is also a guest at the Emmons home during the holidays.

STATE'S WARDS ENJOY HOLIDAY

As usual the Christmas holiday was well observed in all the state institutions.

A Christmas tree was placed in each ward at the state hospital and a Santa Claus distributed gifts. A tree for the hospital staff and employees was set up in the dining room.

There was no labor at the state penitentiary on Christmas day. Frank Blich as usual furnished a motion picture entertainment for the inmates in the morning and afternoon. An elaborate Christmas dinner was served.

A Christmas party was given for the dozen or so pupils of the state school for the deaf who did not go home for the holidays. Gifts were given all and a dinner was served at noon.

A tree and Christmas party were the entertainment last Friday night for the inmates of the state school for the feeble-minded, with gifts for all of them. A dinner was served Christmas day with roast goose as the piece-de-resistance. The play "Simba" is to be shown at the institution Friday night of this week and next Sunday there is to be a program by the Benner family.

An entertainment and program put on by the child inmates of the institution was the diversion on Christmas eve at the state tuberculosis hospital. The animal motion picture "Simba" was shown Wednesday night. Visitors at the hospital were numerous on Christmas day.

The five pupils at the state school for the blind who did not go home for the holidays were all recipients of Christmas gifts and a special dinner was served.

A dinner, program and the receipt of gifts was the order of affairs at the state industrial school for girls.

PARENT-TEACHERS WILL SPONSOR PLAY

Scio — The December meeting of the Scio Parent-Teachers association at the high school auditorium was well attended and a good program was appreciated by the audience.

Grade school pupils furnished several pleasing numbers, including readings, dialogues and musical selections. Riley Shelton gave an address on "Old Schools and New" that was both instructive and entertaining. A lunch was served at the close of the program.

The association voted to sponsor a play at a future date, to be presented by the dramatic department of Albany college.

Pratum — Those home from Portland Bible Institute for the holiday vacation are Harvey DeVries, Miss Leona DeVries and Miss Grace Kleen.

RUTH CROSS Writes A THRILLING ROMANCE Of The West

The mystic spell of the western mountains has called to the author of "The Golden Cocoon" and "The Unknown Goddess," and Ruth Cross has written a story of love and adventure in the Sierras.

Rocky slopes and rugged peaks become the scene of dramatic struggle, with the colorful characters of the hills clashing in a contest for progress against the barriers of nature and the suspicions, intrigues and emotions of men. Suddenly the combatants find themselves battling for a human prize.

THREE TABLE CARD PARTY IS ENJOYED

Scio — Three tables of players spent the afternoon with Mrs. James Chrony at "500." Mrs. Eunice Bartu made high score during the afternoon, the low score having been held by Mrs. Alta Rodgers. Mrs. Leone Ray received a handsome guest prize. The president of the club, Mrs. Maud Roadarmel, was presented with a small golden gavel by the hostess.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Rose.

The next meeting will be held January 7 at the home of Mrs. F. A. Gallegly, who, with Mrs. Holtzen as joint hostess, will serve a 1 o'clock luncheon for the club.

A QUESTION OF HONOR

Ruth Cross develops the vivid story of Anne Wilmot, who comes to Leon Morse's mountain lodge resigned to marrying the railroad builder—because he is wealthy. When she meets Scott Glenn, the young engineer who dares defy Morse, however, she turns against the forces of family, caste and destiny.
